Cupid's Advice:

Having children is a beautiful miracle. However, preparing for the first child may be a little different than preparing for your second. Cupid is here to help you get ready for child number two:

1. Prepare the older sibling: Now that you're extending your family even more, you need to think about your first child. Since they are becoming a big brother or sister, it will be exciting, but there may be a little jealousy. Just make sure that you pay attention to your first child, even though having a newborn is a lot of work. Neither of your children should feel neglected.

2. Hand-me-downs: The good thing about having gone through pregnancy and birth already is that you still have all your old equipment. First of all, you still have your maternity clothes, so you don't need to go shopping again. But there's also the benefit of having a crib, baby clothes that your first child grew out of, a stroller, etc. You get to save some cash when having a second child, which will be important in the long run.

3. Less parenting books, and more hands-on experience: When preparing for your first child, you spent most of your time reading pregnancy, birth and parenting books to ensure your child was healthy. However, now that you already have your first child, you've experienced what it's like to be hands on with your child. You know how to hold your baby, how to put them to sleep, and how to feed them. Hopefully, this will make you a little more at ease when you're expecting your second child.

This celebrity news has us wondering about Melania’s celebrity relationship with Donald Trump. What are some warning signs that your partner may not respect you?

Cupid’s Advice:

Sometimes you may not realize that you are having issues with your partner. Respect is important when it comes to being with someone. You must respect the person you’re with. How can you tell? Cupid is here to help:

1. They put your ideas down: Listening is a big part of making a relationship work. If your partner doesn’t listen to what you have to say and won’t take your ideas or advice over their own, that may be a red flag. Make sure your partner knows how to listen to you.

2. “Pet” names: Nicknames can be cute, such as “honey” or “sweetheart.” However, there’s a line between cute and rude. Never let your partner call you a nickname that puts you down. You are not a title or an object to own.

3. Their needs come first: It’s only right to treat yourself every now and then, but it’s not okay to constantly put yourself before others, especially your partner. You and your partner are supposed to compromise. If your significant other can't do that, then you may need to reconsider your relationship.

Celebrity Couple Ben Higgins & Lauren Bushnell Celebrate Bachelor and Bachelorette Parties Together

By Kayla

Garritano

From The Bachelor to the bachelor party! Celebrity couple Ben Higgins and Lauren Bushnell celebrated their upcoming marriage with bachelor and bachelorette parties this long weekend. According to UsMagazine.com, the Bachelor alumnae threw a joint party with all of their friends in Las Vegas! A picture shows them poolside with all of their friends on Thursday, October 6, just hanging out and celebrating before the big day.

This celebrity couple did not want to celebrate separately! What are some ways to bring all your friends together before the big day?

Cupid's Advice:

You don't need to have a traditional "all girls" bachelorette party or an "all guys" bachelor party. Sometimes, the best way to celebrate your last days of not being married is to celebrate together. Here are some ways to conjoin your celebration:

1. Wedding party field day: Have your wedding party get to know each other a little better by battling it out. Team Bride vs. Team Groom. This will let your party bond over fun activities all while having some friendly competition. Plus, it's kind of fun seeing your future spouse duel against you.

2. Vacation: Instead of a "party," why not take a trip somewhere together? It's just like a party, except you get to take a couple extra days off and relax for a little bit more. You still get to drink (responsibly, of course), and you get to enjoy each others' company, while celebrating the same thing.

3. Separate rehearsal dinner: You definitely need a rehearsal dinner the night before the wedding. The one with your parents and other family members, as well as the wedding party. But what about a dinner for just your friends? Get together with them all and enjoy a dinner. Make some last-minute wedding plans, and organize the aisle situation; who's walking with who? Just take it easy with your friends before the official events begin.

According to UsMagazine.com, these co-stars met while filming the Entourage movie and continued their romance off-screen. "They were better off as friends," a source close to the pair said. "They tried to make it more and it just didn't work."

This celebrity break-up proves that sometimes two people are better off as friends. How do you know if you're better as friends or more than friends?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you may not know when the person you're dating is a friend or more than a friend. Your feelings may seem a little confused. Cupid is here to help:

1. Do you see a romantic future?: Close your eyes and look at yourself 20 years from now. Do you see the person you're dating? If so, do you see them holding your hand and cuddling? Or do you see them just hanging out with you and a bunch of friends? Think about that, because if you don't see yourself romantically involved for the long-run, then is it worth pursuing?

2. Sparks fly: When you kiss your partner, how does it feel? Does the touch of their hand give you butterflies and make you feel all nervous? If the answer is yes, then that's a good sign you can be more than friends. Sparks indicate that there's some romance in the air.

Celebrity Divorce: Brad Pitt & Angelina Jolie's Lawyers Are Trying to Hash Out Custody Agreement

By Kayla

Garritano

It's slow progress. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie's lawyers are currently trying to hash out a custody agreement of their six children in their celebrity divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says Pitt is waiting to file a divorce response until the agreement is in place. "Brad has a month to respond to the initial filing, so there is no rush," another source includes. "The fact that things have quieted down so much is a good indicator that discussions are moving forward and are productive. The main issue is custody."

Celebrity divorce is not an easy or pleasant task. What are some ways to make negotiations during a divorce easier?

Cupid's Advice:

No one likes the process of a divorce, as it takes a lot out of you. Cupid is here to help you try and make the process a little easier:

1. Talk it out before the lawyers: Lawyers are very helpful when it comes to a divorce, but only you and your ex-partner can talk it out before you take it further. You shouldn't expect to go into a divorce without any idea of what the other person wants. You'd be in for possibly a very big shock.

2. Make a list: Both of you write out a list of what you want in the divorce. Of course, you can't list your kids if you have them. So instead, write out what you believe is a fair way to get custody of your children. You can exchange and have your lawyers start to negotiate.

3. Ease the fighting: Yelling and screaming at each other is not the way to negotiate, and it tends to make things even worse. Try to resist the fighting. If you want the divorce to run smoothly, it's better off to put the arguing aside.

1. Laugh off the problem: We aren’t telling you to ignore an issue. Obviously that wouldn’t be very helpful! But, say a fight you’re having is that you broke a dish in the kitchen, and you’re both annoyed that it happened. Laugh it off. Say “oh well,” joke about how you’re clumsy, and move on. Gossip happens everywhere; with your gal pals, your significant other, or from anyone who loves to hear the “latest news.” However, it’s not fun for your private life. No worries, Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Don’t listen to it: Everyone likes gossip. There’s something about it that can’t keep our ears away. But when it’s your personal life, you should stay away from it.
