Is it healthy to date someone new after ending a serious relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Just because your close relationship came to an end, it doesn't mean that you can never date again. Here's how you can decide if you're ready to re-enter the dating world without rebounding:

1. Think “me,” not “us”: During your intimate relationship, you came to see you and your partner as one unit. After you break-up, it’ll take some time before you can accept that you’re single and on your own. Before dating someone new, spend some time alone and do whatever makes you happy, in order to rediscover who you are as an individual.

2. Don’t compare: Once you’ve gotten to know yourself again, you can start seeing new people. But don’t fall into the trap of comparing your new potential mate with your ex, because you may be setting yourself up for disappointment.

3. Go at your own pace: There’s no specific amount of time you need to spend alone after you split with someone, but there’s no need to rush to replace your partner. Remember that it takes everyone different amounts of time to gain closure after their past relationships.

Hugh Hefner Picks A New ‘Best Girl’

If Hugh Hefner is still hurting from his breakup with fiancée Crystal Harris, he sure isn't showing it. People reports that a week after the split, the 85-year-old Playboy founder has already moved onto a new bunny: Anna Sophia Berglund. She's just over there regulating, making sure Hef ends up w a good girl."

How do you know it's too soon to move on from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After you break up, jumping back into the dating pool right away may be a bad idea. Cupid has some tips on when is too soon to start seeing someone new:

- 1. Replacing your ex: If you're seeing someone who reminds you a lot of your ex, you're probably just looking for a replacement. Wait a little longer to start dating again.
- 2. Trying to get over it: Right after breaking up, you're probably hurting and want some kind of comfort. If you look for a new flame during that time, you're moving on too soon.

3. Waiting a week: While everyone needs a different amount of time to get over a breakup, a week is too soon. For example, Hugh Hefner is probably still reeling from his week-old split.

What are the benefits of keeping your relationship private?

Cupid's Advice:

Though having your relationship out in the open is usually the healthiest route, if you're in the public eye or just got out of a serious relationship, keeping a relationship private may be the way to go. Here are some of the benefits:

1. It keeps the romance alive: When you don't have to worry about third parties interfering with your relationship, you can focus more on each other.

2. Less pressure: If the relationship doesn't work out, very few people will ask you to talk about the gory details, because they didn't know you were seeing anyone in the first place.

3. Excitement: It can be exciting to have a special secret between you and your partner. It keeps things interesting!

How do you know if your current partner is just a replacement for your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes when you think you've moved on after a relationship, you may be holding yourself back by dating someone who is just a replacement for your ex. Cupid has some tips on how know if you're still living in the past:

1. Similarities: If the your current partner's similar appearance or personality to your ex is what attracted you to him or her in the first place, you're not really moving on.

2. Reminders: When you find that your new mate constantly reminds you of your old boyfriend or girlfriend, it may be a sign that you subconsciously replaced him or her.

3. Making them jealous: Dating someone just to get back at your ex may be fun at first, but it's also unhealthy. Don't just look for someone to take the place of your old flame; find someone new, different and better.

After calling off her wedding to Hugh Hefner, Crystal Harris is determined to move on with her life. According to People, the runaway bride spent the day of the would-be wedding at a poolside bash at Las Vegas' Wet Republic. Instead of a honeymoon suite, she spent Saturday in a VIP cabana surrounded by a small group of friends. "I just had to get away. Today is the day and I just had to get away," said Harris. In spite of a rumored new romance with Dr. Phil's son, Jordan McGraw, who the 25-year-old playmate identifies as only a friend, Harris and Hefner remain close friends and speak often. "I wasn't the only woman in Hef's life and it wasn't going to stay that way after the marriage," said Harris.

What are ways to be considerate of your former partner after a broken engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

It's okay to call off a wedding, but do so with class and consideration. Cupid has some tips:

1. Don't trash your former partner: Even if the marriage wasn't meant to be, that doesn't mean that you or your ex partner did anything wrong. If anyone asks you about your ex or why you called off the wedding, simply say that you wish your ex the best.

