This celebrity wedding finally happened, but not on the first try. What are some important things to consider about the location of your # nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

Location is a huge decision when it comes to a wedding. There are a lot of factors to discuss and many venues to check out. Cupid is here to help:

1. Other people: Destination weddings are a hike so if you're planning one, maybe make it a small wedding. Not everybody is going to be able to or want to attend a wedding somewhere far away. Think about your guests when you decide on a location.

Related Link: Celebrity Wedding: Ciara and Russell Wilson Set to Tie the Knot in England

2. Money: You might find your dream venue, but that doesn't mean it will be the dream price. Be conscious of your budget and weigh your options. If you spend a little more on the location, spend a little less somewhere else.

Related Link: Russell Wilson Reveals 'Best Part' of His Celebrity Wedding

3. Space: Big wedding parties need enough space to fit everybody. Make sure the location is big enough. If you decide on a beach wedding, you can maximize your guest list where as if you have a small church wedding, it might be a bit smaller. The party afterwards needs to provide room for a dance floor and tables so plan wisely.

1. Ask to invite them to a family dinner: If you have a standing day you meet up with your family for dinner, ask if you can bring your partner along. Unless you specifically tell your fam that this is a platonic invite, they'll connect the dots all on their own. Plus, once you get there, make sure to do a little light PDA to bring things into focus for them. Even a pat on the leg or a hug of the shoulders will do the trick.

family and friends will get the picture. Eventually they might ask what the deal is, but even that is better than having to make a formal announcement out of the blue.

Related Link: Nick Cannon Covers Mariah Carey Tattoo

3. Post a photo on social media: You don't necessarily need to update your Facebook status to "in a relationship," but simply posting a cute photo of the two of you on Instagram will put the message out there, especially if you're somewhat cozy in the pic. At the very least, it'll spark some conversations with your loved ones, which will make the announcement a lot more natural.

It's a celebrity couple Bachelorette engagement! What are some ways to propose in the most romantic way possible?

Cupid's Advice:

This celebrity engagement was not only heartfelt, but also extremely beautiful. Even if your proposal doesn't have a set designer, there are so many ways to have it be a memorable and romantic moment. Think outside the box to create a memory that will last a lifetime:

1. Just you two: Proposing in front of a lot of people may seem like a romantic move, but nine times out of 10, a one-on-one moment will be much sweeter. You'll have plenty of opportunity for attention after you announce the engagement, so consider proposing in a private setting or with just close friends and family in your audience. Plan a couples' vacation and propose at some point during the trip, or make a meal at home, set the room with flowers, and propose there. Let the moment be just for the two of you.

2. Speak from the heart: Nothing can make a proposal more romantic than letting your true feelings out. Think about what you want to say beforehand. It doesn't have to be written out, but you should know what point you want to make. Talk about your favorite memories, and why you love each other. No matter what setting you're in sweet words will make your proposal romantic, for sure.

3. Keepsake: Whether it's a video or photo documenting the engagement or a memento you used to propose, incorporate a lasting element into your proposal plans. Create a photo album of things you've done together, make a short storybook about your relationship, or simply have someone there to take a picture when you pop the question. Showing that you put a lot of thought into the proposal is super romantic, and having something to look back on after the moment has passed will preserve the romance forever.

Iggy Azalea Clarifies Celebrity Relationship with French Montana

By Nicole Caico

Nothing to see here! After leaving together from Jennifer Lopez's All I Have show at Caesar's Palace, Iggy Azalea and French Montana were rumored to be headed for a celebrity relationship. According to EOnline.com, Azalea silenced dating rumors after the 2016 Maxim Hot 100 party saying, "No, we're [just] collaborating." So it looks like the rappers are not a celebrity couple after all.

Apparently there's no celebrity relationship to be found here. What do you do in the face of relationship rumors involving yourself?

Cupid's Advice:

Rumors spread fast, and it when a relationship rumor involves you, only you can shut it down. Here's how to end the rumors before things go too far:

1. Ally: A relationship rumor has to involve you and at least one other person. The first step to successfully shutting down a relationship rumor without hurting feelings is to contact all parties involved and get on the same page. If each person involved is disseminating the message that there is no real relationship, the rumor should die out rather quickly.

2. Use your resources: Giving your most talkative friend all the correct information can almost guarantee that the rumor will get shut down. When people want the gossip, they won't come to you directly; they'll probably chat up your closest friend. Feed your friend the right lines and that information is what people will run with.

3. Distract from the gossip: If all people are concerned with is your rumored relationship, give them something else to talk about. Make posts on your social media accounts that are about other bigger and better things you've got going on. Hopefully people will start talking about your new job or most recent vacation instead of the supposed relationship drama.

