By Marissa Donovan

It's been years since the drama first started between Brandi Glanville and LeAnn Rimes. According to EOnline.com, the tension between the two has gotten worse since the Real Housewives of Beverly Hills alum has made allegations about Rimes' behavior. Glanville believes that Rimes is trying to sabotage her current celebrity relationship with Donald Friese. She accused the country singer of stalking the couple on Snapchat. On June 9th, Glanville posted a screenshot on Instagram to support her claim. Eddie Cibrian showed a text message on Twitter trying to debunk claims. No comments have been made by Rimes.

Though Eddie Cibrian is really Brandi Glanville's celebrity ex, it's his new love LeAnn Rimes who can't get along with his ex. What are some ways to keep your new and past partners from butting heads?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard to keep the peace when you have a bad history with someone's ex or current partner. Here are some tactics you can use for less drama:

1. Have an understand and positive mindset: Paranoia and jealousy often happen if a relationship didn't begin on good terms. Try understanding where the other person is coming from and set the tone. If the other person is making cruel remarks then try being the bigger person. If you are talking badly about the other person then stop and reflect on how this will only make things worse.

2. Try team bonding exercises: You need to be trusting and civil if children are involved. Try finding team bonding workshops that will force you to work together instead of working against each other. You may not be best friends in the end, but at least you'll be on civil terms.

Celebrity Interview: Brandi

Glanville Is More Than a Housewife on 'Famously Single'

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Stephanie Sacco.

Brandi Glanville is more than a “real housewife” and reality TV star. She’s also a single mother looking for a good man. Known mostly for her infamous (drinking) escapades on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills (RHOBH), the mother of two has joined the cast of the new reality television series, Famously Single. The new E! series centers around eight single celebrities living in a house together with the goal of mending their broken hearts and relationship issues once and for all. The singles are advised by relationship coaches, practice dating techniques and attend group therapy sessions throughout the season.

Glanville opened up to CupidsPulse.com in an exclusive celebrity interview, where she gave us the scoop on her recent Instagram booty post, filled us in on her tryst with Calum Best and dished on all things marriage, love and her experience on the new reality TV show, Famously Single.

Reality TV Star Brandi Glanville reveals who the booty Instagram & Tweet were for in our celebrity interview.

Glanville has kissed a lot of frogs in her dating life but last week she addressed her most recent (ex) flame on social media by sharing two pictures of her booty on Instagram and on Twitter, where she reclaimed her body and said it no longer belonged to him. The photo created a lot of celebrity news headlines but Glanville gave us the real scoop on who that booty shot was intended for saying, “There’s always that guy that you go back and forth with and you know it’s not good for you, but he’s there when no one else is.”

She says the relationship was on again, off-again for about a year before she decided to end it for good on social media. “We would just hook up but we would never really go out together,” explained Glanville. “He’s an actor and he didn’t want to be seen with someone on a reality show because I guess it makes him less legitimate as an actor.”

Glanville decided to go along with the half-relationship and let it play out. But last week, on her way to his Fourth of July party, her love interest called and told her not to come because it wasn’t the best idea that she be there. Her response? “I got a bottle of rosé, I went to my gay husband’s house, we made Instagram videos, and I taught him how to walk on a runway, and that was my Fourth of July.” Instead of letting her flames rejection consume her, she took to social media and ended it-her way!

Reality TV Star Addresses Recent Celebrity Gossip

The most recent celebrity gossip has focused on the fact that Glanville claims she never wants to get married again and while she admits that to be true she also says that she “would love to meet someone who changes her mind.” Glanville says that she is open to the possibility if it happens but “she doesn’t need a paper to define the relationship.” I guess never say never. On RHOBH, Glanville says that she wasn't seen as a mother with emotions and a woman with a romantic side, but instead as 'your drunk friend Brandi.' Famously Single shows a different side to the former model and allows her to be herself.

The former RHOBH star says that she was skeptical about doing another reality show and unsure how open she should be about the process. "I used to be very touchy feely, and I used to snuggle and now for seven years I don't do PDA, I don't snuggle," she says. Her doubts proved unnecessary because she did connect emotionally on the show with her new Bestie, Calum Best. "Luckily I met someone in the house that I ended up having feelings for," says the Famously Single star. "It made me feel good again. It made me feel like I'm ready for this again and I don't have to be so tough and scare everyone off. I really just need to put myself out there and if I get hurt, I get hurt." The most important part of life is learning how to cope with change and moving on after hard times.

