In the latest celebrity news, Megan Fox publicly slammed her celebrity ex Brian Austin Green for sharing a photograph of their son on Halloween. According to UsMagazine.com, Green posted an image of himself along with the couple's youngest son, Journey, to his Instagram. Fox was quick to comment on the image and questioned why her estranged husband did not crop their child out of the image. The celebrity couple officially split in May of this year after 10 years of marriage.

In celebrity news, there's definitely some drama between these exes, who share three kids together. What are some ways to iron out parenting differences with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to navigate co-parenting with an ex, especially if you have differing opinions on many fronts. If you are looking for some ways to iron out parenting differences with your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Establish predetermined rules: An easy way to prevent conflict or differences from arising in the future is to establish some predetermined rules. If you are against having your children featured on social media, or want a universal curfew for both of your houses, these are rules that can be established ahead of time. Be sure to keep these rules straightforward and collaborative to help eliminate as many parenting differences as possible.

2. Ask for permission: There will always be gray-area when it comes to parenting, whether you and your partner are still together or not. A great way to avoid differences is to simply ask for permission when you are unsure if what you're about to do will upset the other parent. The other person involved will appreciate the open communication and hopefully do the same when faced with a situation they are unsure of.

3. Discuss differences privately: While it can be frustrating to navigate parenting differences, especially when they are repetitive issues, it's important to discuss these differences privately. Opening up your conflicts to many other people, such as posting on social media, will only add unnecessary tension to the strained relationship and make it harder to iron out differences in the future.

Cupid's Advice:

Once you break up with someone. it can take your ex a little bit longer to get over the relationship than it did for you. If you've moved on with someone else after a break-up, but you don't want to hurt your ex, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Just tell them: Although this may seem like a hurtful tactic, letting your ex know before they find out from social media or a mutual friend is going to work out in their favor. This way they have time to adjust to your new relationship and when someone else brings it up to them, they won't be surprised at all.

Despite this celebrity break-up, Green expresses that he will always love Fox, but that they've been trying to be apart since the end of 2019. He got choked up as he explains that he would rather be apart from Fox than be at odds, since they're best friends and have children together.

In celebrity break-up news, Brian Austin Green and Megan Fox are calling it quits. How do you know your relationship is beyond saving?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are bound to go through up and downs, which makes it hard to know when you should let go. For some clarity on when your relationship is beyond help, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Is your partner being faithful?: If your partner truly loves you, they won't be unfaithful. If they are cheating on you or being dishonest, then they don't respect you enough to tell you that they don't want to be with you. And, in that case, there is no point trying to fix the relationship because you deserve someone that respects you enough to be faithful.

2. Are you happy?: Your partner is supposed to make you happy. So, if you feel that that you've been unhappy lately, then that's a sign that something isn't working out. You should get to the bottom of your unhappiness, and if your partner is at the root of your unhappiness, then it's time to part ways.

By Ellie

Rice

In the latest celebrity news, Megan Fox was spotted hanging out with rapper, Machine Gun Kelly, leading many to suspect a rift between her and husband, Brian Austin Green. According to People, Green posted a cryptic message on social media and was seen out and about without his wedding ring. The pair have had a rocky relationship, so this wouldn't be their first split. After meeting on set in 2004, the duo went on to have three kids together! We hope these two can work things out.

In celebrity news, Brian Austin Green came forward with a cryptic post, potentially referencing his wife Megan Fox after she was spotted with another man. What do you do if you suspect your partner is being unfaithful?

Cupid's Advice:

Infidelity can plague and ultimately ruin a relationship especially if one partner finds out about the other's bad behavior. If you suspect your significant other of cheating, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Talk to them about it: Before you draw any conclusions, you need to have a chat with your partner. Something you may have seen or heard could have been misinterpreted or only a portion of the full story. While this is an extremely emotional situation, it's important that you leave your aggression at the door. Go into the conversation with a level head and open mind in order to understand the weight of what your partner has to say.

