It proves to be much more immersive as the theme can tie into invitations, hashtags, wedding cake, and more! Here are Cupid’s suggestions of fun themes to consider for your wedding:

The duo spending more time with one another comes shortly after their respective break-ups with Liam Hemsworth and Brody Jenner.

In celebrity news, Miley Cyrus is getting closer to Kaitlynn Carter after Liam Hemsworth filed for divorce. What are some steps you can take to move on after an intense split?

Cupid's Advice:

Not everyone is experiencing a celebrity break-up, but the hurt generated by splits are universal. Break-ups are hard, and it's even harder when an ex quickly moves on with someone new. But, it's not impossible to get over a heartbreak! Fortunately, Cupid has some relationship advice on steps to take after you go through an intense split:

1. Remove the rose-colored glasses: Sometimes, it's easy to forget that we are all just human. It's natural to almost idealize an ex-partner after a break-up, experiencing insecurities and wondering if you'll ever find someone that matches up to them. But, it's important to make an effort to see the limitations of this person. They have flaws, doubts, and insecurities, themselves. They were never perfect, and it's better to find the logic in the realistic nature and incompatibilities of the break-up to be able to properly move on.

2. Surround yourself with good friends: Good friendships are important for many things, but they are especially important when life-altering situations occur like intense break-ups. They tend to be your biggest supporters, rooting you on and giving you the love and positivity you need. They are there to distract you and pick you up when you're feeling down. When relationship problems arise, these people are the ones that help you put the relationship into perspective, making it easier to see the ex-lover objectively.

3. Find a great therapist: Therapy is a very helpful tool when going through hardship. It acts as a safe space to open up about feelings and communication without being judged. Working through loss, like a relationship, in a setting where you can freely talk and further your introspection is significant in easing the pain. A lot of people feel more comfortable speaking out about these kinds of issues with someone they hold no personal attachment to than those they know. Find a therapist you can trust being vulnerable around, and you might have a healthier time moving on from your past relationship.

Don't let the ghost of relationships past haunt your new romance. Learn from the mistakes from your ex and bring new perspective into your next relationship:

1. Intimacy: There's a lot from a past relationship that can cause anxiety in future partnerships. For example, being cheating on may make you jealous and paranoid as a future partner. This is a normal reaction, but it's something to learn from. Take your trauma and turn it into intimacy by confiding in your new significant other about your concerns.

Celebrity Couple Kelly Ripa & Mark Consuelos Send Daughter Off to College

By Katie Sotack

It's off to school season, and celebrity parents are not immune to their nests becoming smaller. Live! host Kelly Ripa and Riverdale actor Mark Consuelos recently sent their second oldest and only daughter off to college. Consuelos uploaded a photo with the caption "2 down... 1 to go", referring to the couple's third child. Using the same picture, Ripa shared the news via Instagram, where many celebrity friends were sympathetic to the news. Lisa Rinna, Real Housewives of Beverly Hills star, who recently sent her daughter off to college as well, commented several sobbing emojis in solidarity.

This celebrity couple's nest just got a little bit smaller. What are some ways to deal with an empty nest when your children leave home?

Cupid's Advice:

It's college season in America! Parents cry and young adults rejoice as they ship off to schools across the country. Empty nesting may seem daunting at first, but think about all the perks of your children leaving home:

1. Reconnect as a couple: It's likely that you and your partner have not lived alone since before your child was born. Once your baby moves out, recommit to your relationship. Being home alone with your partner means date nights in and walking around in your underwear again. A child leaving is nothing lost; it's readjusting to a life you once had.

2. A new relationship: When your child moves away, your relationship will morph. Likely, it'll get better. The saying "absence makes the heart grow fonder" is absolutely true in this case. Instead of relying on you for their needs, they will learn to care for themselves. In doing so, your relationship will become more balanced and less demanding on your end.

3. It may not be permanent: In today's economy, moving out is not always permanent. It's very possible your child will be moving back in after college or if their job goes south. This is both totally normal and hope for you to have your baby under your roof again.

