

Courtney Stodden Suffers Miscarriage of Celebrity Baby

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Courtney Stodden and Doug Hutchison are coping with the loss of their unborn celebrity baby. Stodden, 21, recently confirmed that she was expecting in May. According to UsMagazine.com, Stodden's rep put out a statement addressing the miscarriage on July 17, saying, "It is with a heavy heart to inform you that last week Courtney Stodden suffered a heartbreaking miscarriage. Courtney and her husband, Doug, are at an emotional loss for words and are using this time to grieve with their close family and friends."

Courtney Stodden is broken hearted over the loss of her celebrity baby. What are some ways to support a mother who has experienced loss?

Cupid's Advice:

It is no secret that miscarrying is emotionally traumatic for an expecting mother or couple. Unfortunately, there is no way to change the situation, but supporting a woman or couple going through this experience can make a difference:

1. Share stories: Miscarriages are more common than many people know, and even though many women do not talk about their miscarriages, there is still a stigma. In order to help a mother who has experienced this loss, have other women share their experiences with miscarriages. Whether you read stories online together or have friends and family talk about it, sharing this information should help her realize that her miscarriage is not her fault, and that she is not alone.

2. Don't dwell: It is extremely important to acknowledge and talk about the emotional pain that your friend or family member is going through after this loss, but do not harp on it. Let her start the conversation. You won't know if she is ready to tell you about it, or if she can emotionally handle talking about it, unless she starts the conversation. Constantly revisiting the topic might make her feel worse.

3. Look toward the future: A miscarriage does not mean the end of hope for parenthood. Encouraging this woman or couple to continue hoping for the baby they've always wanted will hopefully lift their spirits. Remind them that this loss is not a failure and that they should continue looking forward.

Celebrity News: 'Bachelorette' Star JoJo Fletcher Says Goodbye to Two Suitors Pre-Hometown Dates

By Nicole Caico

On this week's episode of The Bachelorette, JoJo Fletcher sent home Alex and James. According to UsMagazine.com, while Robby got the rose at the end of this week's group date, Jordan is looking like the front runner in the competition to become the other half of JoJo's celebrity couple. Remaining competitors

Chase, Robby, Jordan, and Luke will have to pull out all the stops in the upcoming hometown dates when JoJo will travel with them to meet their families.

In celebrity news, the hometown dates on The Bachelorette are almost upon us! What are some ways to prepare to meet your partner's family?

Cupid's Advice:

No matter who you are, meeting your partner's family is probably one of the most nerve wracking things you'll ever have to do. Even if you know that the family who raised the amazing person you're with must be the nicest people on the planet, being nervous comes naturally. First impressions are important, so it's best to prepare as much as you can before meeting your partner's family:

1. The family tree: Before meeting your partner's family, ask your partner some questions about them, especially if you're meeting extended family and not just Mom, Dad, and siblings. Hearing some names beforehand will help you to feel familiar upon arrival, and some background won't hurt either. Who is on what side of the family? What ages are your partners' siblings? Get some info.

2. Contribute: Most people consider showing up to a first meeting with the family empty handed a mistake. First impressions are important, and it's beneficial to be as polite as possible. Bring your significant other's family flowers or a dessert. What you bring does not have to be extremely personal or a gift wrapped present, just bringing something to show you made an effort can go a long way.

3. Take a deep breath: Above all, just be yourself. It is worth it to prepare, but there is only so much you can do. Put on some nice clothes, grab a small gift, review names of family members, and just breathe.

Russell Wilson Reveals ‘Best Part’ of His Celebrity Wedding Day

By Nicole Caico

Ciara and Seattle Seahawks QB Russell Wilson said “I do” at their celebrity wedding in England last week. According to EOnline.com, Ciara wore a custom Roberto Cavalli Couture by Peter Dundas and there were over 100 guests in attendance. In front of many friends and family members, this celebrity couple took their celebrity relationship to the next level, and Wilson said the best part was “just to see her face and the long train she had. And then Earth, Wind and Fire took the night away.”

This celebrity wedding story has us swooning. What are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration?