2. Analyze the situation: Once you've heard your partner out, it's up to you to decide what to do with that information. Take some time to think about the situation and your feelings for this person. Is this something you're willing to work through? Can your relationship move past this? Once trust is broken in a relationship it can be very difficult to get back to where you both were. Even though you may love this person, you need to put your mental health first. Decide if this relationship is worth repairing or if it's a better decision to move on.

Megan Fox & Brian Austin Green Welcome Celebrity Baby No. 3

By

Stephanie Sacco

There's a celebrity baby on board for Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green! The celebrity couple now have three little ones of their own. According to UsMagazine.com, they named their newborn baby boy, Journey River Green. This celebrity news surrounding Fox and motherhood was discussed on Chelsea Handler's Netflix show, Chelsea. Fox said, "I knew I was always going to be a mother; I felt like that was always a big part of my path." Followed by, "But I never knew I was going to have three in such rapid succession." Fox and Green filed for divorced last year, but have put things on hold for family life.

There's another celebrity baby in the mix for Megan and Brian! What do you do if you find yourself pregnant and in the midst of a split?

Cupid's Advice:

Pregnancy can cause a shift in a relationship, and it's not always positive. It's one thing when you decide to have a child together, but when you realize you're pregnant in the midst of a split, it can get dicey. Cupid is here to help:

1. Communicate: Weigh your options with your partner (or ex-partner) and decide how best to handle it. Raising a child together is a big step, especially if you aren't on the best terms. Understand that you have other options, but don't make any decisions without them.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Megan Fox Reveals Third Pregnancy

2. Make it work: Divorced parents and separated families make it work all the time. It isn't the easiest solution, but sometimes it's all you can do. Just try to be civil toward them for your kids and act accordingly in order to provide for them.

3. Single parenting: If the situation is really bad and you can't bear to be anywhere near your ex, try raising the child on your own. The idea of a bad father being in the picture isn't good for anybody. With the help of your family, you can definitely have a strong support system without him.

She told Jimmy Kimmel, "You don't hear an audible voice, but you hear messages, if you're open to it." This celebrity baby has a voice prior to birth! What are some ways to prepare your home life for a new baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you just have to listen to your kids. They might not all speak to you from the womb, but you have to know how to prepare for them. Cupid is here to help:

1. Nursery: Once you know if your baby is a boy or a girl you can start decorating the nursery. Buy all your essentials and stock up on diapers and bottles. If this is your first baby, be sure to buy everything and don't be scared to ask for help from a fellow mom.

Relationship Advice: Mending a Split Like Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green

By Dr.

Jane Greer

After five years of celebrity marriage, Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green had decided to call it quits. However, apparently their differences are reconcilable – the celebrity couple has reunited and is moving back in together. Sometimes it can be very helpful when two people take some time apart to evaluate how they feel about each other, and to sort out what is really important to both of them.

In the face of baby number three on board, it looks like Fox and Green have decided to join forces to work on their marriage and see if it can, in fact, work on take two.

Similarly, Patrick Dempsey and his wife recently put the brakes on their celebrity divorce. And you don't have to be married to give love a second chance. Courtney Cox and her boyfriend are back together after calling off their engagement late last year.

Related Link: Megan Fox Reveals Third Pregnancy

There are many things that can drive a couple toward a breakup. Underscoring most separations are feelings of disappointment, anger, and the idea that there was something you couldn't get beyond, some impassable issue, an irreconcilable difference for which there is no clear middle ground or answer. The anger itself can make it impossible to get along, either leading to too much fighting or a cold war distance between you, both of which can bring your sex life to a complete stop. For some people, the decision to end the relationship seems like the only path out of the hopelessness and unhappiness one or each partner is experiencing. Breaking up can appear to be a way out of the stress and on the road to a better place.

