Celebrity Interview: Fashion Designer & Beauty Guru Matt Sarafa

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Carly Horowitz

You may have seen fashion designer Matt Sarafa recently on The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills (RHOBH) alongside his godmother, Kyle Richards. However, Sarafa is no newcomer to reality television. He got his start by competing on Lifetime's Project Runway Threads and then went on to compete in Project Runway Junior. Sarafa is also one of the youngest designers to show at both New York and Paris Fashion Week. In our exclusive celebrity interview, Sarafa opens up about the success of his clothing line, "FAKE" and what he has in store for the future.

Celebrity interview with fashion designer and beauty guru Matt Sarafa

Gaining notoriety on reality TV and then skyrocketing to success with a fashion line is no doubt a major accomplishment for a 20-year-old college student."It has been such a crazy, but amazing journey, and I am so grateful for it," Sarafa said.

Things changed for Sarafa's "FAKE" design line when his beautiful faux fur coats were featured on an episode of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills. The combination of his high-end and ready-to-wear street fashion captured the public's attention so fast that the line sold out immediately. "I was so beyond shocked," said Sarafa. "I would never in a million years have expected the crazy amount of success after Real Housewives ... I wasn't expecting anything crazy, but within 24 hours after The Real Housewives episode, I had sold enough faux fur to put me through college for all four years." The red coat, which our staff completely loves and Kylie wore on the show, was his biggest seller. If you haven't seen this episode of RHOBH or don't get BravoTV, you could always go over to BuyTVInternetPhone and see if they have some cable television options that may work within your budget.

For those who missed the episode, the question we really want to know is what inspired Sarafa's ingenious faux fur designs? He explained that he's on the red carpet all the time now that he's in the limelight, and when he went shopping to find faux fur to wear to those events, he discovered that the options were all "so tacky and so cheap" looking. He thought, "I'm a fashion designer, so why don't I try to solve this problem?" And solve it he did. "I created these furs that look and feel real, and they give you that same super luxurious feeling of real fur, but without any of the downside," he said. And, for those who think his designs may be a little over-the-top, Sarafa added, "That's just who I am as a person, so that's what I try to translate into my designs."

Over-the-top or not, Sarafa's "FAKE" designs are now worn by a diverse demographic. Prior to when his episode of RHOBH aired, the designer's primary customers were much younger, and many of them were his social media fans. Now, the demographic for Sarafa's coats includes people of any age, size, or location. "It's for the bad bitches of the world, who don't care about what other people think, who want to wear exactly what they want to wear, and who really are just true to themselves." As a result, he's excited to expand his line in the future with new colors, new styles, and new designs.

Speaking of the future, we got the inside scoop on Sarafa's upcoming plans. In addition to completing classes full-time at UCLA, he's working on a new runway show, which he hopes will be featured at either L.A. or New York Fashion Week next season. "I'm just trying to balance everything," he said. "It's very hectic, but I do my best." When asked how he can possibly do all that he does, he said, "The thing with me is that if I care about something enough, I will do everything in my power to get everything that I need to done. I'm a very hard worker, and I'm great at deciding what needs to get done at what time, so I've been powering through."

So, want to know what it takes to break into the fashion business like Sarafa did? The designer revealed a valuable tip, so listen up. He said, “If you are looking to get into this industry, the first thing you should know is that it’s very cut-throat, and it’s very difficult ... But, if you have a real genuine passion for fashion, that will get you pretty far.” He added, “Just keep going, and don’t let anybody tell you that you can’t ... You just have to keep going no matter what gets in your way.”

1. Eat healthy: This may seem like a weird thing to do in order to help you become less stressed for your wedding day, but think about it...Healthy food helps you to feel more energized while junk food can make you tired, lethargic, and cranky. The more energy you have, the easier it will be to plan those last minute things. By Carly Horowitz

According to EOnline.com, Faris added, “I think it’s a lesson learned a little bit in terms of keeping relationships a little more private, potentially, even though I pride myself on being a pretty open person. This is the first we are hearing about the opinions of Chris Pratt and Anna Faris since their celebrity break-up. What are some benefits to keeping your post-relationship details on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

It can truly be a tough time in your life after you split from a partner you were together with for so long. You don't need to expose all of the details to every single one of your friends and family if you do not wish to. If you keep to yourself and a few close friends, here is what can happen:

1. You will be able to explore your true self: Without the input from others, you will have the opportunity to really understand what you are feeling. Sometimes, it isn't bad to have input from the ones you trust most, but this can occasionally lead to you thinking that you are feeling one way when you are really not. It is most beneficial to get to know yourself alone during this time.

