By Whitney Johnson

Looks like there may be more bad blood in this celebrity break-up! As reported by UsMagazine.com, Taylor Swift's ex Calvin Harris collaborated with her nemesis Katy Perry for his upcoming album, and the “Bad Blood” singer’s fans are already calling out the Scottish DJ for being petty and trying to get back at Swift. Perry later confirmed their issues when she told a fan that she was still waiting for Swift to apologize. Asked if she would ever agree to a duet with Swift, Perry responded, “If she says sorry, sure!” With Harris’s recent announcement, it looks like there’s no chance of reconciliation for this celebrity relationship – or friendship.

Sometimes, celebrity break-ups don't exactly lead to smooth interactions down the line. What are some ways to deal with an ex who is purposely trying to hurt you post-break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity break-up just took a turn for the worse! If you, like Swift, are dealing with an ex who may be purposely trying to hurt you post-break-up, consider the love advice below as you figure out how best to handle their behavior:

1. Remove yourself from the situation: Avoid your ex at all costs. Spend some time alone, or invite your friends over instead of going out. Delete your ex on social media – or if it's easier, just stay off Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram for a few days. Remember that your former partner can't hurt you if you're not in their line of fire.

Celebrity Divorce:
'Vanderpump Rules' Star
Sheana Shay Finalizes Divorce

from Mike Shay

By Noelle Downey

Former celebrity couple Scheana Shay and Mike Shay have officially split, with UsMagazine.com reporting that their celebrity divorce has recently been finalized. The former spouses are settling their affairs now, with reality TV star Scheana paying Mike 50,000 dollars in order to make sure that their assets remain balanced and equitable. While Scheana once accused Mike of cheating on the hit reality show, Vanderpump Rules, the celebrity exes seem to have buried the hatchet for now, with both claiming that, "While we have made the difficult decision to move forward separately, our story will continue on through the love and mutual respect that we have cultivated throughout our 15-year friendship." Their joint statement on their celebrity break-up went on to state that they will continue to, “support each other’s personal happiness and professional success” despite the fact that they both admitted they had “failed at [their] marriage.”

This much-talked-about split has ended up in celebrity divorce. What are some ways you know your relationship cannot be fixed?

Cupid’s Advice:

When it comes to break-ups, there’s no easy way to know just when you and your partner should call it quits. However, Cupid is here with some sure signs you should look for that your relationship may be going belly-up:

1. You no longer enjoy spending time together: Every couple, no matter how strong, goes through rough patches. However, if you can’t think of the last time that you and your partner spent time together and you parted ways feeling happy and satisfied, that’s something to take seriously. If you two aren’t that happy to see each other even on your best days, that’s a huge red flag signaling that it may be time to say goodbye.

2. You argue and never seem to really make-up: Healthy debate and arguments are not bad signs in a relationship; in fact, it’s good if you’re able to disagree with your partner and recognize that conflict is a natural part of any relationship. On the other hand, if you two seem to be having the same fight over and over again that never really gets resolved, you should take a long, hard look at how you’re functioning as a couple. If arguments always end with slammed doors and the silent treatment instead of a long talk and reconciliation, that's not a good sign. It may be time to consider that the best thing for both of you is to say goodbye.

3. You're the only one compromising: Relationships are all about compromise, the push and pull of two human beings trying to work together to create something beautiful. If you feel as if you're always the one who is changing themselves to fit your partner's standards, ask yourself if they're really holding up their end of the bargain when it comes to the relationship. Do you feel like you are in an equitable partnership? Do you both compromise regularly or does one or the other of you always bend to the other one's way? If you feel as though they're never willing to sacrifice what they want for the good of the relationship, this might be a sign that the relationship has run its course.

Breaking up is never an easy process. Getting over your ex can be manageable by eliminating unnecessary drama. Here are some tips:

Calling his celebrity ex “phenomenal, phenomenal, phenomenal,” Smart opened a bit more about their friendship. The choreographer is set to appear in the made-for-TV remake of Dirty Dancing later this year and turned to Lopez for some advice. “She would absolutely give me advice when it came to acting, for sure. We can't help but be inspired by these celebrity exes and their lasting friendship. What are some benefits to staying close to an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

A break-up didn't stop these celebrity exes from being a part of each other's lives – and it doesn't have to stop you and your ex either! Here are three benefits to maintaining a friendship with your former love:

1. You can be each other's sounding boards: Chances are, you shared common hobbies or passions with your ex. If so, they may be a great person for you to turn to for guidance as you embark on a new project – just like Smart reached out to Lopez for acting advice.

