By

Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Jillian Michaels and Heidi Rhoades have called it quits. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity relationship has come to an end after nine years. Although the two share two children together, the couple expressed that the celebrity break up was mutual. “We’ve found we’re better as friends and parents living apart than staying together.”

This celebrity break-up comes after a long-term relationship. How do you decide whether to call it quits on a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's hard breaking up, especially when you have been together for a very long time. As hard as it can be, you have to do what is best for the relationship. You can't let time play a factor in this decision. Cupid has some advice on how to decide if you should call it quits on a long-term relationship:

1. Foundation: Without a strong foundation, your relationship won't be able to weather any storm. Coming up with a decision like ending a long-term relationship is hard, but an excellent point to start is at the core. Do you and your partner have the basics down? Just in case you aren't sure what the basics are, we are talking about trust, communication, understanding, and compatibility. When there are problems, it usually stems from one of those components. Think about it.

2. Future: Think about your future. Granted, we never know what can happen in the future, but knowing your partner, you can take a pretty good guess. Have you come to an understanding about the things you both want? Children? Marriage? Housing? Pets? You have to think about all of the things that you want. Coming together and discussing the future will help, but if ultimately you are having difficulty coming to an understanding, then maybe you have to rethink your future with your partner.

3. Feelings: You may have a strong foundation, but your feelings do matter. If you have a gut feeling about something or something just doesn't feel right, maybe you should hold off. The saying, "what's done in the dark will always come to the light" couldn't be more true. Listen to your intuition! While we aren't talking about cold feet, there may be something lingering that is bothering you. Pay attention, and give it time. When the feelings are right, you won't have to second guess anything.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes us longer than others to fall out of love with someone. It can depend on who that ex is, how the relationship was, or how it ended. However, cupid has some love advice on how to deal with still loving your ex:

1. Analyze your feelings and the situation: Be sure of what you feel. Sometimes we think we feel one thing when in reality we actually feel another. We are only human, so we do make mistakes. Evaluate everything carefully.

2. Keep busy: Be productive. Keep yourself distracted while bettering yourself, that's the best thing you can do after all. 1. Being a break-up was the right choice: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for our decisions, and that it is in fact the right one. Celebrity Break-Up: 'Vanderpump Rules' Star Jax Taylor Explains Why He Broke Up with Brittany Cartwright

Carly Horowitz

The emotional celebrity break-up of Vanderpump Rules stars Jax Taylor and Brittany Cartwright aired on Monday. Taylor owned up to his shortcomings and suggested that they split because he was not happy with himself. This break-up was filmed in August 2017 and since then, the pair has actually been trying to make their relationship work, according to UsMagazine.com. On Tuesday, Taylor confirmed on Twitter that the two are indeed still a celebrity couple now and he added, "I was a mess but each day has gotten better. I'll never be perfect I know this, but I do know that I have the best partner a guy can ask for, and all I care about is being the best I can for her here on out." Taylor realized during their short split that Cartwright made him want to be a better man and he did not want to lose her. This celebrity relationship has been through many ups and down but right now they seem to be at an up!

with mixed feelings. How do you know when it's time to break up with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

There are clearly not any tell-tale signs that it is time to break-up with your partner. Jax thought it was the best idea at the time but then he realized he was wrong. Yet, there is not a right or wrong answer to anything. You can only do what feels right in your heart in the moment. But, there are some specific indications that the relationship you are in may not be the best for you right now:

1. You find yourself wanting to do other things than spend time with your partner: If you would seriously rather lay in your bed and watch Netflix alone then go out with your boo, then that may be a problem. It is understandable to want your alone time sometimes, but it should not feel like a chore to go spend time with the one you love.

2. You bicker about everything: It is okay to not agree with your partner all the time, but if it has come to a point where bickering is draining both you and your partner, you need to have a talk. Are you bickering about small things all the time because there is something big that is bothering you both deep down? Be open and honest with each other and try to get your relationship happiness back before it is too late.

3. You constantly think about what else is out there: Is there someone out there who likes painting as much as I do? Do all partners snore so loud? Your loved one's traits should be endearing to you. It definitely may be time for a break-up if you constantly fantasize about if other people may be a better fit for you. Remember that everything is what you make of it. If you find yourself feeling this way but you do want to make it work, you can! You two just have to try together to get back on the right track. But if you find yourself feeling like this and it makes you realize that you really do not see a future with this person, then end it and be confident that your true love is out there and you will find them soon.

