

Celebrity News: Ben Affleck & GF Ana De Armas Join California Black Lives Matter Protests

By Diana Iscenko

In the latest celebrity news, Ben Affleck and Ana De Armas participated in the #BlackLivesMatter protests in Venice, Calif. last Tuesday. The celebrity couple was spotted holding signs that read “Black Lives Matter” and “Save First Baptist Church of Venice.” Affleck and De Armas showed their support of the historic black church built in 1910 that faces the possibility of demolition. The famous couple are only two of the many Hollywood stars who are speaking out against the recent death of George Floyd.

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck and his new girlfriend are joining forces to protest racism. What are some ways to support a worthy cause with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Activism is important and there are countless causes that need your support. Find out what topics you're passionate about! If you're not sure where to start or how to support these causes with your partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Protest in your city: No matter what cause is close to your heart, there's sure to be an upcoming demonstration for it. You and your partner can attend these together. You two can also spend the day before preparing for them together: making signs and packing the necessary supplies.

Celebrity Couple News: Ben Affleck Is 'Very Supportive' of Girlfriend Ana De Armas

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity couple news, Ben Affleck and Ana de Armas are still going strong! Their new relationship took off after costarring in their upcoming psychological thriller, Deep Water. According to UsMagazine.com, these two are quarantined together and enjoying exploring their feelings for each other. We hope to continue to see more of this blossoming relationship!

In celebrity couple news, this new duo is happy and quarantining together. What are some ways to know you're ready for a serious relationship with your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes finding the one can be a challenging journey. If you're unsure about seriously committing to a new partner, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. You see a future: If you look at your new partner and can envision a life together, this person is worth making a commitment to. Building a future with someone is a special part of life that every couple wants to commit to, but finding the right person can be a challenge. Be sure you are moving at your own pace and taking things slow, as these next steps will be huge for your relationship.

3. You've got babies on the brain: If you have baby fever like never before, and keep viewing this person as a potential father for your child, maybe that's a sign he is worth committing to. Seeing this person in that light should speak a lot to their values, morals, and what they care about in life. If you are both on the same page with your feelings towards each other, take this next step and commit. You never know where it can lead, so go into it confidently and put your best foot forward.

Celebrity News: Ben Affleck Had Breakdown While Filming Scene About Broken Marriage

By Ellie Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Ben Affleck was caught in a deeply emotional moment while filming his latest flick, The Way Back. According to UsMagazine.com, the actor felt parallels between his character's struggles with addiction and his own personal life. Affleck has openly acknowledged his battles with sobriety and how they have affected his career, children, and life with ex-wife Jennifer Garner.

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck is experienced some emotions about his past personal trauma while at work. What are some ways to function at work when you're going through tough times in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Every relationship goes through challenges and each person will handle them differently. But when you start to feel those struggles affect your work life, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Separate the two: Take time in the morning to reflect on your relationship and the struggles you are currently facing. Give yourself a few moments to really think about the problems you are having with your partner. Once you are finished, channel your energy solely into your work for the day and do your best to keep your focus locked in on it. By separating the two, you are distracting yourself and productively redirecting your efforts.

Celebrity Exes Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner Have 'Underlying Tension' Coparenting

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, celebrity exes Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner have kept an amicable coparenting relationship amidst “underlying tension.” According to UsWeekly.com, Garner has high expectations for Ben, and it’s difficult for him to live up to it, sometimes. However, the couple has agreed to keep their three children out of their “former problems.”

These celebrity exes work at a civil relationship, but they still have tension when it comes to coparenting. What are some ways to work together on parenting?

Cupid's Advice:

Whatever brought about the divorce, coparenting can be an absolute nightmare if not fleshed out correctly. You're trying to keep the peace with the kids, but it's hard when you and your ex are not seeing eye-to-eye. If you're having trouble keeping the conflict down and putting the children first, don't worry! Cupid has some parenting advice for those struggling to work together:

1. Communicate when you're in a good emotional place: When it comes to tension with an ex, it's important to take time to cool off. Keep calm, and put your emotions by the door. Keep the conversation about coparenting duties brief, informative, and respectful. You don't need more fuel for the fire.