Cupid’s Advice:

Take a page out of the Wilson’s book and plan a large wedding celebration. All of their friends and family were in attendance, and yours should be, too. There's no reason to skimp on your big day, so here are three reasons to have a large wedding celebration:

1. Lower stress: Having a large wedding celebration may sound more stressful, but it just might be less stressful. There is nothing worse than sitting down to make a guest list, deciding it's too long, and having to cross people off. Chances are if you put the person on the list, you don't want to cross them off. Planning a large wedding will save you the terrible feeling of crossing a friend off your list, and will also save you and your betrothed many arguments over the number of guests.

2. All the pieces of the puzzle: Whether a large wedding celebration refers to the actual number of people in attendance or just the general grandeur of the event, go big. Plan a budget that is within your means, but also allows you to have everything you want on your big day. Planning a large wedding celebration will ensure that every aspect will be the way you pictured it. You shouldn't skimp on your guest list, dress, food, or decor if you don't have to.

3. Party time: If there is no other reason, plan a large wedding celebration because at the end of the day, it's a party! Let loose and celebrate this new chapter in your life with all the people who are important to you. You can't have an awesome party with only 50 people, so just go for it!

Celebrity Wedding: Christian Siriano & Brad Walsh Marry in Romantic Ceremony

By Nicole Caico

On Saturday, July 9, designer Christian Siriano married his fiancé Brad Walsh. The celebrity wedding took place outside in Danbury, Connecticut and was officiated by actress Kristen Johnston. Siriano, season four winner of Project Runway, and his betrothed wore all black and it was requested that guests wore all white. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple had the receptions catered by Certe and Siriano's favorite food, lobster, was among the dishes served.

This celebrity wedding was unique and personalized. What are some ways to personalize your nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

The Siriano-Walsh wedding had tons of style and incorporated so many personal touches. Take a page out of this celebrity couple's book, and personalize your nuptials:

1. Venue: If you're looking to personalize your wedding, start at square one—with the venue. Where you chose to have your wedding can say a lot about you and your betrothed. If you're traditional or religious, you may choose to get married in a place of worship. If you're both outdoorsy, have your ceremony on a beach or in a field. If you're adventurous, plan a destination wedding. Let the setting of your ceremony be the backdrop for who you two are as a couple.

2. Food: Personalizing your food is a basic, but important part of your wedding. If you grew up in a family that is connected to their culture, let it shine through in the cuisine. Whether it's traditional Indian, Chinese, or Italian, your heritage is a big part of who you are, and the food was no doubt a big part of your life growing up. If you want to personalize your food in a more small scale way, consider picking out a custom cake topper.

3. The wedding favor: Aside from photos, the wedding favor may be the longest lasting piece of your wedding. Choose something that will stand the test of time and that reflects your personality. It could be as simple as flower seeds for guests to plant and grow, or a monogrammed bottle opener for guests to use in the future.

Former Celebrity Couple Kate Hudson & Matt Bellamy Reunite for Son's Birthday

By Nicole Caico

On July 9, actress Kate Hudson and her rockstar ex-fiance, Matt Bellamy, joined forces to celebrate their son's fifth birthday. UsMagazine.com reports that the former celebrity couple took their celebrity kids, Ryder (12) and Bing (5), to Palace Theatre in London to see the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child play. Since calling off their engagement in 2014, Hudson and Bellamy have redefined their celebrity relationship. The two remain amicable for their children and continue to run a joint wine company, Hudson Bellamy Wines.

This former celebrity couple isn't letting their differences get in the way! What are some ways to remain civil with your ex for the sake of your kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone can remain as friendly as Kate Hudson and Matt Bellamy. Remaining civil with an ex isn't easy. You parted ways for a reason, and it definitely wasn't because you just loved each other too much. Though you may want to run in the other direction every time you see your ex, that won't help your children at all. Here are some basic ways to remain civil with your ex:

1. Take responsibility: Chances are that when you split from your ex, some ground rules were laid out—either on your own or in court. Follow them. Do not deviate from the schedule, and be sure to hold up your end of the deal. This will help avoid additional issues and show that you respect your ex's time with your kids.

2. Mind your business: Whether your ex is telling you about a date he or she went on, or your kids are relaying information, if it doesn't have to do with you or your children, stay out of it. You may feel entitled to weigh in, but don't do it. Staying out of your ex's personal life or love life will keep everyone's lives more simple.

