What is the relationship motto you live by?

“Stay honest with each other. Honesty is the most important thing.” – Bobby Brown, Singer/Songwriter

“Stay with a very loyal guy!” – Tara Reid, Actress

“A relationship is not a relationship without communication. Also, the person that you’re dating needs to be your best friend.” –

Taylor Bright,
Singer/Actress

“My boyfriend is doing Dancing With The Stars in Australia right now, so I would say communication! Always get that ‘good night’ call because it makes everything so much better.

Communication is the best thing, and if it’s not there, just dump the guy.” [laughs]
– Rachel Sterling,
Actress

For all the single people out there, what’s your best piece of dating advice?

“Oh gosh! My best piece of dating advice is a saying that I live by: ‘Never treat anyone like a priority if that person treats you like an option.’ That goes for all things; it goes for dating, it goes for friends, it goes for your job...it goes for everything. If you are giving more consistently than what you're getting, you're putting your energy in the wrong place. It's tried and true, and sometimes, you want to fight it, but don't." – Rachel Sterling, Actress

"Honesty and communication are always the best...and jewels!"
[laughs] – Vivica Fox, Actress

You're such a busy lady! How do you balance everything?

"Oh my gosh! I am just so blessed that I have a wonderful team of people working with me, from my assistant to my manager. It's so important to have good people around you keeping things focused. It's also good to have an attitude of gratitude, more than anything else. I am very, very blessed!"

Find Out Why Bobbi Kristina Skipped Dad Bobby Brown's Wedding

Bobby Brown and Alicia Etheridge celebrated their nuptials on June 18 in Hawaii and surrounded by friends and family, including Brown's three eldest children. However, Brown's only child with the late Whitney Houston, Bobbi Kristina, did not show up. Bobbi Kristina's refusal to attend the wedding made the occasion a little less joyous. "Bobby Brown was desperate for her to go to his recent wedding, but she would not return his calls," a source tells UsMagazine.com. Brown's troubled relationship with Houston that ended in their 2007 divorce made for a rocky relationship between him and his daughter, and his marriage to Etheridge has not helped matters. “She told them she was not going because she did not like Alicia, and that she was [busy] filming her reality show with [aunt] Pat Houston in New York,” an insider shares. Hopefully their relationship will have a happy ending, just as Brown’s love life did.

How do you involve your children in a second marriage?

Cupid’s Advice:

A second marriage can be bittersweet. It’s a new love for you, but a potential heartache for your children. Here are some ways to ease the strain between you and your children if you’re planning on marrying again:

1. Spend time with your kids and your fiancé together: You can’t force your children to like anyone, but you can make sure they get to know the person who will soon be your partner. Whenever your children are with you, have your fiancé around. This ensures that your children get a chance to spend time and connect with both of you. When the wedding comes, it won’t be a stranger kissing their parent.

2. Make sure they have a major role in the nuptials: Sitting on the benches during your wedding can make your children feel like they’re taking a backseat position in your life. The last thing you want to do is make your new marriage seem distant and unfamiliar to your kids, so involve them in the ceremony. Make your daughter the flower girl and your son the best man, letting them feel like they are a part of your new marriage and life.

3. Involve your children in the wedding plans: Children are creative, and even your older kids will want a say in your wedding plans. The best way to get your kids to be excited for your second marriage is to let them decorate. From the color scheme to the type of flowers, little decisions can allow your kids to feel comfortable with the wedding and bond with your new partner.

Bobby Brown Ties the Knot with Alicia Etheredge

On Monday, R&B star Bobby Brown tied the knot to manager Alicia Etheredge while visiting Hawaii to perform a New Edition concert. The recent groom originally popped the question to the new Mrs. Bobby Brown in 2010 during a sold-out concert, just three years after his divorce from the late Whitney Houston. He later opened up to People, saying “I got my passion back for music and for loving myself because of her.” Family and friends were in attendance to support the couple, but Brown’s daughter with Houston, Bobbi Kristina Brown, was absent because of her poor relationship with her father. Unfortunately, the newlyweds will not be spending their honeymoon in Hawaii due to forthcoming tour dates, but will at least continue traveling side-by-side.

What do you do if you don’t have time for a honeymoon after your wedding?

Cupid’s Advice:

A honeymoon allows newlyweds to embrace the beginning of their new long-lasting marriage, but it’s not always possible to spend the time or money to have one right away. Here are some great alternatives that will let you celebrate your new marriage even if a traditional honeymoon isn’t an option:

- 1. Bring the honeymoon to you: A honeymoon’s significance isn’t the location, but the meaning behind it. You can have relaxing days together and romantic dinners wherever you are.
- 2. Daring adventure: Try a new activity that you might do on a honeymoon. For example, skydiving or swimming with sharks is a memory that you’ll always share as something you did as a couple, even if you do it close to home.
- 3. Honeymoon suite: Rent the honeymoon suite at a fancy hotel in the same area as your wedding. If you can’t honeymoon for an extended period of time, you can at least get the honeymoon experience for one special night.

Bobbi Kristina and Whitney Houston's 'Adopted Son' Pack on PDA

Ever since the death of Whitney Houston, her daughter Bobbi Kristina Brown has been seen getting very close to her late mother's unofficial adopted son, Nick Gordon. According to People, the two were seen in the Starbucks in Atlanta right after Brown's interview with Oprah and have known each other for years. Gordon responded to the speculations, tweeting, "We're just close – just going through her mom's passing and grieving together."

What are some cases where someone is "off limits" to date?

Cupid's Advice:

In society, there are many cases where someone is off limits to date. Here are some examples of people in your life who you may want to keep it strictly platonic with:

1. Your friend's ex: Even if your friend claims to be okay with it, dating a friend's ex can never end well. After all, you probably wouldn't want any of your friends dating one of your exes no matter how long ago you broke up.

2. A boss or teacher: Having an intimate relationship with an authority figure is inappropriate in so many ways. If you start to have feelings for someone such as a boss or teacher, wait until you no longer work under them to act on your feelings.

3. Someone who's taken: Never get involved with someone who you know is already committed to someone else. If someone is willing to cheat on their significant other to be with you, then they don't respect you or their current partner.

Bobby Brown Rushes to Be with Daughter After Whitney Houston's Death

Bobby Brown dropped everything to be by his daughter's side after Whitney Houston's death. Brown, Whitney Houston's ex-husband, canceled a Nashville concert and instead visited his daughter Bobbi Kristina, 18, upon her release from Cedars Sinai Medical Center, reports People. When asked why Brown chose to fly to L.A., his agent said, "[Brown's] love for his daughter and his daughter being in the hospital. He wants to go be with his daughter." Bobbi Kristina was hospitalized after "having a complete breakdown" Saturday night. She has since been cleared medically and released.

How do you help your children cope with a parent's death?

Cupid's Advice:

Though a loved one's death is hard on everyone, the situation is especially tough for a child. Here are a few ways to help your children cope with a parent's death:

1. Explain death: Understanding death is difficult at a young age. If your children are very young, you must find a way to explain it in terms they will understand. This is also a time to share some of your religious beliefs with your child.

2. Mourn the loss: Don't try to put up a strong front for your children. Grief is more easily overcome when you are able to openly talk about it. Start the healing process by mourning with your children.

3. Ask for help: Don't be afraid to ask for outside help. If coping with your loss while supporting your children is too big of a burden, hire a counselor. Professional help may enable progress when you are unable.
