Cameron Diaz Takes Break from Hollywood to Try for Celebrity Baby

By Jenna Bagcal

From the Kardashians to the British Royal Family, famous couples having children always makes headlines. In the latest celebrity news, a new celebrity baby may be on the way in the near future! According to news from UsMagazine.com, Cameron Diaz is taking a year off from all acting projects to try for a baby with her husband Benji Madden. The celebrity couple have been married since January of this year.

There may be a new celebrity baby announcement coming soon! What are some ways to prioritize having children in your life?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a baby can be one of the most exciting and rewarding parts of life for both famous couples and everyday couples. But some individuals may find it difficult to prioritize having a child, especially with careers and other responsibilities. Here are some of Cupid's tips for how you and your partner can prioritize having children:

1. Have a talk with your partner: Before deciding that you're ready to have a baby, sit down with your partner and make sure that he or she is on the same page. Don't blindside your significant other before you know what they want. Discuss important issues such as finances, where you want to live, vaccinations, etc.

2. Save money: Instead of splurging on items you may not need, stick to buying (mostly) the essentials and put some money away for your child's future. Saving money, even way before you and your significant other have children, will pay off in the long run. It will also significantly lessen stress levels if you don't have to worry about money for your child's needs.

3. Mind your health: Before having a child, make sure that your health is in top shape. Visit the doctor before having a child to ensure that your body is ready for children. Also, have a discussion with your doctor about what steps you can take to improve your health to make your pregnancy as smooth as possible.

Famous Couple Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie: When is it Time to Seek Help?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Famous couple Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's celebrity marriage has been reinvigorated by couples' counseling. Although things are on the mend now, there was trouble in paradise less than a year after they tied the knot. Not only did Brad see ex Jennifer Aniston alone, but he also didn't accompany Angelina to the Critics' Choice Awards in January. After months of fighting, they decided to seek the help of a therapist.

Now they plan to always keep counseling in their lives, because they say it has transformed their marriage and helped them fall in love with each other again. And they are not alone.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden have enlisted some outside support after just five months of marriage, as they work to put a strong foundation beneath them. This proves that it is never too early to get help.

The secret to having a lasting relationship and love life is to not let the anger and resentment build up to the point where it drives you apart. A lot of people don't realize that a lasting union is full of angry and questioning feelings which go hand in hand with the adoring ones, not unlike a seesaw. I call them "love you, mean it" and "hate you, mean it" moments, which I talk about in my book What About Me? Stop Selfishness From Ruining Your Relationship.

It is natural to shift in and out of these emotions. The challenge is to make sure the positive ones always balance the negative ones so that they don't consume you. The goal is always to continue to or to get back to loving and feeling connected to your partner. What happens, though, when that becomes more and more difficult to do, and you aren't able to get past the anger anymore? How do you know when it is time to bring in a trained professional to help you sort out the issues?

Even in today's sophisticated age, people are often reluctant to air their marital problems with an outsider, especially when it comes to sexual troubles. There are many reasons for this which include feeling embarrassed, the fear that you think something is really wrong with you or your partner, the concern that you will be told there is something wrong with your relationship that is unfixable, or maybe you do want to go but your partner doesn't. There are also those people who think that because the idea of divorce hasn't come up things can't be that bad, so you don't really need help.

It is terrific that Brad and Angelina realize and appreciate that they have a big relationship, sometimes even bigger than the two of them, and they were able to seek assistance from a counselor who can help them deal with their issues. The same is true for Cameron and Benji. You certainly don't have to be a celebrity to have issues that can weigh down your relationship and start to interfere with the love you share, but they are good examples to follow. If you are resisting therapy, try to shift your way of thinking. Know that there isn't anything wrong with you or your partner, but there is something in your connection that warrants finding help and relief. Allow your fears to propel you forward instead of holding you back. Your seeking help is not a sign of weakness in any way, but rather a measure of strength, courage, and commitment to your relationship. It proves that you care enough to not give up and find what it takes to make things better.

Keep in mind that making a relationship successful is work. If you don't do that work now, you will have to do it later either by taking your marriage apart or learning to live with unhappiness. Why not spend that energy working to find a way to stay together and live happily? A therapist can help a couple learn to communicate and identify the problem areas in their relationship, so that they can learn how to compromise and put the pieces back together. Brad and Angelina seem to be doing just that. They appear strong and are a positive testimony to the value of knowing when to get help and getting it. Hopefully the same will be true for Cameron and Benji.

Cupid's Advice:

Some of the excitement in a relationship and love can die down after an exhilarating couple of months of being engaged and then having a beautiful ceremony, celebrity wedding or not. Keep in mind that your relationship needs nurturing, so make things exciting after the festivities are over:

1. Little rituals: Small, little rituals like making coffee for each other in the morning or going out to a game together every now and then like Diaz and Madden do, can keep your partner on their toes and excited. Consider leaving random gifts around the house for your spouse to find or having small gifts to delivered to him or her at work.

What are some perks of having your wedding at home?

Cupid's Advice:

If a big wedding at a fancy venue isn't your style, why not consider getting hitched in your own backyard? Here are some perks of having your wedding at home:

1. It's easy to plan: Getting married at your house eliminates the need to search for the perfect spot to say your vows. Sure, you'll still need to find a caterer and other vendors, but securing the location is always step one! Plus, you don't have to worry about your favorite locale being booked on the date you want.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Helena Bonham Carter, Cameron Diaz and Chris Brown

By Shoshi

With the new year finally here, there's bound to be a lot of exciting celebrity couple news for us to digest! Here are my predictions for three pairs who are currently popular in the media:

Helena Bonham Carter and Tim Burton: After thirteen years together, Helena Bonham Carter and Tim Burton have separated. The couple actually split earlier this year, and this news is just now coming out. In what appears to be one of the more amicable splits in Hollywood, they are staying friends because they have two children together.