Famously Single taught Glanville a lot about herself, although she didn't find lasting love in the end. She says Best, her equally famous and single love interest, played a huge part in helping her figure things out. "Ultimately I love him, I adore him. If he was five years older and lived here, things would be different."

Being on the show was a life changing experience for Glanville and she received plenty of great relationship advice. "I realized that I have to be softer. I have to let people in and give them the chance to get to know me."

Instead of exploiting single celebrities and trying to make them look bad, the dating coaches on Famously Single try to help them fight through their dating past to make a better future. “I want to be a girl sometimes. I want to let that side of me down and I want to be vulnerable, but having said that I know that’s how I get hurt,” Glanville says. “So it’s just about finding that recognition and Laurel and Darcy helped me find it.”

Glanville doesn’t want to dwell on the past and she isn’t interested in ever going back to the RHOBH show that made her famous. According to Glanville, her time on Famously Single was nothing like RHOBH. “It was completely different,” she says. “They weren’t trying to have us fight with each other. We were all there to work on ourselves. I fell in love with all of them a little bit. It was nice. It was a completely different experience.”

Famously Single airs on Tuesdays at 10 p.m. on E!

What are some ways to keep things civil with your ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes when you think of an ex, you don’t always think of the possibility of being cordial with each other. One of the first things that come to mind is bashing one another every chance there is. Despite the history, whether good or bad, many past lovers are actually a bit amiable. Cupid has some advice:

1. End on good terms: Communicate thoroughly with your ex-partner to gain a full understanding on why the relationship has ended. This primary step will avoid a ton of confusion and maybe even make for a better ‘friendship’ between the both of you.

Related: Brandi Glanville Says Drama Will End When LeAnn Rimes Has Her Own Kids

2. Control your emotions: Avoid harboring those ill feelings because they can possibly lead to major problems between you and your ex down the road. If you are carrying a load of baggage from the relationship, do not expect to successfully be civil. Unfortunately, it’s not as easy as it sounds and will take some time to adjust. What’s most important is that you give it a try.

3. Don't be selfish: Take in mind this life lesson you were taught at a young age. Also, steer clear of damaging or returning your ex's possessions. There is always a possibility that he or she will later ask for it and if not properly returned, chaos may rise – what you are trying to keep away from.

Brandi Glanville Talks About Dating as a Single Parent

By Sanetra Richards

Dating as a parent can be tricky. Brandi Glanville of Real Housewives of Beverly Hills is one of many women who come across the 'dating worry pot.' Brandi Glanville, who was once married to Eddie Cibrian, has her fair share of issues as a member of the single parent dating community, according to People. The mother of two went on to talk about the challenges of dating as a single parent, saying, "It's hard for me to take the leap of trust. I'm a little bit tough because I can't afford to get my heart broken. When I do bring someone to meet [my sons], it's going to be for good."

How do you balance dating and being a single parent?

Cupid's Advice:

As a mom or dad, you constantly worry about your child – from the time they take their first breath to their first school crush. It is completely natural to develop a concern in everything that involves them. With all of this in mind, dating as a single parent is just another ingredient to add to the pot of worries. Although it may be challenging, it is possible to balance by taking a few steps:

1. Waiting a little while: The first mistake many single parents sometimes make is introducing the person they are newly dating to the child(ren) early on. Who's to say this person will be around for the long run? Unless you are fully devoted and committed, your best bet is to wait to take this step. Children are often exposed to their parents' personal lives at young ages, which can possibly lead to development issues in later years. There is no need to rush.

2. Being honest: One of the most, if not the most, important keys to successfully mingling is to remain honest at all times. Be upfront with the person you are dating and inform them that you are a single parent. If this done in the beginning, it will not come as a surprise down the line. Also, you will likely find out if he or she wants to be involved with someone who is a parent.

3. Don't forget to be 'mommy' or 'daddy': If the previous steps have been taken in a timely manner, the meeting between your significant other and child(ren) is next. Communicate with your child(ren) before and after the introduction, in order to avoid any ill feelings or misbehavior. In addition, give him or her time to warm up to your new partner – group outings and activities may help in this department.

