Making a break-up known can be hard. Whether it not to rip off the band aid and share it on social media is a tough decision. Cupid has some advice on how to post the ending of your relationship online:

1. Are you ready to admit that it is over?: Your feelings matter. How you move forward with the way you tell people about your ex is your decision. You don't owe anyone any explanations. Also, if it wasn't clear to you if you can rekindle this relationship, talk to your ex about it. Don't say anything until you're positive that it is truly over.

3. How will you tell the whole world?: You don't want to air your dirty laundry on social media. Try to do this from a professional standpoint. When you are in a relationship that has true potential to become long-term, you and your partner should enjoy each other's company, have chemistry, and feel comfortable just being yourselves around one another. Cupid has some advice to help you decide if your relationship is built to last:

1. You feel at ease being your true self with your partner: Everyone is on their best behavior when dating someone new, but once you have been together a while and have reached the point you are considering your relationship becoming long-term you should be comfortable around your partner. Each of you should feel at ease being yourself with one another without worrying the other will be put-off by your personality.

Celebrity News: Kaitlyn Bristowe Slams Nick Viall's Reasons for Joining 'The Bachelorette'

By Megan McIntosh

Though they are no longer a celebrity couple, Kaitlyn Bristowe is still has opinions about ex Nick Viall after their celebrity break up. According to UsMagazine.com, though it was all fun and games, Bristowe didn't hesitate to diss her ex in a word association game saying Viall's name negatively in association with "the right reasons." Though it's been years since they've dated, it's clear there's still bad blood even after all this time.

In celebrity news, these exes are clearly not on good terms after their break-up. What are some ways to keep old hurts from your exes from affecting your current life?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to move on from an ex when you've broken up on bad terms. It's best not to let those old wounds reopen and keep you from living your life. It's not always easy to be friends with your ex, like Kourtney Kardashian is with Scott Disick, but it is possible to prevent that old relationship from holding you back like Khloe Kardashian after her break up with Tristan Thompson. Cupid has some tips:

1. Be comfortable moving on: Sometimes when you're afraid of being alone, you tend to hold on to toxic people. Holding on to exes who are not good for you can lead to being resentful and holding onto bitterness, like Bristowe with her ex Viall.

2. Let go of any possible future together: If you're still holding onto to the idea of you and your ex being together, it stops you from building a life with someone else. It also stops you from growing as a person because you may be stuck in the past.

3. Don't talk about your ex: Don't talk about your ex-partner. Just don't. Talking about them is a sign that you're not over them. If you talk about them, you're thinking about them. If you're thinking about them, you're not moving on. Stop talking about them and you will stop thinking about them and you'll finally move on to better things.

Celebrity News: Are Khloe Kardashian & French Montana Getting Back Together?

By Megan McIntosh

Though they were previously a thing, French Montana and Khloe Kardashian are not a celebrity couple, according to UsMagazine.com. After Kardashian's divorce from Lamar Odom, she moved on with French Montana, but admitted that she "was not in a good place" when they dated. Now, after her breakup with Tristan Thompson, she is currently "not thinking about her love life at the moment" and is instead focusing on her daughter, True.

In celebrity news, it seems this rumor is unfounded. What are some reasons you should think twice before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be difficult to know when it's right to rekindle an old flame. How do you know you shouldn't take that step and try getting back together; that it's time to really let it go and move on? Cupid has some advice:

1. Nothing has changed: What was the reason you broke up with your partner? Is that still an issue between you two? If nothing has changed since you broke up, then there's no reason to get back together. The issue will only re-emerge and cause a future break up.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Adele & Simon Koneckis Call It Quits

2. The reason you're returning isn't a good one: Why are you getting back together with your ex? Is it because you genuinely have a connection, or is it because you want closure? Never return to an ex because you don't understand the break up. If you broke up, there must have been a reason. If that reason still stands, so should the break up.

3. It might be a rebound: Never rekindle an old flame for a rebound. If you broke up with someone, there's no reason to return to another ex as a rebound. If there's no emotional attachment, you can try to have fun. But, inevitably, feelings always pop up. If you want to rekindle with an old flame, it should only be you two involved in the why.

Celebrity Break-Up: Demi Lovato Splits from Fashion Designer Henri Levy

By Mara Miller

In the latest celebrity break-up news, Demi Lovato has called it quits with fashion designer Henri Levy, according to UsMagazine.com. Both sober, the two met years ago in rehab and became friends. They sparked news of their celebrity relationship after they were spotted in early November 2018 enjoying a dinner date at Matsuhisa restaurant in Beverly Hills. Neither has commented on their split.

This celebrity break-up comes after only four months of dating. What are some ways to know your relationship has long-term potential?