By

Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity couple John Cena and Nikki Bella called off their engagement. According to UsMagazine.com, the now celebrity exes provided them with a statement: "While this decision was a difficult one, we continue to have a great deal of love and respect for one another. We ask that you respect our privacy during this time in our lives." Cena had stated previously that the long time couple's relationship took a lot of work. However, we do not know the reason for their split as of yet. We wish them the best of luck.

In celebrity break-ups, John Cena and Nikki Bella called it quits. What are some reasons to call off your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Calling off an engagement is rough. Nevertheless, it is better to realize now that it's not working out rather than later after you're married. Here are some reasons why you would possibly call off your engagement:

1. You argue all the time and cannot come to an agreement:

Relationships have to consist of good communication between partners. If you argue all the time, that is something you can work through. Now, if you argue all the time and just don't resolve anything, then there is a problem. If this is the case, your issues will likely build up and continue to cause havoc in your relationship.

2. There is no trust: There are times in a relationship where there may be a lack of trust, and many times couples work through it. However, when at the point where you're engaged, trust should be something that is prominently there. There is no reason why you should not trust the person you are going to marry.

3. There are things you cannot get past: If you're marriage is going to work, you need to have moved on from past mistakes your partner has made. Sometimes we remain in relationships without forgiving our partner for a past discretion. When engaged, the slate should be wiped clean in a way. You are about to start a new chapter in your lives, and if you still have past demons knocking on your door, you may already be a step toward divorce without even being married yet.

Celebrity Break-Up: 'Bachelor Winter Games' Star Lesley Murphy Breaks Silence After Split from Dean Unglert

By

Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, The Bachelor Winter Games star Lesley Murphy and Dean Unglert have posted on their Instagram accounts in such a way that makes it seem as if they went through a celebrity break-up with each other. The former celebrity couple were spotted together at the Sundance Film Festival in January, and that's when we knew they were dating.

Yet, Murphy wrote in an Instagram caption two days ago stating, "All we need is that same energy reciprocated, and despite how open and loving you attempt to be, people can only meet you as deeply as they've met themselves. Don't be afraid to be the one that loved the most and give everything you had, because you've got to find people who love like you do and who are ready." She also goes on to state that she is "out with the old, in with the TRUE." This definitely seems like the two went through a break-up. To add to the speculation, Unglert also wrote on Instagram, "As I've gotten older, I've learned that although everyone DESERVES love, it's not something we're entitled to. Love takes work. Love is compromise. Love is earned. I still have a lot of work to do on myself, a lot to prove to myself, before I'm ready for something like that." To conclude, a source informed EOnline.com that the pair did indeed break up recently. The aspects of distance and traveling are said to have had some effect on their relationship. The two plan to continue as friends.

This Bachelor Winter Games celebrity break-up wasn't really unexpected, but Lesley had some things to say about it. What are some benefits to getting your side of a break-up story out to your family and friends?

Cupid's Advice:

When you and your partner break-up, speculation can occur. If you feel comfortable, the best thing to do is get your side of the break-up out to your family and friends. Here is why:

1. They will know the truth: You definitely want your closest friends and family to know the truth about why your break-up occurred. Fill them in on how you feel about it so that they are not left in the dust to wonder how you are doing. Your ex-partner may have a different side of the story, and that is okay. Both of you guys can expose your thoughts and feelings on the matter in order to make for a healthy, transparent split.

3. They will try to understand: Even though no one can ever feel the exact same way you do, people can at least try to understand. By doing something like posting an Instagram post detailing your feelings, it helps for your friends and family to see where you are coming from. The more they understand, the easier it is for them to continue to love and support you.

Channing and Jenna released an honest and loving statement which is the only truth.” The former celebrity couple plans to continue their lives as best friends caring for their 4-year-old daughter, Everly.

There simply isn’t truth to many of the rumors about Channing and Jenna’s recent celebrity break-up. What are some ways to communicate your break-up to family and friends?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes the hardest thing about breaking-up is breaking the news to your friends and family that have rooted you on all this time. Fortunately, it is your closest friends and family, so they will understand that this is the right decision for you and respect that. Here are some ways to break the break-up news:

- 1. Social media: If the majority of your friends and family use social media on a daily basis, this may be the quickest, most efficient way to get the word out. You can do something similarly to what Channing and Jenna did and thoroughly explain that there are no hard feelings in order to decrease the potential spreading of rumors.