2. Don't start dating openly right away: If there 's someone else in the picture already, try to keep it under wraps for a while in order to be sensitive to your ex-fiancé's feelings.

3. Get away for a while: Big and sudden changes in your life can be difficult for everyone involved. Don't be afraid to take a vacation from real life in order to think and get back on track.

How do you know when to forgive and forget in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes the best thing you can do in a relationship is to forget past faults and just push on. That said, sometimes something so bad has happened that it's just not possible. Cupid has some tips:

1. Trust: When something has happened in your relationship that causes you to lose trust in your partner, it can be tricky to know whether to move on alone or with your untrustworthy mate. At the very least, be skeptical. If your trust has been violated beyond repair, call it quits.

2. Minor fights: Most couples tend to get in the same fights about the same minor things over and over again. These are the types of arguments that you should forgive and the promptly forget. Decide whether the issue you're arguing about really makes or breaks your relationship. If it's not important, don't dwell on it.

3. Work it out: Just because you're offended by a fight that you got into with your partner, that doesn't mean it's cause for a split. If you're willing to talk things out (with or without a therapist), it's the logical first step. If you love your mate, it may be worth it to stick with the relationship to see where it can lead.

Hugh Hefner and Crystal Harris Call Off Wedding

One of the most anticipated weddings of the year has been called off! What are some ways to announce your broken engagement?

Cupids Advice:

Breakups are hard to begin with, but they become even more complicated when you have to tell your friends and family that your wedding is no longer happening. Here are a few ways to make the news easier to break:

1. Tell your closest friends and family members first: There’s no way around this one; you have to tell the people closest to you first. This is not a bad thing. Your friends and family will be there for you to lean on while you go through such a hard time (and they can even help pass along the news).

2. Stop wearing your engagement ring: How are people supposed to know you're no longer engaged if you are still wearing the ring? Taking it off is the first step to moving on.

3. Change your relationship status: We all know too well that today, people get most information about their friends through Facebook. Bite the bullet and remove your 'engaged' status. This will let the world know you have broken it off without having to directly tell everyone.

It's hard to know when a relationship has truly run its course and it's time to end it. Cupid has some tell-tale signs:

- 1. Seems like a chore: If you feel like seeing your significant other everyday is more of a chore than something you choose to do, that may be a sign that the spark and excitement no longer exists in your relationship, and you should start moving on.
- 2. You want to go out and meet new people: If you're having the urge to go out, meet new people and imagine what things would be like with someone different, then it's most likely time to go with your gut and do just that.
- 3. You argue over everything: If you and your significant other seem to be getting into arguments over the tiniest things and it's a constant occurrence, maybe the two of you really aren't right for each other.

What are some quiet ways to announce your breakup to friends and family?

Cupid's Advice:

It is always acceptable to be private about your breakups. Here are some great ways to do so:

- 1. Wait to be asked: One quiet way to announce a breakup is not to make a point to do it. However, if someone were to ask about your previous other half, it's time to spill the beans.
- 2. Change your relationship status on Facebook: It's not appropriate to announce a breakup through a Facebook status update or a tweet. That said, changing your relationship status is not only something you would automatically do anyway after a breakup, but it's also a smart way to announce that you're single.
- 3. Tell only a few close friends: Announcing that your relationship has ended doesn't have to be a huge announcement. If you tell only a few people, everyone is bound to find out eventually.

Diaz told UK's 'News Of The World', "We break up, we move on," in response to recent reports that she split from baseball hottie A-Rod, according to RadarOnline. Diaz's new movie 'Bad Teacher' in which she plays a raunchy, go-for-broke educator is set for release June 24th, and her character in the movie isn't far off from who she is in real life. 2. Put it out of your mind: Distract yourself with work and friends so that you don't even think about your split.