Cupid's Advice:

All new relationships have a honeymoon stage. Whether you decide to stick with your partner after a rough time or not is the true test of a relationship. Cupid has some advice on how to know when a relationship has long-term potential:

1. You feel like yourself with them: You're okay with letting them see you limp in the morning because you tripped while walking the dog. You don't care if your partner sees you with bed-head. You let them see you worrying because your paycheck wasn't as large as you thought it would be. While all of these may be examples, it's important to be yourself around your partner. If you have to fake who you are to impress the person you're with to avoid judgment, then the relationship will not last.

2. You know what your partner needs: They know how you like your coffee, and they can tell when you're about to have an emotional breakdown days before it happens. When your partner instinctively knows what you need, then they just may be the one you're meant to live your life with – and it's not just from their side. When you know that your partner needs something without them saying anything, then it means that you have reached the point where you're both in a solid partnership.

3. You're physically intimate: A relationship with long-term potential isn't about the sex. You can both be virgins up until marriage if that is something you both value before making a life-long commitment. Holding hands, innocent kisses, and hugs are a sign that you are both comfortable. And if you aren't waiting until marriage, the time between the sheets will help build a stronger connection as long as you both understand that it's a way for you both to show how much you love each other.

If you go through a break-up, the last thing you want is for it to be the talk of the town. Cupid has some tips:

1. Privacy is key: The truth is, no one needs to know about your split. Keep your lips sealed. It's your business and your business alone. Of course you'll want to tell a trustworthy few like family and close friends, but no one else needs to know your business. Don't confirm anything unless you feel ready. Don't ever feel pressured to confirm something or make any announcements.

It looks like John and Nikki are experiencing a celebrity break-up yet again. What are some factors to consider before reconciling with an ex?

Cupid’s Advice:

Are you feeling like you might want to reconcile with an ex? Cupid has some factors for you to consider:

1. Will it last?: Before getting back together with an ex, you want to make sure that the reconciliation will actually last. For Bella and Cena, their reunion was short-lived. Getting back together just to break up again shortly after can cause you more pain than the initial break up did. If you reunite with your ex, make sure you are completely committed to doing so and you are sure things will last for the long term.

2. Have things changed?: You shouldn't get back together with someone if all the problems that made you two break up are still there. If a past issue is still present, it's likely to cause more trouble for you further on in your relationship.

3. Are you ready?: It's important you make sure that you are emotionally ready to be in a relationship again after already getting your heartbroken before. In celebrity news, Kendra Wilkinson is appealing to her fans for advice one month after filing for divorce from Hank Baskett. What are some ways to know you're ready to move on after a split.

Cupid's Advice:

Deciding when to move on after a split is tough, because you want to make sure your heart is ready. Cupid has some tips:

1. You've stopped internet stalking your ex: It's okay to admit it, we all do it. After a tough break-up, it's natural to be checking up on your former lover on social media. A surefire way of knowing if you're over your ex is if you lose the urge to see your old flame's latest picture on Instagram or their most recent tweet. If you've moved on, you shouldn't care about what your ex is up to.

independent and are confident in yourself. This way, you can make sure your next relationship is a genuine one and not a rebound from your last!

In celebrity news, Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck are following through on their commitment to putting their kids first. What are some ways to put your kids first after a split?

Cupid's Advice:

When you have kids and are going through a split, it's super important to focus on your children and how the things you're doing are affecting them. Cupid has some ways to make sure you're putting them first:

1. Put forth a united front: No matter what your beef is with your former significant other, your kids shouldn't catch wind of it. It's important to get on the same page with your ex before communicating with your kids. You want to make sure the messages coming from each of you are the same.

2. Hang out as a family: If it's possible, continue to spend time together as a family. Celebrity News: Would Jennifer Aniston Get Back Together With Brad Pitt?

By Jessica Gomez

Former celebrity couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux's split is raising a certain question: will celebrity

exes Aniston and Brad Pitt be getting back together now that they're both single? According to UsMagazine.com, Aniston and Pitt will not be rekindling their celebrity relationship after all. "Jen wouldn't consider being with Brad in a romantic way," a friend of Aniston's said. "But there is always a spot in her heart for him." As for Pitt, a source said, "Brad is sad to hear about Jen's divorce. He only wishes the best for her. However, Brad hasn't reached out to Jen, and has no plans to do so at this point."

In this celebrity news, fans are speculating about Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt now that both have gone through splits. What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether or not to get back with an ex is an important decision. It isn't always an easy one either. Cupid has some things to consider before making the choice:

1. Have you both moved on from the reason you both broke up?: Think about the reason why you both broke up in the first place. Was it for a good reason or was it circumstantial? Then, also think about whether you both have forgiven each other completely for past mistakes. If you have, then that can be a good sign – if not, then not so much. If you feel like you haven't forgiven your ex for something, then that problem will probably constantly arise during your reconciled relationship.