3. Play nice: Maybe you two couldn't stand each other at the time of the split, but now that you've parted ways, tensions should die down. Remain polite when dealing with your ex, especially in front of your kids. If you respect each other, say "thank you" when you can, or do a favor here and there. Co-parenting will work out much more nicely.

Cupid's Advice:

Even if you aren't a celebrity couple, rumors can still find you. Everybody's got something to say when it comes to relationships. Cupid is here to help:

1. Speak the truth: It's your story too so if you have to post a photo or make a statement to prove it, go for it. Speak the truth if false rumors are flying your way. It's not fair for you to have to just take it lying down especially if it's false.

This celebrity news proves that old habits die hard. What are some ways to determine your "type"?

Cupid's Advice:

When we're dating, there are always a few common traits that we gravitate towards. We often look for these traits in a partner and then call them our "type." For those who are unsure of what their type is, Cupid is here to help you determine which is best for you:

1. Shared interests: A simple and straight forward way to determine your type is by finding interests you both share. If you tend to like people who like the same things you do, then you can determine that your type must be compatible with your hobbies and lifestyle. At the very least, your type should show an interest in the things you do.

Related Link: Former Celebrity Couple News: Selena Gomez Spotted at Justin Bieber Concert After Kissing Post

2. Similar energy levels: Another important trait in finding your type is knowing how energetic you want them to be. If you like being active then you want someone that will be active with you. If you prefer low energy activities, you'll need someone who likes doing that as well. Dating a person who has an opposing energy level from your own is not the right type for you.

3. Mutual desire: Hopefully if you're trying to get into a serious relationship, you want someone who is attracted to you the same way you are to them. Don't try to force anything that isn't there. If you're not desiring to be in another's presence then they are not your type. A relationship without desire or passion is a friendship, go find someone who can satisfy your romantic needs.

3. Get excited: A good relationship doesn't mean you have to soul search and have some sort of major epiphany. If it does, awesome. If not, fine. The major perk of being in a good relationship is that you get to be who you are, and get excited to do things with someone else. A good relationship can change your life for the better by simply making everyday activities more fun because you're sharing them with someone else. Revolutionize food shopping or binge watching Netflix by sharing it with the person you love.

Cupid's Advice:

New relationships can be exciting, but also a little scary. Jumping into a partnership takes a little bit of courage. Cupid is here to help with some dating advice:

1. Ask questions: Since you know little to nothing about the person at the start of a relationship (unless they're your friend first), ask lots of questions on the first date. It's important to know things about your partner, but also to see that you are compatible. If he's going on and on about topics that don't interest you, it's best to be aware from the start.

2. Go on dates: Try out different hot spots and restaurants at the start of your relationship. See which activities excite your partner and which you wouldn't try again. It's a great way to see if he's spontaneous or if he's more routine oriented.

These celebrity exes are making celebrity news again! What are some ways to move on after a fresh break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Contrary to popular belief, not every break-up deserves a grieving period. Just because a relationship ends, doesn't mean your happiness has to. Cupid is here to help you move on from your most recent break-up:

1. Date again: Take a page out of Taylor's book and start dating again. Sometimes the best way to get over a relationship is by getting into a new one. You won't find your special someone by staying home and fixating on an ex. Put yourself out there!

Celebrity Couple Gwen Stefani & Blake Shelton Enjoy 'Honey Moon' After Birthday Celebration

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity couple Gwen Stefani and Blake Shelton took a birthday trip that will give you date night envy for a lifetime. According to UsMagazine.com, to celebrate Shelton turning 40, Stefani decorated a private jet that took the couple to Shelton's farm in Oklahoma. While there, the couple took a ride on Shelton's speed boat and enjoyed the 'Honey Moon' on the night of the summer solstice. Since getting together in November 2015, this celebrity relationship has continued to blossom, as evidenced by Stefani's tweet to Shleton, ""Happy birthday to my favorite person I ever met @blakeshelton gx ☺☺☺#superbabe."