2. It's convenient: If you shared the same group of friends when you were dating or even worked for the same company, the importance of maintaining a friendship may just come down to convenience. After all, it's a lot easier to be cordial to each other than to "divide up" friends, favorite restaurants, and office events.

3. It'll help you move on: There's no point in being bitter and angry after a failed relationship. By embarking on a new friendship with your ex, you'll more easily put your relationship and subsequent break-up in the past, allowing yourself to focus on the future. It won't always be easy, but it will help you open your heart up to another love.

Celebrity Break-Up: Jennifer Lopez and Drake End Their Whirlwind Romance

By Whitney Johnson

And just like that, it's over. Jennifer Lopez and Drake, who first sparked dating rumors in December when the rapper was spotted at her Las Vegas show (twice!), have called it quits. According to People.com, the celebrity relationship was "never very serious." Prior to their celebrity break-up, the pair collaborated together in the studio and were just "having fun." As a source explained late last year, "They are spending a lot of time together and really enjoying each other, but right now, it's about the music." That's not to say things didn't get serious fast: The former celebrity couple spent New Year's Eve together, and the pop star even introduced her rapper beau to her kids, Max and Emme. Reports of a celebrity break-up first appeared earlier this month.

Although we're saddened by another celebrity break-up, it sounds like this celebrity relationship was never very serious. What are some signs that it's time to call it quits with your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

As soon as the fun stopped, this celebrity couple decided to go their separate ways. But for many pairs, knowing it's time to end a relationship isn't that easy. Here are three signs that it's time to call it quits:

1. The annoyances are piling up: It's normal to have a pet peeve or two, but if everything your partner does is bothersome to you, you shouldn't ignore your feelings. It's one thing to be annoyed by the way he chews his food; it's another to be bothered by how he's always late, the way he never fixes his hair, the way he throws his dirty clothes on the floor...

2. Your lives don't mesh: You're always busy with work and your girlfriends. He never wants to spend his free time with you. You can't compromise about what movie to see or what to cook for dinner. You should want to be together. If life keeps getting in the way of that, it's a clear sign that your relationship is over.

3. You can't see a future together: You want your relationship to have staying power. If you start to feel like you're only living in the now and have no chance at a future life together, it's time to say good-bye. Don't waste your time with the wrong guy; instead, go searching for Mr. Right!

The celebrity couple met during the filming of the second season of Famously Single and supposedly became instant friends after meeting on set. Following the recent celebrity break-up, the two deleted all evidence of their short-lived relationship from their Instagram pages. The couple introduced their relationship to the world with an Instagram of the two kissing before a beautiful sunset, but it looks like we won't be seeing that again any time soon.

Add this split to the 2017 list of celebrity break-ups! What are some ways to know the issues in your relationship are too big to solve?

Cupid's Advice:

Like Ronnie and Malika, we all know how hard it is trying to make a failing relationship work. However, sometimes you need to know when enough is enough. Cupid's here to help with some relationship advice:

1. Your partner doesn't make time for you: A huge part of being in a relationship involves actually being together. They say distance makes the heart grow fonder, but if your significant other is constantly bailing on you it's a problem. If your partner isn't showing the initiative to see you, your relationship is headed towards failure.

2. When talking about the future starts arguments: If the thought of your future together constantly brings up negativity, your relationship is probably on the fritz. Growing together as a couple should be exciting, not scary. If your partner doesn't see a future with you, you shouldn't want to see a future with them either.

3. You're walking on egg shells: If you have to constantly tip-toe around your significant other with the fear that you may say or do something wrong to upset them, end it! You should always feel comfortable enough to be yourself around your partner. If that isn't the way your relationship has been going, your relationship is going nowhere fast.

This celebrity break-up comes as a surprise. What are some factors to consider before getting engaged to your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting engaged is a big step to take in your relationship, and before you do so, it's important to be 100 percent confident in your love for one another. Below, Cupid shares three factors to consider before picking out a diamond ring:

1. Talk about your future: It sounds like an obvious piece of relationship advice, but you must talk about your future before planning your wedding. Where do you want to live? Do you both want kids? How will you afford your lifestyle? Will you go to church each week? Nothing is off limits, and everything should be out in the open.

2. Get real about starting a family: Soon after you get hitched, people will inevitably start asking when you want to have children. Deciding the answer to that question now will take some of the pressure off and help you enjoy your newlywed bliss. Something else to think about: Unfortunately, having a baby doesn't come easy to everyone. Now is the time to decide if you'd be willing to adopt. There are other options to consider as well, like surrogacy and IVF.

3. Open up about your career: If your job requires you to travel or work late on a regular basis, it's important that your partner is aware of these responsibilities, as they'll cut into your time together. Similarly, if there's a chance you'll have to move to a different city or state, you need to be honest about the possibility. You also need to talk about the future of your career. If your partner expects you to stay at home with your kids, but you've also seen yourself as a working mom, explore other options that will ensure both of you feel happy and fulfilled.