That said, love is a funny thing. Just because you aren't getting along doesn't necessarily mean you have stopped loving or feeling attracted to your partner. In addition to that, some space might infuse those feelings with new life while giving you a fresh perspective on what you can and can't tolerate in your life. In other words, even though an end to your connection might seem freeing at first, it might ultimately prove to be complicated, difficult, and lonely. Suddenly those weekend trips to see his mother don't seem like that much of a sacrifice, or the fact that she chooses to go to the gym most nights instead of eating dinner with you might not leave you feeling so abandoned as long as she comes home after. Time apart allows you to evaluate what is important, and can give you the chance to decide if what once felt untenable and unacceptable might suddenly become manageable in the face of what you really have to lose. Taking a break can give you a chance to get a new outlook, while letting the anger subside. You can cool down and bring some objectivity back into your relationship.

If your relationship feels like it is at a standstill and is steeped in feelings of resentment and disappointment try this relationship advice: instead of making the decision to end it for good, consider ending it for now. Pregnant Megan Fox Is

Rethinking Celebrity Divorce from Brian Austin Green, Says Source

By Mary

DeMaio

No relationship is all sunshine, but two people can share one umbrella and weather the storm together. According to UsMagazine.com, Megan Fox is contemplating the idea of getting back together with Brian Austin Green after their celebrity vacation in Hawaii. This celebrity couple is expecting their third child after almost six years of marriage. They tied the knot in June of 2010 and Fox filed for a celebrity divorce last August, having been separated six months prior to her filing. In latest celebrity news, Green has done everything to try to convince her to stay together, even planning this trip back to Hualalai where they made their vows, sources said.

This celebrity divorce may not be happening after all! What are some ways to give your failing relationship one last shot?

Cupid's Advice:

It's never easy saying goodbye. Watching the moments become faint memories, slowly fading into oblivion. Just because things may be getting more difficult, doesn't mean you have to give up the life you starting building with someone. Cupid is here to share some ways with you:

1. Go on a private getaway together: Remove the stressful demands of everyday life and go to a place where you can just focus on each other. Taking time out of a busy schedule is often the best medicine.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Megan Fox, Trai Byers and Selena Gomez

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, these famous couples have made headlines, whether it be Megan Fox's rumored divorce, the Empire stars secret wedding, and Selena Gomez's not-so budding relationship. Whose stepping out in Hollywood this time around hand in hand? Check out my predictions for these three celebrity couples and find out what's next in their love lives.

Celebrity Couples Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green: When Megan Fox started showing a baby bump, the press went crazy speculating over who the “baby daddy” could be. Since Fox filed for divorce from Brian Austin Green last August, technically, the baby could be anybody’s. But I never doubted that the baby was Green’s. This famous couple has been on a roller coaster ride since they got together. Fox and Green used to break up and get back together all the time before they got married. The new addition to their family was not planned, but they say all is good, they’re happy now and plan to see where it all goes. Neither one of them were dating anyone else and they still lived in the same house. My prediction is that Fox and Green will not file for celebrity divorce. It may be bumpy between them every now and then, but their spiritual connection remains. My relationship advice to Fox is take a month or two vacation from Green every so often. That seems to do the trick when it comes to rekindling their love.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Megan Fox Reveals Third Pregnancy

Trai Byers and Grace Gealey: Two stars from Empire, Trai Byers and Grace Gealey, got married in a quiet ceremony in the Cayman Islands. You could say that it was a whirlwind romance since they had a short and quick courtship. Will they last? Right now it looks good. The Hollywood couple have the same ideals when it comes to marriage and family. Around their fifth year of marriage will be a time of make it or break it. Oddly, none of their co-stars from Empire were invited to the celebrity wedding, because they wanted to keep the wedding small. That lets me know that the rumors are true. Byers is not happy to be on the show and there have been rumors circulating that he wants to quit. By the end of the year, let's say around November, there will be celebrity news that the pair is expecting their first child. They will have two kids together, a boy and a girl. After Empire, Gealey will focus on being mother and wife while Byers brings home the bacon.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: Terrence Howard Splits from Wife No. 3

Selena Gomez and Charlie Puth: Anytime Selena Gomez talks to anyone of the opposite sex, it causes a stir. This time around she is being paired with Charlie Puth. Puth does not have nearly enough swagger for Gomez. She likes bad boys and men with an edge. Puth is as wonder bread as they get. He's talented but a bore. Gomez needs a guy that matches her fire and passion. If anything is going on with Puth, it's simply a friends with benefits situation. This rumored relationship has no steam. I actually see Gomez involved with an actor a little bit older. This new celebrity couple should blossom during the summer. Puth will keep having make out sessions with starlets.

