In celebrity baby news, Gigi and Zayn have welcomed their first child, a girl. What are some perfect “push presents” to give the mother of your recently born child?

Cupid’s Advice:

Every mother deserves a little something after a difficult delivery journey. If you’re looking for some perfect “push presents” to give the mother of your recently born child, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. A baby book journal: A baby book is something most sentimental moms will love. Especially if she is a new mom, writing down all of her experiences of her pregnancy and birthing story will be an important memory for her, and your child may love to read it one day!

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Vanderpump Rules Stars Brittany Cartwright Jax Taylor Are Expecting First Child Together

2. Mom jewelry: A push present doesn’t have to be something for the baby; this gift can be about celebrating the mother and everything she has been through in this special time in her life. Think about buying some sort of jewelry that symbolizes motherhood, like a birthstone ring, interlocking necklace pendants, or something engraved with “Mama.” These types of gifts will make her feel so special as she enters into motherhood.

3. A day of relaxation: If your baby comes unexpectedly, or if you don't have enough time to plan out your push present, a spa day is a great idea for a new mother. Buy a gift card so that she can use it whenever she pleases once she has recovered from delivery. Plan a day to watch the baby while she gets some rest and relaxation for all of her hard work.

Parenting Tips: How to Juggle a Job and Parenting

By Carly Silva

Parenthood itself can be a full-time job, so balancing it with an actual full-time job may seem impossible. But, juggling parenthood and work is possible; it just requires a lot of preparation and scheduling.

If you're a parent who is struggling to balance parenthood with your work schedule, here are five parenting tips on how to juggle a job and parenting.

1. Stick to your schedule: When you are balancing a job with parenthood, it's important to stick to your schedule to be sure you have allotted enough time for both. Make a schedule, divide up your time, and stick with it. Don't be afraid to say "no" to weekend plans if you think you need to spend more time with your kids on your off-days from work.

Related Link: Parenting Tips: How to Safely Adapt to Online Learning

2. Prioritize what is most important: When you begin juggling family life and your career, you need to first identify what your priorities are. This will help you be able to make decisions more easily if you are ever caught deciding where to spend your time. Also, identifying your priorities can help you remember that having time to spend with your children after work might be more important than having a squeaky clean house or perfectly ironed clothes.

Related Link: Parenting Advice: Breaking the Negativity Loop

3. Be proactive about childcare: Child care can definitely help ease the stress if you're a working parent. Whether your children aren't in school yet or need care after school hours, it's always helpful to have a babysitter's number on hand. This is helpful in case you get stuck at work or have extenuating circumstances. If childcare isn't in the budget for you, think about family and friends you can count on to help you out, too.

4. Talk to your employer or coworkers: Letting your work community know that you are juggling parenthood may help them respect your boundaries. Let them know that you can't pick up extra hours or stay late for that extra project because you have kids waiting for you at home. This could at least help those in your workplace understand how important your time is.

5. Don't blame yourself: Many parents feel guilty for being career-oriented while also being a parent. Try to stop yourself from feeling this guilt. Instead, think of yourself as setting an example for your child by pursuing your goals and working hard.

In celebrity couple news, Sofia Richie may be moving on after her split from Scott Disick with Jaden Smith. How do you know you're ready to move on after a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break-up can be one of the hardest things to do. There are a few ways to tell if you're ready to start thinking about moving on, so if you're thinking of trying to start dating again, Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Make sure you're over your ex first: The last thing you want to do is start up a new relationship when you're still not healed from your old one yet. This will make it harder to fully invest in someone new and might cause problems if you're still hung up on your ex. Before rushing into a rebound, focus on taking care of yourself and making sure you've had time to heal before starting something new.

2. Take it slow: If you think you're ready to start dating again, but you're still feeling hesitant, try to take it slow.

It's okay to try and put yourself back out into the dating game, but consider moving your next relationship slowly, so you're able to stop at any time.