Brandi Glanville Says Drama Will End When LeAnn Rimes Has Her Own Kids

 By Andrea Surujnauth

Brandi Glanville and LeAnn Rimes have not been on good terms for a while now. Glanville's ex-husband Eddie Cibrian had an affair with Rimes while the two were still married. This led to their split in 2010. Since then, Rimes and Glanville have been publicly feuding. Glanville and Cibrian have two kids together Jake, 5, and Mason, 9. These kids have been the center of most arguments between Rimes and Glanville. In one incident, Rimes called the children "my boys" on Twitter, which cause Glanville to become extremely upset. Now it seems that Glanville is tired of the fighting with the country music star. According to UsMagazine.com she told Access Hollywood, "This is my final chapter. This is me closing to door on our public fight. I want it out of the media. I'll just deal with it as best I can with them." She went on to say, "I don't think we'll be friends, but I hope we can coexist peacefully. Once she has a child of her own, I think she will understand boundaries and what's respectful to do and how to handle things a little better."

How do you cope with a step mom/dad of whom you don't approve?

Cupid's Advice:

You can not choose who your ex-spouse marries or starts a relationship with. What should you do if you do not approve of who they choose to be with? Not to worry, Cupid is here to help you learn to cope:

1. Do not take the relationship personally: Realize that your ex did not start this new relationship to hurt you. They are just trying to get on with their lives. By realizing this, your hostility towards the new relationship won't be as severe.

2. Do not jump into a new relationship: Do not get yourself into a new relationship before you're ready. If you jump into the next person's arms that comes along, you are likely to get hurt. If you get hurt in your new relationship, you will feel even more upset about your ex being in a new stable relationship.

3. Acceptance: Accept that your ex is in a new relationship and once it is serious, your kids will be getting to know your ex's new partner. Do not fight over your children, they still know who you are to them and they will still love you. Fighting over them will only cause them to feel depressed.

Brandi Glanville Donates Wedding Dress to Army Wife

 By Nic Baird

Brandi Glanville, star of Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, announced with a Jan. 5 Twitter post that she was donating the wedding gown from her broken marriage to a “soon-to-be army wife,” UsMagazine.com reports. Glanville and Eddie Cibrian divorced in September 2010 after nine years of marriage. “I still haven’t heard about who received it,” Glanville said about the donated dress. “I hope it makes someone very happy.”

What do you do with your wedding dress after your wedding day?

Cupid’s Advice:

It served its purpose and now it just takes up space. A trash can is too cruel for something so personal, and too foolish for something so expensive. There are a few options to make the most of your leftover wedding-wear:

1. Heirloom: If you don’t mind cutting your dress to pieces, you can keep its significance in your family by refashioning it as part of a blanket, bassinet skirt, or a pillow for your daughter. Otherwise, you can always offer it to the weddings of future generations.

2. Donation: There are charities set up to use the resale of wedding dresses to support cancer research and other causes. Consider that part of your marriage’s legacy could be putting this otherwise useless dress towards a good cause.

3. Alteration: If you’re determined to get the most bang for your buck out of this dress, than you could always try the risky maneuver of altering it into a more conventional outfit. You can definitely shorten the dress, and in some cases even dye it. Since when do you get a piece of clothing tailored to your exact measurements?

LeAnn Rimes Breaks Down Over the Ending of Her First Marriage

 By Nicole Weintraub

LeAnn Rimes is currently married to Eddie Cibrian, though she recently broke down to tears while talking about the ending of her first marriage, according to UsMagazine.com. Prior to becoming Mrs. Cibrian, Rimes was married to Dean Sheremet and Cibrian was married to Brandi Glanville. The two hooked up on the set of Northern Lights in 2009 and have gotten married to each other since then. However, Cibrian and Glanville have two kids from their marriage, which has resulted in a fierce media war between Rimes and Glanville over the children. "I never, ever in my heart want to hurt anyone," Rimes opened up about the affair and the divorce. "You can't break what's already broken," she explained in between sobs regarding her previous marriage. Regardless of the current media frenzy between Rimes and Glanville, Rimes remains hopeful that they can work together in the future to co-parent the two sons.

What are some ways to get over a particularly rough breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Break-ups are hard to go through, but some are worse than others. Here are some tips on how to get over a specifically nasty one:

1. Close that chapter: Do not try to remain friends with your ex, delete them from your Facebook and try to dispose of anything that would remind you of them. You need to go cold turkey in order to successfully move on.

2. Pick up a hobby: Get out that bucket list you've been putting off and start checking things off. Sign up for a kickboxing class or a zumba class. Experiment in the kitchen to learn new recipes.

3. Postpone dating: Take a break from dating to dote on yourself for a little while. Do what you want to do and don't worry about finding someone else until you're ready to put yourself out there again.

