Moving on from a past relationship can be hard. However, when it's done, it's done, and you have to move on. Cupid has some ideas on how to know when it's time to not look back and carry on from a former relationship:

1. There is no future with the relationship: If you no longer see a future with an ex flame, it's time to ditch them and move on. If you know this valuable piece of information, then you're just waiting for the inevitable at this point. Why waste more time on the relationship when you can spend that time moving on and actually doing things that will benefit the future you have without that person?

2. The other person has moved on: If your ex has moved on, then it is probably safe to say that you should too. It may hurt to see them with someone else, but things happen for a reason. Don't let seeing them with someone else throw you into a jealous fit. Instead, take it with a grain of salt, and move on.

3. You're worn out: Relationships can be tiresome. However, if you feel absolutely drained, this could be a sign that it's time to move on. You can only try so hard and oh so much. If you gave it your best shot, that's what matters. If your relationship still doesn't work after all your efforts, you may be seeing a dead end, and so it is time to carry on without your ex.

1. Delegate: You’re the leader, and your bridesmaids are basically your minions on your big day (no offense). Learn to let go a bit, and give people tasks so that your wedding is executed properly. You should be able to trust friends that you’ve planned the wedding with because they know and understand your vision. Don’t be a control freak. What are some ways to know your relationship doesn't have longevity early on?

Cupid's Advice:

For the most part, we want the relationships we enter to last. Sometimes there are signs to look out for to tell if the relationship is most likely going to hit a dead end down the line. Cupid has a few red flags to share, get ready for some relationship advice:

1. Lack of trust: Trust is built overtime, but if there is no amount of trust, then the relationship will likely end soon. Trust is essential and can make or break a relationship. Consider the following: do you not trust them because of your own issues or actually because of them? Sometimes we have trouble trusting people, not because of what they do or the way they are, but because of what we've been through before them. This is something to consider before you go crazy over not trusting them, and thinking your relationship won't last. However, at the end, you need to learn to trust those who have earned it.

2. You can't agree on anything: There are certain things you should be agreeing on. It's okay to have differences in opinion, but if you can't agree on things like goals and the future, then this is a red flag. There should be some similarities when it comes to the important stuff. To add on, when disagreeing on things, the situation shouldn't get out of hand. You should be able to approach and get through the conversation calmly, not always ending in a fight— so this is something else to also look out for.

3. Commitment issues: The inability to fully commit to you and the relationship is an obvious red flag. But that is not the only thing we mean when we say commitment issues. There are other things to look out for. If you notice that your partner in general has an inability to commit to things, then that's a possible red flag that you guys won't work out. In a successful relationship, we need consistency and devotion. If your partner isn't dedicated, responsible, or is unable to pull through with their obligations, then it's a definite bad sign. We need someone we can count on at the end of the day.

choice in a partner?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're serious about your partner, you definitely want your fam's approval. Cupid has a few ways on how to go about that:

1. Discuss your relationship with them: Communication is always essential in any situation. And it goes both ways. Not only should you speak to your family about your partner, your relationship, and the future, but you should also listen to what they have to say in response. If you want them to consider what you're saying, then you should do the same. And remember, express yourself as clearly as possible.

2. Avoid being defensive: This isn't always easy, but not being defensive can help avoid a fight. Remain calm and grounded, even if they are being unreasonable. Why? Because you shouldn't stoop down to that level – it won't lead anywhere good. Take deep breaths if necessary. Your family should not be putting you down, and you shouldn't be putting them down either. Respond to their concerns, and don't make them feel like their opinions aren't valid.

Celebrity Divorce: Vanessa Trump Files for Divorce from Donald Trump Jr.

