

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Angelina Jolie, Sharon Osbourne and Tori Spelling

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention, one of which is a high profiled split that no one saw coming between Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt; while two other long term marriages are fighting to survive after celebrity cheating scandals (Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne, and Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott). But who's stepping out this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt: When it was announced that Angelina Jolie had filed to divorce Brad Pitt, gasps were heard around the world. The fairytale was officially over. But was their relationship really as wonderful as everyone thought it was? While most people were surprised that their marriage is ending, I was surprised that it's lasted as long as it did. There were clues that their marriage wasn't filled with unicorns and rainbows. Anytime a couple gets married due to pressure from their children, it isn't a good sign. This relationship should have ended a long time ago. Jolie is so ready to move on. Their pack of kids can beg and plead for her to go back to Pitt, but it's a wrap. Rumor has it that she has already moved into a private residence in Los Angeles that cost $30,000 per month! It's time for both of them to move on. While Pitt is a bit devastated now, he will see that this is for the best. Don't be surprised if Angelina's next lover is a woman. Brad will be fine, women are already getting information to swoop down and grab him. My relationship advice to him is to stop picking high maintenance women.

Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne: Look's like Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne are having a real lovefest after Ozzy's alleged affair with a celebrity hairstylist earlier this year. He recently surprised Sharon by showing up on The Talk and giving her a diamond ring for her birthday. Ever notice how men like to make things better with diamonds? There are those who feel like their happiness is staged. Maybe it is, but then again what hasn't their relationship been through at this point? I don't see anything that will actually cause this celebrity couple to break up for good. Their marriage has been a bit of a rollercoaster since day one. Sharon is a ride or die when it comes to Ozzy. They will continue on with their sweet gestures in the press. It is what it is. They are basically a famous couple that at the end of the day is just like everybody else.

Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott: Remember all the drama that Spelling went through with her husband McDermott. It looked like their marriage was going to end, but Spelling took one for the team and stuck with it. The couple recently announced that their fifth child is on the way. There is still conflict in their relationship that stems back to the Dean's 2-day affair when he was working in Canada. Let's not forget that Tori actually got together with Dean because they had an affair while filming a Lifetime movie. McDermott also recently proposed again to Spelling right before their tenth anniversary with their kids in attendance. That's all good, but I say this marriage is still a hot mess. Spelling can do so much better than him. When will she see the light? With baby number five on the way, she may never leave. Being a single mother with five kids doesn't sound so sexy when it comes to dating. McDermott is sneaky and it looks like he just may bring more heartbreak to Spelling; that may be just the thing that she needs to let him go and find love with another. Let's just say that he is the lucky one in the relationship.

Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie's Lawyers Are Trying to Hash Out Custody Agreement

By Kayla Garritano

It's slow progress. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's lawyers are currently trying to hash out a custody agreement of their six children in their celebrity divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says Pitt is waiting to file a divorce response until the agreement is in place. "Brad has a month to respond to the initial filing, so there is no rush," another source includes. "The fact that things have quieted down so much is a good indicator that discussions are moving forward and are productive. The main issue is custody."

Celebrity divorce is not an easy or pleasant task. What are some ways to make negotiations during a divorce easier?

Cupid's Advice:

No one likes the process of a divorce, as it takes a lot out of you. Cupid is here to help you try and make the process a little easier:

1. Talk it out before the lawyers: Lawyers are very helpful when it comes to a divorce, but only you and your ex-partner can talk it out before you take it further. You shouldn't expect to go into a divorce without any idea of what the other person wants. You'd be in for possibly a very big shock.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt Will Fight Angelina Jolie for Custody of Kids

2. Make a list: Both of you write out a list of what you want in the divorce. Of course, you can't list your kids if you have them. So instead, write out what you believe is a fair way to get custody of your children. You can exchange and have your lawyers start to negotiate.

3. Ease the fighting: Yelling and screaming at each other is not the way to negotiate, and it tends to make things even worse. Try to resist the fighting. If you want the divorce to run smoothly, it's better off to put the arguing aside.

1. Mood swings: If you begin to notice your partner having fluctuations in their mood, this can be a clear sign that something is going on in your partner’s life. Try talking to them about it and if they respond in a hostile way, it may be time to seek outside help.

Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt Will Fight Angelina Jolie for Custody of Kids

By Kayla Garritano

Love for your kids will never fade. In the latest celebrity divorce, Brad Pitt will be fighting for custody of his six kids from his soon to be ex-wife, Angelina Jolie. According to UsMagazine.com, it can be confirmed that Pitt hired divorce attorney Lance Spiegel. But, despite the problems he and Jolie are having, he still has his children's best interests in mind. "He wants to have a significant role in his kids' lives, and he wants to be with them consistently, but he also wants them to be in the most protected and proper environment,” said a source.

This celebrity divorce could get ugly. What are some ways to shield your children from your divorce drama?

Cupid’s Advice:

If there’s one thing that’s most important in a divorce, it’s to make sure that you protect your kids from the “ugly.” Cupid is here to help:

1. Remind them that you love them: A problem with parents divorcing is that the child may feel like it’s their fault, or that you don’t love them anymore and that’s why you’re getting the divorce. Reassure them that it is not their fault, and that they are what’s most important.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Angelina Jolie Files for Divorce from Brad Pitt

2. Keep it private: Sometimes, divorcing involves a lot of fighting. If you do end up arguing, make sure it’s not around your children. Your child will get upset from hearing mom and dad fight and yell at each other. Try to move away from your kids to ensure that they won’t be emotionally affected by your argument.

Related Link: How Jennifer Aniston Reacted to Brangelina Celebrity Divorce News

3. Don’t talk trash: You don’t like your soon-to-be ex if you’re divorcing them; that’s a fact. But that doesn’t mean you're allowed to go around and talk poorly about them, especially in front of the kids. In order to keep your kid happy, you have to make sure that both of their parents are in their lives. No good will come from talking badly about the other parent. Your child shouldn't have to choose sides.

Relationship Advice: How to Make This Valentine's Day Special for Your Loved One

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

In 1653, a Mughal emperor shared with the world a token of his tragic yet enduring love for his favorite wife Muntaz Mahal, who died during childbirth. Today, the emperor and his wife have all but blended into the annals of ancient history, but the symbol of his love remains as the gleaming white marble 42-acre structure known as the Taj Mahal. While most public expressions of affection don't end up being a timeless wonder, many of today's celebrities make their mark in different and extravagant ways. As a relationship expert, I wanted to give you some unique ideas to celebrate Valentine's Day. Here's some relationship advice on how to say “I love you” to the special person in your life, like these celebrity couples.

Relationship Advice: Making Valentine's Day Special Like The Hollywood Stars

1. Share a little bit of nature. I'm not talking about cut flowers or baskets of posies. With a little bit of creativity, you can find a bit of nature that symbolizes the unique relationship and love you share. For example, Angelina Jolie purchased an olive tree to give to her husband, Brad Pitt. Angie may have spent $18,500 on this olive tree, but you can find something just as special but much more affordable. Aloe Vera plants, palms, fruit trees, and flowering plants are excellent alternatives to cut flowers. Also, some companies manufacture innovative bouquets made out of alternative materials that last forever and offer unique scents. Ecoflower.com designs arrangements using environmentally friendly and recycled materials like wood, paper, recycled jewelry among other things, and they will provide any scent you like such as raspberry, musk or lemon.

2. Share a wardrobe indulgence. For Jessica Simpson, that meant getting a $15,000 Birkin bag from her husband, Eric Johnson. For the rest of us, receiving a smart jacket, a silk scarf, a sparkling bracelet, or snazzy boots can generate the same feeling of confidence at one-third of the price. I recall a young newlywed presented his wife with a necklace made of aquamarine. It wasn't the most valuable of gems, but the color reminded him of his wife's eyes.

3. Share an experience. Angelina Jolie bought Brad Pitt flying lessons. Of course, she threw in the helicopter for good measure. Beyonce found a million-dollar token to share with husband, Jay-Z, when she presented him with a Grand Sport, reportedly one of the top performing and most expensive cars on the market. For you, a shared experience may be a hike to a cherished location, or a picnic in a secluded spot. Most people will tell you the things are nice, but sometimes it's the thought behind the gift that counts the most. A friend who lived by an Olympic training site bought her husband a ride on the bobsled track used in the 2002 Winter Olympics. It was an experience he will never forget.

With Valentine's Day approaching, it seems the extravagant gifts is what makes the news. The relationship advice to remember is that Valentine's Day doesn't have an audience nor does it need a giant price tag. It's an opportunity for you to share a moment, a knowing exchange, a personal connection that is meaningful for the two people that matter the most—you and your loved one.

