Celebrity Baby News: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

By Jessica Gomez

Multiple sources say that Rachel McAdams is pregnant, according to EOnline.com. The alleged mother-to be has not said a word on it and neither have any of her representatives. McAdams has always been pretty private about her life. The last time she was photographed was in Toronto where she was wearing a jacket that could have been hiding her celebrity baby bump. She's also been keeping a low profile in the last few months. We don't know much as of yet, but let's hope we soon will!

This celebrity baby news hasn't been confirmed by McAdams herself, but we're happy for her! What are some reasons to keep your pregnancy under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether to announce your pregnancy or not is the mother-to be's choice. Cupid has some reasons why you may not want to break the news just yet:

1. To avoid stress: Pregnancy is a sensitive time when your health and the one of your baby depends on you taking it easy. If we feel like outside factors can cause us stress during a critical time, then as mothers-to be we must cut out those things. Sometimes people can become over bearing when it comes to receiving baby news – so if you're around those kind of people, then momentarily hiding your pregnancy is an option. Do what's best for you and your bundle of joy.

2. Judgy peers: Whether these peers are at school or work, or are your neighbors, friends, or fam, sometimes they're just not the easiest people to deal with. At times, we may be surrounded by people who judge and/or gossip, and that can lead to you wanting to keep your pregnancy low-key. During pregnancy, drama should be avoided, so there's no shame in doing what you have to do. Do what you have to do for yourself, forget about others. You and your baby are most important.

3. You don't want to jinx it: Some of us are superstitious and believe in the ability to jinx things. This may not be logical to everyone, but if it's logical to the mother-to be, then that's enough. It's your body and your baby. Sometimes certain people find reassurance and comfort in not telling people right away due to fear of something wrong, like a miscarriage for example. At the end of the day, as long as the baby news is delivered later rather than never, it should be fine.

and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many different ways that you can introduce your little bundle of joy to family and friends – the choice is yours. Cupid has some tips:

1. Social media: Post a cute photo on Facebook, Instagram, etc. Posting a precious photo is one of the simplest ways. You can literally share the photo with so many people without having all the germ fears first-time parents go through. If you don't like the idea of social media, send it through a photo message individually or in a group chat.

2. Throw a small get-together: Hosting a nice intimate gathering at your place is a cute and fun way to introduce your baby to your friends and fam. It can also relax the new mommy. Being around loved ones can be good for you and your baby, as long as you know and let everyone know about how long the meetup should last. Let everyone rave about your cute little one, but know how much you can handle in a time of big transition and probably one of the most tired times of your life.

3. On a one at a time basis: Sometimes, some moms prefer to keep their kids more sheltered than usual in the beginning. That's fine. Have friends and family come over one by one, in pairs, or in small groups to see your little one. Sometimes babies do get overstimulated, which is why this option makes sense.

Cupid's Advice:

It is immensely important to care for your child even before they come out of the womb. Follow your doctors instructions, read baby books, and get some advice from Cupid! Here are some ways to put your child first during pregnancy:

1. Eat well: You are now consuming nutrients for both you and your baby. You want to make sure that whatever you put in your body, you would want to put into your baby's body as well. Make efforts to eat a healthy and balanced diet whenever it is possible. It's definitely okay to satisfy those cravings though! Just make sure you are still consuming an abundance of healthy foods to get the vitamins and nutrients to your baby.

This will also help to relieve stress on your baby and produce valuable mother and child time for the beginning of their life.

Celebrity Baby News: Kylie Jenner Plans to Keep Motherhood Journey with Stormi Private for Now

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Kylie Jenner plans on keeping her life with celebrity baby Stormi low-key, at least for now. The 20-year old reality TV star and makeup mogul kept her pregnancy on the down-low and demands that her motherhood journey be kept private as well, according to UsMagazine.com. “She is extremely protective and she is very focused on trying to keep motherhood private for right now,” a source said. “All Kylie wants is for her privacy to be protected right now and is pretty demanding about that at this time.” The source also adds that Kylie is in no hurry to get engaged to beau Travis Scott, so we guess there won’t be any celebrity wedding bells ringing there for a while.