By Jessica DeRubbo

It looks like Vanessa and Donald Trump Jr. are calling it quits on their marriage. According to EOnline.com, Vanessa filed for a celebrity divorce on Thursday in Manhattan Supreme Court. The celebrity couple have been married for 12 years and share five children. Since she filed for an uncontested proceeding, it looks like there more than likely won't be a custody battle. Donald Trump Jr. married Vanessa in 2005 at President Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate in Palm Beach, FL. The President reportedly played matchmaker for the duo, as he introduced his eldest son to the model at a fashion show in 2003.

This celebrity divorce is very unfortunate for the pair's five children. What are some important factors to consider regarding your children during a split or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces and/or splits are never fun for anyone involved, but sometimes it has the most lasting effects on kids. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Always be open and honest with your kids: There's nothing worse than lying to your children, even if they're little white lies, because eventually the truth will come out. Sure, you don't necessarily want to air your dirty laundry about issues you have with your significant other with your kids, but try to be as straightforward as possible when letting them know about your split and the ramifications of it. They'll appreciate it in the end.

going to have on them in all respects. Instead of thinking about what is best for you, keep your kids at the forefront of your decisions.

Cera keeps his personal life private, so of course his rep had no comment on the marriage speculations.

We're not sure if a celebrity wedding has happened or not in this case. What are some reasons to keep your wedding under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

Some people are more private than others, and it may not make sense to open up your marriage to public scrutiny. Cupid has some reasons to keep it quiet:

1. You just don't want people in your biz: Some people are really private about their lives and want precious moments like these to be kept within closed doors at first, whether they're famous or not. So if you're on the end of not receiving wedding news, don't take offense. Some people are just real private about their business! And if you're the type of person that wants to keep things on the down-low, have no shame, it's your big day.

2. You're shy or an introvert: Shy and introverted people sometimes cannot handle being in a room full of people being the center of attention – it's too much for them. Celebrity News: Find Out Why Amy Schumer Is Not Changing Her Last Name Post-Marriage

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Amy Schumer is not taking her hubby's last name. According to UsMagazine.com, the comedian decided to not take Chris Fischer's last name sometime after their celebrity wedding last month. "I'm not Amy Fischer! Do you remember who Amy Fisher is? The Long Island Lolita. No, I'm keeping my last name. I'm keeping your last name," Schumer said after her new husband asked her if she was changing her last name. The conversation was posted on her Instagram story, which involved her father – seems Schumer keeps a joking mind for everything, even when it comes to the newlywed celebrity couple. According to UsMagazine.com, she was referring to Amy Fisher, a then-17-year-old who shot her lover Joey Buttafuoco's wife, Mary Jo Buttafuoco, in the face in Long Island in May 1992. Mary Jo survived and Amy Fisher was sentenced to five to 15 years in prison. After six years in prison, she was granted parole.

In celebrity news, Amy Schumer has decided against changing her last name to match her husband's. What are some things to consider before you change your name?

It just happens that way. Some people want to be traditional and take their spouses last name, others don't, while others are on the fence. For those of you who are undecided or are up to be swayed, here are options to consider before changing your last name to your spouse's in order to keep your identity and have your family name live on:

1. Consider all the paperwork: The paperwork process can possibly make you want to pull your hair out. It is extremely tedious. The process involves going to the Social Security Office and the DMV. You would also have to make lots of phone calls, and no, not to your friends and fam. You would have to call your credit card's companies and any other accounts you have open with your current name. This is not to scare you, just keep this in mind.

Related Link: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

2. Consider adding their last name instead of just changing yours: Many people opt out for this option. Instead of completely changing their last name, they just meet somewhere in the middle and add their spouse's last name to theirs with a hyphen, or use their last name as a middle name and their partner's last name as that. This is a good option for people who are on the fence. Paperwork still has to be done of course, but if you don't care about it, then this may be for you.

Related Link: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

3. Consider creating a new last name for the both of you: This could be a good option for couples who want to either be super fair or just hate both of their last names. This is something that can be made legal. Either both come up with a last name together or mix both of yours together somehow. And again, paperwork needs to get done for this and any type of changes in name.

Which option would you consider the most? Comment below!