This celebrity couple is finding new and exciting things to do together. What are some adventurous date ideas to plan for your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Though most of us won't be riding a private jet for a birthday trip anytime soon, there are still many ways to keep things exciting. Date night doesn't have to be dinner and a movie. Cupid is here to help you think outside the box for your next date night:

1. Something you'd never do: If you're like most couples, there is probably something your partner loves to do that you really don't care for. Whether it's horseback riding, sports, or shopping, plan a day of that activity. Your partner will be impressed that you went out of your way and out of your comfort zone, to do something they really love.

2. Adventures close to home: Wherever you live, especially if it's in the U.S., there is a good chance that there is a park near to where you live that you've never visited. State parks in the U.S. range from beach to mountain depending on where you live, and they normally don't cost more than ten dollars. Find a place close to home that you've never been to and make a date. And, if the outdoors isn't your thing, search for an indoor rock climbing facility or even take a dance class. The definition of adventure will vary by couple.

Celebrity News: Iggy Azalea Sets Record Straight About Moving Out of Nick Young's House

By Nicole Caico

Iggy Azalea used Twitter as her platform to shut down rumors about the end of her celebrity relationship with NBA player

Nick Young. The celebrity couple had gotten engaged in June 2015, but, as UsMagazine.com reports, an alleged cheating scandal exposed by Young's NBA teammate D'Angelo Russell earlier this year has driven them apart. Recently, pictures of the L.A. home Azalea lives in have shown a car being towed and locks being changed. On Twitter, Azalea made it clear that she was not behind this, saying, "I never had anyone's car towed nor did I kick nick out of 'my' house. The home belongs to nick, I am the one moving. Thanks."

This celebrity news has us holding our breath a bit. What are three ways to completely detach yourself from your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

After a messy split, two people want nothing to do with each other. The most important thing to do after getting out of a long relationship is to distance yourself from the other person. Detaching yourself from your ex may be difficult, but it's necessary. Cupid has some tips:

1. Social media detox: In this day and age, you can do everything to cut ties with an ex, but if you don't remove them on social media, they'll be popping up forever. Delete traces of the relationship from your own pages and unfriend them on all of your accounts.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Taylor Swift Caught Kissing Tom Hiddleston Two Weeks After Split

2. Cut off communication: If you're finding yourself wanting to text your ex, take the extra step to delete the contact in your phone. If you don't have your ex's number, you can't contact them—simple, yet effective. Then if they contact you at some point, you'll seem totally over it when you reply, "Who's this?"

3. Material things: Whether you live in your ex's house or have photos and gifts all over your apartment, make a change. If you lived together you'll definitely have to move out, and if you live on your own, take some time to find things from your ex and clean them out of your space. If you're a very sentimental person and can't bear to throw the items away, at least pack up the gifts and photos into a box and stow them away. Out of sight, out of mind.

Relationship Advice: What NOT to Do In Your Marriage, Thanks to Celebs

By Malini Bhatia

Don't you wish there was a marriage handbook they gave out at the altar? Things that, if you followed, would guarantee a long and happy marriage? The thing is – each person and each couple is different. So, what may work for one relationship may not work in another.

That said, there are some basic pieces of relationship advice we all should follow—things like be positive, say nice things, do things for the other person, etc. Plus, we can learn from others, especially celebrities, how to avoid mistakes in marriage.

Here are some things NOT to do:

Do NOT Allow Other Things Ahead of the Marriage

We may never know the real reason former celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck split up, but some reports say there wasn't enough togetherness—specifically Ben's busy movie-making schedule. Sometimes, other things get in the way of marriage, especially our work. It's a hard balance for anyone, especially celebrities, who can be gone for months at a time on a movie set. How exactly do you make that work when you are married and have kids?

Hard times and busy schedules are inevitable in marriage. The difference in whether you make a mistake or not is in how you handle it. Both of you must make an effort in making sure the relationship comes first. If being apart has to happen, then think of ways you can still feel like you are together. Visit often, have regular Skype dates, text, send pictures, think of each other at a certain time every day, etc. Be creative!

Do NOT Let the Temptation to Cheat Happen

Amid reports of cheating being the reason Gwen Stefani and Gavin Rossdale went through a celebrity divorce, it's a good reminder to always keep things in check. Both were on the road a lot, and being away from your spouse can definitely increase the chances that you'll be tempted to stray.