In this celebrity baby news, it begs the question – is it okay to post photos of your child on social media? What are some factors to consider?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you want to post photos of your child on social media or not, the decision is up to you. It's all up to preference, as long you understand the loss of control that takes place on your end once you upload a photo on the web. Here are some factors to consider:

1. It will always be on the web: When you post photos of your little bundle of joy, they will permanently be on the internet. This concerns some people, while others don't find any harm in it. Think it through and decide whether or not this factor plays a role in your preference, considering that these photos are of your child and they will one day grow older and potentially see them.

2. Cyber safety risks: Do I want everyone to see this? Unless your social media account is private, the photo is available to pretty much the whole world. So think about what you're posting and consider whether you care who sees it or not. Cyber safety is one of the biggest concerns for parents considering it has been suggested that approximately 50% of photos on Pedophile sites come from the social media pages of parents.

3. Some photos may either be misjudged, misappropriated, or both: On social media, everyone has an opinion. This makes room for people to sometimes misjudge what they see or think they see on a photo. Misappropriation also happens often, especially with memes. You never know if one your photos will fall victim to this. People all the time take photos and turn it into a post relating a totally different message, good or bad. If you're fine with this because of your care-free attitude then that's fine, but others may want to stray away from this.

and cute way to break the celebrity baby news! Congratulations to the celebrity couple!

Spoiler alert! Chrissy Teigen revealed the sex of her celebrity baby-to-be. What are some reasons to find out the sex of your baby before he or she is born?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the earliest decisions you make during pregnancy is whether or not to find out the sex of the baby. Cupid has some advice as to why you would want to find out whether your baby is a boy or a girl:

1. Decorating the nursery: You can go with neutral colors (white or yellow) if you'd like, but many people like to go traditional (pink or blue). A nursery is a place you want to have done and prepared by the time your baby arrives. Therefore, you want to finish it early, well before the due date. When deciding on decorating options, you may be one of those parents who would want to take the sex of your baby into consideration, so be sure before making final decisions.

Related Link: Kim Kardashian Is a 'Very Hands-On Mom' with New Celebrity Baby Chicago

2. The baby shower: Again, you can go with neutral colors for the decorations of the celebration. And you can choose unisex gifts as well. However, when creating a registry, you may need to know the baby's sex in order to choose the items you want or need to add. onto the list. Also, you may not want to keep your baby shower attendees in the dark when they're celebrating and showering your bundle of joy with presents – the suspense may make them go nuts, you never know!

Related Link: Khloe Kardashian Reveals How She Hid Her Pregnancy & How She Told Tristan

3. Choosing a baby name will take longer: And it would be harder, too. You can save yourself half the time by finding out the sex of your baby – And also save yourself half the hassle. Imagine not knowing, therefore having to choose both a boy name and girl name. It's already hard enough coming to an agreement with your partner. Since choosing a baby name together can sometimes be a struggle for many couples, so knowing the sex of the baby can avoid further frustrations for sure!

Can't believe in about one month we will be wrapping her up in this soft, cuddly little number!" she continued.

This celebrity baby news is great to hear! What are some ways to compromise with your partner on baby names?

Cupid's Advice:

Choosing your baby's name is exciting, but can also be a bit tedious considering you and your partner should be in agreement with the name chosen. Cupid has some advice on how to get on the same page when it comes to the name of your tiny loved one:

1. Try using a compromising tool online: Babynamester.com has this tool, along with many suggested baby names for you and your partner to check out. The way it works is you enter the sex of the baby, then you and your partner each type in what your top baby names are. Next, you choose which one you each like best from your partner's list. And lastly, the site generates a long list of combined baby name preferences. Try it and see if it may work for you!

2. The Middle Name: One of you can choose the first name and the other one can choose the middle name. Many couples compromise in this manner. Although, choosing the first name is most likely ideal for both parties, the middle name is the one that gives the name uniqueness considering that not everyone has a middle name, and on top of that, a middle name is a nice differentiating addition to a first name.

3. Combine the names: This isn't always possible, but it sometimes is. You can create a beautiful, unique name! For example in the hit Twilight Saga: Breaking Dawn, Bella (played by Kristen Stewart) combined the names she and her husband Edward (played by Robert Pattinson) liked: Renee (Bella's mom's name) and Esme (Edward's mom's name), resulting in the name Renesmee.

