By Carly Silva

Doing yoga is a great way to stay active and get in touch with your body. But, it isn't just great for physical health; it also does wonders for your mind and mental health. There are tons of yoga poses that will help you focus on mindfulness and breathing just as much as physical fitness.

If you're in need of some new fitness tips that will help both your body and mind balanced, check out these five yoga poses for stress relief:

1. Child's pose: Child's pose is one of the most popular poses in yoga, and it is great to help you calm down and relax. To do this pose, start by sitting on your knees. Put your big toes together and knees as far apart as you would like, then stretch your arms all the way out in front of your and let your forehead touch the ground. This pose is great to do in the middle of an intense practice, or just throughout the day when you need to check in with yourself.

2. Forward fold: Foreword folds are great to incorporate into any routine. Not only does a forward fold stretch your back or your legs, but it's also very balancing and calming. You can do a foreword fold sitting with your legs out in front of you, or standing with knees bent. Fold your entire torso as far down as you can go, and let your head be super heavy. This is a great passive pose, meaning that instead of straining and using muscles, you will be more focused on releasing the tension in your body and mind.

3. Bridge pose: This pose is another one that is great for releasing all of the tension and chaos going on in your body and in your mind. To do this pose, lay on your back with your legs bent and feet on the floor. Slowly squeeze your gluts to bring your pelvis up as far as you can go, but don't tense up in your arms or neck. Keeping that calmness in your upper body will feel super restorative, especially if you stay in this pose for a few minutes.

4. Legs up the wall: Legs up the wall, which is done exactly how it sounds, consists of laying down on your back, and letting your legs rest completely straight up against a wall. This pose is great, especially for anyone with an anxious or restless mind, as it forces your body to de-stress and calm down.

5. Corpse pose: Corpse pose is probably the easiest pose here, and it mostly consists of just laying down flat on your back with your arms out on either side. It can seem simple, but allowing yourself the time to lay in this position without having to worry about other tasks or responsibility is a great way to give your mind a break and reset for the day. Corpse pose is great to do at the end of a yoga practice, in the middle of the day, or right before bed as a cool-down exercise.

Fun Fall Beauty Tips

By Carly Silva

Fall is officially here, and that means new beauty trends. Transitioning from summer to fall can warrant a lot of different changes for your beauty routine, including different skincare tricks and a new color palette.

If you're looking to switch up your beauty routine for the fall, here are five fun beauty tips to help you get ready for the fall:

1. Change up your skincare: Fall means cooler weather, which can be tough on your skin. It's important to keep your skin moisturized, which can mean drinking more water or maybe switching to a heavier face moisturizer. Also, it's a good idea to invest in a moisturizing lip product to keep your lips from looking chapped as the weather gets colder.

2. Show off some autumn nails: The fall season is the perfect time to embrace darker color palettes for nail art. Don't be afraid to explore grey tones, purples, reds, oranges, and greens. These dark fall tones will top off any fall beauty look.

3. Warm-toned eyeshadow: Fall is the perfect excuse to wear warm, shimmery, and even glittery eyeshadow. Sparkly golds are extremely trendy this fall, so top off your makeup look with a glittering eyeshadow or a sparkling highlighter on your cheekbones.

4. Add in some dark accents: Something that makes a look pop in the fall is adding a dark accent to your makeup look. The best way to do this is to add a dark lip or fill in your brows to be nice and thick. This type of look is a nice contrast from summer trends and will definitely make you look like you're ready for fall.

5. Don't forget about SPF: Even though you may not be basking in the sun and laying on the beach like in the summertime, SPF is still very important. If you're still going to be outside for fall activities, or even if you won't be outside much, SPF is something your skin needs every day, during every season. Keep your skin healthy and avoid fine lines and premature aging all season long by keeping up with your SPF.