Expert Dating Advice: Three Reasons Why My Worst Relationship Brought Me to My Best Relationship

By Tori Autumn

Over the course of a year and a half, the previous relationship I was in affected me mentally and emotionally. It kept me in a lot of stress, anxiety, and embarrassment. I felt like I became a different person to my friends, family, and even co-workers; however, if I hadn't gotten in that dramafilled relationship, I wouldn't have appreciated the current relationship I'm in.

Expert Dating Advice on How to Use a Bad Relationship for Personal and Romantic Growth

1. Going through something publicly gave me strength to move forward. After letting my friends and family know for the tenth time that I was ready to leave this guy for good, it felt as if a weight was lifted from my shoulders and I was ready to accept healthy love in my life.

My public breakup seems most similar to R&B singer Ciara. Back in 2014, Ciara called off the engagement with her fiance, rapper Future, after he was hit with cheating allegations. The celebrity couple was constantly in the headlines for their son's custody battle.

Things did get better for Ciara. Following the tumultuous breakup, she was seen with Seahawks' Quarterback Russell Wilson at the White House Correspondents' Dinner in April 2015. The new couple married June 2016 and then welcomed their daughter in April 2017.

Like Ciara, I have found success with my new love. When I entered into this new relationship, I knew it was for me because it was a better reflection of who I was, who I am, and who I need.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: What We Can Learn From the Trials and Triumphs of Celebrity Relationships

2. My values in a relationship changed. At first, it made sense to be with my ex. We clicked personality-wise and he was the kind of guy I was used to.

Similarly, Ciara might have felt comfortable dating someone in her industry. With her career as an R&B singer, she had dated rapper Bow Wow before falling for rapper Future, having a child with him, and getting engaged to him.

When I first met the guy I'm in a relationship with now, he was nothing like I was used to. Similar to Russell Wilson, my boyfriend had just gotten out of a serious relationship but knew exactly what he wanted out of life. From the start, there weren't any mind games and I started valuing positive mindset, encouragement, and long-term commitment.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Will Your Perfect Partner Vision Become Reality?

3. Instead of regretting love, I started to feel the power of celebrating it. Ci-Ci and Russell quickly became known as #RelationshipGoals because of their open love for each other, their successful careers, drama-free living, and how happy the pair became together.

Instead of complaining about my ex, I became happier knowing that there was no drama in my relationship and that it was a constant reminder of how things can change for the better. I became ready for this relationship when I realized I wanted to change certain behaviors, old ways of thinking that no longer served me, and that I wanted serious commitment.

I always find Ciara and Russell's love story to be interesting in particular because at first the public's view of Russell Wilson's persona was that he was corny, soft, and the polar opposite of Ciara and the men we've seen her with in the past. However, the public also began to see Ciara change as a person for the better and saw the love for the two grow stronger because of that. The power of love is real when you can learn from your past mistakes, be open to accepting new love, and stand in the new values you want for yourself.

It's been a long time since I've started falling in love...I've been on my own for close to three and a half years now and to finally find someone again, it's a really big deal for me, because a few months ago if you would have asked me, I would say 'I'm gonna be on my own forever and I'm happy being alone,' and you know what, I realize what I was missing now." Young recently met Moussa's two children, but has yet to meet his celebrity ex, Christina Anstead.

This celebrity couple is coming into the public eye after much speculation. What are some ways to know when it's time to bring your relationship public?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to decide when you make your relationship public, especially if you and your new partner are private and want to enjoy your new love together. But, eventually, it will need to happen! Cupid has some ideas on how to know when to make your relationship public:

1. You don't mind them meeting your family: You know it's time to bring your relationship public when you're okay with your new partner meeting your parents, siblings, or even your kids (if you have them), and you've met their family.

If Jenner's wedding is anything like her birthday parties or occasional themed parties, it is sure to be extravagant and planned in true celebrity fashion. Weddings can be an overwhelming event to plan for even celebrity couples, but Cupid has some advice on some ways to make your wedding unique:

1. Greenery: The Bohemian bride look and greenery are in! Instead of having a traditional flower bouquet, try making a greenery hoop bouquet, which can include willow branches, eucalyptus, and an assortment of any other plants/flowers of your choosing. Instead of saying your vows under a traditional wooden arch, you can also look into having a plant-based circular wedding arch for that special moment.