2. Do you see a future with your ex?: Why go back to an ex if you don't think it's going to be serious and no good future ahead? Think about this thoroughly – sometimes we see a future with someone, but that future comes with unnecessary obstacles and negativity. If this is the case, then it may be a sign that your ex is meant to stay an ex. Think about this while spending some time apart – it's something big to ponder.

3. What are reasons to get back together and not get back together?: Pro and con lists are good ones to make. Be fair and think about why you should get back together with your ex and why you shouldn't. Then, weigh it all. Certain things weigh more than others, so be honest and just with yourself when considering all the information. Making a list with a friend can help, as long as that friend isn't necessarily biased.

And she evoked such good emotion on that song, it was a pleasure working with her. That’s why I’m always happy to sing it, even though it came from a dark point in my life.”

Even celebrity break-ups leave a lasting effect on their victims. What are some ways to cope with a recent break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Time can't measure the amount of feelings you may have for someone in a relationship. Also, you may carry the effects from a break-up for years to come. Luckily, Cupid has some advice on how to cope with a recent break-up so that you can respectfully accept what happened and become better from it:

1. Change up your workout regimen: When you exert energy from working out, endorphins are released in your brain. This helps to fight stress and heighten your happiness level. Take this post break-up time to better yourself and your body. Go to the gym with your friends and do some fun workout routines together! Remember to not overwork yourself though. Do just enough so that you feel happy and healthy.

2. Write it out or talk it out: When emotions are bottled up inside of you continuing to boil and you don't let them spill out, it can be very detrimental to your overall well-being. It is healthy to get out how you are feeling. Identify your feelings in order to get past them. If you don't feel comfortable talking to anyone in your life about your personal post break-up feelings, start a journal. Write down your thoughts and feelings. Let it all out- so then you have more room in your heart to let love in.

3. Go outside: Fresh air has the power to boost your mood and self-esteem. This is a simple way to clear your head post break-up. It is easy to stay in your bed all day and sulk about what is going on your life. Make an effort to try to get outside at least once a day for a few hours. Smile and realize that this world is so beautiful!

Celebrity News: Taylor Swift's Ex Turned Her Into 'Quasimodo,' According to BFF Todrick Hall

By Karley Kemble

Taylor Swift is infamous for being dramatic about her exes. If 2017 has shown us anything, it's that Swift is tired of being defined by the media. From winning a defining court case as a victim of sexual assault, to releasing her sixth album, Swift's past reputation is slowly, but surely being forgotten. In the latest celebrity news, one of Swift's closest friend Todrick Hall has revealed some vulnerable details about her most recent celebrity ex, reports EOnline.com. According to Hall, Swift would "hunch over" at the mere mention of her ex's name – so he edited a photo of her to look like Quasimodo and told her, "You cannot turn into Quasimodo for this guy. Every time you say his name, you hunch over." Though her most recent relationship ended with a break-up, Hall said that his bestie is happier than ever with her current beau, Joe Alwyn.

In celebrity news, even Taylor Swift fell victim to an unhealthy relationship. What are some ways to know you're in an unhealthy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Unhealthy relationships are emotionally draining, and it's best to end them before things worsen. If you think you might be in an unhealthy relationship, read these tips from Cupid:

1. They're too attached: Sure, it's normal to be a little clingy to your partner, but there is a line that must be drawn. Make sure you are aware of the differences between healthy attachment and emotional manipulation. Phrases like "I'll die if you ever break up with me" should never be taken lightly. Emotional manipulation is never, ever okay.

2. They constantly blame you: If your partner finds a way to spin every argument or disagreement you have and makes you feel like the bad guy, that is a telling sign of an unhealthy relationship. You are entitled to your feelings and opinions, and your partner should never invalidate you for being too sensitive or for overreacting. Beware of this if it arises.

3. You're changing for the wrong reasons: You and your partner should bring out the best in each other. Any changes you make in your life should always be because you want to – not because you think it's what your partner would want for you. It's cliché, but staying true to your core values is important, and you should never lose sight of that!

Celebrity Break-Up? Nina Dobrev & Glen Powell Taking Time Apart Amid Busy Schedules

By Karley Kemble

Uh oh, it looks like Nina Dobrev and her boyfriend Glen Powell could soon face an upsetting celebrity break-up. According to EOnline.com, the celebrity couple are taking a break from their relationship. Though they've not officially called it quits, a source close to the duo says that Dobrev has been quite busy with various projects, which has caused a rift in the relationship. While there hasn't been any explosive fights between or bad blood, sources are saying they are not as close as they had been earlier this year. We hope things work out for this celebrity couple!

Though this may not be classified as a celebrity break-up yet, it seems busy schedules are getting in the way of this relationship. What are some ways to keep a busy schedule from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, life gets in the way and it's challenging to balance your professional life with your personal life. Check out some ways to manage your busy schedule, without feeling as though you're neglecting your relationship or your job:

1. Set boundaries: Make it a point to keep your work at work. When you constantly blur the lines between your relationship and your career, it's inevitable that one will take up more of your time. Being present with your partner without checking your phone for work updates when you're off the clock really means a lot! Set boundaries and make sure you keep yourself accountable.

