A new baby in the family is an exciting time for you and your partner. Here are a few ways that being new parents can bring you closer together:

1. You'll learn to lean on each other more: Sleepless nights with a crying baby, frustration over breastfeeding, learning to cope with new feelings that come along with having a new baby... Celebrity parent Bradley Cooper is living a new life after welcoming his daughter. What are some ways parenthood can change you?

Cupid’s Advice:

We all change to some degree after we become parents or are about to become parents. Here are some ways it can happen:

1. Saturdays: Remember when you used to love sleeping in late and then hoofed it straight to the coffee pot only to binge watch your favorite show? You might have even treated yourself to a donut instead of a full-blown breakfast. Those days are now a thing of the past with little ones, which are reserved for morning cartoons and whipping up a full morning meal.

2. You’ll make decisions differently: Before kids you might have been able to make a decision on a whim. 3. You’ve never loved someone this much: You love your partner, but you love your child so much more. You'll do anything for them to make sure they are safe and happy, even if it means getting up at seven in the morning on a Saturday to watch cartoons with them instead of sleeping in. Or you'll play with them on the playground even if you keep running out of breath.

Celebrity Baby News: Jenna Bush Hagar Is Expecting Third Child

By

Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity baby news, celebrity couple Jenna Bush Hagar and Henry Hager are expecting baby number three, according to UsMagazine.com. “I’m pregnant!” Bush said, as she revealed her happy news to her Today co-anchors on Monday, April 22. “I’m only telling because Mila and Poppy found out yesterday in their Easter baskets. They told the man behind me on the airplane, they told the people at church.” What happy news!

In celebrity baby news, Jenna Bush Hagar and her husband will soon be outnumbered. What are some ways to handle three kids versus two or one?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having three children is a lot of fun, as long as you don’t forget that your partner is your partner. You'll both still need to take time for yourselves. Someone will always need you and your partner. And when they're older, they'll learn to rely on each other. Cupid has some tips:

1. Get that minivan: Having three kids means you need to be able to fit them all in the vehicle. This also means being able to fit everyone in the back with car seats. Having a larger vehicle will mean less stress when wrangling your little ones for a trip to the doctor or a family outing.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: 'Bachelor' Alums Arie Luyendyk Jr. & Lauren Burnham Soak Up Sun on Bermuda Babymoon

2. Keep a tighter budget: Three kids cost more than two, so you might want to start keeping a tighter budget. Even if your kids are younger now, they will all eventually be at an age where you'll need to buy three times as many school supplies, shampoo bottles (you will fly through shampoo, as silly as that sounds), and toys. And, do not underestimate the cost-savings of hand-me-downs.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Shawn Johnson is Expecting a Year and a Half After Miscarriage

3. Try not to put too much responsibility on the oldest: Your older children may want to help with their youngest sibling, but beware of putting too much responsibility on the oldest. Teaching them to change diapers or cook lunch in the microwave—if they're seven or older—will teach them responsibility earlier. Even if your oldest is five years old and the other two are still younger, it can be easy to fall into the, “watch your brothers” trap while you run to the bathroom. Don't forget to let your oldest be a kid, too!

Cupid's Advice:

For a lot of couples like Arie and Lauren, a babymoon is the last chance to have a romantic getaway before the baby comes. Cupid is an expert on this and came up with some ideas:

1. A nature-filled babymoon: There's just something about pregnancy that makes a mom-to-be feel connected to nature. Search for a local area where you can rent a cabin in the woods or take a road trip along the countryside. This is sure to give you both a chance to relax and enjoy the last few months you'll have together as a couple before the baby comes.

2. A cruise: Be sure to check with your doctor, and some cruise lines have restrictions for passengers who are over 24 weeks pregnant. But the idea is to be pampered and enjoy your time with your partner before the baby comes, right? A cruise might be the perfect thing to do.

Talk about parenting philosophies: If your Mom raised you and your brothers by herself, but your spouse had a full family with both parents growing up, you both will look at parenting a bit differently. 2. Announce to immediate family: Announcing your pregnancy and due date is an exciting time for you and your partner, as well as for your family and friend. If you don't want to immediately let everyone on social media know before your close circle does, plan unique announcements for each group! Don't let the pressure of sharing your due date stress you out; it doesn't have to be extravagant. A phone call to your mother (instead of texting) means more because it's personal. Or maybe a cup that says, "World's Best Grandma/Grandpa/Uncle/Aunt" and a picture of the ultrasound with the due date will be more memorable for years to come.

3. Make something special (or have something special) made to celebrate: You can go beyond having a cup made when you announce your due date. If you're creative with programs like Photoshop, you could create a movie poster with the due date or make a small trailer with a video editing program (like iMovie or Windows Movie Maker). If you create the movie poster, you could put it in the baby's room once they're born.