2. You won't receive as much judgement: This is hard for you as it is, you don't need further scrutiny to just make this situation even worse. When people go through break-ups, it is really difficult for outsiders to truly understand the emotions and feelings that you go through. Therefore, they may judge. You can minimize that by conducting your life in a more private manner.

3. You won't be bombarded: The more details you put out there, the more people will crowd you with questions. "Why did you break-up?" "Was there cheating involved?" "Are you guys still talking at all?" It can become overwhelming. It is okay to just stick to talking to one specific person that you trust most to help get you through this time and then let the magical self-growth occur.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Jax Taylor Explains Why He Broke Up with Brittany Cartwright

By Carly Horowitz

The emotional celebrity break-up of Vanderpump Rules stars Jax

Taylor and Brittany Cartwright aired on Monday. Taylor owned up to his shortcomings and suggested that they split because he was not happy with himself. This break-up was filmed in August 2017 and since then, the pair has actually been trying to make their relationship work, according to UsMagazine.com. On Tuesday, Taylor confirmed on Twitter that the two are indeed still a celebrity couple now and he added, "I was a mess but each day has gotten better. I'll never be perfect I know this, but I do know that I have the best partner a guy can ask for, and all I care about is being the best I can for her here on out." Taylor realized during their short split that Cartwright made him want to be a better man and he did not want to lose her. This celebrity relationship has been through many ups and down but right now they seem to be at an up!

This celebrity break-up left us with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone than go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

Celebrity Baby News: Khloe
Kardashian Welcomes Baby Girl
Amid Tristan Thompson
Cheating Rumors

By Carly Horowitz

On Thursday morning, Khloe Kardashian welcomed her new celebrity baby girl into the world with Tristan Thompson! This birth occurred just days after the world saw shocking footage of Khloe's boyfriend, Thompson, kissing another woman at a New York City club and making out with two other women at a hookah bar in October. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says that none of his friends are surprised because they all know he cheats. This celebrity couple began dating in September 2016. Hopefully the two can sort out this situation for the sake of their new baby girl!

This celebrity baby news is somewhat tainted by the cheating allegations that came out about Khloe's man Tristan. What are some ways to shield your child from negative relationship turns?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes unsatisfactory aspects in your relationship can emerge out of the blue. It is important that these negative occurrences don't affect your child in a bad way. It is definitely beneficial for your child to come to terms with life and do realize that everything is not perfect, or else they could become too sheltered. But it could also serve detrimental if they are exposed to too much negativity. Here are some ways to protect your child against negative parental relationship trauma:

1. Never stop showing them love: Depending on how old your child is, they may or may not pick up on the relationship struggles you are going through if you do a good job at keeping it between you and your partner. But nevertheless, never stop showing your child love. Try not to be too over the top lovey dovey towards them because then it may seem like you're trying to compensate, and the love for your child, or anyone, should just be natural.

2. Don't let them in on too many details: Your child has a right to know what's going on in their parents' lives, but of course they don't need to know everything. If you and your partner are going through a relationship struggle, you can let your child in by saying something like "Mommy and Daddy aren't agreeing with each other lately but we are working on it." You don't need to tell them that one of you cheated or that you think you may be falling out of love.

3. Never let them loose sight of the wonderful things in life: You don't necessarily have to 'shield' your child from negative things in order for them to not come emotionally disturbed. You just have to remind them that yes even though these bad things may be happening right now, there are so many other magnificent aspects going on as well. Just look around, look at the beautiful trees, listen to the birds singing, think about the wonderful weekend you have planned to go to the beach or the amusement park!

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor Winter Games star Lesley Murphy and Dean Unglert have posted on their Instagram accounts in such a way that makes it seem as if they went through a celebrity break-up with each other. The former celebrity couple were spotted together at the Sundance Film Festival in January, and that's when we knew they were dating. Yet, Murphy wrote in an Instagram caption two days ago stating, "All we need is that same energy reciprocated, and despite how open and loving you attempt to be, people can only meet you as deeply as they've met themselves. Don't be afraid to be the one that loved the most and give everything you had, because you've got to find people who love like you do and who are ready." She also goes on to state that she is "out with the old, in with the TRUE." This definitely seems like the two went through a break-up. To add to the speculation, Unglert also wrote on Instagram, "As I've gotten older, I've learned that although everyone DESERVES love, it's not something we're entitled to. Love takes work. Love is compromise. Love is earned. I still have a lot of work to do on myself, a lot to prove to myself, before I'm ready for something like that." To conclude, a source informed EOnline.com that the pair did indeed break up recently. The aspects of distance and traveling are said to have had some effect on their relationship. The two plan to continue as friends.

