Although Britt Nilsson and Brady Toops' relationship and love didn't work out, the duo seem to have the nicest things to say about each other. According to UsMagazine.com, Toops opens up about the "real" reasons behind the celebrity break-up from The Bachelorette contender. The reality TV star took to Instagram and gave a few humorous explanations for the failed love: "1. We had no real celebrity couple mashup name...Britt(y), Brad(itt). See, there was almost no chance. This was probably the beginning of the end when we realized this. 2. Britt is afraid of heights and not only am I afraid of heights, but I'm actually afraid of her being afraid of heights. That obviously couldn't work." Don't expect any hate from these celebrity exes any time soon!

This Bachelorette did not find happiness in the end. What are three ways to cope with a failed relationship and love?

Cupid's Advice:

While the reality TV couple doesn't seem too upset about their celebrity break-up, that isn't usually the case for the rest of us. Here's Cupid's advice for how to cope with a failed relationship:

1. Give yourself time: It's perfectly normal to mourn the end of your relationship, whether you were together for a few months or a few years. Allow yourself time to cry, reflect on the experience, and accept that it's really over.

2. Let your emotions loose: If you want to cry in bed all day, then you should. If you want to vent about your frustrations, then you should. But, remember to only do this as long as you need to, so you can get back up and moving.

Famous Couple Blake Shelton and Miranda Lambert Are Divorcing After Four Years

By Katelyn Di

Salvo

According to People.com, after several speculations, it is confirmed that famous celebrity couple Blake Shelton and Miranda Lambert are calling it quits after four years of celebrity marriage! Once the celebrity break-up was announced, the two released a joint statement to the Associated Press that read, “This is not the future we envisioned, and it is with heavy hearts that we move forward separately. We are real people, with real lives, with real families, friends, and colleagues. Therefore, we kindly ask for privacy and compassion concerning this very personal matter.” The country singers tied the knot in Texas in 2011, after dating for six years. Their very long celebrity relationship has been the target of several tabloids for years, and now all those tabloid rumors are coming true.

We’re really sad to see this famous couple call it quits. How do you know when it’s time to end your long-term relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

It can be tough to know when it’s the right time to call a long-term relationship quits. Cupid has some tips:

1. Changes in communication: This is probably the first thing that happens when a couple loses its spark. You used to look forward to the calls, texts, and emails, but now neither one of you seems interested in holding a conversation for longer than you have to. If this is happening in your relationship, it may be time to throw in the towel.

2. Constant fighting: Another sign that a break-up is looming is if the two of you are constantly fighting about the silliest and smallest of things. When you no longer want to be with someone, anything they do will bother you. Couples who are looking to get out of the relationship will fight whenever the opportunity presents itself.

3. No more emotion or affection: A happy couple will constantly show affection to one another. A sign that things are coming to an end is when neither of you show any affection towards each other. Hugs, kisses, and hand-holding are not a part of your every day routine.

With the latest celebrity news that reality TV stars Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick have split, fans and viewers alike are all disappointed that the Lord just can't seem to get it together, even for his three celebrity kids. We doubt these celebrity exes will be reconciling anytime soon. What are some things to consider before making up with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

These celebrity exes may never get back together, but that doesn't mean that other couples shouldn't. Here's our love advice for some things to consider before making up with a previous flame:

1. Is the problem a chronic one?: When your relationship and love has ended, but you may want to rekindle the romance, make sure you recognize if the problem is chronic or not. Is what broke you up something that keeps happening? How many chances have you already given your ex?

Things just got real for Ben Affleck! According to UsMagazine.com, The actor was seen on July 13th in Santa Monica, California, ringless, this coming not too long after his celebrity divorce announcement with celebrity ex Jennifer Garner. The two recently released a statement that confirmed all of our suspicions that the celebrity couple was heading to splitsville. The star, however, did have his ring on during his first post celebrity break-up appearance at Comic-Con in San Diego on Saturday July 11th. During the panel, Affleck kept it professional and discussed only taking on the legendary role of Batman. He must have had a change of heart since then because now the star is walking around with a bare ring finger!

