We shall see!

In this celebrity news, Jelena are dealing with some relationship issues. What are some ways to get through a tough period in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

No relationship is perfect, we must know this. When problems arise, we must face them head on in order to make our relationship work. Cupid has some love advice on how to get past those rough patches:

1. Communicate effectively: You will always get this dandy piece of advice when it comes to relationships! Communicating effectively is essential. It may seem like a no-brainer, but people have different communication styles, and many do not know how to communicate properly. The important thing is to listen intently, process what your partner is saying, consider their stance and feelings, and discuss your side of it as clearly and patiently as possible.

2. Never disrespect: Respect is similar to trust in the fact that once you disrespect someone, it opens up a whole world of problems like when you no longer trust someone. Always be considerate of your partner's point of view and feelings. If you care about someone deeply, why disrespect them. Sometimes this is easier said than done, because things can get heated. The key is to stay as relaxed as humanly possible and try to work things out with your other half.

3. Take space if needed: Jelena has the right idea here. Sometimes a couple just needs space. If this is the case, it is important that you both agree on it before taking this step. Create "guidelines" so that you are both on the same page and know what to expect during this period. Taking time apart can either help or hinder a relationship, so ponder this decision before making it to ensure it is the right one for your relationship.

Who doesn't judge you for past mistakes, but who wants to build a better future together ... Who builds you up and never makes you feel small ... Who supports your dreams and hopes and desires, and also has those of their own. Who doesn't put a price tag on your love ... Who holds your hand when you're scared and doesn't run away ... Who loves you, not in spite of your weirdness, but because of it ... Who makes you a priority in their life, no matter what," she continued. "Who doesn't hold you hostage with their love, but whose side you don't want to leave because you're happier when you're with them ... who makes you get shy when they look at you, because the rest of the world stops. That's the kind of love we all deserve. Anything less isn't worth it." How sweet!

In this celebrity couple news, Jodie Sweetin is moving on from a series of bad relationships. What are some ways to know you're choosing someone who will treat you right?

Cupid's Advice:

There are many things that are signs showing that someone will treat you right. Sweetin was right on the money with all she said on V-Day via Instagram. Here are three signs to be optimistic about:

1. They make you feel both safe and special: Having someone that treats you the way you should be treated is a wonderful thing. Not everyone can provide that for their lover. Being comfortable with your partner and feeling like they wouldn't do anything to hurt you is a comforting feeling. Trust is what leads to these feelings.

2. They respect your differences: This is important! It's great to have things in common, that's one of the many things that build a bond. However, having differences is okay, as long as you both respect each other's dissimilarities. Variation can be good when you both have boundaries and don't judge one another. This also leads to a more open relationship, which is a good thing.

3. They support you any way they can: Your partner should be your cheerleader. We can all use a support system, and having someone that encourages your dreams, aspirations, and decisions is a magnificent thing to have. Don't think that everything needs to be encouraged and supported, that's not the case. We do not want to support negative behavior. We do however need our loved ones to be there for us.

Celebrity Getaway: Scott Disick & Sofia Richie Enjoy PDA on Mexican Vacation

By Jessica Gomez

Kourtney Kardashian's ex Scott Disick and girlfriend Sofia Richie were all lovey dovey during their celebrity vacation in Mexico, according to EOnline.com. The celebrity couple posted photos on Instagram. Both were having fun and a ton of PDA was going on. According to a source, the couple is very happy, always have fun, and were making out and all over one another often during the vacay.

This celebrity getaway is getting steamy. What are some things to consider when it comes to public displays of affection?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA is a controversial topic. Some people are fine with it, and some people are hardcore against it. There are different levels of PDA, from holding hands to make out sessions and butt grabbing – so different levels call for different measures. Cupid has some tips on things you should consider when it comes to public displays of affection:

1. Are there kids around?: This matters depending on the level of PDA of course. Are you just kissing one another innocently or is it to the point of someone telling you to get a room? Children are innocent and you wouldn't want to influence them in a particular way, especially if they aren't your kids.

2. Are you making others uncomfortable?: Generally, we are told to not care about what others think. However, it can be annoying when a group of friends are hanging out, and there's that couple all over each other the whole time. Do as you please, but try to keep in mind whether or not you're overdoing it. Everything in moderation.

3. The place: PDA stands for public displays of attention (as we all know), but certain public places may be more acceptable than others. For example: work, school, a funeral home, children's playgrounds, and hospitals are obvious places where most people would agree couples should stray away from intense PDA. So just keep your eyes open and be aware of your surroundings, and of course pay attention to the level of PDA.