2. Focus on the children: At the end of the day, it's what's best for the kids that should take priority over the divorce. Creating a new life and keeping a healthy family dynamic is way more important than outwardly battling with an ex. Find time, together, to figure out what would be best for your children before moving forward.

3. Find a support network for difficult times: Coparenting after a divorce can revolve around tensions after tensions. It's important for both of you to have someone to talk with when things have become more difficult in this department. Whether that be a friend, a religious leader, or even family, finding someone who helps you see clearly about both sides make such a difference in how you handle situations going forward.

New Celebrity Couple: Ben Affleck is Dating Katie Cherry

By Ahjané Forbes

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck found love with musician Katie Curry. According to UsMagazine.com, the new celebrity couple met on a dating app called “Raya.” Affleck, who recently went through a celebrity divorce from Jennifer Garner, has reportedly been seen with Curry at several events. A Hollywood Halloween party on October 26th was the last event at which they were spotted.

There’s a new celebrity couple to follow! What are some ways to know your new relationship has staying power?

Cupid’s Advice:

Dating is the trial period of a relationship. You’re in the process of getting to know each other and deciding whether or not you want to move forward. If you make things official with your partner, you're planning to be in the relationship for a solid period of time. However, it doesn't always work out that way. Cupid has some advice on how to know if your new relationship will last:

1. You were friends first: Getting to know each other is an important factor in any relationship. Having open communication can lead you in the right direction. Start by learning their likes and dislikes and what they want out of this relationship. If it starts at friends, it can always develop into more

Celebrity News: Jennifer Garner Has Found a 'True Partner' in John Miller

By Katie Sotack

In celebrity news, Jen and Ben are officially over. Jennifer Garner announced she has found solace with her new partner John Miller, a Cali Group CEO. After a hectic year divorcing Ben Affleck and supporting him through two stints in rehab, a source told UsMagazine.com, “John is the complete opposite of Ben. Jen feels like she’s finally found a true partner.” Both Garner and Miller are committed to keeping their relationship low-key as well as being successful co-parents to their kids from previous marriages.

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner feels like she's finally met her match. What are some ways to know you've met your "true partner"?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you just know you've found the one. Butterflies flutter in your gut, and your heart swells just looking at them. But, a true partner goes far beyond falling in love. Here are relationship tips to be sure your significant other is the one:

1. You want the same things: A partner should share your goals. When it comes to spending your life with someone, they should generally want the same things. If kids, a suburban house, and a steady career are in your future, love won't save your relationship with a kid-hating, apartment-renting, daredevil.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-up: Miley Cyrus & Liam Hemsworth Split Less Than 8 Months After Wedding

2. They support you: Of course not all goals need to be shared. However they should stand by your individual goals and root you on as you achieve them. For example, if you want to eat healthy and get fit your partner doesn't need to do the same. However a partner that undermines your attempts to stay on track by offering you ice cream every night is not trying to help you succeed.

3. You're both willing to work: Aside from goals, communication is the key to a healthy relationship. A partnership likely won't have to same communication styles. But true significant others should be willing to compromise and workshop communication for a healthy relationship.

Back On! Celebrity Couple: Ben Affleck & Lindsay Shookus Are Back Together After Split

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity couple and celebrity dating news, Ben Affleck and Lindsey Shookus are back together after a six-month split. The two called it quits around the same time that Affleck began a brief fling with Playboy model Shauna Sexton and later entered (and completed) a 40-day rehabilitation program for alcohol abuse. Now, Shookus and Affleck have picked up right where they left off, according to a source from UsMagazine.com. It's great to see that these two have decided to give their romance a second chance.

This celebrity couple wasn't ready to call it quits altogether. What are some reasons to give your ex another chance?

Cupid's Advice:

A split from your partner is a heartbreaking process, especially when neither one of you wanted one in the first place. Cupid has some solid reasons to give your ex a second chance:

1. You both want the same things: Splitting for a couple can be a good thing. It allows you some time away to reconsider what you really want—like kids and marriage. If you take some time apart and still want the same things after, then you should think about giving your ex a second chance.

2. You believe their apologies: It can be easy to give someone a shallow, "sorry!" to try to move on with your day. But if your ex has apologized to you and truly seem like they mean it, then it might be okay to give them a second chance. Take it slow and get some coffee, and hear them out if you're ready to.

