

Betty White Is Asked to Marine Corps Ball

Betty White recently received a flattering invitation, following similar invitations to Mila Kunis and Justin Timberlake. Sgt. Ray Lewis asked the 89-year-old former Golden Girls star to be his date to the Marine Corps Ball in a YouTube video, according to People. “She’s funny, she’s sweet, she’s mature. She’s the all-around perfect woman,” he says. “I really think we’d have a good time. I’m fun, you know. I think I can make her laugh. I think she can make me laugh. I think we can laugh together. So, call me!”

Unfortunately, White had to turn the offer down because of work. “I am deeply flattered and truly appreciate the invitation,” White said in a statement to Access Hollywood.

“As everyone knows I love a man in uniform, but unfortunately I cannot accept, as I will be taping an episode of Hot In Cleveland.”

If you’re busy and can’t go on a date, how do you let someone down gracefully?

Cupid’s Advice:

If you must turn down a date, do it with class. Here are three ideas:

1. Be honest: If you keep it honest from the beginning, you won’t have to go through any twists and turns when he or she asks more questions about why you turned the date down.

2. Always give a reason: It’s rude to simply say “no.” Always give a reason as to why you can’t go on a date with someone. You may not feel obligated to do so, but there are millions of excuses out there. Pick one.

3. Plan another date: If your reason is because of your busy schedule, make sure you let him or her know that you’re still interested, and plan another date at a more convenient time. Make sure it fits into his or her schedule, too, although it may not be as busy as yours.

Kristen Bell Gets Advice From Betty White

Kristen Bell recently got some age-old relationship advice from fellow actress Betty White, according to RadarOnline.

Bell, whose new movie You Again hits theaters September 24, said that although White is “not super maternal,” she heard the Golden Girls actress offer an important tip. “I did hear her say [something] at one point about keeping a relationship fresh: when she would hear her husband coming home she would go put on a clean blouse or a dab of perfume. I thought that was really sweet and a wonderful way to impress your husband.” How can you keep your relationship fresh?

Cupid’s Advice:

1. Be spontaneous: Surprise your partner with tickets to see his favorite band, or spend a day at the beach building sand castles instead of lying under beach umbrellas. Don’t be too predictable.

2. Put in the effort: When you’ve been with your guy for a long time, you feel comfortable around him. While your partner may think you’re beautiful in sweats and a t-shirt, that shouldn’t stop you from dressing up every now and then. Put some effort into your look. Wear a skirt and heels one night for a change.

3. Get some laughs: The best way to stop boredom in its tracks is with laughter. Crack a joke, or watch a funny movie. Laughing is scientifically proven to be healthy for the body, but it is also healthy for relationships. Keep some conversations light and playful. Laughter will follow.