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a lifelong commitment that must be worked on day in and day out. Sometimes it may get rocky along the way, but try not to give up! Here are some ways to work on your marriage before breaking it off:

1. Remember why you got married: You are going to need some motivation if you want to avidly work on your marriage during a rough time. Try your best to remember why you got married in the first place. Ponder the amazing assets of your partner and visualize the amazing wedding that you shared together. Maybe even try to do things that you used to do when you first started dating or when you first got married in order to ignite that spark again and become motivated for this improvement process.

As for his relationship with Jennifer Aniston, the two continue to be friends after their celebrity break-up.

Justin and Jennifer's celebrity break-up is fairly new, but it looks like at least one of them is moving on. What are some things to consider before moving on after a break-up or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break-up can be extremely difficult sometimes. What can be even worse is deciding whether to move on or not. Here are somethings you should consider before moving on:

1. Why did you both break up?: Was the break-up over something not worth it or was it over something that was? Sometimes we break-up out of anger or over something that we think we cannot move past, but do. Evaluate things, make sure that the break-up happened for the right reasons and you're okay with that decision.

5 Things We Can Learn from

Justin Bieber & Selena Gomez's Rocky Relationship

By

Ashton Dixey

There are a lot of beautiful celebrity couples out there, but there is one in particular that we've all come to admire and treasure: Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez. Society has perhaps learned more from observing their dating story than we could from reading a relationship book! Although they're currently on a break right now, that doesn't mean that we can't learn from this super cute couple.

Read on to learn more about the five things that celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez taught us about relationships:

1. First loves are the hardest to get over: Justin Bieber was only 16 and Selena Gomez was 18 when they both started dating each other. Fresh faced and in love, these two went everywhere together and were spotted packing on the PDA in full swing. Fast forward eight years later (past all of the drama) and these two are still in touch trying to make things work. It seemed like Bieber never fully recovered once Gomez and him broke-up. Gomez even wrote a song about it called "The Heart Wants What It Wants." Be careful who you fall in love with for the first time because that first break-up is the toughest to recover from.

2. Learn to be okay alone: It seemed as if these two kind-of lost their balance when they had their celebrity break-up. One ended up in rehab and the other was caught peeing in random wash buckets in California. Be sure you are okay with who you are as a person inside so you can move on without racking up 20 tattoos on your neck to try and burn away the pain. One month shortly after the break-up, Justin ended up driving drunk without a license, running from the cops, and even egging his neighbor's house. When you go through a break-up, don't lose touch with yourself. Now is the perfect time to rediscover the greatness within you. Stay in touch with friends and family that truly support you so you can talk through your emotions instead of acting impulsively.

3. Keep a cool head after a break-up: Sometimes it feels really good to go on social media and unfollow your ex-

boyfriend or girlfriend. Or, it might be fun to go out with a random person for the night and post pictures of yourself and them kissing. Although this may relieve the pain for a bit, it is not the best idea. Bieber put fuel on the Jelena rumor fires when he unfollowed Gomez and started posting steamy pictures of himself and other girls on Instagram. There was somewhat of an Instagram war occurring between the two. Try your best to keep a cool head after you break-up and don't do anything you'll regret. If you do end up back together at some point, you don't want to do anything that might spoil the relationship for the future. Collect yourself, you got this!

4. Rebounds don't work: If you're trying to get over an ex, it can be tempting to find someone that's available and willing to jump into a relationship with you. But when your heart is still reeling from wanting to be with your ex-lover, this can be a very bad decision. Instead of facing the pain, you're pouring it into a new relationship and settling to boot. Gomez ended up dating The Weeknd for about eight months before she ended up back in Bieber's arms after a sweet bicycle trip that turned out to be an awesome date idea. As much as you try to forget that person that you're still in love with, it won't be easy, and it certainly won't be fair for the person who's serving as your rebound.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Has Justin Bieber Moved On from Selena Gomez With Baskin Champion?

5. If at first you don't succeed, try try again: Throughout Bieber and Gomez's rocky relationship, it seems that Bieber had tried to win Gomez back many times. From serenading her at a hotel in Beverly Hills, to posting photos complimenting Gomez on his Instagram, he tried and tried again to win her back. After several years of trying, it worked! They got officially back together and even made it Instagram official this month. If there's anything to learn here it's that true love never dies and that if there's someone you know you're supposed to be with, it makes sense to fight for their love.

Bieber did it for Gomez and even though they are on a break right now, true love is always worth fighting for.