Celebrity Exes: Jennifer Garner Will Support Estranged Husband Ben Affleck 'No Matter the Circumstances'

By Lauren Burczyk

In celebrity news, celebrity exes Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck remain on good terms despite his vices. An insider revealed to UsMagazine.com that Garner will continue to be there for Affleck whenever he needs her “no matter the circumstances.” After everything they’ve been through together, Garner plans to show continued support toward Affleck so that he can be a great father to their children. Garner's untiring loyalty to Affleck is for the sake of their children. Last month, she helped to stage an intervention and drove the 46-year old actor to a Malibu rehab center for his alcohol addiction.

These celebrity exes are the definition of "amicable split." What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

When going through a divorce or break-up of any kind, it can be difficult to remain civil with your ex. No matter how hard it may be, it is important to try to be as friendly as possible, especially if there are children involved. Cupid has some ideas:

1. Remember why you fell in love: Whenever you are going through a divorce or a tough split, it is important to keep in mind that you were once in love with this person and never forget what qualities made you fall in love in the first place. Keeping these desirable qualities about your ex close in thought will help you remain on good terms.

Celebrity Divorce: Ben Affleck & Jennifer Garner Reach Divorce Settlement

By Jessica DeRubbo

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner have reached a celebrity divorce settlement, according to UsMagazine.com. This comes after a long drawn out set of proceedings (almost three years), and it comes at a time when Affleck is currently in rehab recovering from alcohol addiction. The 46-year-old actor entered a treatment center last week to combat his addiction. Garner, his ex, drove him to the facility after an intervention. A final divorce settlement will be filed with the court after Affleck is released from rehab.

This celebrity divorce is almost official after long deliberations. What are some ways to keep your divorce proceedings civil?

Cupid's Advice:

When going through something so trying, it can be tough to keep things civil. But, you're always better off not fighting and getting heated, especially if there are kids involved. Cupid has some tips:

1. Always include a middle man: Whenever you're talking about your divorce, make sure there's someone there to mediate. There's a reason you're getting divorced, which probably means effective communication between the two of you is at an all-time low. Having someone else there to listen to both sides will be helpful.

Jennifer Garner Is 'Not Surprised' Ben Affleck Is Dating Playboy Model Shauna Sexton

By Rhodesia Williams

In latest celebrity news, Jennifer Garner isn't surprised that her ex, Ben Affleck, was spotted on a date with a Playboy model. The celebrity exes are all too familiar with this scenario. Affleck apparently has had his share of secret celebrity relationships even since his celebrity divorce to Garner. Unfortunately for Garner, Affleck isn't too worried about being discreet. Knowing Affleck won't change, all she can do is protect her kids as much as she can.

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck's ex isn't surprised he's dating a Playboy model, but she isn't pleased. What are some ways to cope with your ex moving on?

Cupid's Advice:

It's never easy to watch your ex move on, especially if you are always reminded of it. Cupid has some ways to cope with your ex moving on:

1. Think about it: So, your relationship didn't work out, but you can't seem to rationalize it. Make a list of the pros and cons of your relationship and be honest. While sometimes, the relationship could've ended out of the blue, but think about anything that could've been a warning signs. Sometimes taking some time to think can put this situation in perspective. Giving yourself time and being honest with yourself will help you to heal and move on.

Celebrity News: Jennifer Garner 'Doesn't Want' Her Kids Around Ben Affleck's GF Lindsay Shookus

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner says she doesn't want Ben Affleck's new celebrity relationship anywhere near their three children. Affleck, who is now dating Lindsay Shookus, went through a public celebrity break-up with Garner in 2015. They share three children together; however, Garner has her reasons for not wanting Shookus around her children.

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner is doing well post-split from Ben Affleck, but she doesn't want her kids around his new girlfriend. What are some ways to handle introducing your kids to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your children to a new partner can be difficult. Often times, your ex may have some requests and, to keep the peace, honoring them is a good idea. Cupid has some ideas on how to introduce your new partner to your kids:

1. Who wants ice cream?: Naturally, most kids love ice cream. A good ice breaker is taking the kids and your new partner out for ice cream. It is important to have the kids in an environment where they are comfortable and feel safe. While you may think they are focused on their sundaes, they will remember the outing and it will help associate your partner with a happy memory.

