

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Big Brother' Stars Jack Matthews & Analyse Talavera Split

By Meghan Khameraj

In celebrity news, Big Brother stars Jack Matthews and Analyse Talavera announced the end of their whirlwind of a celebrity relationship. The famous couple met this past summer during season 21 of Big Brother. Matthews announced via Instagram that they were taking a break stating, "I'm glad that we were able to be there for each other and we'll always be friends and partners forever." Talavera confirmed Matthews' statement with her own Instagram post, saying, "...jack and I have both decided that it's best we go our separate ways and remain great friends." The couple mentioned long distance as being one of the core reasons for the split.

In celebrity break-up news, this showmance has fizzled, and long-distance played a big part. What are some ways to sustain a long-distance relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Jack Matthews and Analyse Talavera have called it quits on their relationship. The couple blamed the split on long-distance. However, Cupid has some relationship advice that will help you and your partner last through being apart:

1. FaceTime: Video chatting with your partner will help you feel less lonely if you two aren't together. Schedule times when you're both free to video chat with your significant other. It'll be the best way to maintain your relationship if you're not able to physically be together.

Celebrity News: 'Big Brother' Stars Tyler Crispen & Angela Rumman Are Moving In Together

By Ivana Jarmon

In celebrity news, Big Brother's Tyler Crispen and Angela Rumman are moving in together! After less than a week following the show's finale, the celebrity couple are moving in together in L.A. In an exclusive statement to UsMagazine.com, the pair said, "We can't imagine ourselves being apart and so it was a natural step for us to make things official in the real world and move in together." The couple fell in love during season 20 on the CBS show. The couple added, "We've never been happier and are so thankful for this experience that has brought us together."

In celebrity news, Big Brother stars Tyler and Angela are taking the next step and moving into together. What are some ways to know you're ready to move in together?

Cupid's Advice:

Taking the next step is fun when you're with the right person! Cupid has some ways to find out if you're ready to move together:

1. You're on the same page: Same relationship page that is! It's important to know that you both want the same things out of your relationship. An example of this is marriage and kids. Make sure you're both heading in the same direction when it comes to goals and dreams.

2. Practically living together: If you're basically already living together. Which means spending most nights at your partner's place or vice versa. It would make sense to move in together. The transition to cohabitation will be natural. You've seen them sick, smelt their morning breath, observed their nightly habits. You're completely comfortable with each other. You have more realistic expectations moving in together when you know that your partner leaves her clothes on the bathroom floor, or that she doesn't wash the dishes after she cooks.

Celebrity News: Find Out What's Next for Julie Chen Post-Scandal

By Courtney Shapiro

In celebrity news, well known co-host of The Talk and host of Big Brother, Julie Chen is in the spotlight after allegations of sexual assault and harassment came out against her husband, the CEO of CBS, Les Moonves. E! News reported that Chen has decided to step away from her position on the talk show, saying, "Right now I need to spend more time at home with my husband and our young son, so I've decided to leave The Talk. On the other hand, she has decided to stay on with the popular summer game show, Big Brother, as it is more manageable and she will be free of obligations from CBS for the next few months, since the finale airs on September 26th. At this time, Chen's future with CBS is up in the air.

In celebrity news, Julie Chen is tasked with rebuilding her life after her husband was fired from CBS for sexual assault allegations. What are some ways to rebuild your life after a break-up?.

Cupid's Advice:

Need some ways to rebuild your life after a break-up? Cupid has some ideas to rebuild:

1. Invest in your support network: You can't get past the break-up alone. This is the time where you will need those closest to you to support you, and be by your side. These are the people who have your best interests at heart, and only want you to heal.

'Big Brother' Couple Jeff Schroeder and Jordan Lloyd Discuss Living Together, Dieting and Watching 'The Bachelor'

By Michelle

Danzig and Rachael Moore

Jeff Schroeder and Jordan Lloyd instantly had chemistry when they met on the set of Big Brother in 2009. Building a strong friendship first, they formed an alliance on the show and became huge targets in the eyes of their competitors. "Being friends was our only option. We knew there were some romantic feelings, but we didn't express them because we wanted to win," said Schroeder.

But being just friends didn't last long. After Lloyd defeated the rest of her houseguests, walking away with the cash prize, and Schroeder was voted America's Favorite Houseguest, their relationship developed into something more intimate. This gradual shift from friends to lovers helped them with their communication skills. As she explained, "We are so open with each other and never hold anything back."

