Celebrity Exes Melanie

Griffith and Antonio Banderas Reunite at Daughter's Graduation

By: Maria Capalbo

According to UsMagazine.com, celebrity exes Melanie Griffith and her ex-husband Antonio Banderas put all hostilities aside between them, and came together to watch their daughter, Stella, receive her diploma at graduation! Despite being divorced after their 19 years of celebrity marriage, Griffith and Banderas showed the great love they have for their successful daughter. Even though Griffith covered up the tattoo she got with Banderas' name on it, she could not cover up the joy she has for her daughter!

These celebrity exes aren't holding a grudge. What are some ways to remain amicable with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt about the fact that break-ups and divorces are tough. In fact, they aren't always amicable. That being said, it's important to let go of your grudge before too long. Cupid's got some relationship advice:

1. Move forward from the past: Do not dwell on the past problems you and your ex-partner used to have, as that can lead to fighting. You have closed the door on them, and it is time to get over it and move on! No matter how much they might have hurt you, forgive and forget. It will only make you feel better in the end.

2. Do not ask about their personal relationships: Being concerned with who your ex is now "seeing" or "talking to" can lead to jealousy and other problems. Do not wonder who they are with, and keep it civil between the both of you. Worry about your next hot date instead of theirs!

3. Keep in touch once in awhile: Just because they are your ex does not mean that you cannot be friends. Check up on them once in awhile to see how they are doing. Be there for them if they need someone to talk to on certain occasions!

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Leighton Meester, Sofia

Vergara and Taylor Swift

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with juicy relationship gossip, including a celebrity pregnancy announcement, a famous couple prepping for their celebrity wedding, and a singer finally settling down. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love lives!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Celebrity Couples

Leighton Meester and Adam Brody: It was recently announced that Leighton Meester and Adam Brody are expecting their first celebrity baby together, sending Gossip Girl and The O.C. fans into a tizzy. I predict that their little bundle of joy will be a very cute baby, though one doesn't have to be a psychic to see that.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Leighton Meester Says She's Never Been Dumped

I have to admit that I see something in their celebrity marriage that says that this famous couple won't be together for the long haul – that's something that I've noticed since they first got married. What I see could also be a rough patch down the road that leads to a little time apart; they may find their way back to each other. Only time will reveal the outcome of this relationship and love!

This celebrity couple has let it be known that they want a bunch of kids, and I see four children circling Meester. Once this baby comes, it's possible that the actress will focus on being a mother for a while – a bummer to her fans but a bonus to her baby.

Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello: I can't help but still give this famous couple the side eye. For some reason, I keep seeing Vergara and Manganiello thrown together for publicity purposes. My psychic juices say "staged." While they make one dynamite-looking couple, there is something that is a bit off about them. Their body language doesn't read like a couple crazy in love. Maybe the need for companionship is what brought them together.

Now, Vergara is saying that she would like to have celebrity babies with Manganiello, even though she previously said that having more kids was not a priority. I don't see any more kids in her future, at least not any that she'll give birth to. Until Vergara and Manganiello walk down the aisle together, I can't see them as a serious pair. If they do go through with it, their celebrity marriage will be short-lived. May they prove me wrong! I do wish them the best.

Taylor Swift and Calvin Harris: I love to see Taylor Swift stepping out with her new man, DJ and music producer Calvin Harris. They make a nice-looking couple. Harris is known for being a bit of a playboy, but it looks like things are progressing well with the songstress. Cheating rumors have surfaced over the past few days – and they won't be the last ones. We can expect more gossip and women throwing themselves at Harris because they want to cause trouble between him and Swift.

When I first saw them together, I didn't see this relationship lasting for more than a few minutes, but it looks like the tide has turned. In fact, it seems like it could go longer than most of Swift's romances. As you probably know, the singer's past relationships have lasted for about ten minutes, and people have often wondered why she can't seem to keep a man around. I see Swift and Harris in a relationship for about a year and a half to two years. I don't see wedding bells, but you can expect for Swift to write nice songs about her new guy.

Expert Relationship Advice: Is Getting Hitched Irrelevant These Days?

By David Wygant

Take a look at all of the celebrity couples out there that don't make marriage a priority in their relationships and love: Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick, Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux, Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell. Does that mean that you have to do what these famous couples do? Per my expert relationship advice, no one should ever follow the example of a celebrity. A celebrity is just someone who happens to have lucked into a career – who had enough talent, timing, connections, or serendipity. Look at Kardashian, for instance. Her lack of talent is painfully apparent, but her mother is an absolutely brilliant marketer. She was able to get a terrible reality TV show on the air and capture the public's morbid curiosity...and the rest is history.

Expert Relationship Advice About Marriage

You need to stay on the path of your own life and follow your heart. Marriage is something that is definitely, in today's day and age, different than it's ever been before. As a relationship expert, I find that most people who get married these days don't have the patience to stick it out. And why is that? Because the word "commitment" doesn't mean what it used to. When people used to get married, it was "for life." The term "'til death do us part" was used because people got married very young and died young too, so death was usually what parted them.