2. Communicate: A strong relationship needs strong communication to survive. If you or your partner conceal your feelings of neglect, then it's likely an explosive argument will occur somewhere along the line. If you need to work late, and reschedule date night, make sure your partner knows you still care for them, and aren't choosing your job because you love it more than them!

3. Include them in your plans: If it's possible, you can try merging your two worlds. This doesn't mean you have to find your partner a job at your workplace, but perhaps you two can form your own business together (given that you two mesh well on a professional level, that is!) Alternatively, invite your partner into your “work world,” and bring them to social events outside of work. That way, they can meet the people you spend your working hours with, and they can get a first-hand look into another area of your life that is kind of unknown.

Celebrity Break-Up: How Jennifer Lawrence & Darren Aronofsky’s Age Difference Led to Their Split

By Rachel Sparks

We're sad to see this celebrity couple split. Jennifer Lawrence, 26, and celebrity ex director Darren Aronofsky, 48, broke up just one month after the release of mother!, the movie where they met. According to People.com, a source told the magazine that the age difference between Lawrence and Aronofsky was likely the cause for the end of their relationship. The source says that though the couple was extremely infatuated with and respected each other, the differences in life experiences was the cause of this celebrity break-up.

This celebrity break-up happened back in September, but we are just now getting some more details. What are some factors to consider when it comes to age in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When Cupid strikes, rationale is forgotten. It's not always logical who we fall in love with, but sometimes it's important to sit down and evaluate a relationship. Age doesn't have to be a negative factor between two people. The Olsen twins are notorious for dating older men, and despite what critics may see, the longevity of their relationships speaks to their happiness. There are things to talk about with your partner to ensure that age will not have a long-term effect between you two. Here is Cupid's relationship advice:

1. Children: Let's knock the biggie out right off the bat. Sometimes older partners may not want kids, may not be able to have them, or already have some. Children are a huge factor in many people's relationships. Are you and your partner on the same page in regards to this? Age doesn't have to have any impact on the ability or desire to have children, but be sure both you and your partner are open and honest about what you want when it comes to children.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby: Mary-Kate Olsen & Husband Olivier Sarkozy 'Really Want a Baby'

2. Friends: We all tend to hang out with people who are similar to us. While ages may vary in friendships, more often than not we gravitate to people who are close to our age because, generally speaking, life evolves on similar paths. If you're around a bunch of older friends, will you be intimidated or inspired? Will you feel left out or will you grow and feel like part of the group?

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: John Stamos & Girlfriend Caitlin McHugh Are Engaged

3. Life-experiences: Older ages have dealt with kids, divorce, education, careers, health issues, etc., while younger people are likely still trying to figure out life. Sometimes moments occur where there's tension because of these differences. Age differences are not impossible to work with in a relationship. The older person likely places more value on the relationship because of their past experiences, adding more depth to the relationship; however, there will be challenges. Just be certain this is something the both of you are willing to work through.

Celebrity Break-Up: Robert Pattinson & FKA Twigs Split, But Maybe Not for Good

By Rachel Sparks

After two years of engagement, celebrity couple Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs have taken a break. According to People.com, the couple hadn't seen each other in two months. Between Twigs' new album and Pattinson's press tour, time and distance have been a strain and led to a celebrity break-up.. But don't worry, as Twigs has kept the engagement ring and Pattinson admits, "That's the girl he wants to marry." We may see the couple reuniting soon.

This celebrity break-up is the here and now, but it may not be forever. What are some factors to consider when it comes to on-again off-again relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Like this celebrity couple, sometimes breaks are necessary. People change and it's important to realize who we are before we can go back. But does that mean you should go back? Is lost love always lost? How do you decide what's best? Read our relationship advice below:

1. Know what you want: Monogamous, long-term relationships are not for everyone. There's no right or wrong to what makes you happy, but you need to know what does. If you're ok with an on-again off-again relationship, stay the course. If each break-up tears you down a little more, it's time to reevaluate. You deserve what makes you happy, but it starts by knowing what that is.

2. Know why it ended: Some relationships end for good reasons. While the end is painful and often leaves you wanting to go back, take a moment and reflect on what caused the end. Is it worth going back to that?

Related Article: Robert Pattinson's Celebrity Love FKA Twigs 'Really Wants Kids' Says Source

3. Who do you want to be? What does the future version of yourself have to do with your current relationship status? Everything. Imagine who it is that you want to be. Does your partner support that? Does the relationship hold you back from that vision? The only way to become the person you envision is to start acting like you're that person now. If someone distracts you from that vision, realize it's not what you need and move on.