The celebrity wedding rings are coming off! How do you know when it's time to remove your ring in the midst of divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Removing your ring in the midst of divorce can be a sensitive thing, especially if you have kids. Cupid has some advice:

1. No emotional attachment: When you look down at your wedding ring and it's nothing more to you than jewelry, its time to take it off. A wedding ring is a symbol of love and loyalty and if you no longer feel that with it on, then why have it on at all?

2. Acceptance: Accepting your divorce can be the hardest part of the whole process, because it may feel like you are accepting a failure. But there comes a time when you feel ok about your divorce...when you feel like you've learned from it. When you can accept your divorce you can accept that its time to take off the ring.

3. Ready to date: The moment you feel you're ready to get back out there and start dating, is the moment you should take off your ring. Keeping it on will only be a turn off to other men, and will appear as if you are still holding on to your past.

Surrounding a split from your partner, it’s a tough time. You need your family and friends around to lift your spirits and help you through this stressful situation. When people close to you aren’t being supportive, that makes things extra hard. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to deal with criticism during your split:

1. Voice your feelings: The most important thing to do in any situation is voice your feelings. You have to be honest with your emotions, and you need to let your friends and family know how you’re truly feeling. If they aren’t being supportive and are criticizing you during a split, explain to them what you feel. Maybe they are being critical because they don’t know where you are coming from. Let them into your heart and mind. I’m sure they will be supportive once they understand your feelings!

2. State what you need: Sometimes those we are close to don’t know what we need. People aren’t mind readers, even those who know us best. State what you need to your family and friends. They won’t know if you don’t ask. Maybe you need to talk, maybe you need a hug, or maybe you need help get your things from your ex-partner’s place. Whatever it is, they will be there if they know.

3. Let them go: At the end of the day, if your friends aren't being supportive of you during a tough time, they are not your real friends. to your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Your kids should be number one and if your partner isn't holding up his or her end of the deal, it's time to re-evaluate. Cupid has some love advice:

1. Talk to your kids: If your kids are old enough, they will notice that their father/mother isn't around and may even start asking questions. So, talking to your kids can help them get through this difficult time and clear up any confusion.

2. Do your best to play both roles: If your ex checks out, your job as a parent becomes a little harder. You have to make sure the kids aren't affected. Although as a mom you can never be a dad and as a dad you can never be a mom, you do have to step your game up to make sure your kids don't feel like they're missing out on anything.

1. Ignore them: Sometimes the best response is nothing at all. Let your ex make a fool out of him or herself, while you sit back and enjoy the act! No one wants to be with someone who starts drama anyway.

Cupid's Advice:

Nick Jonas isn't ready to move on yet, as his break-up with celebrity ex Olivia Culpo is too fresh. It can be tough to know when you're ready to enter the dating scene again. Cupid has some tips:

1. Time has passed: Obviously time passing is important, because you need to grieve about your lost relationship and love life before you can move on the next. There's no specific time that applies to every person, so you'll simply have to go with how you feel. When you aren't upset and pining for your ex, it's safe to consider dating someone else. This could mean 2 weeks, 2 months, or 2 years.

They part with nothing but respect and admiration for one another and will continue to be supportive friends."

They wish to thank everyone who has supported them through this journey.”

Another Bachelor couple bites the dust! How do you know if your relationship can stand the test of time?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all relationships and love last forever. How do you know yours is headed in a long-term direction? Cupid has some tips:

1. Mutual interests: It may seem obvious, but it's important that you share interests and hobbies. If you have nothing in common outside of work, then how will you spend quality time together?

Kenya Moore's Celebrity Ex from 'Millionaire Matchmaker' Is Married

By Katie Gray

Bravo star Kenya Moore is an alum of Patti Stanger's show Millionaire Matchmaker. She found a match, but along the way, he married someone else. Clearly, that now makes him her celebrity ex. According to UsMagazine.com, "Kenya Moore just revealed that her boyfriend, James Freeman, whom she met on the Bravo show Millionaire Matchmaker wasn't as unattached as he seemed. The Real Housewives of Atlanta star just revealed she found out he married someone else behind her back while they were dating.” That being said, she has an optimistic attitude and took to Instagram to say, “Unfortunately, I just learned today that the man I met and fell in love with from Millionaire Matchmaker was married a week after the show aired. I am astounded and devastated to have learned this news VIA social media as opposed to from him directly. However, I still believe in love and my heart remains open to the man God has for me. I wish him well.”

