

Jon Gosselin Denies Joking About His Celebrity Ex Kate Gosselin's Recent Split

By Katie Gray

Kate Gosselin has recently split from her millionaire boyfriend. Post-celebrity break-up, her ex-husband Jon Gosselin slammed the rumors that he was joking about her breakup in a social media post. According to UsMagazine.com, "Amid the news, it was rumored that Jon posted the 'praising celebration hands' emoji on his private Facebook page. The dad of eight reveals the incident did happen – but on a fake account." These celebrity exes have no current relationship and love life and are not on good terms. They split in 2009 and are the parents to eight children, twins Cara and Mady, 14, and 11-year-old sextuplets Aaden, Collin, Hannah, Alexis, Leah, and Joel.

These celebrity exes are definitely not on good terms. What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your children?

Cupid's Advice:

It's hard to maintain a civil relationship with your ex sometimes, but in circumstances where you are co-parenting it is extremely important to remain on the best of terms as possible for the sake of the children. Cupid has some advice on how to remain civil with your ex for the sake of the children:

1. Don't talk badly about your ex: It's important that the children don't feel torn between their two parents, because they love each of them equally and do not need to pick a side. Don't talk negatively about your ex in front of your kids. Let the children feel okay to talk about their other parent freely, without them feeling guilty for doing so. Keep a united front!

2. Maintain a schedule: Kids need a healthy balance to maintain a happy childhood. The key aspect is to maintain a schedule and keep that pattern. Children do well with stability. When the kids are alternating between parent's homes, keep the schedule the same. Too much inconsistency will put stress on the kids.

3. Stick to your rules: Sometimes parents try to come up with the same set of rules to have your children follow, even when you are split up. This is great if it is doable. If not, just have your children stick to your rules when they are with you and they can follow the other parent's rules when they are with them. Experts say that children have the ability to adapt to this, it really isn't an issue if you and your ex can't come to the same terms – so don't worry about it!

Kourtney Kardashian Announces Celebrity Break-Up from Scott Disick

By Maria N. Capalbo

According to UsMagazine.com, Kourtney Kardashian is calling it quits with her celebrity love, Scott Disick, after he was seen cuddling with his celebrity ex Chloe on a yacht. According to sources, Kourtney says that she has “had it” with Disick, and his adventures outside of their relationship! Kourtney posted her Fourth of July pictures of fun with the kids this past weekend, but they were missing Disick. Sometimes up’s and down’s lead to giving up!

Let’s hope this celebrity break-up sticks! How do you know when you’re really ready to call it quits with your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Deciding to end a relationship you have been fighting for, for so long can really be stressful. It is important to really evaluate your happiness in the situation. Cupid has some suggestions on when it's time to call it quits with your partner below:

1. More arguing than love: When there is constant arguing between the both of you, and no more compassionate interaction, that is when you should really start reconsidering things. Every conversation should not be a fight.

Sean Penn and Charlize Theron

Break Off Celebrity Engagement

By Katelyn Di Salvo

Famous couple Charlize Theron and Sean Penn are no more! According to UsMagazine.com, the pair were friends for years and, like many friendships, that blossomed into celebrity love. The two secretly got engaged during a trip to Paris, and now, almost a year and a half into their relationship and love life, the couple have called off their celebrity engagement! This comes as a shock to many, being that the couple seemed to be very happy together. Theron was quoted saying, "I'm a very, very, very lucky girl," to Esquire magazine just this past April! Penn was also quoted with similar sentiments in an interview with Esquire UK this past March saying, "It's a lot more romantic and a lot more fulfilling to be in a relationship and to think you're a good person within it."

Another celebrity engagement that didn't make it down the aisle! What are some ways to know it's time to break off an engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all relationships and love are meant to last forever. How do you know when it's right to call off an engagement? Cupid has some tips:

1. Avoiding each other: If you find yourself looking for any excuse to not be with each other then you may want to consider a break up. Engagements are supposed to be a happy time where you want nothing more than to come home to each other and spend time together, not the opposite.

2. You DON'T: If you are putting your wedding plans on the back burner and have already postponed, it may be time to reconsider. Thinking about saying "I Do" should bring forth a whole bunch of emotions, but dread should not be one of them.

3. You fight... A lot: Every couple fights, it's normal to get into fights with the people you love. But if most of the time you spend together is spent on fighting then thats a problem. Who wants to be in a relationship where most of your energy is put into arguments rather than the happy moments.