Also, don't feel pressured to have your destination wedding somewhere tropical (and typical) like Hawaii or Florida Keys. Cupid’s Advice:

When you’re expecting a child one of the hardest decisions to make can sometimes be coming up with a name you and your partner agree on. It’s an important decision, and one you cannot change once it’s been made. It can often mean compromises on both sides to come to an agreement. Cupid has some advice on ways to compromise with your partner on baby names:

1. Create a list: You and your partner can begin by each creating a list of baby names that you like. Compare your list and pick out any names you both put down. From there, you can work through the names each of you like to make your decision.

2. Family names: Family names can often be a sticking point when one of you has a name you are set on passing down to your child. If one of you has a family name you really want to use consider using it as a middle name as a compromise. This way the name gets incorporated without being the name used for your child every day.

3. Find a common theme: If you are having trouble narrowing down a name, start with coming up with a theme you both agree on. 1. Let them know they're appreciated: We can't always solve problems for our partners, even if we would love nothing more than to wash away their worries. Cupid's Advice:

Whether you take it nice and slow or get hot and heavy, on occasion we all get swept up in PDA. There's a style for all of us, be it hand holding to a hardcore make-out session. These are the ways to declare your partner yours in public:

1. Cuddle up: In order to bring in new customer, movie theaters have brought the experiences of home to movie goers. This comes with nifty new reclining seats whose arm rests lift up. This gives you free rein to enjoy snuggling up to your partner while watching the newest flick. Plus the dark area of a movie theater will have your PDA flying total under the radar. Of course, if your more brazen you can take a tip out of Camila and Shawn's playbook and cuddled up while sharing food at a restaurant.

2. Hand holding: Vastly underrated and criticized for the potential of sweating palms, holding hand is the perfect amount of PDA. The tiny physical intimacy says to the world that you're in love, but your still your own person. It does so by connecting the partners, but not cutting them off from their surroundings like kissing would. Out of all forms of PDA, it's also the most likely to be tolerated by those around who are not very much in love with public affection.

3. Forehead kissing: This simple intimacy is easy to get away with in public. Soft lips on the forehead is very much an act of care which won't produce an eye roll. It's also a gentle reminder to your partner that you're there for them whenever they need you. Pair with cuddling or holding hand as aforementioned will add a new layer to PDA which is still publicly acceptable.

Celebrity Parents: Former 'Bachelor' Arie Luyendyk Jr. Calls Wife Lauren the 'Hottest Momma'

By Katie Sotack

Arie Luyendyk still has the hots for his final rose recipient and now wife, Lauren. The caption on a recent Instagram post of his wife in a swimsuit holding their eight week old baby read, "I love those cheeks. Proud of you @laurenluyendyk, hottest momma around #8weeks". According to EOnline.com the celebrity couple are having a grand old time as parents. They can be seen hiking and eating out on social media where they document their trials and tribulations of new parenthood. As for the post, Lauren responded with a squeamish "Omg baby", to which Arie let us know he couldn't help himself with a simple "Sorrrrryyyyy".

These celebrity parents are always supporting and uplifting each other. What are some ways to support your partner after she gives birth?

Cupid's Advice:

Arie and Lauren are enjoying their time together as new parents, but Arie has been sure to let new dads know it's a vital job as well. "It will be hard, it will challenge your relationship. It will also be the best thing you'll have ever done together," the former Bachelor said. Take a parenting tip from Arie, and use these ways to be there for your partner after the birth of your child:

1. Take care of Mama: With the focus on the new life you've brought into the world, remembering the needs of the woman who's produced this baby can fall to the bottom of the list. But don't let it. Pregnancy and birth takes a huge toll on the body. Hormonal-wise, the baby package is likely a roller coaster that does not dissipate after postpartum. Take the time to check in with your partner emotionally and physically during the ordeal.

2. Get her a gift: I'm not talking flowers here, though even that gesture is nice. Instead think of the traumatic toll birth has taken on her body and get her something she needs. Try something like MOMBOX, a subscription service that delivers a box full of goodies for postpartum moms. They have boxes for vaginal birth and c-sections which come with things like transition panties, herbal bath salts, and nipple cream. If you're not into prepackaged gifts, try to put a basket together yourself. Use your knowledge of what relaxes your partner and what's currently paining her to create the perfect gift.