 By Jessica DeRubbo

It's all about the drama between Brandi Glanville and LeAnn Rimes again ... this time surrounding Cibrian and Glanville's sons together, according to UsMagazine.com. In a spirited family mood, Rimes tweeted, ""Flying out with my boys in a few hours. Love that it's a family tour weekend. It's always more fun when they are with me." This apparently very much upset Glanville, who seemingly responded to the tweet with her own, saying, "Someone is trying to get under my skin by calling my

How do you deal with your partner's jealous ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes one of the hardest parts of your current relationship is dealing with your partner's past relationships in the form of a jealous ex. Cupid has some advice:

1. Ignore it: Your first action should be to ignore what's going on and to try not to react to it. Sometimes this is enough to encourage your partner's ex to give t up.

2. Have your partner address it: The fact is that you shouldn't have to deal with your partner's past relationships. Tell your mate how you feel and have him or her have a talk with their ex to smooth things over.

3. Confront the situation: If neither of the above works, it's time to take matters into your own hands. Sometimes being direct about your feelings with your partner's ex can be what it takes to shut down the situation.

Brandi Glanville Admits to Hooking Up with Gerard Butler

 Brandi Glanville has come out and admitted to fooling around with Gerard Butler in Malibu last August. According to UsMagazine.com, Glanville revealed the secret to Andy Cohen on What Happens Live. Although it was denied in September when rumors surfaced, it is now confirmed by Glanville that the couple “had a little week of fun.” Glanville even admitted that Butler was an 11 on the lover scale of one to ten. A source said the “fooling around” occurred shortly after Glanville was left by ex-husband Eddie Cibrian.

What do you do if a former partner starts bragging about hooking up with you?

Cupid’s Advice:

It might seem like flattery when an ex brags about being with you, but it can also be a little too over the top and way too much information. Here are some tips on how to handle the situation:

1. Politely ask your ex to stop: Without causing unnecessary drama, talk to your ex and request that they stop discussing your private matters. This is easier said than done, but if you are polite, patient and understanding towards your former partner the showdown should run smoothly.

2. Make sure the facts are straight: If your ex does not stop, be sure he is at least blabbing the right story to the public. If his word is coming out sideways against yours, go ahead and set the tale straight.

3. Warn your current lover about what they might hear: Dealing with exes in new relationships is a sticky subject. If your current beau is clueless about your past lover, be sure to tell him before someone else does. Even the hard stuff sounds better coming from your own lips.

Brandi Glanville Has Quickie Wedding in Las Vegas

Brandi Glanville rang in the new year by getting a new husband...temporarily that is. The 38-year-old star of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills married a mixed martial arts manager, Darin Harvey this past weekend. However, according to UsMagazine.com: Glanville, the former wife of Eddie Cibrian, tweeted of the marriage "We're not gonna stay married. But it was a fun way to start out the new year!" According to a source, they got drunk and became hitched for publicity. The two have never been linked romantically and think of each other as brother and sister.

Why is it important to think things through before getting married?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is not a step to be taken lightly. Cupid's Pulse has some reasons why one should truly think about their relationship before saying "I do."

1. Responsibility: Marriage is a big responsibility and when people walk down the aisle it should be for better or worse. Kim Kardashian took on a lifelong and very public commitment when she wed Kris Humphries. And, when she separated from her husband, she took away the maturity that this type of union entails, showing that one doesn't truly have to take on that duty for life.

2. It's not a joke: When Britney got married in Vegas, and annulled it less than 3 days later, she illustrated to young people that marriage was disposable. A commitment of marriage should be based on proper planning and true love.

3. Issues will arise: For those who wed on a whim, they will experience added pressure when problems arise. Being with someone isn't easy and being with a partner you aren't 100 percent sure about is even worse. Some people do make mistakes and don't realize it, until it's too late. But, there should be an added fight and marriage counseling before calling it quits.

LeAnn Rimes Says She's a Mom (Not a Stepmom) When it Comes to Eddie Cibrian's Children

 LeAnn Rimes says she's no evil stepmother. In fact, you can drop the "evil" and the "step." Rimes took to her blog to discuss her dislike toward the term "stepmother." She said she treats her husband's two sons like they are her own, according to UsMagazine.com. After reassuring the public that she doesn't want to take the place of the kids' mother, Rimes wrote that she hopes Glanville will remarry so that they can all be one big happy blended family.

What are some ways to bond with your partner's children?