Celebrity News: Josh Groban & Kat Dennings Break Up After 2 Years of Dating

By Nicole Caico

It's the end of the line for Josh Groban and Kat Denning's celebrity relationship. After spending two years as a celebrity couple, the two stars are calling it quits. According to EOnline.com, a source said, "It was a mutual breakup. They are still friends and care about each other, but it's not the right time for them now as a couple." Both Groban and Denning will be busy with projects this coming fall, but there is no doubt it will take some time to recover from the split.

In celebrity news, this duo is no more! How do you know when your relationship is over and it's time to move on?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are never pleasant. Even if it's mutual, like Josh Groban and Kat Denning's, breaking up always leaves someone sad. But, there is a time and place for everything after all, and it's important to know when your relationship is over and it's time to move on:

1. Changed for the worse: You know it's really time to call it quits on your relationship when you've had discussions with your partner and they make no change—or change for the worse. Every person is annoying in their own special way, and in a relationship you learn to deal with the other person. But when you have already had a few heart to hearts about needing more communication or wanting more support, and your other half makes no effort to give that to you, that's a big red flag. It's time to walk away.

2. Timing: It may sound like an excuse, but if the timing is not right, you may have to call things off. Your career is taking off and his career is, too, but they're taking off in two completely different directions. If you have to sacrifice opportunities or move somewhere, you don't want to or can't afford it may be time to call it quits.

3. Fizzling out: If the thought of spending time with your partner no longer gets you excited, or if you both don't miss each other while you're apart, it could be a sign that your relationship is fizzling out. A dip in chemistry may be no fault of either person involved, but may be a reason to walk away from the relationship to find a new flame somewhere else.

Celebrity News: Kanye West Opens Up About Kim's Nude Selfies

By Cortney Moore

This may not come as a surprise to most, but rapper Kanye West has once again made celebrity news in regards to his comments about wife Kim Kardashian and her nude selfies. In an exclusive interview with Harper's Bazaar, the celebrity couple spoke on a variety of topics, one of them being Kardashian's viral nude selfies. "I just love seeing her naked; I love nudity. And I love beautiful shapes. I feel like it's almost a Renaissance thing, a painting, a modern version of a painting," the 35-year-old rapper said. In the same interview, he admitted that he'd send nude selfies of his own to women before he entered a relationship with Kardashian. Perhaps now we know how this celebrity couple keeps the passion alive in their relationship!

This is certainly risqué celebrity news! How do you know if nude # selfies are right for your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Nude selfies have become increasingly popular in the dating scene and even in long-term relationships, as we've seen in this celebrity news. Though it may be fun to send a flirty text, there is always a risk in doing so. Cupid is here to help you figure out if nude selfies are right for your relationship:

1. Know your partner: First and foremost, you need to take into account who your partner is. Do you know them well? How long have you been together? Are they trustworthy and mature? These are all questions you should ask yourself before you snap that picture and hit send. You don't want this intimate part of yourself to be accidentally or vindictively leaked.

Related Link: Do's and Don'ts of Flirtexting and Sexting

2. Only do it if you want to: Sometimes a significant other may pressure you to send a nude photo. Don't let them bully you into it. The person you're with should respect your wishes if you don't want to do it, and understand your apprehension if you're unsure if it's the right time to do so. Something of this nature should be your choice alone. You don't owe anyone a nude selfie, not even a wife or husband.

3. Protect your identity: If you decide that you're ready to send a nude selfie, do so in a way that protects your identity. Your face doesn't have to be visible (you don't have to follow Kim's example). Even consider using a messaging app that provides an alternate phone number. Do whatever you can to ensure your privacy.

Relationship Advice: 3 Ways To Scratch The Seven-Year Itch

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

If you listen to the relationship experts, the seven-year itch can just as easily be called the three-year itch, four-year itch, or the twelve-year itch. “There’s no consensus among experts as to why the seven-year itch may occur,” explained relationship expert Jennifer Nagy. Experts identify irritating contributors like hasty marriage proposals (Pamela Anderson or Khloe Kardashian), declining interest in his or her’s partner, and growing family responsibilities. But with married couples facing a 50-50 chance at success, it makes one wonder how to extend the rather short shelf life of a marriage, despite the growing needs of maintaining a life together.

Fortunately, society is filled with celebrity couples who have defied the odds. Will and Jada Pinkett Smith will celebrate twenty years together next year, Bill and Melinda Gates have been married over twenty years, and Billy Crystal and his wife, Janice, have been together forty-six years. If you and your partner are truly committed to making a marriage work, here is my relationship advice where I provide three ways to scratch that seven-year itch. Follow these dating tips to increase the longevity of your marriage.