This celebrity baby-to-be will join his or her parents in Cleveland. What are some things to consider about the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

Having a child can be both an exciting and nerve wrecking time, but planning and making arrangements before the child's birth are both key. Cupid has some tips on things to think about before bringing your little bundle of joy into the world:

1. What don't you know?: Read, read, read and ask, ask, ask! It's time to learn. Know what to expect and know what to do when you go into labor. Ask a medical professional any questions you have in order to have a full understanding on the situation. And of course, do some reading. There are a lot of books for the mommy-to-be. Understanding things will help you plan better for the big day.

2. How do you want the birth to be?: Do you want a home birth or hospital birth? Do you want epidural or no epidural? Talk to a medical professional about your options and weigh the pros and the cons of each. Every person is different, so after you have all the facts, think about which option is best for you. And be prepared, too. When your due date is approaching, prepare a bag full of necessities you need to take to the hospital, or if you're going in the home birth route, have a box of things ready – that way, once you're in labor, you're ready to go!

3. Who do you want present at the birth?: Decide and make arrangements now to ensure a higher probability for things to go as planned. This decision is a personal one, which should be well thought out, considering you will be in a different state of mind at that moment! You can also arrange for someone to take the lead and keep everyone in the loop (sending texts, making calls) once you're preoccupied.

There's another celebrity baby on the way for Pete Wentz! What are some ways to integrate a broken family when kids are involved?

Cupid's Advice:

Integrating a broken family can be hard on children, but sometimes it comes naturally. Either way, Cupid has some advice for the fam:

1. Resolve any issues you may have with former partners: It is important that all parents/adults create or maintain a healthy relationship with one another. This can help children against feeling like their loyalty toward their parent and their step parent must be divided somehow.

2. Establish roles: Establish expectations. Parents play many roles, but one of the most important roles that should be decided is the disciplinary role. Children must learn the role of the step parent in order to know what to expect. Once there is an understanding, a meaningful and trusting relationship can begin to mold.

3. Have tons of family time: Make new traditions or mix the old with the new. Spending quality time with one another is an essential part to building a family unit. This is the time where bonds can truly be created, whether it be as a group or interpersonally. Family time will strengthen the marriage and union of step children.

Is Enjoying Her Last Months of Pregnancy

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity baby news, Dutches Kate is enjoying the ending of her royal pregnancy, which wasn't the case during the beginning of it, according to UsMagazine.com. "[She is] enjoying her later months of pregnancy and feeling great," said a source. "It's amazing what a difference the later trimesters feel like compared to the early days, which she really struggled with more than ever this time." This celebrity baby is coming soon, and with less hassle now it seems!

We're highly anticipating this celebrity baby's entrance to the world. What are some important ways to prepare for the birth of your child?

Cupid's Advice:

While pregnancy can be a beautiful time, it can also be the opposite of graceful. There are many things you can do, but here are a few:

1. Eat smaller portions, but more meals, to relive heartburn:

Instead of eating three big meals three times a day, aim to eat several small ones throughout the day. Also, eat slowly. Overfilling your stomach can cause an acid reflex, resulting in heartburn.

There's another Fixer Upper celebrity baby on the way! What are some ways to be sure you give attention to each of your children when you have a big family?

Cupid's Advice:

Big families are tons of fun! At times, it can be overwhelming, but there's never a lack of excitement. It's normal for children to feel deprived of attention in larger families, so if you're looking for ways to help find the balance, check out these tips from Cupid:

1. One-on-one time: Sometimes, all your kids really want is some quality time with you and your partner. Consider giving each of your children one day a month (or whatever works for your schedule) to spend the whole day with you. Make the day about them and give them the chance to choose what they want to do! They'll totally appreciate the quality time with you or with your partner.

2. Emphasize group activities: Group activities are always a wonderful way to include everyone! Whether you play a game together, bake a bunch of cookies, or visit a local park, there are plenty of ways to spend equal amounts of time with all of your kids. Plus, these activities are big memory makers that are cherished long down the road.

3. Manage your schedules: If you have a large family, it's important to figure out a schedule that works. You should always encourage your kids to try new things and be ambitious, though you also have to be practical. Too many extracurricular commitments will hinder the time spent with each of your children. If your schedule seems overwhelming, perhaps one activity at a time is a good option!

