Celebrity Baby News: Bristol Palin Reveals Baby Name is Same as Kristin Cavallari's New Daughter

By Kyanah Murphy

Celebrities put a lot of thought into naming their celebrity babies, but sometimes there are still repeats! According to UsMagazine.com, the latest celebrity baby news is at that Bristol Palin is naming her daughter Sailor, which also happens to be the name of Kristin Cavallari's celebrity baby, only spelled Saylor. In fact, it was mere hours after Cavallari revealed her celebrity baby's name that Palin revealed hers. Was it mere coincidence or the sign of a copy cat?

These celebrity babies are going to have something in common! What are some ways to be sure your baby's name is unique?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrities love to name their celebrity babies odd names like Apple, Bandit, Blue Ivy, and now Saylor/Sailor (and these are only a couple of examples!). Of course celebrities aren't the only ones who want to make sure their babies have unique names; you might want a unique name for your child, too. Cupid has some tips:

1. Choose a unique spelling: Look at the name 'Kyanah' – it's a different spelling of 'Kiana'. There's also 'Saylor' as opposed to 'Sailor', 'Geoff' instead of Jeff ... honestly, the list is endless. If you want your baby to have a unique twist on a name, consider alternative phonetic spelling.

2. Pick a name that hasn't been used in awhile: If you're thinking of naming your future daughter 'Katniss', don't do it. Every new mother and their mothers are going to be naming their girls 'Katniss' to give their kid an edgy and unique name. Because it's a practice to name your child after a cool character, if one is incredibly popular like 'Katniss', your baby's name won't be unique at all. Try choosing a name that hasn't been done in awhile.

3. Do some research: If you do your homework, it's entirely possible to find a name that is unique and captures the style you want associated with your child's name. 'Caelum' (Kay-lum) is from the Latin meaning of 'sky' and 'Orion' is a constellation (much like 'Sirius'). Or, you can be completely out there and go the celebrity and video game route and name your child something completely different, like Lightning.

Cupid's Advice:

This latest celebrity news featuring Simon Cowell and Louis Tomlinson offers some pretty good advice about parenting when expecting an upcoming baby. Cupid is here to give you three more tips to keep in mind about parenting:

1. You cannot be too loving with your child: No matter how much you love your child and show it, it will never be too much. So don't be afraid to spoil your kiddo with lots of love. Just don't let that love manifest in a negative form, such as helicopter parenting.

2. There is no such thing as the perfect parent: Humans by design are flawed creatures so of course there's no way someone could be a perfect parent. But that's OK. What matters is how you love and take care of your kid – that's all they care about. They don't want perfection.