These celebrity exes probably won't be reconciling anytime soon. How do you know if you are dating someone who is monogamous?

Cupid's Advice:

Above all else, you need to be on the same page when it comes to exclusivity in a relationship and love. If you want to be monogamous, but your partner still wants to date around, that's an issue. Cupid has some tips:

1. Ask: The best way to know if you are dating someone who is monogamous or not is by flat out asking. It's efficient and straight to the point. If you are dating this person, it's not prying to ask about it because you are involved, and you have the right to know.

Related Link: 'Millionaire Matchmaker' Success! Famous Couple Kenya Moore and Boyfriend James Still Dating

2. Read their personality: You can tell a lot about a person by reading their actions and behaviors. Feel out what kind of personality they have. If they are honest and trustworthy, then you can believe them when they say they aren't seeing other people in addition to you. Sometimes it is obvious if a guy is very flirty and seeing multiple people, but other times it can be discreet. Figure out the type of person he is and go from there.

3. Learn their goals: If the person you are seeing has goals of marriage and starting a family, it's obvious he is probably on the path to settling down. If someone is just having fun and doesn't want to be serious with anyone, that will also be evident. Discuss what outcomes you both want from the relationship and love life and go from there in determining if you want to continue seeing one another!

Now, the celebrity exes are on the hunt for a new love and are showing it on social media. "I never say never," she shared, "I've learned that for a really long time, to never say never, but I think I'm really happy with the life I'm living right now and all I can say is I hope for happiness with him too."

Celebrity exes Andi Dorfman and Josh Murray aren't shy about publicly displaying their search for love. What are three reasons exes should not openly flaunt their dating life in front of one another?

Cupid's Advice:

There's always the question of how long you should wait from the break-up to going back out and looking for love. Once you do start a new romantic relationship, are you suppose to let your ex know? Here are three reasons why it's better to keep your dating life away from a past lover:

1. It could look like competition: If it seems like you're purposely bragging about your new love life just to make your ex jealous, it may be difficult to start a real and true new relationship. Both your new guy and your ex will think the relationship is only for attention.

Related Link: Celebrity Break-Up: Did Josh Murray Split with Former 'Bachelorette' Andi Dorfman for More Reality TV Fame?

2. Maintaining a friendship: Although some break-ups make it impossible for any form of friendship to last, that's not always the case. If you still want to have your ex in your life, it's better not to bring up the subject of dating and new mates. It's uncomfortable and can put a strain on the new friendship.

Related Link: 'The Bachelor' Host Chris Harrison Says He "Had No Clue" Andi Dorfman & Josh Murray Would Break-Up

3. Picking a side: If you two have dated for a long it is likely that you have mutual friends. If you're flaunting all over Facebook or Twitter about your new partner, your ex may get curious and try to get the details from one of those mutual friends, placing them in an awkward situation. Rather than making your friends feel like they have to chose a side in the break-up or play the messenger between the two, it's better to just keep that part of your life private.

This piece of celebrity news makes us jealous! How can you prepare for a big break-up if you've never been dumped before?

Cupid's Advice:

Although the latest celebrity news shows that some people don't experience being dumped, that's normally not the case. Break-ups hurt and if you're not prepared for them, they can catch you off guard. Here are some relationship tips to prepare yourself for a split:

1. Remember your hobbies: If your life has become centered around your beau, it may be time to pick up some of your old hobbies that you left in your past. Join a book club, start hiking again, or volunteer. It's important to make sure you still have a life if one day your relationship ends.