Relationship Advice On How To Have A Lasting Marriage

1. Search for the things you first loved about each other. “I just love him more and more,” said Reese Witherspoon about her five-year marriage to Jim Toth. “I want so much for him to be happy, and he wants me to be happy.” Life is filled with distractions that make it difficult for those once-endearing traits to present themselves. Between family, changing interests, and work, we have many things demanding a portion of our time. Remember: You committed to share your life, dreams, and your whole self with this person. Don’t take that promise lightly, and don’t search for perfection—you won’t find it. Instead, uncover the things about your partner that make you feel secure, more focused, and better able to grow and expand your evolving interests as a couple.

2. Make the private moments meaningful. “For us,” explained Chrissy Teigen about her marriage to John Legend, “it’s exciting to have time away and then be together and make up for that lost time.” As a mature relationship grows, the opportunities to share alone time are few and far between, but the need to find that time becomes so important. “When the sexual intimacy in the marriage can be nurtured and given the time to grow, then the marriage will be successful,” wrote Dawn Michael. “The problem, of course, is that many couples lose the closeness that brought them together in the first place.”

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Keeping The Fireworks In Your Relationship

3. Leaving is not an option. “At our facility, it is not uncommon to see a loving spouse sit with his or her aging partner while illness, dementia, or frailty robs them of meaningful twilight years together,” said Scott Hanson, executive director of Lake Ridge Senior Living. “Even though the loved one may no longer recognize him, the thought of leaving or loving her any less is simply not an option.” That kind of commitment through good times and bad is what strengthens the bond Gisele Bündchen shares with her husband Tom Brady. “My father always said, the quality of your life depends on the quality of your relationships, and I think, no matter how challenging it was, we’ve always been supportive of one another. I think that’s the most important thing you can have in life.” With the array of circumstances that continually take shots at a relationship, it’s hard to know whether or not a marriage will be strained at any specific time. According to Nagy, “The studies do seem to agree that couples need to put in the extra effort every day in order to sustain happy marriages. If a couple doesn’t prioritize their relationship, their marriage will fall by the wayside – no matter how long they’ve been together.”

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Guy Cut by JoJo Fletcher in Fantasy Suite

By Nicole Caico

At the beginning of this week's episode of The Bachelorette it seemed like all three guys still had a fair shot at a celebrity relationship with JoJo Fletcher, but by the end, one of them was sent packing. Jordan, Robby, and Chase were the three lucky men who made it to the fantasy suite. It turns out that Chase was the one unlucky man to be sent home. UsMagazine.com reports that Chase proclaimed his love for JoJo, and she responded with, “When you said that to me, in my heart and in my gut, I don’t think I felt what I thought I was gonna feel. I don’t know if I’m in the same place as you. I don’t know if spending this night together would change that feeling, and I almost feel like it would be unfair.” Chase, rightly upset, left the show. ## This celebrity news has us cringing a bit! What are some ways to let someone who is interested in you go?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s always endearing to know that someone is interested in you. As flattering as it may be, there comes a time when you’ve got to let the person know that the feeling isn’t mutual. No use putting it off. Cupid is here with some dating advice:

- 1. Remain unavailable: Before jumping into the full on “it’s not you, it’s me” convo, see if the person crushing on you can take a hint. When they text you, don’t answer right away—and sometimes don’t answer at all. Answering immediately and consistently usually conveys that you’re interested, so doing the opposite may allow the person to catch on to your lukewarm feelings.

2. The other man: If the person pursuing you is someone you're friendly with or talk to regularly, get on the topic of relationships and try to casually mention another guy you're interested in. If you make it seem like you're confiding in this friend for advice on another guy or girl, they'll have to understand that your interest is elsewhere.

3. Be honest: As awkward as the conversation might be, being honest is the best way to go about it. Just telling the person, "Hey, it seems like you're interested in me, but I'm not looking to date anyone" will clear up the whole situation. Being honest is also the best way to avoid hurting someone. Be honest, and remember—don't apologize—you're just not interested.

This celebrity divorce has been 4 years coming. What are some ways to streamline your divorce proceedings?

Cupid’s Advice:

Making the decision to divorce from your partner is difficult enough, but when the divorce process drags on for years, that’s about as bad as it gets. Making your divorce as swift a possible subsequently makes it as painless as possible. Cupid has some tips:

3. Be patient: When it comes down to it, you can be 100% on top of your stuff, have a great legal team, and still have a slow divorce. A lot depends on how the other party is handling things.
