By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, celebrity exes Bradley Cooper and Renee Zellweger were spotted mingling together at the 2020 Oscars. UsMagazine.com reported that the two were being cordial with one another before taking their seats as the award show started. The pair began dating soon after working together on the thriller Case 29 in 2009. They then split back in 2011.

These celebrity exes kept it cordial and mingled at this year's Oscars. What are some reasons to remain cordial with your ex after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying cordial with an ex can sometimes be tricky. If you and your ex ended on less than ideal terms, it can be even trickier to find a medium ground between the two of you. It doesn't help if you have to see each other more often than you would like. If you're having trouble keeping it amicable with an ex, don't worry! Cupid has some relationship advice to help you wade through those waters after a break-up:

1. Let time pass: Sometimes, the best healing agent is the act of absence. Even if you are forced to be at the same functions or events as an ex, it's easier to stay clear of them until both of you are at a point that you can talk to one another cordially. It'll be less stressful and much more rewarding if you keep your distance when you work on interacting publicly.

2. Meet up to discuss problems: If you both are at a place that you can meet and hash out your issues, that would be a great step for forging a cordial relationship with an ex. You guys can get everything out into the open, understand why one of you felt the way you did, and find common ground. Besides, this is a perfect opportunity to get closure if you didn't already have it.

3. Bring friends as support: If you know you're going to have to interact with an ex at a function or event, surround yourself with friends to make sure it all runs smoothly. They won't allow the conversation to go off the rails, and they are a great barrier between any awkward tiffs you and your ex might have if you both were alone.

Celebrity News: Laura Dern Speaks Out About Bradley Cooper Dating Rumors

By Hope Ankney

In the latest celebrity news, Laura Dern dismissed all dating rumors between herself and Bradley Cooper. According to UsMagazine.com, the actress opened up about her close relationship with Cooper, stating, “We are amazing friends, and we’re family.” This set of rumors circulated soon after Cooper’s celebrity relationship with supermodel Irina Shayk ended back in June.

In celebrity news, this pair are just good friends. What are some ways to lay false relationship rumors to rest?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes, it can be frustrating for two people to be friendly towards one another without others thinking something romantic is going on behind the scenes. Platonic relationships, especially between the opposite sex, have a connotation that there must be underlying feelings there when that isn't always the case. Two people enjoying each other's company is fairly common. Friendship exists. If you're stuck in a situation where others are trying to make something out of nothing, don't worry! Cupid has some love advice on how to lay pesky relationship rumors to rest:

1. Direct conversation: Sometimes communication can be the biggest key when dismissing relationship rumors with your friends. They might just be teasing you about it for fun, without realizing it can actually bother you. If you haven't been abundantly clear about this newfound friendship, sit these friends down and have a direct conversation about it. Opening up about how you aren't dating this specific person and explaining why these false rumors have been bothering you may allow them to realize that you're telling the truth and not assume anything else about the relationship or even relationships in the future!

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Bradley Cooper Enjoys a Boys' Night in L.A. After Irina Shayk Split

2. Ignore it: Perhaps, people are only speculating about you and this other person because they know it gets a rise out of you. If these rumors don't overly upset you, find it in you to simply ignore what others are saying. Like is told to us from a young age, ignoring someone's teasing can often lead to the teasing to stop, altogether. This can be used in your adult life, as well. If you pretend like these false rumors don't bother you, the situation will probably diffuse itself.

3. Be open publicly: If all else fails, maybe it's time to take to social media! Making a post about false relationship rumors can be overkill, but if nothing else has worked to stop it, it can be an effective way to get others to stop speculating. Make a status update, tweet, or even post a photo of the both of you explaining away the rumors. Speaking out publicly about the situation can immediately dismiss it if you're taking that much time and effort to set the record straight on your social media platform!

In celebrity break-up news, Bradley Cooper shook off some split stress with a night out on the town with his guy friends. What are some ways to cope with a very recent split?