2. Introduce the idea: Sometimes the "what if" game helps. Slightly introducing the idea will help in finding out if your kids are okay with you having a new partner. Kids often object to their parent being with someone new because they want to see their biological parents together. Over time, suggesting that you may have a new partner will plant the seed needed and will help introduce your new partner.

3. Make it a party: If you and your ex are on good terms, it's a good idea for all adults involved to introduce your new partner. Your children seeing that you all are getting along and can co-exist will ease their minds. Naturally kids don't want to see their parents apart, so when introducing a new partner, you want your kids to feel comfortable. Having your ex back you up can only help the situation.

Celebrity News: Jennifer Garner and Kids Visit Ben Affleck In Hawaii

By Jessica DeRubbo

It looks like these celebrity exes are keeping it friendly, as Jennifer Garner and her kids were recently spotted visiting Ben Affleck in Hawaii over Spring Break, while he's there to train for a Netflix action movie. According to UsMagazine.com, Garner traveled to the Aloha State over the weekend with daughters Violet, 12, and Seraphina, 9, and son Samuel, 6. She even posted a photo on Instagram of herself hiking with her trainer, Simone De La Rue during the trip. Though Affleck is currently dating Lindsay Shookus, who was spotted in Hawaii on March 26th, Shookus was nowhere to be seen when Garner and the kids were visiting. We're glad this former celebrity couple can keep it civil for their kids!

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck are following through on their commitment to putting their kids first. What are some ways to put your kids first after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have kids and are going through a split, it's super important to focus on your children and how the things you're doing are affecting them. Cupid has some ways to make sure you're putting them first:

1. Put forth a united front: No matter what your beef is with your former significant other, your kids shouldn't catch wind of it. It's important to get on the same page with your ex before communicating with your kids. You want to make sure the messages coming from each of you are the same.

2. Hang out as a family: If it's possible, continue to spend time together as a family. This may be difficult if your split was particularly bitter, but do your best to get to a point where being together is doable. It will make your kids relax and feel as if their family hasn't been ripped apart forever.

3. Make all decisions with your kids in mind: Instead of thinking of yourself during your split (or after), think about your kids first. Each decision should be made with them in mind. Even if something isn't necessarily preferable to you, you're at a point where you can deal with it, while your kids are still growing and impressionable.

Celebrity Couple Ben Affleck & Lindsay Shookus Are Twinning On Friday Date

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Ben Affleck and girlfriend Lindsay Shookus were out and about wearing matching outfits on Friday, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple was spotted in Brentwood, California wearing similar outfits: leather jackets, gray tops, and dark denim jeans. Adorbs. Affleck and Shookus both seem “coordinated” and enjoying each other’s company.

This celebrity couple came off looking like twins on a recent day out. What are some ways style plays a role in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Believe it or not, style does play a role in relationships, and not just in the aesthetically pleasing department. Cupid is here to inform you!:

1. Matching has a connecting effect: Have you and your partner ever matched without planning? You both end up wearing similar outfits or the same color? In a way, it feels good. You feel like you’re both connected, plus you look cute in public. Feeling like you and your partner are on the same page is a good thing, and matching is a small nudge in that direction.

2. People snap judgments: It’s engraved in our society – people judge others based on how they dress and their style. Whether these judgments are good or bad, the way you dress and the way your partner dresses are both in the public eye, up for observation. You shouldn’t care what people think, but you may be more reluctant to not care when your significant other is meeting your friends or the fam. We all know that a good sense of style does make a lasting impression.

3. Having a good sense of style gives you confidence: And having confidence helps a relationship. Having a style that you love is important because it can give you a self-assuring feeling – and oh, how we know that a lack of confidence is a problem in many relationships. On top of that, your style is something that you identify with, it's a reflection of you. On that note, let's do some shopping!

Celebrity Co-Parents: See How Stars Manage To Raise Their Children Post-Split

By Marissa Donovan

Co-parenting is a lifestyle choice that many celebrities find to be a healthy way to stay close as a family. Celebrity break-ups happen, but ex couples with children have come to the mutual agreement that parenting comes first. According to the University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension, the long term advantages of co-parenting include less feelings of abandonment and a sense of stability. Co-parenting after a split can be done by meeting with the other parent and making an agreement on future goals and family gatherings.

