Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break up is always hard. Some take it better than others, so it is important to consider your ex partner's feelings. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy from an ex:

1. Stay away: The easiest and safest way to handle a jealous ex is to stay away! While you don't have to hide like you're in the Witness Protection Program, keeping your distance may be best. Everyone is different, so you can't know for sure how your ex feels. Running when you see them is a bit too much but if you deliberately go looking to see your ex, just be prepared for anything that may happen. If you are seeing someone else, please heed this warning. You know what they say... "If you knock on the Devil's door, he will answer." Be smart and be safe.

2. Respect the break up: For whatever reason, your relationship unfortunately ended. For you and your partner, it is important to respect your break up. on and cause a huge, unnecessary commotion. Keep the peace and have respect.

Related Link: Dating Advice Q&A: Should I Remain Friends with My Ex Online?

Silence is the loudest answer you can give.

It looks like John and Nikki are experiencing a celebrity break-up yet again. What are some factors to consider before reconciling with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Are you feeling like you might want to reconcile with an ex? Cupid has some factors for you to consider:

1. Will it last?: Before getting back together with an ex, you want to make sure that the reconciliation will actually last. For Bella and Cena, their reunion was short-lived. Getting back together just to break up again shortly after can cause you more pain than the initial break up did. If you reunite with your ex, make sure you are completely committed to doing so and you are sure things will last for the long term.

Related Link: On-Again! Celebrity Couple Nikki Bella & John Cena Are Back Together After Calling Off Wedding

2. Have things changed?: You shouldn't get back together with someone if all the problems that made you two break up are still there. ## Celebrity News: Jennifer Garner 'Doesn't Want' Her Kids Around Ben Affleck's GF Lindsay Shookus

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner says she doesn't want Ben Affleck's new celebrity relationship anywhere near their three children. Affleck, who is now dating Lindsay Shookus, went through a public celebrity break-up with Garner in 2015. They share three children together; however, Garner has her reasons for not wanting Shookus around her children.

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner is doing well post-split from Ben Affleck, but she doesn't want her kids around his new girlfriend. What are some ways to handle introducing your kids to your new partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Introducing your children to a new partner can be difficult. Often times, your ex may have some requests and, to keep the peace, honoring them is a good idea. Cupid has some ideas on how to introduce your new partner to your kids:

1. Who wants ice cream?: Naturally, most kids love ice cream. A good ice breaker is taking the kids and your new partner out for ice cream. It is important to have the kids in an environment where they are comfortable and feel safe. While you may think they are focused on their sundaes, they will remember the outing and it will help associate your partner with a happy memory.

2. Introduce the idea: Sometimes the “what if” game helps. Slightly introducing the idea will help in finding out if your kids are okay with you having a new partner. Kids often object to their parent being with someone new because they want to see their biological parents together. Over time, suggesting that you may have a new partner will plant the seed needed and will help introduce your new partner.

3. Make it a party: If you and your ex are on good terms, it's a good idea for all adults involved to introduce your new partner. Your children seeing that you all are getting along and can co-exist will ease their minds. Naturally kids don't want to see their parents apart, so when introducing a new partner, you want your kids to feel comfortable. Having your ex back you up can only help the situation.

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Wilmer Valderrama was spotted visiting celebrity ex Demi Lovato at the hospital, just one day after the singer's drug overdose. According to EOnline.com, Valderrama's car was seen entering Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles, where Lovato is receiving treatment. A source said that Valderrama stayed at the hospital for over two hours and said, "He was somber and quiet and you could tell he was in a very serious mood. He arrived and left by himself." Lovato and Wilmer dated for almost six years until breaking up in 2016, but have remained on good terms. Valderrama is the first celebrity guest to visit Lovato in the hospital after she was rushed to the hospital by ambulances from her home in Hollywood Hills on July 24 after suffering an apparent overdose. Some of the information being reported is incorrect and they respectfully ask for privacy and not speculation as her health and recovery is the most important thing right now."

These celebrity exes still clearly hold love for one another. What are some ways to support your ex during a trying time?

Cupid's Advice:

In difficult times, sometimes the right thing to do is to be there for your ex. Cupid has some tips on how to support them:

1. Show up: Just like Valderrama did, sometimes the best thing you can do when your ex is struggling is to show up and be there for them. Just because you are no longer in a relationship doesn't mean you don't have to be supportive of them when they are going through something difficult. Just going to them to offer your support and presence is a huge help.

2. Keep it platonic: One thing to remember when supporting your ex during a trying time is to not let things go too far and end up getting romantic. Your ex is going through a lot and a past relationship is easily something they can turn to for comfort, but you could end up getting hurt in the end if it doesn't work out. Make sure to support your ex only as a friend and make your boundaries clear.

3. Rally their friends: If you actually being around your ex might be too stressful for them, maybe try supporting your ex in a different way. If you still have mutual friends, contact them and let them know they should reach out to them. You can also try to organize a get together where you all can be there for him, without things being as awkward as meeting with just the two of you.