I can't tell you whether to get married or not, and I can't tell you whether it's irrelevant for you. My expert love advice is simple: You need to search deep inside and ask yourself, "What do I want out of life?" Do you want to get married? Do you want to have children? Do you want to raise a family? You have to decide what you want to do based on who you are as a person, not based on the story your parents passed on to you and not based on the expectations of others or some fairy tale you heard as a kid. After all, marriage is not for everyone.

Related Link: Bristol Palin Cancels Celebrity Wedding

I've met a lot of young people who have no interest in getting married. As a matter of fact, they have no interest in having a family. All they want to do is enjoy life. Marriage is great, but it takes two people to grow and learn, step outside themselves, and be willing to love somebody unconditionally. If you don't have that in a relationship and you're not willing to be vulnerable or to make sacrifices, then my expert relationship advice is that marriage is irrelevant for you.

If you take two self-absorbed individuals and throw them into a relationship and love, you have two people who are afraid to work on themselves, and the marriage will never last. Think about what you really want because, at the end of the day, this journey of life is all about you. Write down how you want to spend your time. Write down how you feel about marriage, children, etc. And then date accordingly. You'll find plenty of people who feel the exact same way as you!

Rumors have been floating for ages about a new celebrity relationship for Taylor Swift. Finally, fans have their answer! Cupid's Advice:

Relationship advice comes from left and right these days, and it may seem obvious as to what is best for you. But, if you're not sure how to open up to the public about your new

1. Facebook: Living in a digital age, this one might be obvious. But, if you want to reach the highest amount of your friends at once, why not announce on Facebook?

Although the latest celebrity news shows that some people don't experience being dumped, that's normally not the case. Break-ups hurt and if you're not prepared for them, they can catch you off guard. Here are some relationship tips to prepare yourself for a split:

1. Remember your hobbies: If your life has become centered around your beau, it may be time to pick up some of your old hobbies that you left in your past. Join a book club, start hiking again, or volunteer. It's important to make sure you still have a life if one day your relationship ends.

Expert Dating Advice For Finding Love After Divorce

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

Fellow fictional vampires Nikki Reed and Ian Somerhalder just tied the knot in their celebrity wedding after a whirlwind romance. The famous couple began their relationship in the fall of 2014 when Reed announced she and her then-husband Paul McDonald were separating. By January 2015, the celebrity divorce was finalized and Somerhalder had popped the question. Now, the two are hitched and honeymooning in Brazil after dating for less than a year.

Expert Dating Advice for Finding Love

To some, tying the knot only four months after leaving a marriage may seem impulsive, but there are no rules set in stone when it comes to finding love after a divorce. “This wildly varies from person to person,” Judith Sills, Ph.D, psychologist and author of Getting Naked Again: Dating, Romance, Sex, and Love When You’ve Been Divorced, Widowed, Dumped, or Distracted told Web MD. “Everyone ends a relationship by grieving the emotional investment. For some people, that happens before they move out. Others are still emotionally married after the divorce is final.”

Based on the romantic photos that Daily Mail shared of the honeymoon, it looks like married life suits this famous couple. Reed seems confident about her relationship with Somerhalder, which is one of the most important signs of a healthy union, especially when her celebrity divorce from Paul McDonald was so public.

What are some ways you can tell if you are ready to dedicate yourself to a committed relationship after a divorce? Here’s some expert dating advice to determine if you’re ready to begin again:

Related Link: Dating Advice: Create The Person You Want To Be

1. Feel it out: Stay true to your feelings. Allow yourself “a little time to think, a little time to grieve, a little opportunity to find someone else,” Sills says. Sure, Reed was ready to seriously date almost immediately after leaving her previous marriage, but that doesn’t mean you have to be, too. Do what feels good. If dating makes you uncomfortable, embrace that fact, and use that time to treat yourself. Eventually, your emotions will let you know when you’re really ready.

2. No, really, feel it out: Dating after divorce has shown potential to prevent depression in a surprising way. Dr. Karen Finn stresses the importance of human touch when it comes to maintaining good mental health. However, if the idea of becoming physically close with a new person isn't appealing, Dr. Finn recommends to, "get a massage, become known by your friends as a hugger, get a mani and/or pedi, and hug yourself."

3. Do it for the right reasons: It can be tempting to jump back into dating after a divorce so that you can claim yourself as "the winner," the one who finds happiness with another person first. Unfortunately, that's not the kind of motivation that will necessarily lead to a lasting new relationship. You wouldn't want to get involved with someone who is invested in hurting their ex's feelings, so don't put anyone else in that position.

There is no schedule in terms of finding love post-divorce. Most importantly, this is a time to rekindle the love you have for yourself! Then you can start hunting vampires like Reed, if you know what I mean.