Like a celebrity parent, it can be hard to find balance between raising a child and working out a mutual schedule with your ex. Check out these co-parenting tips to understand how to find the happy medium of raising a family after a break-up:

1. Have positive conversation about your family members: Even when the other parent is momentarily unavailable, it is important to tell your children that they are still loved. Ben Affleck spoke highly of Jennifer Garner in an EOnline.com interview calling her a “superhero mom” and being thankful they can co-parent together. Speaking compassionately to your children about their other parent shows them that you both genuinely care about their well being.

2. Meet as a family: Coming together as a family is something you and your ex should consider when co-parenting. Holidays may be the easiest time to share a meal or do an activity together. As seen on Keeping Up With The Kardashians, Scott Disick and Kourtney Kardashian go on vacations with their children to spend quality time together as a family. Spontaneous changes in schedules may arise, but you must move forward and plan another family day.

3. Understand your strengths as overall parents: It’s good for your child to spend quality time alone with his or her mom or dad. Actor Ryan Phillippe opened up to ETOnline.com about his arrangement with Reese Witherspoon to have one parent have alone time with their children. When each parent has their children separately, the pair can understand their strengths when handling a situation with their child. Mom might be better at helping with school projects, or Dad might be better at handling temper tantrums. Applying your skills as individual parents will help the development of your children.

Parenting Tips: Should You Circumcise Your Baby?

By Noelle Downey

There's no doubt about it – parenting can be a minefield.

There are so many decisions to make and questions that don't seem to have a clear right answer. While every good parent does everything they can to make sure that their child is safe, happy, and healthy, sometimes even the experts have conflicting parenting tips on the best ways to accomplish that goal. One of the most hot-button topics when it comes to parenting advice is circumcision. While some experts argue that circumcision has health benefits like decreased risk of urinary tract infections, penile cancer or STI's, others contend that the reduction of the risk is actually so small that it doesn't warrant a corrective procedure, especially for infants who have no say in what some consider to be an invasive surgery. Differing cultural and religious views also tend to influence parents when it comes to whether or not they choose to have their children circumcised. Although circumcision is a medical procedure many take for granted, even some celebrity parents argue against it. Cupid is here with a list of the top five most vocal celebrity protestors of circumcision.

Whether or not you believe circumcision is right for your children, there are plenty of famous parents who say their top parenting tip for their celebrity babies is to avoid the cut altogether!

1. Alicia Silverstone: Alicia Silverstone is a celebrity mom to six-year-old son Bear Blu Jarecki, and she and her husband, Christopher Jarecki, made the personal decision not to circumcise Bear despite the fact that Silverstone had a Jewish upbringing. Silverstone confronted the complicated decision she and her husband made in her book, 'The Kind Mama' and later said that her fans reactions to it touched her deeply. "One [fan] said that 17 years ago she had her son, and she made this choice," Silverstone shared in a celebrity interview with The Stir, "and she was crying, because she was remembering her experience. It was moving to me."

2. Ben Affleck: Ben Affleck, celebrity ex of Jennifer Garner and dad to children Violet, Seraphina, and Samuel, has said in the past that despite some reports from experts that state that being uncircumcised can lead to an increased risk of frequent urinary tract infections, he himself doesn't approve of the practice. He once confessed to Jon Stewart in an interview, "I hate circumcisions! Get enough in me, and I'll tell you how much I hate them!"

3. Russell Crowe: Famed actor and father to two sons, Charles and Tennyson, Russell Crowe took to Twitter to slam circumcision in a series of controversial tweets. The actor steamed, "Circumcision is barbaric and stupid. Who are you to correct nature? Babies are perfect." While many responded negatively to his tweets, citing a lack of sensitivity to the nuanced reasons that many choose to circumcise their children, others firmly supported his declarations, sparking a dramatic social media storm.

