Celebrity Couple News: Pink & Carey Hart Are 'Solid' After Two Breaks from Their Marriage

By

Cortney Moore

Pink and Carey Hart have made celebrity news in the last 16 years due to their tumultuous relationship. However, after celebrating their 11th anniversary back in January, it seems that this celebrity couple have found a way to make it work. How were Pink and Hart able to save their relationship? Well, Pink credits the two breaks her and Hart took in 2003 and 2008 as factors that transformed their love for each other. "The first one was about a year. And the second one was 11 months," Pink explains in an interview with UsMagazine.com. An insider also spoke with the magazine and agreed that Pink and Hart are a solid celebrity couple, "They love their life together." Taking a break during marriage might be a little unorthodox, but this strategy has helped them avoid divorce. Let's applaud this famous couple for making it work. There are so many in Hollywood who aren't as lucky.

This celebrity couple proves that sometimes breaks in a relationship can be beneficial. How do you know if a break will help or hurt your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

The very idea of taking a break is scary for many couples. However, if your relationship has been on the rocks for some time, a break might be just what you need. Before you decide to go all-in, let Cupid help you figure out whether a break will be beneficial or hurtful for your relationship:

- 1. There's a weak foundation: The reason you're considering a break is due to a failing relationship. Some things just aren't working out anymore and you need space to see if this is something you really want. Taking a break helps you find the cracks in your relationship, and hopefully with some time apart you can fix these problems together. But, you also need to be wary. Being able to see all of your relationship's flaws might also tempt you to run away. You need to go into a break with the intention of possibly getting back together. If you don't do this then it's just a plain breakup and not an actual break.

2. Get on the same page: Before you and your partner officially decide to part ways, you need to discuss what you're both okay with and what you're both not. Will this be a break that allows you to both date other people, or do you both expect monogamy during your time apart? These nitty-gritty details might not be something you want to discuss during tough times, but it's a conversation that must be had. If you're both not on the same page about the break, then someone is going to get hurt and your relationship will be strained even more than before. So talk it out, you might even be pleased to see you both share similar ideologies.

3. Gives you very much needed 'me time': Taking a break from your relationship helps to free up your schedule. This is great because it provides you the opportunity to reassess your priorities personally and professionally. If there's something you always to do, it's time you pursue those dreams. Whatever it is that makes you happy may translate over to your strained relationship. When you feel good about yourself, you're confident, and that positive energy might be something your partner was missing in you. Just make sure you're not too busy for a relationship. Remember, the point of a break is that you and your partner intend to reunite.

Relationship Advice: 5 Ways to Restore Trust in Your Relationship

By

Katie Gray

Trust is the most important aspect of a relationship. Without trusting your partner and having that trust reciprocated, your relationship won't be a healthy and happy one. We can take cues from celebrity couples and their celebrity relationships to see how they restore the trust in their relationship when it's lost. For example, Pink and Carey Hart married in 2006, and announced their separation in 2008. After marriage counseling and song therapy, they reunited in 2010, welcomed daughter Willow Sage in June 2011, and just celebrated their 10 year celebrity wedding anniversary. According to Psychology Today, 41% of first marriages and 60% of second marriages end in divorce. Wow! Nobody told us relationships would be easy; they just promised it would be worth it!

Cupid has some relationship advice on how to restore the trust in your relationship:

1. Open communication: You can't trust someone if you don't have a mutual open line of communication. Tell your partner how you feel and what you are thinking, and also encourage them to do the same. You have to feel comfortable speaking with your partner about any topic. It's important for both partners to know that they can talk to the other about anything and that it stays private between just the two of you.

2. Establish boundaries: You must establish boundaries with your partner right away. If something makes you uncomfortable, then you need to let your partner know. You two must decide as a couple how to deal with exes, privacy, outings, and so forth. If something makes your partner uncomfortable, it's up to you to respect that. Establish guidelines that you both agree upon. It's all about compromise in a relationship!

3. Affirmations, therapy and exercises: Staying positive goes a long way. To restore trust in a relationship, you must work hard at it. Saying affirmations, doing exercises as a couple and going to therapy and counseling will help a lot.

4. Date night: It's imperative to spend quality time with your partner. It gives you time to bond and to remember why you fell in love with them in the first place. You won't start trusting someone again unless you feel like you know them. Therefore, having a date night ritual is a good place to reconnect.

5. Forgive and forget: You won't be able to move forward if you are harboring feelings of resentment and anger. It's imperative to work past those issues and clear them up right away. You must practice forgiveness. Whatever your partner did to make you distrust them, you have to first forgive and then forget, in order to move on. Clear up the issues that arose and solve them so you can start trusting your partner again. After all, you care about them or you wouldn't want to stay with them.