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups can be stressful and often come with a lot of heartaches. The best ways to cope with a recent split can be different for everyone, from hanging out with your friends to eating ice cream from the carton. Cupid has some advice on coping with a recent break-up:

1. Lean on your friends: Sometimes the worst thing you can do after a split is to sit at home alone and dwell on the past. Take this time to spend time with your friends. Go out, dance, and let them help you take your mind off of your break-up; let them be there for you the way you'd be for them if the roles were reversed.

2. Stick to a routine: A break-up can make you feel like the rug has been pulled from beneath your feet. It can be easy to get lost in your sadness and focus on the loss, but sticking to a schedule will help you avoid getting lost in a long crying abyss even if it is something as simple as setting your alarm, taking a shower at a specific time each night, or whatever helps you keep moving forward.

3. Express yourself: Feeling lonely or upset and sad is normal after splitting with your partner. Draw, paint, or just keep a journal so that you can get your feelings out in a healthy way.

Cupid’s Advice:

We all change to some degree after we become parents or are about to become parents. Here are some ways it can happen:

1. Saturdays: Remember when you used to love sleeping in late and then hoofed it straight to the coffee pot only to binge watch your favorite show? You might have even treated yourself to a donut instead of a full-blown breakfast. Those days are now a thing of the past with little ones, which are reserved for morning cartoons and whipping up a full morning meal.

2. You'll make decisions differently: Before kids you might have been able to make a decision on a whim. Celebrity Couple Predictions:
Ariel Winter, Bradley Cooper
and David Foster

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, three famous couples have caught the public's attention. One of which is new celebrity couple is stepping out in young Hollywood, while a more seasoned couple is prepping for a celebrity baby, and another is just getting things started. . But who's stepping out this time around hand in hand? Join me as I look into the crystal ball of relationships and love. Below, I share my predictions for these celebrity couples.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last couple alert, because Ariel Winter and Levi Meaden have stepped out on the red carpet together making their celebrity relationship official after months of speculation. Winter is very smitten with Meadan, though it's not hard to blame her. He's cute, tall, and he's quite charming. She's a great catch as well. Both of them want to experience a fun, yet respectful relationship. Winter has no time for childish men. Being wise beyond her years makes it a bit difficult for her to find man that she connects with. That's where Meaden comes in. He has no problem with a smart woman whose fiery so they are a good match. Fun is the theme of this celebrity couple and they may even learn a thing or two about love. After Meaden, Winter will end up dating an older man.

Bradley Cooper and Irina Shayk: With a baby on the way and rumors swirling, Cooper and Shayk have everyone wondering if they are engaged. Shayk has a new mystery ring on her finger. But since she hasn't had the baby yet, it's safe to say that it's probably not a push gift. My psychic senses say that they plan to have a secret celebrity wedding to seal the deal. Cooper is all about family and he thinks it's time for him to settle down now that a baby is on the way. He wants to give married life a try since he's seen it work for other longtime Hollywood bachelors. Babies bring about happiness and emotions so it's a wonderful time for Cooper and Shayk. While I would love to say it will be all unicorns and rainbows for these two, that's not the case. They are a bit like a roller coaster. There's a lot of up and down. Right now things are up due to the excitement of the baby. There needs to be a discussion about that each one of them wants in a marriage or they will last about three years tops.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: Bradley Cooper Is Spotted on a Run Post Girlfriend's Pregnancy Reveal

David Foster and Christie Brinkley: Looks like David Foster and Christie Brinkley are spending some quality time together. Actually it's more like there's been one date or two. However with celebrities, one date could mean an engagement in two months. It's safe to say that Foster has a thing for models since some of his ex-wives were models or beauty queens. While Brinkley seems to like a man with some musical talent since her longest marriage was to singer Billy Joel. This isn't Foster or Brinkley's first time at the rodeo, both of them have a lot of relationships under their belt. If they get married it will be the fifth wedding between each. Maybe the fifth time's the charm? Hold up on the celebrity wedding invitations. This relationship is simply two good looking, age-appropriate people enjoying each other. Marriage does not look like it's in the cards. That is not to say that this romance won't last. It's always nice to have a "maintenance person" on speed dial when one is looking for love. I predict that we won't ever know all the details of their romance, they will keep us guessing.

Love Advice: Can Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper's Work Marriage Work?