4. Mario Lopez: On a 2010 episode of this cute star's hit reality TV show, 'Saved By the Baby', Mario Lopez pushed his then-girlfriend (now wife) Courtney Mazza to consider not circumcising their future son, and the discussion quickly got heated for the celebrity couple. "That's not up for discussion," Lopez insisted firmly, "News flash, this is the way all men are born." Lopez and Mazza are now celebrity parents to two children, Gia Francesca Lopez and Dominic Lopez.

5. Cameron Diaz: It's not just celebrity parents who have their opinions on circumcision. Forty-four year old actress Cameron Diaz has made it clear in the past that if she and her husband Benji Madden ever have a son, that circumcision will not be for them. She spoke in an interview with The Stir about her film 'What to Expect When You're Expecting' and some changes that had to be made to the script to achieve a PG-13 rating, claiming, "they made us cut out a bunch about circumcision. To get a PG-13 rating we had to cut out the actual description of circumcision. So apparently it is very uncomfortable for people to hear how it works." Diaz added, "America is the same way about their beef – they just want it delivered in a styrofoam package with saran wrap over it. They don't want to know how it got to you. Same thing with circumcision."

What do you think about the practice of circumcision? Do the alleged health benefits or personal concerns outweigh these celebrity opinions? Or do you think they have a point? Let us know in the comments!

Jennifer Garner & Ben Affleck Attend Church After Celebrity Divorce Filing

By Noelle Downey

Celebrity exes Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck were spotted smiling serenely as they exited a church service they attended together on Easter Sunday with their three children, according to UsMagazine.com. Garner filed for divorce from Affleck on April 13th, with both of them deciding to pursue a joint custody agreement of their three children, Violet, Seraphina and Samuel. Although Affleck had been living in the guest house since the couple separated in June 2015, he will now be making the move to a new home as the celebrity divorce moves forward. A source close to Affleck reported it's important to him to find a place near Garner's house so they can both successfully "continue to co-parent as they have been" adding that Affleck is expected to move out "when he finds the right place."

Talk about being amicable during a celebrity divorce! What are some ways to keep life normal for your kids during a split?

Cupid's Advice:

While a divorce is enough to threaten the future of any family dynamic, Garner and Affleck seem to be able to put aside their differences to lend their kid's lives some normality during this transitional period. Here are Cupid's top tips on how to emulate these sensible celebs and keep your kids secure during your separation:

1. Present a united front: Just like this former celebrity couple, it's important to focus on presenting a united front and creating a viable co-parenting experience for your children. Whether that means attending church together, having a family dinner once a week or a monthly family movie night, remind your kids that you can still function as a family unit and that you and your ex are still capable of coming together for their benefit and security.

2. Develop healthy coping mechanisms: If you're dealing with the pain of your divorce in unhealthy ways, your children will feel the strain of those negative behaviors too. A source on Affleck recently reported that he was "doing great" and was in "a healthy place" following his treatment in rehab for alcoholism. Just like this celebrity parent, focus on making sure you're dealing with any issues you have behind the scenes to that your children can feel safe knowing you're not going to fall apart at a moment's notice.

3. Communicate with your kids: While it's true that your children shouldn't have to handle hearing every detail of your divorce, you may also find that opening up clear lines of communication and talking your child through this difficult time will be immensely helpful in getting them to open up and feel safe with you. By talking to them honestly about how you're feeling and how they're feeling, you can validate their emotions and make sure they're dealing with any sadness or anger they might feel in healthy ways.

Garner and Affleck seem determined to make things work when it comes to co-parenting their children. Do you have any tips on co-parenting that you've learned since splitting with your ex? Let us know in the comments!

Celebrity Couple News: Jennifer Garner Still Not Wearing Wedding Ring After Ben Affleck Reconciliation Reports

By Delaney Gilbride

In latest celebrity news, we're still totally and completely unsure about the status of celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck's marriage. Despite multiple claims that their celebrity divorce had been called off for the time being, the 44 year-old actress and film producer was seen walking about Los Angeles on Thursday, March 9, without her wedding ring. An insider close to Garner told UsMagazine.com that she's still considering going through with the divorce when the time is right, while a different insider close to Affleck, 44, told the magazine that the two are putting their divorce on hold because they've been getting along pretty well. The Daredevil co-stars are reportedly still living under the same roof for the sake of their three children since their split back in June 2015. Although the news of their rocky marriage is still relatively new, the duo has been going to couples therapy for years now.