So, keep those temptations to a minimum. Take your spouse with you when you can, bunk with a trusted co-worker, or make other arrangements. We are all human, so don't think the temptation could never arise.

Do NOT Take Each Other for Granted

Hugh Jackman and wife Deborra-Lee Furness have been going strong for 20 years, and every time Hugh is asked about her, he raves that things just get better and better. It makes your heart melt, doesn't it? He expresses the fact that they do everything together, and that they have a profound amount of respect for each other.

In essence, they are grateful for each other. That is huge. In marriage, you should see your spouse for who they really are, and vice versa. Don't try to change them. Be thankful every single day for the unique person they are and how they bless your life. If you do that, you can't go wrong.

Celebrity Couple Iggy Azalea & Nick Young Call it Quits

By Stephanie Sacco

Iggy Azalea and Nick Young have called off their engagement. This celebrity couple have had their ups and downs, including a recent cheating scandal on Young's part. According to UsMagazine.com, it didn't start off well for this pair. Azalea told The Daily Telegraph, "[We'd met] a few years prior to that, and I didn't know and I hated him." She continued, saying, "I thought he was an a-hole." In celebrity news, things were looking up when Young proposed to Azalea on his 30th birthday with a fancy ring! Unfortunately, she had to postpone the wedding while she was touring. Then came the cheating scandal where Azalea lost all trust in her man, and the now celebrity exes have called it quits for good.

This celebrity couple is no more. What are some ways to re-establish trust when it's lost?

Cupid's Advice:

Trusting a person is hard enough, but when they break that trust, it's a long road to trusting them again. Cheating especially causes a rift in a relationship. Cupid is here to help:

1. Honesty: If you aren't being loyal, the least you can do is admit your faults and come clean. Even if you do something wrong or hurt your partner, there has to be open and honest communication. When you lose that kind of connection, there's no going back.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Demi Lovato & Wilmer Valderrama Break Up

2. Slowly let them back in: Don't go telling them your secrets and true feelings until you feel like they've earned it. Backtrack into the relationship as if you're starting fresh. Never forgive and forget.

3. Don't gloss over it: It's a big deal if your partner is unfaithful or has done something untrustworthy. You can't just ignore the fact that the trust between you is gone. Tell them how it really made you feel and that they're walking on thin ice, if that.

Celebrity News: Amber Rose

Pays Tribute to Ex Wiz Khalifa on Father's Day

By Nicole Caico

Celebrity divorce hasn't stopped Amber Rose from showing her appreciation for ex-husband Wiz Khalifa. On Sunday, Rose posted a picture of Khalifa and their 3-year-old son, Sebastian, for Father's Day. In her caption, praising Khalifa's parenting, she wrote, "Happy Father's Day to Sebastian's Dad @mistercap Thee most Awesomest Dad in the World!!! (Besides my Daddy). Wish I could be home with you guys Today but have a blast and love each other up all day!" According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity couple filed for divorce in 2014 after just over a year of marriage, but have always maintained a good relationship.

This celebrity news has us realizing there are some good ex relationships in Hollywood after all. What are three ways to show appreciation for your child's parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friendly after a divorce is not an easy feat, but if you have children, it's ideal. Co-parenting makes everyone's lives easier, parents' and children' alike. There are many ways to show appreciation for the parent of your child:

1. Hold up your end: Some divorces result in more rules and regulations than others. However it plays out, be sure to fulfill your responsibilities. Contribute the money you're supposed to, and follow the schedule to a tee. Strictly sticking to the conditions of your divorce will show respect to the parent of your child, and prevent additional issues.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Unfollows Taylor Swift on Social Media

2. Do a favor: Parenting is difficult; that is a universal fact. If you see the parent of your child struggling with something and you're in a position where you can help out, do it. Doing a favor for the parent of your child will help everyone involved in the long run. Just because you're no longer married doesn't mean it is right to sit back and watch your ex flounder when you can help.

3. Say “thank you”: It’s basic, but it works. Thank the parent of your child for being on time, for being a good parent to your kid, and for trying. There is no easier way to show your appreciation than to thank them.