This separation shouldn't come as such a surprise. About a year ago, Burton was seen with a mystery blonde and accused of cheating. While he may not have been cheating, where there is smoke, there tends to be fire.

So what's next? Burton will attempt to make some movies without Bonham Carter, but that won't last for long. He will bring her back to his films. Even though they are no longer together, she is still his muse. Look for Bonham Carter to have a new boyfriend soon – a younger actor, someone who will be quite shocking. Let's not forget that, while she is quirky, she is an attractive woman. Her brilliance, beauty, and different appeal will keep the stud very interested.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden: The latest celebrity couple that is rumored to be getting married is Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden. Depending on what news source you believe, the two of them will be skipping down the aisle and having a baby as soon as possible.

This is a very interesting pair. When I take a look at their love energy, it isn't so cut and dry. It is not clear what will happen between them. This could be due to the fact that they are still trying to figure it all out. I do see problems for them down the road unless Diaz is more open to change in their relationship. She is a very independent woman. Let's just say that she is just fine without a man by her side. Some of that reasoning is because she has had no problem getting one; the issue is finding a guy that she wants to keep.

I wish this couple the best. Baby energy is circling Diaz, and she will make a great mom. Let's cross our fingers that Madden keeps Diaz interested, or this relationship may not last long.

Chris Brown and Karrueche Tran: Recently, the rapper proclaimed that he was single and went off about his ex-girlfriend dating Drake behind his back when he was in jail. It appears that it was all in his mind though. According to Drake, Tran's small bottom is not big enough for him to look at her twice. In case you didn't know, Drake loves a big booty on his woman.

Just when you thought they were finally over, it looks like Brown and Tran may be back on again. They were spotted all cuddled up at a club. One has to wonder if Brown will be able to have a healthy relationship. He has been diagnosed with bipolar disorder, which seems to be affecting some of his choices. Tran may want to stand by her man, but she's enabling him to treat her any way that he wants – which is never good!

This relationship will continue to be filled with drama. The on-and-off love will continue until Tran says “enough is enough” and moves on to get herself a new man to settle down with.

What are some ways to help your friend find a mate?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are plenty of reasons to set up your single friend. You could go out on double dates! It also might make them happier, get them out of the house more, or maybe just stop them from moping about being single. No matter the reason, Cupid is here to help you help your friend by finding them a mate:

1. Help them set up an online profile. It might take some convincing, but if you can get them to agree to it, setting up a profile on a dating website is a great way to get your friend to meet potential partners. After all, that's what the sites are for. And who better to help them list all their little quirks and charms than their friend?

2. Set them up with another friend. If you trust someone enough to be their friend, you can probably trust them enough to treat your other friend well. You already know how amazing these two people are, so setting them up together might seem like a no-brainer. Just be careful, because there's always the chance that it won't end well and the two friends ask you to pick sides.

3. Be an amazing wingman (or wingwoman). If your friend is shy, they might need an extra push to go socialize on a night out. You can scope out the place for someone who is attractive and seems like their type, then cook up a plan to get them talking. Make sure your friend is okay with this! Otherwise you might have a pretty awkward encounter on your hands.

What are some unique ways to introduce your partner to your parents?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be awkward and nerve-racking to take the step of introducing your partner to your parents. These are the people who raised you, and to some parents, nobody will ever be good enough for their baby. Instead of going with the classic approach of having your partner over for a family dinner, try some of these unique introductions:

1. Go on a family trip. A trip to the beach seemed to go well for Diaz and Madden, so maybe it could work for you, too. A nice relaxing trip to the lake or beach is a great way for everyone to unwind and make the welcoming process go much smoother. A day off makes everyone happy, and happy parents are a great start.

2. Go to a party together. If there's a birthday party or other family event coming up, it might be a good idea to bring your partner along. Parties are fun and help people unwind, so it's the perfect way to relieve the tension of a first meeting. It's also a great way for the entire family to meet your partner instead of just hearing about them from your parents.

3. Go to a show together. It could be a concert, a movie, or a theater performance. If both your parents and your partner like the show, they can bond over their similar likes and have a conversation about the performance. It will be a good bonding experience and you'll have fun with it.

What are some unique ways to make your partner feel special?

Cupid’s Advice:

There are the obvious ways to let your partner you care, like kisses and hand-holding, but sometimes you want your efforts to stand out. Your relationship is special, and your partner deserves a unique way of being told they're special. Here are some tips from Cupid on how to be extra creative when letting your partner know you care:

1. Get crafty! Get out your paintbrushes and scissors, because nothing says "I Love You" like a hand-made gift. If you're artistically challenged, this could be something as simple as painting a picture frame or making a small scrapbook of your relationship. There's a reason your parents kept those crappy stick drawings you gave them; they're cute, and you made them yourself. It's the effort that counts, and your partner will appreciate it.

2. Make a public gesture. If your partner isn't afraid of the spotlight, a grand public gesture is an unforgettable way to show them you care. You might choose the classic skywriting option, or try serenading them in the park. Engrave your initials in a special place, or plan a romantic flash-mob surprise. Be creative, but make sure it won't make your partner uncomfortable.

3. Show them your family traditions. This is for more serious relationships, but if you think your partner might become part of the family someday, a great romantic gesture would be to include them in your traditions. Bring them to the secret fishing spot your grandfather used, or take them to a special family dinner. This will show your partner that they're special enough to be included in your personal family life, and it won't go unnoticed.