Two months later, CBS asked the pair to take part in The Amazing Race. Their diverse personalities were tested on the show and their relationship certainly felt the pressure. "We wanted to strangle each other," Lloyd shared. "We still needed to get to know each other better since we were newly dating."

After they were eliminated from the race, Schroeder and Lloyd returned to their separate homes in Chicago, Illinois and Charlotte, North Carolina respectively, pursuing a long-distance relationship. They tried to see each other two or three times a month and felt that, by putting forth an equal amount of effort, they could make their relationship work.

However, long-distance relationships are never easy, no matter how hard you try. Schroeder advises other couples to "be patient because everything happens for a reason." Having a goal that you want to pursue with your significant other is also important. "We knew we were always going to move in together; we just didn't know where because we are from two totally different places."

"Having complete trust in one another made us worry less about where we were going and who we were seeing," he added.

After dating and living apart for two and a half years, the couple moved in together in a small apartment in Los Angeles. By taking this next step, they discovered that they were complete opposites, not only competitively but also with food and television. "The way we eat is totally different. I like fried food, and Jeff likes seafood," Lloyd said of her man.

As for their varying tastes in television, the DVR is a huge help. The adorable pair enjoys watching TV together, even though they like different shows. However, they do share CupidsPulse.com's love of The Bachelor and have been hooked since the first episode. "Nobody ends up getting married, but we can't stop watching," she said.

"We think Tierra is so dramatic and we just can't wait to see what happens," Schroeder added.

With their relationship going strong, the Big Brother couple will be celebrating Valentine's Day in a really special way. They're both participating in DietBet, a nationwide dieting challenge where they promised to shed pounds as their gift to each other. Over 367 players are a part of the program, which will end just before the romantic holiday, and vying to win a portion of the $18,350 pot of prize money; together, the participants have already lost a collective 1,170 pounds. Whoever reaches the goal of dropping four percent of his or her weight will split the pot.

Schroeder and Lloyd believe that DietBet is a great motivator because, with so many people watching and supporting you, you can't fail. To meet their goals, they often do yoga together. "I thought yoga was just stretching, but it's totally different. I didn't know it would help me so much," he revealed. While he also goes to the gym to lose weight, he inspired his girlfriend to run along the beach to get fit.

To stay healthy, the pair also goes food shopping together. They buy a lot of fruit and like to try new recipes to encourage each other's healthy eating habits. But if someone brings cheese in the house, all bets are off!

They've both found success with the program, losing around 10 pounds each. They are confident that they are going to win DietBet, and if they do, they will be giving their earnings to charity.

Next up for the active couple? Schroeder will be developing some projects for the summer, while Lloyd plans to return to school to get her cosmetology license. And, of course, they'll be tuning in to see who wins Sean Lowe's heart on The Bachelor!

Rumor: Were 'Big Brother' Stars JoJo and Shane In a Show-mance?

Big Brother's coach

Britney Haynes is under a lot of pressure after losing two players in one week. One player, JoJo Spatafora, was nearly unanimously voted out of the house and off the reality show. However, Shane Meaney voted for her to stay. After her eviction, Spatafora told People about the “show-mance” between her and Meaney, saying their relationship was, “all just for fun,” not for love. She continued by saying, “you get lonely in the house. There were no feelings on my end and I’m pretty sure on his too. I like to spice things up and make the show exciting.” So, it was all just to make the reality show interesting after all, but they remain “really good friends,” because they had the same coach.

What do you do if you fall for someone at work?

Cupid’s Advice:

Mixing business and pleasure can always be tricky. If you fall for a coworker, consider these tips for handling the situation carefully:

1. Make a list of pros and cons: The classic tactic of weighing costs and benefits always works. If you value your career over dating your new crush, it’s time to move on. If you think that this new special someone is worth at least a shot at dating, add them to your “pro” list and go on a couple of dates.

2. Don’t try to keep it a secret: The more secretive you are at work, the more chances you have of getting caught and undergoing some sort of co-worker penalty. If you’re very open about your crush at work and don’t try to hide the flirting from others, no one will be surprised when you two go out on dates and hit it off. That way, you’ll stay out of trouble and get the best of both worlds in business and pleasure.

3. Take things slow: When dating someone in the same work force, take things slow. You won’t be able to bear looking at your co-worker if he ended up being a one-night stand, and even if you get too hot and heavy in the beginning, you don't want things to fizzle out right away. If you take things slow you'll be able to maintain that attraction and not have that awkward interference in the work place.