Famous Couple Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt Are House Hunting in London

By Mackenzie Scibetta

The Jolie-Pitt clan may no longer be walking the concrete streets of Los Angeles, but rather the cobblestone roads of London. As reported by UsMagazine.com, the married celebrity couple of Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt recently toured a $39 million Westminster mansion. Although this latest celebrity news hints at the family relocating, the duo are reportedly hesitant about making such a huge investment. Specifically,

Jolie doesn't want to rush into anything that could potentially halt her directing aspirations. The famous couple have been spending an increased amount of time in London because Jolie wants to "slowly immerse herself in E.U. politics."

This famous couple is selecting a new home together. What are some ways to compromise on a big purchase?

Cupid's Advice:

If you and your loved one are thinking about spending big, then it is essential you both agree on this decision. Make sure you both put the bigger picture of each other's happiness above this material good. Cupid has some key factors to remember when you're splurging big:

1. Plan a way to fit it into your budget: Arguing about money is one of the quickest ways to strain a relationship, so make sure you're realistic about what purchases you want to make. Set financial goals so you can both reach that dream boat you've always wanted. The key is figuring out ahead of time where you and your partner can cut back.

2. Decide if the purchase is necessary: Buying a new house for a growing family is certainly justifiable, but if you and your partner are dropping cash on outlandish items then that can lead to an array of problems. Only make big purchases that make sense with the life you are living. Spending money is addicting so make sure you and your loved one don't end up in over your heads.

Famous Couple Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie: When is it Time to Seek Help?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Famous couple Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's celebrity marriage has been reinvigorated by couples' counseling. Although things are on the mend now, there was trouble in paradise less than a year after they tied the knot. Not only did Brad see ex Jennifer Aniston alone, but he also didn't accompany Angelina to the Critics' Choice Awards in January. After months of fighting, they decided to seek the help of a therapist.

Now they plan to always keep counseling in their lives, because they say it has transformed their marriage and helped them fall in love with each other again. And they are not alone.

Cameron Diaz and Benji Madden have enlisted some outside support after just five months of marriage, as they work to put a strong foundation beneath them. This proves that it is never too early to get help.

The secret to having a lasting relationship and love life is to not let the anger and resentment build up to the point where it drives you apart. A lot of people don't realize that a lasting union is full of angry and questioning feelings which go hand in hand with the adoring ones, not unlike a seesaw. I call them "love you, mean it" and "hate you, mean it" moments, which I talk about in my book What About Me? Stop Selfishness From Ruining Your Relationship.

It is natural to shift in and out of these emotions. The challenge is to make sure the positive ones always balance the negative ones so that they don't consume you. The goal is always to continue to or to get back to loving and feeling connected to your partner. What happens, though, when that becomes more and more difficult to do, and you aren't able to get past the anger anymore? How do you know when it is time to bring in a trained professional to help you sort out the issues?

Even in today's sophisticated age, people are often reluctant to air their marital problems with an outsider, especially when it comes to sexual troubles. There are many reasons for this which include feeling embarrassed, the fear that you think something is really wrong with you or your partner, the concern that you will be told there is something wrong with your relationship that is unfixable, or maybe you do want to go but your partner doesn't. There are also those people who think that because the idea of divorce hasn't come up things can't be that bad, so you don't really need help.

It is terrific that Brad and Angelina realize and appreciate that they have a big relationship, sometimes even bigger than the two of them, and they were able to seek assistance from a counselor who can help them deal with their issues. The same is true for Cameron and Benji. You certainly don't have to be a celebrity to have issues that can weigh down your relationship and start to interfere with the love you share, but they are good examples to follow. If you are resisting therapy, try to shift your way of thinking. Know that there isn't anything wrong with you or your partner, but there is something in your connection that warrants finding help and relief. Allow your fears to propel you forward instead of holding you back. Your seeking help is not a sign of weakness in any way, but rather a measure of strength, courage, and commitment to your relationship. It proves that you care enough to not give up and find what it takes to make things better.

Keep in mind that making a relationship successful is work. If you don't do that work now, you will have to do it later either by taking your marriage apart or learning to live with unhappiness. Why not spend that energy working to find a way to stay together and live happily? A therapist can help a couple learn to communicate and identify the problem areas in their relationship, so that they can learn how to compromise and put the pieces back together. Brad and Angelina seem to be doing just that. They appear strong and are a positive testimony to the value of knowing when to get help and getting it. Hopefully the same will be true for Cameron and Benji.
