In celebrity couple news, Joe Alwyn explains that he never got advice on how to date in the public eye. What are some things to keep in mind about privacy in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

In any relationship, you and your partner should always discuss what things you both feel are private in your relationship. Cupid has some things to keep in mind about privacy in your relationship:

1. Social media: If you open up on social media about your current relationship, exes that you’re still friends with may see what you’re doing and may try causing drama in your life. Revealing too much about your relationship can leave you open and exposed to the antics of a rejected ex.

2. Everyone won’t be happy for you: Your relationship may bring you haters. Not everyone will rejoice in the sight of your union, which will leave you and your partner open to critics. The fewer people who know about your private life, the less feedback you'll have to deal with.

Related Link: Celebrity Exes Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie Reach Child Custody Agreement

3. Added pressure on your relationship: By putting your relationship out in the open, you give people permission to idolize your relationship. Sharing your every move in your private life can put your relationship in a position to be the prototype of what real love is. This can convince people that they want what you have solely based on what they have seen. This can put a lot of pressure on you and your relationship. You may want to go above and beyond the expectations for your followers, which makes it easy to lose sight of what's really important, building an unbreakable bond with your significant other.

Cupid’s Advice:

In a lot of ways deciding to have another child can be even harder than deciding on having the first one. It's a bit more complicated now, but Cupid has some ways to decide how many children to have:

1. Think about timing: Ask yourself is it the right time to start trying again. Is mom ready? Because pregnancy and childbirth are stressful for a mother, even if everything goes right. Are you financially stable to provide for another child? How many children do you already have? Because one baby is expensive but a second is equally expensive.

2. Consider your family at this moment: Think about everything you've been through with the first child. Another child changes your family dynamic, it also challenges your relationship and routine you've already established. You have to question yourself and ask yourself what are you ready for and what is your family ready for?

3. Financial stability: As a parent, you already know how expensive having a child is. However, some expenses are lessened because you already have things from the last child. There's also the long-term things like daycare and schooling added on to your daily expenses. According to USDA estimates, two-parent households spend's 27% of their income on one child, as the children multiply: two children 41% and three 47%. It's a lot to consider. There are a lot of doubts and what ifs, but let your decision come from your heart.

Celebrity Wedding: Quentin Tarantino Marries Daniella Pick in Intimate Ceremony

y Ivana Jarmon

Quentin Tarantino is off the market! In celebrity news, Tarantino married his fiancée Danielle Pick in an intimate ceremony in L.A., according to People.com. The couple posed in front of a dramatic wall of white flowers, and Tarantino wore a black suit while Pick wore a white dress and veil with a sweetheart neckline and tiara. The celebrity couple got engaged in June 2017 after dating for a year.

This celebrity wedding was small and intimate. What are some benefits to keeping your wedding small?

Cupid's Advice:

Wedding days are indeed a big day in your life, but does it need to actually be a big affair. Cupid has some reasons why keeping your wedding small is beneficial:

1. Less stress: The benefit of having a small wedding is a reduction of stress you are likely to experience. Not only will the planning process go smoothly but so should the big day. There are fewer people to cater to. This provides you with an enjoyable planning process instead of rushing around at the last minute.

In celebrity news, Dakota Johnson took the next step in her relationship with Chris Martin by spending the holiday with his ex-wife and kids. What are some ways to know whether you're ready to spend the holidays together?

Cupid's Advice:

How do you know if you and your partner are ready to spend the holidays together? Cupid has some ideas:

1. You want to spend time with your partner and their family: If you have already met your partner's family, the holidays are a perfect time to learn more family traditions and get acclimated to the people who raised your partner.

In celebrity baby news, Levi Johnston is expecting a fourth child. What are some ways to introduce a new child to your household?

Cupid's Advice:

How can you introduce a new child to your household? Cupid has some thoughts:

1. Include your children in the preparation for the new baby: Let your current child or children see the ultrasounds or touch the baby bump. It will feel more real if they are going through the process with you, rather than just talking about a new sibling.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth have had their highs and lows. What are some ways to make a relationship work through thick and thin??

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone loves a good fairy tale, but for many couples that simply doesn't happen. Most people don't know how to create and maintain healthy relationships and marriages. Cupid has some ways to make a relationship work through thick and thin:

1. Empathize with each other: One of the biggest problems in relationships is that people only see their own point of views. In order to really connect, you have to listen to one another and accept each other's point of view.

In celebrity baby news, Carrie Underwood is being candid about her struggle to have another child and how they’re preparing now that they’re expecting. What are some ways to cope with a miscarriage??

Cupid’s Advice:

Experiencing a miscarriage means that you are probably feeling more sadness than you ever thought possible. Cupid has some ways to cope with a miscarriage:

1. Support group: Fifteen to twenty percent of pregnancies end in miscarriage, so the first thing you should know is that you are not alone. Search around for a group or forums that seems to have like-minded moms and dads to help support you no matter the time or day. You can also call your doctor office or local hospital to see if they have any support groups. You may also want to try individual therapy to get through some tough times.

Cupid's Advice:

Fighting with a partner, friend or family member is never pretty. It can be hard to recover from a bad fight in a relationship. Cupid has some ways to make it right with your partner after a fight:

1. Don't be petty: After a fight, your emotion might still be running high, so let the dust settle after a fight. You may feel like throwing in some last-minute shade, passive-aggressive jabs or get back at them. But all that does is prolong the nastiness of your fight. The best thing is to let it go and work out your problems.

In celebrity news, Cardi B relies on her significant other to help her de-stress. What are some ways you can help your partner relax and unwind??

Cupid's Advice:

Inevitably, life gets stressful. It's easy to go off on your own to get some alone time. But, when you're part of a pair, it's important to find ways to be together and relax at the same time. Cupid has some ways you can help your partner relax and unwind:

1. Phone-free vacation: Whether it's at home or somewhere tropical, a vacation without cell phones can work wonders for you and your partners' attitudes. It may sound simple, but you can't imagine how many people allow their phones to distract them on a daily basis. This is the time to reconnect during a peaceful vacation. There are vacation spots around the world that don't allow any cell phone or Wi-Fi use.

This celebrity couple is clearly very close and celebrates their wins together. What are some ways to support your partner's career wins??

Cupid's Advice:

Even the most successful partner needs and wants to be built up. Whether your partner is winning at life every week or struggling, they need you to be their greatest fan. Cupid has some way to support your partner's career wins:

1. Build up your partner: The best gift you can give your partner is your own belief and confidence in them. Let them see how amazing they are in your eyes. You do that by giving them positive feedback when they succeed and/or struggle. Your belief in them will motivate them to keep going this in return will have the same effect when it comes to you when you need it.

Cupid's Advice:

Life has a way at chipping away at a relationship. Cupid has some ways to keep the romance alive in your marriage.

1. Make date night a priority: Dating is what made you fall in love in the first place. So, it would make sense to keep at it to stay in love. But as we know life gets in the way. So, remember date night does have to elaborate or over the top, it could be something simple as a picnic. Just set aside time for each other each week for just the two of you to reconnect.

3. Never lose the PDA: At the beginning of a relationship, you probably couldn't keep your hands off each other. Constantly holding hands, sneaking in an extra kiss or two, cuddling. Ask yourself how affectionate are you now? After a long period of time and kids' things can get a little trickery when it comes to the PDA. It's important to maintain that closeness that PDA provides. Physical touch should happen on a daily whether it's a peck on the cheek, holding hands or a slight pat on the butt. By maintaining the PDA you will be able to keep the romance alive.
