Sometimes it can be tempting to get away from the kids for a few days, but a vacation can still be relaxing and enjoyable for the whole family. Cupid has some getaway ideas for you, your spouse and your kids:

1. Beach resorts: One of the best vacation spots for families is a beach resort. They often have programs for kids throughout the day, allowing parents much-needed relaxation time. An example is Beaches Boscobel Resort and Golf Club in Jamaica. This resort has golf lessons for kids, a waterpark, a video game center, as well as many sporting and restaurant options.

2. Cruises: Kid-friendly cruises, such as the Disney Cruise Line, offer youth clubs, live shows and pools designed for specific age groups (including adults). Your children can enjoy spending time with others their age while you relax with your spouse.

3. Camping: For those who enjoy the outdoors, camping is another great family vacation option. You can enjoy spending time with your kids during the day and then, after they fall asleep, enjoy time with your spouse in front of the campfire. If you enjoy taking in natural wonders, camping at places like the Grand Canyon or Yosemite National Park can make for great memories.

How can you make a good first impression with your partner's parents?

Cupid's Advice:

First impressions are long-lasting. Here are some tips to make it your best:

- 1. Ask questions: Try to learn some things about your partner's parents before meeting them. For example, if his mom is allergic to tomatoes, find that out before you serve her pasta.
- 2. No cussing: Be polite and respectful. This isn't the time to use obscene language. If you or your partner are in a fight, hold off on any arguments until his or her parents have left. You want them to see you in good light.

3. Dress nice: Like the old saying goes, “Dress to impress!” Look neat, wearing clean and tidy clothes. And disregard trends – those will come and go, but a first impression is forever.

Cupid's Advice:

It may seem comfortable to date someone who works for you but be prepared for awkwardness if it doesn't work out the way you planned.

1. Approach with caution: Though it might be an easy affair to fall into, becoming involved with any hired help – whether it's a bodyguard, nanny, or gardener – can make life at home tricky. Make sure you have a conversation with the other person about their intentions before jumping into anything.

2. Set boundaries: In this case more than any other, it's key to draw lines between your personal and professional lives. The two are intertwined, but keeping things separate will lead to a healthier relationship.

3. Have a back up plan: Should the relationship go sour, it's key to have someone else in mind to cover your ex's job incase he or she decides to quit.