Let's hear it, Sofia! According to UsMagazine.com, Sofia Vergara finally came forward about her frozen embryo drama with celebrity ex Nick Loeb. Vergara and Loeb broke off their celebrity engagement a year ago, and with that came a contractual agreement on what to do with the frozen embryos the celebrity exes produced. The founder of Crunchy Condiment

Company wrote an Op-Ed in the New York Times about his strong feelings that these embryos should be thawed. The Modern Family star, who is happily engaged to Joe Manganiello, spoke on the matter with Howard Stern on his radio show. Vergara stated, "Joe and I try not to even talk about it," she said. "We have lawyers. We're having so much fun right now. We just moved into a new house. We're planning a wedding. We try not to think about this, we can't do anything. It's signed, it's done, and that's it."

These celebrity exes are still fighting! What are some ways to keep the drama at a minimum post break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all break-ups end amicably. Dealing with the backlash can be a little stressful, but Cupid has some tips on how to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Avoid commentary: Don't go sharing every thought and feeling about your ex with the world, especially if the wounds are still fresh. Sofia waited it out and commented when it was appropriate, so you can exude patience, too.

2. Don't mix new with old: Have you moved on to a fetching new love (here's hoping you're having as good of luck as Joe and Sofia)? Try to keep the paths from crossing, as the last thing you want is to bring in drama to your new relationship or pile more on to your old one.

3. Handle with care: Be very aware of your ex's feelings, especially if you did the dumping. Be kind and think of their feelings before speaking publicly about your relationship and love life.

The celebrity exes seem to have had an amicable celebrity break-up, with Vonn saying she will always "admire and respect" Woods and that she will always hold him and his family in her heart.

Famous couple no more! What are some ways to minimize gossip surrounding a break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether it's between a pair of celebrity exes, or you and your ex flame, breaking up can be a tough thing in terms of rumors coming from numerous "sources." But don't worry! Cupid has some tips to reduce or avoid the gossip completely:

1. Don't post things on social media: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and other forms of social media are the last places you want to turn after a break-up, because you never know who's lurking on your pages. Instead of writing long, sappy posts about how you miss your ex or re-Tweeting break-up Tweets, refrain from posting your relationship details on social media completely. Posting things on social media will only add fuel to the gossip fire.

2. Delete toxic people: Despite your best efforts, word may still get out about your break-up. Then the next thing you know, your frenemy from college is posting subliminal Tweets about how your ex “can do better.” If toxic people are posting things they have no knowledge about, delete them from your social media outlets to keep gossip and drama to a minimum.

3. Talk to family and close friends: To make sure that people know your side of the break-up story, talk to your family and close friends about it. If you and your ex have been in a longterm relationship, the people close to you might be inclined to talk about the cause of the break-up. Setting the record straight for them, or even letting them know to respect your break-up by not talking about it will help stave off any rumors.

'The Bachelor' Winner Courtney Robertson Says Her 'Reality TV Days Are Over'

By Jessica

DeRubbo

Former The Bachelor winner Courtney Robertson is single and ready to mingle! The contestant we used to love to hate has moved on since her celebrity break-up with Ben Flajnik on the reality TV show, and just recently got out of another relationship and love that stemmed from Tinder. According to UsMagazine.com, Robertson met a “normal guy,” Adam, on Tinder and they started dating right after they met. Now, though, she says, “I’m single and I’m happy. I have love in my life, and I have great people in my life. And I’m not rushing that part of my life.” She also said, “Ummm, I don’t think I’ll be back on Tinder anytime soon. I'll just put it that way!"

This former Bachelor star found love on Tinder. What are some drawbacks to using Tinder to get dates?

Cupid's Advice:

Tinder and other dating apps are sometimes a good way to meet new people, but other times it's best to explore other avenues. Cupid has some things to be wary of when it comes to Tinder:

1. Unclear expectations: Tinder originally debuted as a hook-up app. It's since evolved into both a hook-up and dating app, but the line is grey and it can be hard to tell whether a person you're going to meet up with is looking for friendship, a date, or intimate relations.

2. Fake profiles: Tinder especially has been known for harboring fake profiles. It's very easy to create one, and a lot of people think it's a funny thing to play with. By using the app, you're opening yourself up to possible deception.

3. Lack of romance: There's no reason to let go of romantic notions and desires, and Tinder can sometimes strip that away. If you are traditional and want to be sought after, this type of app will not facilitate that.