This Bachelor Winter Games celebrity break-up wasn't really unexpected, but Lesley had some things to say about it. What are some benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner break-up, speculation can occur. If you feel comfortable, the best thing to do is get your side of the break-up out to your family and friends. Here is why:

1. They will know the truth: You definitely want your closest friends and family to know the truth about why your break-up occurred. Fill them in on how you feel about it so that they are not left in the dust to wonder how you are doing. Your ex-partner may have a different side of the story, and that is okay. Both of you guys can expose your thoughts and feelings on the matter in order to make for a healthy, transparent split.

2. They will support you: During this time of a break-up, it is usually beneficial to have the support of your friends and family. How are they going to know to support you if you don't let them in on what is going on? Be open with them. This will help to both get your feelings out and inform the ones closest to you.

3. They will try to understand: Even though no one can ever feel the exact same way you do, people can at least try to understand. By doing something like posting an Instagram post detailing your feelings, it helps for your friends and family to see where you are coming from. The more they understand, the easier it is for them to continue to love and support you.

Parenting Advice: Tech-Free Boredom Busters

By Carly Horowitz

It's time for your children to visit the pediatrician for a check-up! You gather your three anxious, jumping jelly beans into the minivan and start your journey to the doctor's office. "I don't want to get a shot!" "Mommy, are we almost there yet?" "Susie won't stop poking me, Mom!" You finally arrive and they say it is going to be about a 20 minute wait. Oh, great. The easiest thing to do right now would be to stick an Ipad in front of your children's faces and you know they will be occupied playing games until the doctor is ready to see them. But do you really want to resort to that? It is great that we have made such vast advances in technology and we have these amazing devices that have the ability to entertain for hours, but for children, this should be a regulated reward. It is not a bad idea to teach your children to spend their time doing other things to pass the time rather than relying on electronics.

Take this parenting advice and occupy your children with tech-free boredom busters!

1. Make slime: If your child is really into science or they just like slime (most kids do) then this is a great idea. All you have to do is mix school glue, water, borax, and food coloring together! The mixing process may get a little messy, but once you are done, your children can take these globs of colorful slime wherever! As long as they get the okay from mom.

2. Get out the craft box: If you're at home, and your children are in an antsy mood, shift them into an artsy mood! Gather all your art supplies like paint, crayons, markers, oil pastels, and get to work! This can occupy your children for hours. If you are on the go, there are many portable art kits that you can purchase for your little Picasso.

Related Link: Product Review: 3 Must-Have Items for Running Errands With Your Kids

3. Mad Libs: Mad Libs is a word game where you are given a template of a story, and you have to fill in random missing words. One player prompts others for a list of words to substitute for the blanks in the story. Then, they read the story out loud and it usually comes out in a funny way that barely makes sense. If your child is at an age where they are honing in on their language skills, this is perfect! Your kids will be having fun and learning about verbs, nouns, and adjectives at the same time. You can even indulge in other games similar to Mad Libs like Scrabble, My Word!, Mad Gab, or Boggle.

4. Make bracelets: There are so many cool ways to make bracelets for both boys and girls. You can get your kids a book that details how to make bracelet patterns with string and then get them a portable box with a bunch of different string colors in it. They can also make bracelets with beads, noodles, or shells! This activity will be able to get your kids focused. If they get really good at making bracelets, they can even try to have their own little business at the end of your street or at the beach. They can sell their bracelets for $1 each and start being young entrepreneurs.

5. Go outside!: Prompt your children to put down the iPad and video games and do some fun activities outside while there is nice weather. They can have some running races with other kids on the block or play hide-and-seek. Plan an exciting treasure hunt for them if it is really a struggle for you to get them up and out. A family bike ride is never a bad idea. Hula hoop, draw with chalk, play in the sprinklers, have a water balloon fight, organize a lemonade stand. The possibilities are endless. There are so many different activities that kids can indulge in that don't have to revolve around technology, you just have to open your mind to all of the options. If you can get your children occupied for long enough, you may even be able to squeeze in a date night with your hubby!

1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

This celebrity break-up took us all by surprise, and the duo are still co-habiting. What are some ways to decide who will move out after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have been together with someone for a long time, moving out can be a very upsetting experience. You have come to a point where you are so comfortable with each other. How can you decide who is going to move out? Cupid has some words of wisdom on how to handle this situation:

1. Decide legally: You can go the simple route and whoever's name is on the lease gets to stay. Although sometimes, it is more complicated than that if both of you two have your names on it.

2. Get a counselor: You don't need a counselor just when you are working to try to make your relationship better, you can still use one once you two are officially apart. It doesn't hurt to have a professional help you decide where to go from here.

3. Don't let your emotions overtake: Have a rational discussion with your ex-partner to figure out what would make the most sense to do. Try not to become too attached to the small things. Have an open mind and realize that you now have this opportunity to either move out and start a beautiful new life in a wonderful new place, or you get to redecorate the home you are in now! Either option is an opportunity for growth.