By Rhodesia Williams

The celebrity couple seem to break up to make up often. Although Pell has dated other people on and off the screen, the couple always seem to find their way back to each other.

This isn't the first time a celebrity break-up has occurred between these two. What are some things to consider before having an on-again off-again relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes space is needed in a relationship, but too much space can hurt your relationship. Cupid has some advice on some things to consider before having an on-again-off-again relationship:

1. Time: Having a permanent on and off relationship is never healthy. You can't spend most of your time broken up because it poses the question of why you are even together in the first place. When deciding to break up, make sure you pay attention to how much time you are spending apart. Remember, when you are apart, you are teaching each other how to live without each other. Be careful; you might end up falling in love with the single life instead of your partner.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 4 Signs Your Partner Is the Right One for You

2. Respect: If you and your partner anticipate getting back together, make sure you both respect your relationship. A break is not meant for one or both of you to be out partying and hooking up with other people. Remember, a break is because things aren't working and if you are considering getting back together, then you need to spend the time working on yourself. Sometimes space is needed, but don't do anything you will regret.

Compromise: Being in an on and off relationship is hard enough, but remember to work through the issues. Relationships are two sided so as you're working through things, keep in mind that sometimes you have to negotiate. While you shouldn't have to put up with disrespect or cheating, simple things like communication and quality time problems can easily be solved.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Real Housewives of Orange County' Alum Alexis Bellino & Husband Jim Split After 13 Years of Marriage

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, it looks like Real Housewives of Orange County stars Alexis and Jim Bellino will be going through a celebrity divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, although the celebrity couple share three children together, the celebrity break up comes after 13 years of marriage. Based on irreconcilable differences, the pair are calling it quits.

Real Housewives* fans are upset by this split for sure. What are some ways to work on your marriage before calling it quits?

Cupid's Advice:

It takes hard work to get to the point of marriage and even more work to maintain it. Don't be discouraged if you are going through a rough patch. Cupid has some advice on ways to work on your marriage before calling it quits:

1. Communication: One of the easiest ways to fix your marriage is communicating. If communication is part of the problem, it will take both of you to fix it. Expressing yourselves in a calm, respectable manner will not only fix the issue, but strengthen your relationship. Maybe sitting down over dinner or going for walks will help to set the mood and tone of the conversation. Being respectful is very important, and make sure you are both listening. Nobody wants to be seen and not heard, so respect your partner and really pay attention to what is being said.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Don't Let Distance and Lifestyle End Your Relationship

2. Take time apart: While this may sound drastic, space can help your relationship tremendously. That doesn't necessarily mean going out and dating other people, but maybe staying at a family member's house or a close friend's house for a week is a good idea. Time away will make you miss your partner, and sometimes that's what relationships need. The space will also give you time to think and regroup. That being said, don't let too much time pass. When you leave someone for a long period of time, you teach them how to live without you. If you want to work things out, agree on the terms and conditions, and take it from there.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Stay Confident in a Long-Term Relationship

3. Quality time: Though it's the opposite of taking time apart, maybe the issue is that you aren't spending enough time together. While there can be various factors playing into why you aren't spending time together, it is important to come together and discuss the issue. You have worked this hard to get to marriage, so don't throw it away over something so silly. Sometimes you have to reignite the spark, so it's time to get the lighter. This is not a one-sided commitment. As a couple, you have to come together and make time for each other. Start simple with a date night or a surprise homemade dinner; you'll be surprised how the little things can make the biggest impact.

The couple made it through one of the hardest times of their lives together and are still going strong.

This celebrity divorce hit Blake Shelton hard. What are some steps you can take to recover after a tough break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are one of the hardest things you go through in life. Through the pain, you have to find the light even if it takes some time. Cupid has some advice on how to recover after a tough break up:

1. Cry: Never ever be ashamed to cry! Man or woman, everybody has a heart and can have it broken. The best self therapy is to just let it all out. Whether it happens when you are in front of people or when you are alone, you will feel so much better. Holding back the tears won't help you because you aren't expressing how you feel. Building up emotions isn't healthy and can cause issues later.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Working Through Your Heartbreak

2. Talk: Talking is another therapeutic way to help recover from a tough break up. Speak about what happened. It will only help ease the pain away. Say you accidentally spilled your coffee. Initially, in anger you say, "Darn! I spilled my coffee." As the day goes on, you soon lose the anger and when you explain what happened, the anger is no longer there. Speaking on what happened and repeating things somehow helps put your mind and in this case, your heart at ease.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: I'm scared to Get Back Out There and Date!

3. Go out: While we're not saying head out to the clubs or immediately sign up for speed dating, taking baby steps and enjoying yourself will help with recovery. Start small, like a movie date with friends or even by yourself. Surrounding yourself with loved ones always helps, but sometimes you just need to be alone. Dating yourself for a while is a great way to heal your broken heart. Sometimes simply taking yourself for ice cream can help.