Pink Says the Key to Marriage Is Only Half Listening

By

Jessica Conigliaro

Pop singer Pink often uses her marriage as inspirations for her songs. Personal lyrics such as those must have an effect on the man she is singing about. When asked how he felt, Pink's husband told her, "Look, I know you, we have a good sense of humor, and I know what I signed up for. I only listen to half of what you say anyway!" People reports that Pink's response was, "When he starts listening to me too much, we have problems!"

How do you know when to make an issue of something that upsets you in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Every committed relationship comes with arguments. In fact it's seemingly healthy to fight with one another. It allows the other person to know what upsets you; instead of keeping your emotions bottled up. You gain the opportunity to express how you feel—and could prevent it from happening again. On the other hand, too many fights between one another will leave you frustrated. Here are some tips on how to pick your battles accordingly:

1. You've gotten mad about this before: People often hide their anger from their partner; eventually, it will become too much to bear. If your boyfriend is repeatedly late for plans, your anger level will rise every time you hold your tongue. Let him know if something is bothering you and get everything out in the open—this will prevent a much larger dispute later on.

2. Don't pick stupid fights: Little things our partners do—such as wearing mismatched sock or leaving the toothpaste out—can irritate us to no end. Although you may not be thrilled about these situations, ask yourself if it is worth getting into an argument over. Learn to accept the minor nuisances; there are more important things to be focusing on in your relationship.

3. Know why you are mad: If you find yourself upset about something your boyfriend said, consider his point of view. If he suggested getting salad for dinner and you assumed he wants you to lose weight, reconsider the situation. It is possible—and more logical—that he was simply in the mood to eat that. We often work things up in our heads to be worse than they actually are; avoid this by taking time to contemplate why you are mad and if you are overreacting.

How Celebrity Couples Celebrate Labor Day Weekend

By

Whitney Baker

Labor Day weekend is often filled with beach and barbeque, giving people an opportunity for an extra day off before the summer ends. Some celebrity couples like to keep things simple as they spend time together with the sand and the sun, while others add a little glitz and glam to the usual date plans.

In anticipation of the upcoming holiday weekend, let's look back at how the hottest duos in Hollywood celebrated Labor Day last year:

1. Partying in Las Vegas: Stars seem to flock to Sin City for a final summer blowout. Before she was on baby bump watch, Nicole 'Snooki' Polizzi hosted a bash at PURE Nightclub inside Caesar's Palace with then-boyfriend Jionni LaValle. That same night, Carmen Electra and her former fiancé Rob Patterson hosted a party at Nikki Beach in the Tropicana Hotel.

2. Lying Poolside: Other celebrity couples prefer to focus on relaxing and soaking up the last bit of summer sun. Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade spent the afternoon at a Miami Pool with Wade's two sons, while Dave and Odette Annable enjoyed some newly-wedded bliss before celebrating their one-year anniversary in October.

3. Saying "I Do": Many celebrity couples choose to tie the knot over this three-day weekend. Last year, Lauren Bush wed David Lauren, son of fashion icon Ralph Lauren, on his private ranch in Telluride, Colorado. Additionally, Mark Ronson, a well-known DJ and the brother of designer Charlotte Ronson and DJ Samantha Ronson, and actress Josephine de la Baume celebrated their wedding with a two-day celebration in Aix de Provence, France. It sounds like the perfect way to mark the end of the summer.

4. Hanging Out with Their Kids: Some Hollywood pairs opt for a more traditional route and enjoy low-key plans with their family. The Malibu Fair and Chili Cookoff was a popular spot last year: Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott took their kids, while Pink and her husband Carey Hart were there with their daughter. Also in Malibu, Nicole Richie and husband Joel Madden spent Labor Day on the beach with their two children.

5. Working: Even celebrities have to show up to work on a holiday once in a while. With the 13th season of Dancing with the Stars underway, many of the dancing duos, including Cheryl Burke and Rob Kardashian as well as Lacey Schwimmer and Chaz Bono, were spotted practicing for the next show. Similarly, Selena Gomez was in Colorado for her 'We Own the Night' tour, keeping her away from boyfriend Justin Bieber.

Pink and Carey Hart Enjoy Tacos with Daughter Willow

Pink and husband Carey Hart found a way to have a date night and spend quality time with their daughter Willow at the same time: family date night! According to People Pink and Hart went to Dos Camino's in New York, where the singer is filming a movie, to enjoy tacos and beer while at the same time doting on their tiny daughter.

What are some ways to include your children in date night?