Cupid's Advice:

Most divorces aren't pretty. Although our emotions can be running wild at a time of bitterness, we must try not to become bitter ourselves. Cupid has some tips:

1. Learn from the experience: Learn the lesson. Many times, it's hard to stay rational during a very emotional time, but we must try our very best. There is no point in dwelling on the past because we cannot change it. However, looking back in order to learn and move on is a different story – that you should do! It's easier said than done, but time does heal and you need to give it a little push as well.

It's all about what's best for you. Enrich yourself, grow into an even better person. Strive toward becoming the best version of yourself.

With all of these decisions, have you decided what time of year to celebrate the special occasion? Here's Cupid's relationship advice to help you plan your future wedding:

1. Your favorite season as a couple: Did the two of you meet in the spring and every blooming blossom reminds you of your love for each other? Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Source Says Prince Harry & Meghan Markle Are Engaged & Will Have a Summer Wedding

2. Wedding photographs: Great photographs are all about lighting. When you think about what time of year to plan your wedding, think about how light changes throughout the year. If you're in the north wanting a winter wedding, besides the cold, you should consider that the sun sets very early compared to the rest of the year. Natural lighting is the best kind of lighting for photographs, so if you want the best pictures to remember the day by, take special consideration into when your wedding will be.

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone is different, and they have different things that they are attracted to. While one person may be all about one thing, another could feel the exact opposite. Here are a few ways you can be attracted to someone:

1. Looks: Although some people may deny it, the first thing we notice about someone is the way they look. You can be drawn in immediately by their eyes, hair or even their style. If you are intrigued by someones style, what they wear or the way they carry themselves, it is easy to be attracted to the person as a whole. So, if looks are your thing, then flaunt what you got!

2. Intellect: To many people, looks are not everything. They need to feel intellectually stimulated by someone in order to feel attracted to them. If they aren't drawn in right away by the way you look, dazzle them with your incredible mind. Brains over brawn are very true for them and you should not shy away from showing off your nerdy side.

3. Personality: In the end, personality reigns supreme over all other forms of attraction. Having a good personality, can make anyone's feelings about you turn a full 180 and make them like you even more. On the flip side, if they were at first attracted to your looks or your brain, having a poor personality can make them want nothing to do with you.

This celebrity news is certainly the next step in Kate Hudson's relationship. What are some ways to know you're ready for the next step in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Cupid is here with some top tips on how to know when you and your partner are ready to take the next big step in your relationship:

1. When you both know what you want: Make sure that before you take your relationship public or put any kind of labels on what you're doing, sit down and talk about what you're both ultimately looking for. Are you interested in a long-term commitment? Are you just looking for something casual? Do you want to get married? Will you ever want to? In casual dating these questions aren't really a concern, but when it comes to a relationship getting serious, it's vital to know where your partner stands on where you're going as a couple, so sit down and talk it out before things go any further.

2. When your communication is going great: If you're going to be in a serious relationship, it's time to get real about communication. If you two struggle to hold a serious conversation in which you can actually share your thoughts and emotions with one another, it's time to give some serious thought about whether you're both ready to be in a serious relationship together. Any good couple has great communication or is working hard towards that goal, so if you always know you can go and talk to your partner, that's a good sign that you're in a good place to begin something more serious.

Related Link: Kate Hudson Looks Up to Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell's Relationship

3. When your friends and family love them: Approval from friends and family doesn't have to mean everything, and let's be honest, sometimes people just don't get along no matter how awesome they are when they're separated. However, it's also really amazing when your friends and family can see the great person you're with as... well, great. Especially if you come from a close-knit family or friend group it can be really important for you to feel like your significant other is accepted. And if every single one of the people you love is telling you that your partner doesn't seem right for you, it may be time to think about why they all seem to be saying the same thing. Relationships where it seems to be you and them against the rest of the world never end very well.

Celebrity Couple News: Ariel Winter Reveals She's Living with Boyfriend Levi Meaden

By Noelle Downey

There's big celebrity couple news this week for one well-known star and her boyfriend! According to UsMagazine.com, Ariel Winter officially revealed she and boyfriend Levi Meaden are living together during a recent interview with late-night talk show host, Jimmy Kimmel. The couple first went public with their Hollywood relationship in November of 2016, walking the red-carpet hand in hand a month later. Winter, nineteen-year-old star of Emmy-award winning Modern Family, opened up to Kimmel about how she and twenty-nine-year-old Meaden make their celebrity relationship work when it comes to keeping things up around the house. "He cooks. I can't cook at all," Winter laughed, "He takes care of all that handy stuff. He's great, he does all that." She went on to admit that she was "like the worst wifely person" and that while she does try to contribute by baking pies for her sweetheart every so often, she admitted, "he does everything else. It's great."