Adrienne Curry and Christopher Knight Split

It looks as if Father Brady is back on the market, ladies! Former Brady Bunch star Christopher Knight and former America's Next Top Model contestant Adrienne Curry have decided to call it quits, according to UsMagazine.com. "After starting a relationship with what seemed to be irreconcilable differences, the couple has reached a period where those differences are no longer appreciated," said Phil Viardo, the couples' manager. The pair met when they were housemates on the VH1 series The Surreal Life and then married in 2006. Earlier this month, Curry admitted that she wasn't satisfied with her home life and turned to Twitter for attention. Another Hollywood romance is now a part of history!

When you grow apart, what are some steps you can take to reconnect?

Cupid's Advice:

Like Adrienne Curry and Christopher Knights, differences can grow to be a bigger and bigger issue as your relationship lasts longer and longer. Cupid has some ideas on how to reconnect:

1. Be open: The best thing you can do in a relationship is communicate. Stay open and accepting about your differences. If you start to feel annoyed by something your partner is doing, make sure to let him or her know instead of blowing up when it gets really bad.

2. Go back to the beginning: One of the best ways to reconnect in a relationship is to take a look at the happy times you've had in the past. Open up the photo albums, and make reservations at the place you had your first date. Thinking about good memories may remind you why you started dating your partner in the first place.

3. Carve out time: Make sure you're spending quality time together on a weekly basis. Lives get busy and it's easy to forget to schedule in time alone with your partner, but it's an important part of your relationship. Simply spending more time together is a good way to reconnect.

Rogelio Baena, ex-husband of Arnold Schwarzenegger's mistress, Mildred Baena, had something to say. 1. Realize that the situation doesn't define you: It's important to realize that after any situation that involves betrayal that you are still the same person you always were, and that in fact you are able to move on with your head held high.

2. Keep yourself busy: Start moving on and rebuilding your life by enjoying hobbies that will hopefully distract you from all of the bad memories of the past.

3. Find yourself: It may sound a little corny, but after going through a tough situation, one of the best things to do is to focus on yourself. Try new things, and try to discover a little more about yourself.

New details about how Maria Shriver learned of her husband's infidelity have surfaced. UsMagazine.com reports that Shriver, 55, went out to eat with girlfriends Oprah Winfrey and Gayle King right before the news broke that Arnold Schwarzenegger fathered a child with a member of their household staff. "[Maria's] a class act and she's handling it with such grace, trying to figure out what to do...how to help the children through. It's just a very difficult time and heartbreaking to see."

What are some ways to react when you find out your partner has cheated?

Cupid's Advice:

Learning about a partner's affair is tough, and there are lots of different ways to react. Cupid has some ideas on the best and worst ways to respond:

1. Get your revenge: Often our first instinct is to get angry and take it out on your cheating partner. While it's important to feel your frustration and sadness, don't do or say something you'll regret later.

2. Become a hermit: Once you hear the earth-shattering news, you may need some time alone to grieve. But don't forget that going out and spending time with friends and family is essential during a difficult time.

3. Keep it classy: Even though you may want to either hole up or lash out at your mate, try to stay above all the pettiness. Take the high road, and remember that life goes on.

'Bachelor' Brad Womack Drunk Dials Emily Maynard After Breakup

There appears to be some debate as to what the deal is between Brad Womack and fiancée Emily Maynard. Three sources confirmed in the most recent UsMagazine.com that the couple broke up two weeks ago and that the star of The Bachelor has been drunk dialing Maynard. “Brad and Emily are over, and Brad keeps drunk-dialing her,” one insider said. “Brad is such a loser.” A friend close to the couple, on the other hand, says that the couple is still together and engaged. “They are on and off, but there is a lot of love there. This is just a rough patch," the friend said. A third source said that the 25-year old single mother couldn't handle the long distance relationship and ended things after heading to Texas to smooth things over.

What are some ways to handle an obsessed ex-partner?