Celebrity Baby News: Khloe Kardashian Celebrates Tristan Thompson's Birthday After Lavish Baby Shower

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Khloe Kardashian and Tristan Thompson had a fun, busy Saturday. The baby shower took place at the Bel Air Hotel's Garden Ballroom, joined by friends and family. A source confirmed that the parents-to-be of a new celebrity baby girl were joined by Kendall and Kylie Jenner, Kylie's best friend Jordyn Woods, Kourtney Kardashian and her boyfriend Younes Bendjima, mom Kris Jenner and her boyfriend Corey Gamble, Tristan's teammates LeBron James (who showed up with his wife Savannah) and Kevin Love and Jordan Clarkson, singer Justine Skye, family friends Kyle Richards and husband Mauricio Umansky, and Thompson's mom Andrea Thompson. What a celebration!

In celebrity baby news, Khloe enjoyed a baby shower while also celebrating her partner's birthday. What are some ways to balance celebrations in your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrating two events in a day can create some very busy energy, but that doesn't make it any less fun! Cupid has some ideas on ways to maintain the balance between both family celebrations:

1. Plan ahead and thoroughly: One event takes time to plan, so imagine two. You don't want to stress yourself out. Ask for help planning if needed. There are many things to consider when planning, so make an agenda and get started when possible. When planning both events side by side, you are more likely to keep them balanced as well.

Related Link: Rachel McAdams Is Pregnant With Her First Child

2. Make the events equal in size: Of course this depends on what type of events you are coordinating, but if you want to create two balanced ones on the same day, without one event outshining the other, it could be a good idea to make them the same size. When thinking of size, you should consider guest lists, themes, decorations, amount of food, etc. Again, this depends on the type of events.

Related Link: Meghan Markle Gets Baptized at Chapel Royal at St. James Place Prior to Celebrity Wedding

3. Schedule properly: Time management is important. One event should be during the day and the other in the evening, ideally. Plan accordingly by scheduling the events at specific times for specific time periods, with enough room to change clothes if necessary and traveling. There should be a reasonable gap in between, so in order to consider this properly, the events should be on a somewhat tight schedule for the best, stress free results.

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, celebrity couple Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez put their relationship on hold due to her family's disapproval of Bieber, according to UsMagazine.com. "Selena and Justin decided to take a break mainly because of Selena's mom and her disapproval of Justin," a source said. "Justin's family loves Selena, but Selena's family has put her in a very conflicting spot because they still don't trust Justin. Selena has tried to convince her family that Justin has changed ... but her family just isn't budging right now." Because Gomez's relationship with Mommy Dearest was affected after she got back with Bieber, there is tons of pressure and negativity in the air. "It's been hard for her because she is super close with her mom. Her mom was her rock when she was having her health complications," the source added. "Justin and Selena decided to take a break to give her family some more time to heal and take in the idea of her and Justin being a couple again." As if that's not enough, Bieber "doesn't care about anyone but himself," another source said. "The second she saw it, she walked away, especially now with her health. She knows she doesn't need him." Let's see what happens in this messy situation.

This celebrity break-up is said to be sparked by Selena's mom. What are some ways to deal with a parent who doesn't like your significant other?

Cupid's Advice:

Being with and loving someone who your fam does not approve of can be stressful and just plain hard. Cupid has some love

advice on things to consider and how to deal with a parent not liking your partner:

1. Consider if your partner is worth the fight: This may sound harsh, but if you're close to your family, you have to evaluate this. Is this person for right now or are you guys both thinking long-term? You have to assess the seriousness of your relationship before you go jumping through hoops for a person that may not be there in the not-so-distant future.

2. Communicate with your family and partner: If you're serious about your partner, then you have to talk with both parties about the situation. First talk to your fam. Express to them your feelings about the person and relationship, and don't forget to include how the disapproval is affecting you. Do the same with your partner –discuss your feelings about them and your family, along with the way their disapproval of them is affecting you and your relationship. Sometimes it will take more than communicating, but communicating constantly is important.