Celebrity Break-Up: Jane Fonda & Richard Perry Split After 8 Years Together

By Cortney Moore

Jane Fonda and Richard Perry are making celebrity news by ending their long-term relationship. This celebrity break-up comes as a shock since the famous couple has been together for eight years. However, it seems that the separation has been amicable. "It's not a breakup, it's a shift in the direction of our lives," Perry told EOnline.com. "I hate to say the romantic relationship is over. We're definitely extremely good friends. We do things together. We care about each other a great deal." According to Perry, Fonda has "rededicated herself to activism" as a reason of their relationship ending. Fonda hasn't commented on the celebrity break-up, but it's clear the 79-year-old actress had love for the record producer as seen in a 2012 interview with The Sun, where she said, "The only thing I have never known is true intimacy with a man. I absolutely want to discover that before dying. It has happened with Richard. I feel totally secure with him." Hopefully this celebrity couple will find happiness soon.

This celebrity break-up comes after quite a long relationship. What are some factors to consider before breaking off a long-term relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

A long-term relationship can be great if you're with the right person, but as time goes on, things can change. If you feel that your relationship has gotten stale, then it might be time to end it. Let Cupid help you decide if it's time to break it off with your long-term love:

1. Deserve better: If you feel that you've settled for less than you deserve, then that's a good reason to end a long-term relationship. You don't need resentment to build up. End things before it's too late.

Longtime Celebrity Couple Zoey Deutch & Avan Jogia Break Up

By Cortney Moore

It appears that another one of Hollywood's young celebrity couples have parted ways. According to reports from EOnline.com, Zoey Deutch and Avan Jogia have "amicably" broken up after being together for five years. Apparently this celebrity news has been kept quiet for some time since Deutch and Jogia split about four months ago. Jogia, 24, said in an interview with Glamoholic, “Maybe I’ve been lucky but I think that it’s mostly a choice. I think if you continuously choose to court the public’s attention to your relationship, you run the risk of asking them to pry more out of it, but it would also be a bit strange to totally ignore your significant other’s existence in public as well.” That would explain how this celebrity news was easily kept under wraps. Deutch, 22, has yet to comment on their break-up. Perhaps some insight of what caused the split can be seen in Deutch’s recent film appearances in Why Him? and Before I Fall.

This duo is no longer a celebrity couple. What are some major reasons to call off your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Break-ups can be rough, but sometimes they’re necessary. If you’ve noticed issues in your relationship, you might wonder if parting ways is the best option. Let Cupid help you figure out whether you should call off your relationship before it’s too late:

1. If there’s been harm: Whether it’s been physical, emotional or verbal, if you’ve been hurt by your significant other, it’s a clear sign that the relationship needs to be ended. You don’t have to risk your health over someone who doesn’t care about your well being. Don’t be afraid to rally help if you need it, as your safety is top priority.

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple Angelina Jolie & Brad Pitt Agree to Seal Divorce Documents

2. Thinking of someone else: Don't succumb to infidelity; if you're thinking of dating someone else or other people, just end the relationship. There's no use in prolonging something that is no longer working out. The sooner you part ways, the sooner you can find the person who is right for you, and the same goes for the person you're breaking up with.

3. Always unhappy: Nobody wants to be in a miserable relationship. If you've given it a real shot and things aren't working out, and haven't in a long time- then it might just be time to end it. Your partner is probably feeling the same way you are. Life is too short to stay in an unhappy relationship.

Relationships can be tricky, especially if you're trying to convince yourself that you want this relationship to work out. However, you may not be finding yourself as happy as you wanted. Cupid has some relationship advice to make sure you're in a steady place with your partner:

1. Fighting: How often do you fight with your partner, and what is it usually about? Are they just little things, where you start to get annoyed with each other for anything they do? Or are they bigger issues? If the arguments are constant, and nothing seems to be getting fixed, that may be a red flag telling you to back away. You probably wouldn't want to get back together and keep the same pattern of fighting.

2. Happiness: You may think you love your partner because you've been together for so long. You also need to ask yourself if you are happy in the relationship you're in. If you've been dating your significant other for a long time, but you seem to be feeling worse, or you're at this constant, steady, boring state and you can't get out of it, you should rethink where you stand in the relationship.

3. Past Relationships: Take a look at who your significant other had dated in the past. Did the relationship end rocky? Or was it a relationship where they were on and off again? Maybe you also had a past relationship that is too similar to the unsteady one you're in now. Don't let history repeat itself and jeopardize a healthy relationship.