Cupid's Advice:

If you have children, it can be difficult to balance time with your spouse and time with your children. Here are some ways to spend time with both:

1. Go somewhere kid-friendly: Children aren't always going to flourish in certain environments, especially if they're younger. If you have a young child, a romantic movie and an expensive dinner aren't exactly fun for them. An ice cream date at the par, or a nice taco dinner like Pink and Carey Hart would be perfect.

2. Relive your childhood: Just because a place may seem more typical for a child to enjoy doesn't mean it's only for them. Places like amusement parks or miniature golf courses can be fun for both children and adults.

3. Keep it simple: There's no rule saying that date night has to be complicated or away from home. Plan a dinner date at home by having the kids eat earlier and then arranging for take-out. You can also let the kids suggest a date, as they'll get a kick out of it, and you'll be sure to have no complaints from them later.

Pink and Carey Hart Take Their Daughter on Dinner Date

Lovebirds Pink and Carey Hart sure know how to keep the fire burning in their relationship. The couple was spotted on a dinner date at hotspot Nobu in Malibu with who else, but their daughter Willow Sage, according to People. According to onlookers, the couple seemed very attentive to the three-month-old baby and seemed to be having a great time. The Harts weren't the only celebrities at the popular eatery. As they were leaving, Balthazar Getty and his kids were spotted there as well.

What are some ways to keep the romance alive when you have a baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because you have a child, that doesn't mean you can't keep the fire burning in your relationship. Cupid has some ways you and your boo can keep the romance alive even after you have a baby:

1. Include them: What better way to embrace this new found joy in your life than by bringing your child along on date night?

Head to a nice dinner or even a movie and show your child and your boo that you can still maintain a great relationship even when they're both there.

2. Make time: Even though you have a new member of the family, that doesn't mean you can't make time for just you and your honey. Plan a date night for just the two of you, and have a family member or sitter watch the baby.

3. Go on a trip: Head on a vacation with your baby so that you can all have new experiences together. Whether it be to a tropical island or simply a weekend getaway, try something new, and create memories you will cherish forever.

3. Carey Hart and Pink: This celebrity couple has had a tumultuous relationship. They met in 2001 and briefly split in 2003. The pair then got married in January 2006 but separated two years later. Carey Hart Says Pink Will Be An 'Awesome Mom'

Al though their first child is on its way shortly, Carey Hart isn't concerned about his wife Pink's ability to be an "awesome" mom, according to People. "She's just so connected and so ready to be a mother," said Hart. Pink has been staying active during her pregnancy by doing yoga. Also, the couple plan to be very hands-on with the addition to their family. "Our kid is going to have a great experience," Hart said. "He or she is going to travel the world with us ... [and] I think we'll have a pretty well-rounded kid."

What are ways to tell if your partner will be a good parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Although you can't tell for sure if your significant other will possess quality parenting skills, there are certain indicators. Cupid points to a few below:

1. How they were raised: If your partner was raised in a loving and caring environment, chances are that he or she has already absorbed those attributes as well.

2. How they act around other kids: Perhaps you've seen your mate around your nieces and nephews or maybe your friends' kids. If her or she seems comfortable around other people's kids, it's looking good for your children together.

3. How they treat you: One of the best ways to tell if your partner will be a good parent is to analyze how he or she treats you (or people in general). If patience, nurturing and care are three of his or her qualities, being a good parent won't be a huge leap to make.

Pink is Pregnant with Husband, Carey Hart

In a black Janey Lopaty Vintage Couture dress, Pink graced the red carpet at the American Music Awards over the weekend, right after announcing her pregnancy on the Ellen DeGeneres Show. Standing with husband, Carey Hart who lovingly patted her growing bump, it's evident that the couple is overjoyed with the news, according to Us Weekly. Pink told reporters, "I'm feeling great! Hungry!" But before you contemplate the possibility of a surprise pregnancy, Pink clarified saying, "I worked for it. It was not an 'Oops.'"

What are unique ways to celebrate your pregnancy? Cupid's Advice:

With only nine months to enjoy pregnancy, here are some ways to commemorate this special time:

1. B is for belly: Alanis Morissette shared a way to remember her pregnancy by tweeting a picture of her henna-covered baby bump. Other bump-related ways to remember include a belly cast, nude professional photos or belly painting.

2. V is for videotape: A beautiful gift that can one day be shared with your baby is a recording, which follows your pregnancy from start to finish. Document the growth of your bump, how you and your partner are feeling and hopes and expectations!

3. S is for surprise: A way to let friends and family know your exciting news is to gather them around for a group photo. Ask everyone to say, "Jenny's pregnant!" for the camera, and the stunned faces will last for years.