We can't quite seem to keep up with this celebrity couple. How do you know when it's time to end a longtime marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up is hard as it is, but what if it's ending a longtime marriage with someone you thought you'd spend the rest of your life with? How do you know when enough is enough? Cupid's here to help with some relationship advice:

1. You're too tired to keep fighting the truth: When all the negative signs you've been ignoring keep adding up, it will become completely overwhelming. If your sex life is a daily frustration, your loved one won't fight for you, and it's impossible to open up to them anymore it's time to take a minute and realize that you can't keep fighting the truth. Ask yourself, is this worth fighting for?

2. You only communicate when you have to: A key part to any relationship is communication and if you and your partner see this as a chore, something is very wrong. Talking to your loved one should be something you look forward to during a long day of work it shouldn't be something you dread. If this is the case, the two of you have to really think about what you want for the future.

Relationship Advice: Why Isn't It Easy to Say Goodbye?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Some say Ben Affleck is waiting to find out if his celebrity ex Jennifer Garner wants to reconcile with him. Despite their celebrity divorce, they have remained close. According to a source, many people feel Jennifer is stringing Ben along and “making him jump through hoops.” They say she’s acting hot and cold, and he has no idea where they stand as a couple or a family. It can be very frustrating to remain in limbo and not know what to expect. Many people find themselves in this situation after a break-p or an attempted break-up.

Sometimes the road to splitting up permanently isn't clear, and there can be lots of fits and starts before either reaching the final end of a relationship, or deciding to give it another solid try. Why is it so hard for people to let go, sometimes even if they are officially divorced? Check out the following relationship advice:

The most compelling reason people continue to hold on is the fact that they have a shared history. The person who might be an ex-partner has a sense not only of who you are, but who you were with them and during your time together. To then say good-bye to them can also feel like saying goodbye to who you were during your relationship. Another thing that can keep you hopeful, even if you aren't happy right now, is the possibility that something will change and the good times you once shared and the positive aspects of the relationship will resume.

Related Link: Jennifer Garner Source Says Ben Affleck's Alleged Celebrity Affair Was the 'Ultimate Betrayal'

Another thing that can keep the glue between you from completely giving way is if one of you wants to hold on more than the other. When this happens, the one who isn't ready to finally end it might persist with calls, emails, and texts which can increase the doubts the other might feel as well as any guilt feelings he or she might have about ending the relationship in the first place. The partner who wants to continue to be together might also make assertions that they will change whatever behavior may have led to the unhappiness between you. They might even start to do it, which can make the other person stick around with the hope that the negative behaviors will disappear completely. As a result, a couple can often seesaw because even small changes can increase optimism and give someone the stamina they need to be willing to try to give it another shot. In the case of a betrayal, when the initial and intense anger diminishes, there can be a willingness to give the person a chance to rebuild your trust. Also, when there are children involved, as there are with Jennifer and Ben, there is often a desire to keep the family together for their sake. That can be one of the strongest driving forces of all. Whatever the case, certainly if a lot of loving feelings remain it is hard to imagine life without them in it.

Related Link: Lessons From Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck

The question becomes, how do you know if you are wasting your time, holding on with the hope that the happiness will be rekindled or the bad behaviors will change when there is the chance that neither of those things is likely? How can you know how much time to give it before reaching the decision to finally call it quits? Are there any strategies to employ for ending a relationship?

If you are moving forward with the intent to give your relationship a try and see if things can work out, it's good to be clear about what specific changes you are looking for and how long you are willing to wait to see if they actually take place. For example, if you are looking to see if you can trust your partner again, the only real way to do that is to give them enough time to show through their actions that what they say and do is worthy of your trust. But if months go by and you continue to be disappointed because the promised changes aren't happening, or they have happened once but were never followed up on, that can be a good indicator that things aren't really going to be different from what had been upsetting you all along, and if you want to be happier it is time to let go. Ideally, you or your partner can look for counseling, which can help you either get your relationship back on track or help you reach the difficult decision that it really is time to say good-bye to each other.

It appears that Jennifer and Ben continue to share loving feelings, as well as children, and therefore remain open to the possibility of reuniting as a couple. Here's to hoping for the best!