After a traumatic life event it is important to allow yourself time to cope and to always remember that hope comes in many forms:

Hollywood Couple Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green Separate

By

Mackenzie Scibetta

It's official! Another celebrity divorce is soon to be in the books, as Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green have called it quits. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple is breaking up after an impressively long Hollywood romance of 11 years together. They were married for five years and have two children together, Noah and Bodhi. Fox and Green spoke numerous times about the highs and lows of parenthood, even once saying that the most important part of a relationship and love life is to “respect each other as parents”. Ironically, Fox told reporters in August 2014, “I don’t want to be boastful and say that we would never divorce, but I can’t imagine a scenario we couldn’t work through...”

This Hollywood couple joined the ranks of celebrity break-ups this summer. What are some ways to balance parenting with your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Even Hollywood couples aren’t immune to the struggles of parenthood, so when you feel overwhelmed, it’s helpful to remember you’re not alone. Everyone wants to have it all, so Cupid has some tips to help you live a more harmonious life:

1. Family activities: An easy fix to balancing time between your lover and children is to combine the time you have with each and host a family outing. Heading to the zoo, traveling to an amusement park or having a picnic are all perfect ideas that the whole family can have fun with.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: Terrence Howard Splits From Wife No. 3

2. Set aside time for date night: The stress you get from taking care of children can put a damper on your relationship. This is why it's crucial you and your loved one to set aside a day each week where you spend a few hours only with each other. It doesn't have to be an extravagant night on the town. A simple Netflix marathon after the kids are asleep or a walk in the park is enough to enjoy each others' company.

3. Help one another: Both of you in the relationship need to be equally committed to helping out. Contributing even in the smallest way, such as packing a lunch, can make all the difference and can help prevent many future fights. At the end of the day, don't forget to always thank your loved one for just being there. A simple "thank you" can help encourage more help in the future.

Surviving Holidays as a Stepparent

By

Michele Sfakianos, RN, BSN for Hope After Divorce

It doesn't have to be difficult.

A stepparent who has different holiday traditions from the rest of the family, especially a stepparent with no child of their own, can feel left out of the celebration. All family traditions matter, and it's vital for everyone to be considered when planning holidays.

Actress Megan Fox is stepmom to hubby Brian Austin Green's son, Kassius. Word has it that she is a stepmother to the fullest extent. She has happily looked after Kassius since he was three years old. Fox is a good example of a stepparent who most definitely includes her stepchild in all holiday celebrations as well as every aspect of their family's life. It should be this way for all children in blended families.

As a stepparent, here are a few things you should consider when planning holidays:

Related Link: Reinventing Home for the Holidays

Who is going to spend the holiday where? Holiday plans can be predetermined by custody or shared parental agreements. If you have the flexibility of options, discuss them with the children and keep their desires in mind. Some families split up the holidays each year: "I'll take Halloween and you take Thanksgiving." Or some try to do both: "I'll take Christmas Eve" (Mom) and "I'll take Christmas Day" (Dad). Several people celebrate twice, once with each parent.

Where will the gifts be opened? Parents who purchase presents for their children like to see their reactions when the child is opening the gift. How would you feel if you didn't get to see their surprise? Make sure you think of all parties involved when making plans.

Watch out for trouble on the stepsibling front when the kids have other plans. Stepchildren can feel left out if there are "whole" kids in the picture. Try to keep the presents even and have the major festivities take place when all the children are present.