This celebrity couple is taking things to the next level! How do you decide whether to live with your partner or not?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to moving in together, knowing when both you and your partner are ready to take the plunge can be tricky! Here are the top three ways to know if you and your significant other are ready to take things to the next level:

1. When it feels like a natural next step: If moving in together seems like the next logical thing to do in the course of a healthy relationship together, then don't doubt yourself! It probably is. For a lot of couples, moving in together just seems to start making sense after awhile, especially if they're anxious to spend time together but often find themselves too busy for regular date nights. Moving in together can be a great way to see each other more and enjoy a life together in every sense of the word.

Related Link: New Celebrity Couple? Ariel Winter Kisses and Holds Hands with Levi Meaden After Friendsgiving

2. When nobody feels pressured: If one or both of you feel pressured into making the move, then step back and consider why you're feeling that way. Remember, just because you don't want to move in with someone right away doesn't mean you don't like them or even love them, it just means that you're not ready for that. That could be true for a host of reasons, and the same thing goes for your partner. If you start to feel like you're being pressured into making a big decision or you worry that your partner may feel that way, sit down and have a talk about your worries and clear the air. Communication is key, and you've both got to know you're on the same page when it comes to a huge change like this.

3. When you're basically already living together: If at this point one of you basically only has "their own place" for extra storage space for their stuff, it may be time to make the jump to officially living together. If you spend all your time together and always gravitate toward one or the other of your apartments, take the leap and move in there together. It will be a relief to have all your stuff consolidated into one space again, and it won't feel like such a chore trudging back to your own apartment after spending a week with your significant other at their place.

Celebrity Couple News: Gigi Hadid's Family Calls Zayn Malik a 'Great Guy' and Says 'She's Happy'

Great celebrity couple news for any Gigi Hadid or Zayn Malik fans out there, the couple is still going strong and it's official, the family approves! According to EOnline.com, Hadid's soon-to-be stepmom and reality TV star Shiva Safai gushed about the celebrity couple in a recent interview, saying, "They have a great relationship." Noting that Malik is "a great guy" and that Hadid is "a very smart girl," Safai spilled that she and the family are totally on board with the Hollywood relationship. "As long as she's happy in a relationship, that's all we want." Safai said sweetly, "So I'm just happy that she's happy."

This celebrity couple is happy as can be! What are some things you can do about an unhappy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When it comes to famous celebrity couples, it's great to see ones like Hadid and Malik who have officially achieved romantic bliss. But sometimes in relationships, things don't go as smoothly. Here are Cupid's top tips for dealing with an unhappy relationship in your own life:

1. Talk it out: First things first, prioritize communicating clearly with your partner. If there's building resentment, frustration or some issue that's become a roadblock to your happiness as a couple, sit them down and hash it out. It may be painful or angering in the moment, but ultimately it will do nothing but benefit your relationship and each other to know where both of you stand and that you're both seeking resolution.

2. See a counselor: While many couples cringe when they think about sharing their problems with a relationship expert and therapist, there are many upsides to bringing an unbiased third party into your discussions. Try to see this not as a sign that your relationship is not going as planned, but that you and your partner are both committed to talking your feelings out in healthy and fair ways. If anything, it's an indicator of how dedicated you both are to preserving your relationship, not the other way around.

Related Link: Celebrity Couple News: Gigi Hadid & Zayn Malik Are Back Together

3. Know when it's time to walk away: As painful as break-ups can be, there is nothing so painful as spending all your time trying to repair something that will simply never be truly fixed. If your partner isn't doing their share to deal with your issues as a couple or if you feel that they've permanently damaged your trust in them, don't be afraid to just say the words out loud; “It’s not working.” It may seem scary and sad in the moment, but ultimately you’ll be happier on your own and eventually with someone else than you would be staying in a relationship that isn’t meant for you.

This celebrity couple is on cloud nine when it comes to their whirlwind romance. What are your ways of knowing when a relationship is solid or when it’s starting to rip at the seams? Let us know in the comments!