Cupid's Advice:

For some people, it's really hard to let go of past relationships, especially if they feel responsible for the breakup. Here are some pointers to dealing with your ex:

1. Keep it to yourself: You're going to have to do your best to avoid your ex's calls and attempts to talk to you. Even if you plan on staying friends, it might be a good idea to defriend him or her on Facebook ... at least for now.

2. 'To the Left': One way to make things easier for both you and your former lover is to give your personal property back to one another. That way you won't have to be reminded of each other.

3. Restrain yourself: In the most extreme cases, you might need to get outside help to keep your former lover away from you. You don't always have to get a legal restraining order, but perhaps just a close friend calmly talking to your ex may do the trick.

Arnold Schwarzenegger Fathered a Child Out of Wedlock

The shocking breakup of one of the biggest power couples in Hollywood and politics now makes a lot more sense, reports People. The Los Angeles Times broke the news that Arnold Schwarzenegger fathered a child out of wedlock 10 years ago, resulting in he and wife Maria Shriver separating. In a statement to the newspaper, the 63-year-old actor and ex-governor said, “After leaving the governor’s office I told my wife about this event, which occurred over a decade ago. I understand and deserve the feelings of anger and disappointment among my friends and family.”

What are some ways to tell that your mate is being unfaithful?

Cupid’s Advice:

Maria Shriver was shocked to learn that her husband cheated, but if you can pick up on some warning signs, you might be able to save yourself a lot of time and a little bit of hurt.

Cupid has some ways to tell that your partner is running around behind your back:

1. Liar liar: If you catch your partner in an untruth, ask more questions to see if they get uncomfortable. If you feel like they're hiding something, it may be another lover.

2. Gone: When your mate spends a lot of time away from you and gives you lame excuses about where they've been, question them.

3. Abnormal behavior: Has your significant other changed his or her behavior dramatically? If you notice an attitude shift, like apologizing for everything or being extra sweet, be wary.

5 Celebrity Couples We Want to Reunite

By Tanni Deb

We've all had a moment when we've stared wide eyed in utter shock at the TV screen after finding out our favorite celebrity couple has split, trying to figure out what went wrong. After all, this pair seemed to be in such a happy relationship!

There will always be famous duos that we think about months (or even years!) down the line, wondering if they'll ever reconcile. While the possibility may be a long shot, no one can help wishful thinking. With that said, here are five celebrity couples we would like to reunite:

1. Britney Spears and Justin Timberlake: The famous singers first met in 1993 on the sets of The Mickey Mouse Club and began dating five years later. They were everyone's favorite celebrity couple in the late 90's, but their relationship ended in 2002. After their breakup, Timberlake released 'Cry Me A River,' a revenge song for Ms. Spears herself. As much as everyone loved this musical duo it doesn't seem like they'll ever get back together – romantically, at least. We can hope for a musical collaboration, right?

2. Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey: Although wedding bells are ringing for both performers, who wouldn't like this aesthetically pleasing couple to reunite? The pair met in 1998 and within weeks of meeting each other, Lachey told his 98 Degrees band members Simpson would be his future bride. He proposed in 2002 and the marriage lasted for three years. Could Newlyweds, MTV's reality show which aired the couple's married life, be to blame?

3. Reese Witherspoon and Ryan Phillippe: This blonde coupling were married for seven year when they split in 2006. While they seemed to have a successful relationship, they spoke openly about having to work on their marriage, and underwent couples therapy in 2002. Despite Witherspoon's recent nuptials, we can't stop thinking of what a beautiful couple she and Phillippe made.

4. Scarlett Johansson and Ryan Reynolds: After only two years of marriage, the pair called it quits in 2010. Rumor had it that Reynolds had an affair with Gossip Girl star Blake Lively, and Us Weekly reported that he told friends Johansson "treated him badly." Though the Lost in Translation actress has certainly moved on, we wonder if she and her ex-husband will ever reconcile.

5. Courteney Cox and David Arquette: They fell in love on the set of Scream in the mid-90s, tied the knot in 1999, had their first child in 2004 and then shocked the world when they announced their separation in 2010. However, the couple isn't giving up, as they're currently undergoing marriage counseling. We wish these two the best of luck!