By Dr. Jane Greer

The on-screen chemistry shared by actors Jennifer Lawrence and Bradley Cooper is so true to life, it's hard to believe it isn't real. The two can be seen everywhere from Silver Linings Playbook to American Hustle to their upcoming project, Serena. Both admit to being each other's work spouses, but insist there is no sex in their faux celebrity marriage. Having a close relationship with someone at work can happen to anyone, not just celebs. You don't actually have to be "playing" husband and wife on screen to feel like you are just that, to an extent. It can happen in any job setting.

The love advice question is, how entangled can you become with a work spouse, and where do you draw the line so the relationship doesn't negatively affect other parts of your life?

Define Boundaries

Defining the boundaries and being clear about how far and where you can take the connection can, in fact, make the friendship better and allow you to fall into the zone where flirting can be fun, but safe. It also makes room for your chemistry to kick in because it eliminates the constant question of whether or not you're going to take this relationship to the next level. You know the answer is "no," so that gives you room to express yourself more freely.

Attraction is Good

Many friendships between men and women are punctuated by attraction which is never acted on, but keeps the relationship exciting and alive. In the end, though, it isn't just about that energy and flirtation. It is more about knowing each other well, working well together, having each other's backs, and especially experiencing the security of the trust you share. While people often joke that the relationship has the dimensions of a marriage, it is, in fact, really about the camaraderie.

Know the Limits

The most important piece of love advice when it comes to work marriages is if you aren't in a romantic relationship outside of work, knowing the limits of your "work marriage" is important so you won't end up disappointed if it never goes beyond what it already is. If you are dating or married to another person, knowing those limits is even more important so it doesn't spill over the walls of the office and create jealousy or a perceived threat to your partner. With that in mind, if you are spending time with your "work spouse" outside of work, invite your significant others to join you. That way they will feel included in your friendship instead of excluded. Along those lines, if you spend personal time together, make sure it is work-related, rather than simply going out to have a good time, so that there is no question about what you are doing when you're together.

As “work spouses” and actors, Jennifer and Bradley might be put in more questionable situations than most who are close and share an office because of the specific roles they are playing. Even so, as long as they hold onto the agreed upon boundaries, they will be able to leave their “work marriage” on the set and live their personal lives without complications.

Celebrity News: Jennifer Lawrence Says Bradley Cooper Is Her Work Husband

By Jenna Bagcal

Having a work husband or a work wife is a great relationship to have at your job. The chemistry between you and your work spouse can promote productivity and create an overall welcoming and pleasant work environment. In the latest celebrity news from UsMagazine.com, Jennifer Lawrence referred to newly single celebrity Bradley Cooper as her “work husband.” Cooper’s celebrity break-up from model Suki Waterhouse was reported after the famous couple had been dating for two years. Lawrence and Cooper have been known for working together on a number of films, and the two have a mutual respect for each other’s craft with “no sex” in their relationship, according to Lawrence.

This celebrity news is no news in this case! What’s the difference between a real husband and a work husband?

Cupid's Advice:

These stars made celebrity news for their status as “work spouses,” but this trend happens in regular offices as well. While the term “work husband” may be a little misleading, there are differences between your work husband and your real husband that you should be aware of. Here are Cupid's tips for differentiating between the two:

1. You don't have a sexual relationship with your work husband: Although you may spend hours on end with your work husband and have great chemistry with him at the office, there are boundaries that should not be crossed. You should not engage in any kinds of sexual behavior with your work spouse. Your relationship with your work husband should be strictly professional, making sure to not blur the lines between your work relationship and your marriage.

2. Issues with your real husband should be resolved between the two of you: Arguments and drawn out fights with your husband are inevitable. However, this does not mean that you should bring your issues you have with your husband to your work spouse. When you have a disagreement with your husband, work it out between the two of you at home instead of telling Brian from work how frustrating your partner can be.

3. Don't spend alone time with your work husband outside of work: If you eat lunch with your work husband during your break, that's one thing. But grabbing drinks with him during happy hour is something that should be avoided, because it crosses the line between your work relationship and your romantic relationship with your husband. Always remember that while you have a great relationship with your work spouse, it's something that should be limited to the office.