Don't expect holidays to be as you had in the past. Be aware the loss of the old ways of doing things is a disappointment for the kids and for you. Discuss how holidays were for each of you and have each person define which rituals are most important to them. This can be hard to hear, but it's important. Incorporate a few of these old rituals into your new holiday.

Create new holidays. If all the holidays seem to be taken up with stress and other people's claims ("But Thanksgiving is mine!"), you can always select another day (Cinco de Mayo, Arbor Day, Stepparents Day) to become an annual blow-out holiday. Acknowledge you are starting from scratch. There is a new excitement about having the opportunity to create holidays as you would like them to be. Aim for creating your own holiday spirit (with additions) and welcoming kids into it.

If you won't have the children for the holiday, create an alternate festivity for yourselves. Don't stay home and mope. Don't force false cheer. Make new memories. Get creative. Plan ahead and don't let yourself feel lonely or disappointed.

Here are a few more simple tips to keep in mind as well:

- The first few years, try to lower your expectations.
- Don't assume holidays will be calm and peaceful if daily life is full of conflict. There is no holiday from mixed feelings, and you cannot force fun, laughter, and family spirit.
- The winter holidays are traditionally a time of family togetherness. You and your partner can have private time too, but always take the children and stepchildren into consideration.
- Take into account the religions of those involved. It's important to keep family traditions alive with certain cultures.
- Be flexible and encourage flexibility.

– If things are tense, do not force get-togethers or minimize the amount of time spent together.

No matter the holiday, remember to celebrate. You are a real family!

Celebrity News: Brian Austin Green Takes Baby Noah for a New York City Walk

By Jessica

a Conigliaro

Actress Megan Fox and husband Brian Austin Green had their first child in September 2012. Since the birth of their son Noah, the couple has been making efforts to stay out of the public eye, People reports. Despite their best attempts, Green and his son were both photographed while taking a walk through SoHo.

What are some reasons to keep your baby out of the public eye?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're a celebrity, or someone easily recognized by the general public, there will always be someone wanting to capture your daily life. They will be most intrigued by your baby, wanting to capture your new family together. Cupid offers some tips to avoid being in the public eye:

1. Privacy: When you and your husband are recognizable figures, people will want to photograph you with your children. This however, does not allow you much freedom. Everywhere you go, you will have to worry about what you're doing and saying. Nothing will ever be private and your family will never be left alone. Avoid the paparazzi as much as you can in order to raise your children in a normal environment.

2. Avoid rumors: Your husband is always the one who takes your baby for a stroll in the park every morning. When people don't see you two together, they automatically assume you are split up. Avoid the rumors by mixing up your daily walk locations. You will get some privacy and avoid being in the public eye.

3. Safety: Sometimes, paparazzi can get violent when trying to get a photograph. They will cross over space boundaries and invade your family's privacy. Your baby will get scared of the flashes and strange people surrounding him/her. Stay out of the public's eye as much as you can while your children are young.

Megan Fox Says Reese
Witherspoon Helped Her
Deliver in Secret

By

Jennifer Ross

After giving birth on Sept. 27, Megan Fox and husband Brian Austin Green have yet to release a photo of baby Noah. However, Fox is willing to give us a visual image. In an interview on the Ellen DeGeneres Show, Fox says, “He looks, I would say, 70 percent like Brian... recently he’s been getting chubbier and everyone’s like, ‘Oh, he’s so chubby – now he looks like you.” Jokingly, she can’t decide if that is a compliment. According to UsMagazine.com, Fox then claims that she has Reese Witherspoon to thank for indirectly helping her to deliver in secrecy. “She went into labor the day before I did, and all of the paparazzi followed her to Santa Monica. So when I went into labor, I went to Cedars [Sinai Medical Center in L.A.], and nobody cared or knew I was there. So I got in and out. I left the next day and nobody knew. It was a big secret for three weeks.” The word got out when Fox posted a comment about baby Noah on Facebook. “We are humbled to have the opportunity to call ourselves the parents of this beautiful soul.”

What are some reasons to keep your labor under wraps?