3. Give her alone time: Her entire life is revolved around your baby right now, but her mental health is important too. Once a week offer to watch the baby by yourself for a few hours so mom can do something for herself. Suggest taking a bubble bath or going out with friends/family. Anything to remind her that she is a person outside of your precious child and her needs deserve to be met too.

Maybe you just want to enjoy your lives together without the pressure of what society thinks you should do like Irwin and Powell, or maybe you just want to take your time before making a lifetime commitment. Cupid has some advice to help you know when you're ready for marriage:

1. You know yourself: Before you tie yourself to another person for life it's important to be confident in the person you are. According to MyDomaine.com, therapist Kimberly Hershenson, LMSW, says, "A successful marriage is more likely if both partners feel secure independently and are able to work as a team moving forward." One way to help you learn yourself is to experience independence. That may mean being single a while, living on your own, or being financially independent.

2. You include your partner in future plans: When you think about your future do you automatically envision your partner there with you? If so then you might be ready for marriage. It doesn't mean that you want or need your partner/spouse present at every social event in your life. It does, however, mean you consider them when you're thinking about or planning the important, meaningful events in your future.

3. You are okay with the fact it won't just be about you anymore: As an adult, you might be set in your ways. When you find a partner and you know you're ready to get married you will understand that you must learn to put their wants and needs ahead of your own at times. You may have to compromise on things you've gotten used to on your own, but you are okay with that because you want a life with your partner.

Celebrity Vacation: Make Your Anniversary Special With a Vacation Like Sofia Vergara & Joe Manganiello

By Mara Miller

Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello are no strangers when it comes to showing their love for each other. This celebrity couple became an item in 2014 and married the following year. Most recently, they jetted off to Positano, Italy for a celebrity vacation to celebrate their five-year dating anniversary. It's important to show your partner how much you love them and to celebrate important dates like Vergara and Manganiello, but how do you make it special?

Here is how to make your own anniversary with your partner special like Sofia and Joe's celebrity vacation dating anniversary!

Even if you decide not to jet off to Italy like Vergara and Manganiello for your own anniversary with your partner, there are still ways to make it special:

1. A mini-getaway: Celebrate your dating anniversary with your partner by whisking them off to the beach for a mini getaway, no matter what time of year. Somewhere along the beach in Virginia or the Carolinas, for example, is surprisingly tame in the off-season and you can't beat some of the great hotel prices. You might not be able to swim outside, but you'll still be able to enjoy a walk on the beach together.

2. Take them to a restaurant they've been dying to try: Has your partner been dying to try a restaurant a few states over because of their excellent ratings? Plan a day to drive them to a restaurant they've always wanted to try, but haven't tried yet because it's either too far or too pricey. If it's a higher-end restaurant, you might want to save for it, but it will be worth it to spend the night dining with your partner.

3. Save up for a larger vacation: Has your partner really wanted to travel to Europe, but you've just never had the time or money to travel? Why not save up and go on your anniversary? It can be anywhere in the world—Italy, France, England, Spain—the possibilities are endless. Just be sure to check travel guidelines in the country you're planning to visit because some may require a tourist travel visa and your passport will need to be valid for so many months before you can enter the country. Flights can be up to $2000 dollars as well, so you'll want to start planning with a budget that will allow you to cover flight costs as well as lodging and a rental vehicle.

4. Rent a cabin for the weekend: If your sweetie is more of the outdoorsy type, renting a cabin for the weekend is a way to have a home away from home. Some cabins will even let you bring your dog(s)! Cozy up by a great fire if it's for winter, or explore activities in the area like hiking or other sight-seeing options.

5. Take a craft or cooking class: Nothing brings people together like food or learning a new craft. The options on what kind of craft are endless, from decorative crafts with pottery making or a decorative craft like painting stained glass. Not the best cooks together? A cooking class can help you and your partner learn more about the art of making food, from the basics of putting together a batch of pretzels to cooking your own gourmet meal. No matter what you choose, it's sure to be special, and make you and your partner closer!