3. Take some time apart if needed: This may not work for everyone, but it may work for Selena Gomez and Justin Bieber, we'll see. Taking a break isn't ideal for every relationship, so you must know if it is something that is convenient and can help yours. Taking time apart may show your family that you really care about their opinions and it can even show them how you are affected by not being with your partner. This should not be taken as a sign of submission, but as a way to cope in the meantime.

1. Communicate effectively: You will always get this dandy piece of advice when it comes to relationships! Communicating effectively is essential. 2. Never disrespect: Respect is similar to trust in the fact that once you disrespect someone, it opens up a whole world of problems like when you no longer trust someone. Always be considerate of your partner's point of view and feelings. If you care about someone deeply, why disrespect them. Sometimes this is easier said than done, because things can get heated. The key is to stay as relaxed as humanly possible and try to work things out with your other half.

3. Take space if needed: Jelena has the right idea here. Sometimes a couple just needs space. If this is the case, it is important that you both agree on it before taking this step. Create “guidelines” so that you are both on the same page and know what to expect during this period. Taking time apart can either help or hinder a relationship, so ponder this decision before making it to ensure it is the right one for your relationship.

Royal Celebrity Wedding: Meghan Markle & Prince Harry to Face Danger on Their Wedding Day

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, royal celebrity couple Meghan Markle and Prince Harry face a potential danger: being a target. According to EOnline.com, former Head of Royal Protection and Chief Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police Service Dai Davies said: “History has a habit of repeating itself. In the last thousand years, there hasn’t been a King or Queen that someone hasn’t tried to murder.” In addition, it cost $33 million to protect Prince William and Kate Middleton at their celebrity wedding in 2011 – one of the most pricey security operations. Undercover police, investigations to avoid terrorist attacks, snipers, and an extensive search for explosives hiding in any place you can think of were all part of that price. Harry and Meghan’s protection plan for their big day could possibly cost more than William and Kate’s – yikes! What makes them a bigger target is Harry’s active military status in Afghanistan, plus the hate letter containing anthrax (an infectious disease caused by the bacteria Bacillus anthracis) aimed at Meghan. As we can see, the royal fam needs all that protection. We wish this beautiful couple the best of luck!

Royals have a dangerous element to their celebrity weddings. What are some ways to keep drama from infecting your wedding day?

Cupid’s Advice:

We all want our wedding day to be perfect, or at least close enough to it. We plan ahead to try to create this perfect day, but there’s more to it. Cupid has some ideas on how to keep your wedding day as stress and drama free as possible.

1. Stay organized and delegate when needed: If you plan ahead, like most of us do for our wedding day, then you’re off to a good start. But maintaining everything organized is the tough part if things don't go accordingly. And let's face it, many times things don't go according to plan. And don't be a total control freak either. It is your wedding day, but you need to learn to pass down tasks when necessary. Communicate properly and trust in your close friends and fam to help you get the wedding you deserve.

2. Adjust your guest list and seating arrangements properly:

This may not be the case for everyone, but sometimes we need to take more consideration in who will be on the guest list and who will be seated with who for more than just the typical reasons. Do certain people not get along or have drama with one another? Then make sure they are seated far away from each other! And take any other actions necessary to keep drama from going down on your big day.

3. Meditate: On your wedding day, you should meditate. It's an exciting day, but also stressful because you obviously want it to be magical. Try meditating one to three times that day to keep you calm and grounded. We know you don't have tons of time, so five to 10 minutes each time should do the trick. It's worth it!

Cherish the moments that you did get to share together and be thankful for that wonderful time. Here are some common reasons that a pair may separate after being together for a long time:

1. Not enough in common: It takes time, and living together, to really realize how well you and your partner fit together. Sometimes it even takes raising a child together to actually find out that your relationship isn't the best suited. At first, you may have just been so in love that you did not realize the gaps in your relationship.