Cupid’s Advice:

Going into labor is one of the most wonderful experiences in life that you may want to share with your family. On the other hand, you and your partner may want to keep the delivery a secret. Can't decide whether to notify or not? Here are a few valid reasons when to keep your labor a secret:

1. Negativity: You may decide not to tell anyone when you are in labor if you might receive negative reactions from friends or family. Unfortunately, sometimes there are people that just don't want to see you happy.

2. Personal moment: Another acceptable reason to not share the labor news is when you and your mate want to experience the delivery with the least amount of distractions or stress. This is especially the case when the mother-to-be had a difficult pregnancy.

3. Adoption: Should you decide that you are giving your baby up for adoption, it is understandable that you won't tell anyone when the delivery starts. Going through this alone can be traumatic. Therefore, be sure to at least talk with someone afterwards.

How can having a child change your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Welcoming a new bundle of joy into your family can alter your relationship with your partner. Here are some ways in which having a child would change your relationship:

1. More responsibility: Having a child together adds an immense amount of responsibility to your lives. Now, you are not only responsible for yourselves, but another human being. The two of you will need to be mature and wise in your decisions regarding your child.

2. Deeper connection: The connection that you share with your partner will be deepened automatically by having a child together. Between bonding over parenting, the two of you will be experiencing new concepts and creating new memories together. Be sure to document them with plenty of video and pictures!

Multiple Sources Confirm Megan Fox Is Pregnant

Not too long ago, Megan Fox opened up about her private life to Cosmopolitan and revealed her desire to be a mother. She said, “I want at least two, probably three [kids], I’ve always been maternal.” It looks like those dreams are now finally coming true. Fox and her husband Brian Austin Green are expecting their first child together, as confirmed by several sources to UsMagazine.com. Fox has been seen around L.A. with a baby bump, doing little to conceal her pregnancy.

How will having your first child affect your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having a baby can add beauty to you and your partner’s lives, but it also can be straining. Here are some ways to find a balance between the two so that you can maintain a healthy relationship:

1. Baby comes first: Before having a child, your partner was your whole world. Once you have your first child together, your baby becomes your first priority and then some. However, don’t make the baby the only thing you care about. Be sure to share your love with both your baby and your partner.

2. Less time for romance: When you have a baby, you won't have much time to sleep, let alone have a romantic date night. Don't get too caught up in the stress. After all, you still deserve time with your partner. Trade in your lavish dinner outings for quiet movie nights. These can be equally as romantic and intimate, without keeping you far from your child.

3. Money strains: Money can cause major problems in any relationship, and having another person to care for means these stresses are only going to grow. Babies need cribs, toys and the like, and their costs can add up very quickly. Make sure you and your partner make a solid financial plan and begin setting aside money before the baby is even born.

Brian Austin Green Avoids Megan Fox Pregnancy Rumors

Actress

Megan Fox and husband Brian Austin Green will be celebrating their two-year anniversary in Hawaii where they tied the knot back in June 2010. The two are open about their plans to reinvent the same atmosphere they had on their wedding day, but they're more hush-hush about the pregnancy rumors that have been floating around. "They've been saying that every three months ever since we got married, and it's sort of one of those things that they love to say," Green said according to People. "I think it's interesting. I think there is a part of Megan that people really love that is, at 18 she found a relationship and she stuck with it, and we've been together for coming on eight years now."

How do you keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

There are three people that really matter during your pregnancy – you, your partner, and your baby. Cupid has some tips to help you keep things quiet:

1. Keep it personal: Only tell the people that are close to you like your parents and your best friends. If you start telling too many people, it will get around to everyone you're surrounded by very quickly.

2. Demand your privacy: Once people find out that you're going to have a baby, they're all going to want to put in their suggestions about how to go about everything. Make sure to demand your privacy so you can do things the way you want to do them.

3. Keep it a secret: Obviously you can't keep your pregnancy hidden forever, but it might be fun to keep it a secret until your baggy clothes or your anticipation can't hide it anymore!
