What are some ways to know you can trust your partner after a betrayal?

Cupid's Advice:

Trust is a main element in a strong relationship. When your partner violates that trust, often it is much harder to ever trust him as much as before. Even so, to stay together AND never trust him again is only torturous for you both. Explore the ways to learn to trust again with these three tips:

1. You are no longer blind: In experiencing this betrayal, you open your eyes to the red flags and lies you used to deny. You realize that he was able to lie to you because along with his dishonesty, you too were dishonest with yourself. In being truthful to yourself, you can now expect your partner to do the same.

2. You know what he will do: In reconciling, your partner is open and honest about the necessary steps he is taking to regain your trust. In him doing this and being consistent, you are able to slowly release your fear of him betraying you. You both are aware that this isn't easy for him; yet, you guys support each other in this venture to unite strong again.

3. You have seen examples of trust again: In all this, you and your partner are beginning to reach a point where you can trust him again. Little instances that are equally important to major ones have happened and your mate has not failed you as before. You see that he is honest with you and can trust it.

How do you know if you can trust your partner after they betray you?

Cupid's Advice:

A betrayal from your partner can be a devastation that is likely to have a lasting effect on you. Even so, there are relationships that can overcome them. Should you find yourself in this situation, here are a few tips to getting back on track and trusting again:

1. There is no expiration date: Not only does your partner realize that you will need time to heal from his betrayal, but he does not dictate an end date. He sees that it is natural for you to analyze the incident and, in a way, mourn the loss of who he used to be. Plus, he knows that the relationship, during this troubled time, will not be in this state forever. So he waits.

2. The extra mile: Not only has he made amends with the issue that got you two here in the first place, but he has also gone above and beyond. Your partner is honest, caring and understanding with you. He gives you the time and attention to let you open up to him again by repeatedly opening up to you first. He focuses on re-strengthening your relationships foundation.

3. He uses this time to create a new relationship together: Because a betrayal can create a different person in us all, your partner takes advantage of this opportunity to live as the partner and person that he truly is through love. In public, he assures everyone that you come first and he speaks highly of you in a genuine way. He has learned to let go of the past...and so should you.

Cupid's Advice:

There's a commonly held belief that people should keep their personal and professional lives completely separate. Cupid has some reasons it might actually be a good idea to work with your partner:

1. You know each other: Chances are that you know your partner better than almost anyone else in your life. In a work environment, you can achieve efficiency easier with your partner because you're able to see eye-to-eye on things.

2. Motivations are the same: In a professional setting, you often start to question your co-workers' motivations and wonder if they match your own. Especially if you're married, you and your partner's motivations are pretty much guaranteed to be the same. You're working for a common cause.

3. Enables understanding: The best thing about working with your partner is that it allows you to better understand each other. Instead of having a big portion of your life off-limits, your mate knows exactly where you've been all day and exactly what you've achieved. There's no mystery!