These are just a few of the many celebrity couples we'd love to see together again. Which celebrity do you want to see back with their ex? Let us know in a comment below!

Have Brad Womack and Emily Maynard Broken Up For Good?

Rumors are swirling that Bachelor stars Brad Womack and Emily Maynard have called it quits for good this time. A source close to Maynard says, "It happened about a week and a half ago," according to HollywoodLife.com. The apparent reason for the breakup centers around Maynard having remaining feelings for her ex-boyfriend, automotive executive David Smith. "She's got something with David," says the same source. "And David totally digs Emily." The duo dated before The Bachelor and were said to be a good couple, although Maynard seemed "reserved" around Smith. Either way, it looks as if a match made in reality heaven is sputtering to an end.

How do you determine if your relationship is toxic?

Cupid's Advice:

It was long speculated that Brad Womack would not be able to fully open up his heart to a woman after his first stint on The Bachelor ended in heartbreak. Is Womack simply toxic in a relationship? Cupid has a few tell-tale signs for a toxic relationship:

1. You can't be yourself: If you find yourself skirting around your partner at times and find it difficult to be yourself, the relationship is probably toxic. Your mate should understand you better than anyone, so what's the point of being a part of the couple when you can't be fully happy?

2. You do things you normally wouldn't: Chances are that your relationship is toxic if you find yourself partaking in activities you used to be against just because your partner suggested it. It's important to retain your morals and values when you enter into a new relationship.

3. You fight all the time: Arguing periodically is normal in a relationship, but if you find that all you do is right and you can't point to anything positive in your relationship, it may be time to get out.

Arnold Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver Call It Quits

Arnold

Schwarzenegger and Maria Shriver are parting ways after 25 years of marriage. People reports that the power couple, who have four children together, consider the split a mutual decision. “After a great deal of thought, reflection, discussion, and prayer, we came to this decision together,” they say in a statement. “At this time, we are living apart, while we work on the future of our relationship.” Shriver, 55, a TV journalist and a Kennedy, and Schwarzenegger, 63, a bodybuilder-turned-actor-turned-governor, were an unlikely pair from the start, but managed to stay committed to each other despite their differences.

Is it important to be with someone who is different from you?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes opposites attract, but is dating someone who is different from you a good idea? Cupid has some ideas on whether two people with differing interests can find love:

1. Keep it interesting: Being with someone with contrasting interests can make your relationship more fun. Your mate can introduce you to new things and vice versa.

2. Mismatched: While it may work for some, dating someone who has a completely opposite personality can also just mean you're incompatible.

3. Same old, same old: The bottom line is, you should be with someone who makes life fun and exciting. If you date someone who is exactly like you, you may get a little bored.

4 Celebrity Couples That Sailed Past Stormy Weather

By Tanni Deb and

Molly Jacob

Did you ever hear the phrase, "April showers bring May flowers"? Believe it or not, it means something deeper than just storms and blossoming blooms. In life, dark clouds always eventually pass, allowing the sun to shine through. Focusing on the bright side when you're down can be difficult, but these five famous couples have gone through rough times (in the public eye, no less!) and these celebs are currently doing exceptionally well.

Cupid takes a look to see what celebrity couples made it through stormy times:

1. Nothing to talk about: If you find yourself scrounging for good conversation with your boyfriend/girlfriend, there may just be nothing left there for the two of you to discuss.

2. Butterflies: Of course every couple has their good and bad days, but if you don't feel in love at least every once in a while, that's a bad sign. If that happy/excited feeling is no longer there, it may be time to reevaluate your relationship.

3. Fighting: It's human nature to disagree with people at times, but if the two of you not getting along is happening more often than not, it may be time to let it go.

you're thinking about them.

3. Take off: If you have to, take work off to go on a mini vacation with your love. It's crucial to relax and not allow stress to get the best of you... especially when it might ruin your love life.