Celebrity Baby News: Another Duggar Is Pregnant! Jinger & Jeremy Vuolo Are Expecting First Child

By Karley Kemble

The Duggar family is growing yet again! 14 months after saying “I do,” Jinger Vuolo, the sixth oldest Duggar daughter, is expecting her first child with husband Jeremy Vuolo. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple is “praising God for this beautiful gift” and hopes that fans and supporters will “join us in praying for a safe and healthy pregnancy.” Though Jinger comes from a large family, the reality star and her husband have both kept quiet on how big they want their family to be! Regardless, we are very excited about this celebrity baby news. Congratulations to the Vuolo family!

This celebrity baby news isn't exactly surprising, but we're happy for the couple! What are some ways your relationship changes when you have a child?

Cupid's Advice:

A baby brings lots of changes to you and your partner's relationship. If you're apprehensive about the jump from two to three, you're not alone! Being aware of the changes is helpful, so here's what Cupid has to say:

1. Imbalanced effort: You and your partner might experience growing pains when it comes to divvying up your parental duties. The laundry and bottle washing will seem endless at times! With two of you and one of them, it's certainly challenging to figure out a system that works for each other. It can be done, though!

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amy Duggar's Parents Are Divorcing

2. Drained energy: Your new bundle of joy doesn't come with a concept of time, so late-late nights and early mornings are inevitable. Both you and your partner will have a lack of energy when it comes to your relationship. While you know what you should be doing for each other, sometimes you just won't feel up to it. Recognize the importance of affirmations and making time for each other, though! You two need to lean on each other in this new chapter of your lives.

3. Hindered intimacy: Similar to strained energy, there will certainly be hindered intimacy between you and your partner. The desire to sleep will sometimes (okay, more than sometimes) overpower your desire for intimacy. That is normal – most couples struggle with this! Try your best to keep the romance alive. Start small, and you'll be back to your pre-baby selves in no time at all!

Celebrity News: Kim
Kardashian Reveals Her 2018
New Year’s Resolutions

By Karley Kemble

New year, new Kim? Kind of! According to EOnline.com, Kim Kardashian has been very open with the changes she hopes to make in 2018 on her exclusive app. In the video, Kardashian states her main goal “is to be on my phone less and more in the moment.” She also hopes to up her fitness game and work out five to six days a week with her trainer. 2018 will certainly be a huge year for Kardashian and her husband Kanye West, as they will soon be welcoming another celebrity baby via surrogate, too!

This celebrity news shows us that even celebrities like Kim Kardashian plan to make big changes with the new year. How can you stick to your resolutions once you've committed to them?

Cupid's Advice:

It's easy to make resolutions at the beginning of the year, but it's not always easy sticking to them. In fact, most people ditch their big resolutions before January even ends. If you're hoping to make sure your big changes stick, check out these tips straight from Cupid:

1. Re-frame the "resolution": Resolutions rarely see life past January is because of the immense pressure to strictly abide to them. If there is even a small deterrent, most people give up because they aren't perfecting their goal. Try re-framing and leave room for error. For example, if you want to lose weight, instead of saying "I will lose 20 pounds this year," say "I want to change my eating habits and focus on my overall health." The two coincide, and it's more likely you'll have more success!

2. Don't be afraid to restart: Slip-ups are inevitable, so don't beat yourself up over them! With 52 weeks and 365 days, you would be insane not to stray from your big resolution. When you do stray (notice: "when" and not "if"!) know that your next choice/decision is an opportunity to get back to your goal. It's better to have a slow and steady progression, rather than no progress or even backtracking and giving up completely!

3. Have a support system: Lean on others for support. It's not a sign of weakness, rather, it's a sign of strength! When you tell others about your goals, they will want to help encourage you and help keep you accountable. Making others proud is always a very empowering motivator, so you should definitely consider this option!

Eva Longoria's very own celebrity baby is coming into a full house! What are some ways to prepare step-children for a new baby?

Cupid's Advice:

Parents are not the only ones that need to be prepared for a baby. Everyone in the household needs to be, including children. Cupid has some advice:

1. Involve them: Allow the children to bond with the baby. They can read a bedtime story, play music, or sing. Get them excited to be an older sibling! Or have them talk through your belly. This connects the children to the baby before he or she is even born.

3. Spend time with them: You have more time now than you will once the baby is born, so take advantage.