Cupid's Advice:

Marrying someone who has children from a previous relationship can be intimidating. After you've established your role in your new family, try to get to know the children and vice versa. It may take some time, but it'll be worth it.

1. Establish your role: Let the children know your role in their family. It's easy to cross the line from parent to friend, but make sure you pick a definitive side.

2. Make them feel comfortable: Less is more. Try not to engage in every activity they are involved in. Start by showing interest in what they like and slowly progress into asking to join them in an activity.

3. Give them something new: Don't try to take over their biological parent's spot in their lives. Make them love you for something different. Be yourself, and everything will fall in place.

Cupid's Advice:

It's important to show your ex that you have moved on when a relationship ends. We're not talking about busting his car windows in or posting shameless pictures of you making out with random guys on Facebook. Cupid has some classy ways to go about it:

1. Change your relationship status: If social networking is your thing, than make it known on Facebook or with a quick Twitter post that you are now a single lady. Note: This should be the last post about you and your ex left behind in the cyber world.

2. Take a hint from Brandi Glanville: If you're not ready to date, why not have a little fun? A fling or make out session with a hot guy says you've moved on and are focusing on you.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Party With Cibrian's Ex Brandi Glanville

Please for our families' sake stop the hate now and let us live our lives."

What changes do you have to make to put jealousy in the past?

Cupid's Advice:

There comes a time in all of our lives where we have to move on and put certain things behind us. Cupid has some advice on changes to make in your life to put the green-eyed monster in the past:

1. Live in the moment: As hard as it is to forgive and forget, the only way for you to move along with your life is to live for today, and let go of things in the past.

2. Focus on the good: Jealousy comes from our constant need to look at what others in our lives have that we don't. Start focusing on what you do have, and you'll begin to see that there's more to be thankful for than you originally thought.

3. Avoid questions: If you know that you have a tendency to be an envious person, try not to ask about past relationships or things that other people have that may trigger your jealousy.

LeAnn Rimes and Brandi Glanville End Feud Over Eddie Cibrian

The ongoing internet feud between country crooner LeAnn Rimes and her fiance Eddie Cibrian's ex wife Brandi Glanville is over, reports UsMagazine.com. Rimes has been accused of creating a fake Twitter account and cyber bullying Glanville, but both women are denying any harassment has taken place. "We have communicated and have a direct understanding that we are only ourselves on Twitter and have no other accounts that try to destroy one another," Rimes tweeted.

Should you be concerned about your partner's ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner is with you for a reason. Always remember, you were chosen over everyone else:

1. Underlying issues: If you're self-conscious about your love life for some reason or you began to date your partner while he was still connected to an ex, this can cause issues. Sometimes you should just ignore the past and focus on the present.

2. Over the line: Does your partner's ex continuously step over the line? If the ex in question continues to make themselves known in an unwanted situation, speak up and tell him or her how you feel.

3. You're naive: If your partner's ex is still around because your partner is keeping them around, perhaps you should look into this. Is your partner being 100% honest with you about letting his ex down slowly and carefully? A breakup takes one conversation, not three weeks.

Eddie Cibrian Gives LeAnn Rimes Birthday Bling

 LeAnn Rimes' live-in boyfriend, Eddie Cibrian, may not have popped the question during her relaxing 28th birthday celebration last week in Mexico; however, he did give her some expensive rose gold bangles that she adores. Rimes raved to People about how beautiful the bracelets were and how very sweet it was of her boyfriend to pick them out for her. The country singer recently went from living on her own to sharing her home with Cibrian and his two children, which he has joint custody of with his ex, Brandi Glanville. Does jewelry always make the perfect gift?

Cupid's Advice:

As something that is both expensive and alluring, fine jewelry always seems to be the go-to present on birthdays and holidays. Though it can bring smiles to the faces of many, it can also be a disappointing gift when the recipient was expecting something else.

1. Great expectations: It's easy to set yourself up for disappointment when you go into an occasion hoping for a marriage proposal. Try not to assume or expect a commitment from your partner, even if it means wearing a diamond solitaire around your neck instead of your finger.

2. Give a memorable gift: It's not about the gift itself, but what it stands for, such as a memory of an amazing trip you took together. Though jewelry does fit into this category, any sentimental gesture can be a romantic way of letting someone know you care.

3. The cop-out: Sometimes gift giving is difficult, no matter how well you know your partner. This could result in picking out a pretty piece of jewelry simply because you can't think of anything else. The problem, is a gift with no meaning could be worse than no gift at all. Creativity and thought almost always trumps expense!
