John Mayer and Katy Perry

Famous Couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West Show PDA After

Brit Awards

By Maggie Manfredi

"No Kanye; you're awesome!" According to UsMagazine.com, famous couple Kim Kardashian and Kanye West were not shy when it came to public displays of affection at the Brit Awards on Wednesday. Mrs. West posted a picture with her hubby on Twitter the night of the awards showing her licking Kanye's face! This was one of many posts from the celebrity couple. The Keeping Up With The Kardashians starlet introduced Kanye's performance at the awards and thoroughly enjoyed herself with other A-listers throughout the night. The Hollywood couple was seen in photos with Taylor Swift and Sam Smith during the event, and had nothing but love for each other.

Famous couples can't show PDA without the whole world knowing, but that's the point, right? What are some ways to show your partner you care in public?

Cupid's Advice:

PDA: Public display of affection. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West do it, so why can't you? Cupid says you can, but there are some guidelines to showing your lover you care in public:

1. Keep it simple: Kim Kardashian made a bold move with the tongue to cheek PDA action. If you want to show your partner you care in public, it's probably best to keep it simpler than Kimye's celebrity love, and there are plenty of ways to do so. Holding hands, hugs, or a hand on the knee are all options. Cupid advises you keep your tongue out of it when it comes to public affection.

2. Be comfortable: Opinions are all over the board when it comes to PDA, so don't be afraid to talk about it with your partner. Some people are bold, like celebrity couple Kim and Kanye, while others don't even want to touch in public. Make sure you are both comfortable with how you display affection in public so that it is mutually enjoyable.

3. Feel the room: Not every place is appropriate for affection. A bench to yourselves in a public park is okay for a little light canoodling, whereas a packed public train would be inappropriate and most likely inconsiderate. Cupid is happy you cannot keep your hands off of each other, but affection is usually best shared in private.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Gabrielle Union, Kourtney Kardashian and Lady Gaga

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with hot relationship gossip, including newlyweds dealing with marriage drama, reality TV stars facing cheating rumors (again), and a private pair celebrating their celebrity engagement. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Popular Celebrity Couples

Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade: The word on the street is that the actress and Miami Heat star may not be legally married. Somehow, their marriage license was never filed with the state court. The lovebirds did obtain a license, so it's a mystery why it wasn't signed and sent back to the county within the 10 day period. Technically, the celebrity couple is married, but if there are any legal issues, the lack of a marriage license could cause trouble in the long run.

I agree with the theory that they didn't file the license so that, if things in their celebrity relationship take a bad turn, neither one of them can go after each's other bank account. Unfortunately, I don't see this marriage lasting. Right now, they're in the honeymoon stage. Union appears to be way more into their relationship and love than Wade. Sure, he's enjoying it right now, but when the pixie dust wears off, pay attention to the press. He'll be accused of having a side chick. After all, he's consistently gotten away with being a cheater – why stop now?

Related Link: Celebrity Couple Gabrielle Union and Dwayne Wade Signed Prenup

Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick: Every day, new celebrity gossip circles around the Kardashians. The most recent celebrity cheating rumor is that Disick is hooking up with younger sister Kylie Jenner. This isn't true, as the father of three isn't looking at Jenner in a romantic way.

However, he is close to her because he feels like he can talk to her. This could be trouble in the long run if he and Kardashian continue to have communication problems. It's true that Disick can be a bit of a bad boy with his drinking and partying, but that doesn't make him a cheater.

People keep wondering when this celebrity couple will get married. Up until now, a celebrity marriage hasn't mattered to the oldest Kardashian sister. I do see a shift in what she wants though. The pair has been together since 2006, and three kids later, she is reconsidering getting hitched (as you may recall, she previously said no to Disick's proposals twice).

Out of all of the Kardashian sisters, she has the best relationship and love. Yes, even better than Kim Kardashian and Kanye West! It's true that Disick could turn his partying down a bit, but he does support her and help with the kids. At one point, he wanted them to move to New York City. That would be the best thing for their relationship. They need to get out of that crazy Kardashian compound, or it could tear them apart.

Lady Gaga Celebrates Celebrity Engagement

Lady Gaga and Taylor Kinney: On Valentine's Day, the Chicago Fire actor put a ring on it! It's no surprise that the pop star said yes to her longtime love's proposal and shared the good news with her Little Monsters on social media. The pair has been dating since 2011 after Kinney appeared in Gaga's video "You and I." This famous couple has a wonderful energy around them, and they are a very good match. . Kinney helps to keep her grounded, while Gaga adds spice to his life.

While they are both in the entertainment business, family comes first.

It will be interesting to see how Lady Gaga reinvents herself after she gets married. We will definitely see a different version of the songstress! I also see baby energy circling around them. Having kids is a priority, though they may wait until they are married for a year to start trying for a bundle of joy. I see their firstborn being a little girl and baby number two being a boy.

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you're in the celebrity news or not, supporting your partner in their career is of the utmost importance in any relationship. Here are some ways to encourage your partner in their profession, like these married celebrity couples:

1. Give each other space; growing separately does not mean growing away: Sometimes the best thing you can do is give your significant other space. Getting there on your own is half the fun of achieving any goal. Don't take that away from your partner.

Their Lips are Sealed: 5 Celebrity Couples That Kept a Secret

by Molly Jacob

What's juicier than a best kept secret? Sometimes we like to keep things to ourselves, and celebrities are no different.

With all the celebrity gossip that follows anything anyone famous does, we don't blame people in Hollywood relationships who like to keep their lips sealed.

From secret baby daddies to secret weddings, see what celebrity couples have kept a secret!

1. Hilarie Burton and Jeffrey Dean Morgan: The One Tree Hill star not only managed to keep her relationship with Grey's Anatomy actor Jeffrey Dean Morgan a secret, but also a baby bump! Burton and Morgan's relationship apparently moved along very quickly in 2009, so no one knew they were together (but this celebrity couple has stayed together ever since). Because she managed to avoid the spotlight after finding out she was pregnant, fans were shocked to find out she was expecting. In March 2010, she gave birth to their son, Augustus. She continued to be tight-lipped about the birth and name of her son until months later, even as the celebrity gossip swirled around them.

2. Leighton Meester and Adam Brody: These two lovebirds kept their romance a secret! A source revealed in February 2013 that the two were dating, and they had been close ever since working together in 2011 on the set of the film The Oranges. In November 2013, a source confirmed that the duo had gotten secretly married. This news came out only three months after their engagement went public, something else they were super secretive about. Being in a Hollywood relationship often comes with a lot of gossip and speculation, so these two probably wanted to keep their relationship as drama-free as possible.

Related: Leighton Meester and Adam Brody Secretly Marry

3. Jude Law and Samantha Burke: Although these two aren't a celebrity couple anymore, this duo kept a secret back in 2008.

Law, known for his scandalous affairs, had a secret, brief fling with model and aspiring actress Samantha Burke. She found out she was pregnant soon after, and conducted a DNA test to determine that Law was the father. Burke gave birth to Sophia, their baby girl, in September of 2009. Although he is no longer in their lives, Law did make a statement in 2009 that he would be supportive of both mother and daughter.

4. Ryan Reynolds and Blake Lively: This Hollywood relationship also seemingly came out of nowhere. Reynolds and Lively married at a secret and private wedding ceremony in 2012 even before publicly confirming their relationship or announcing an engagement. Even more interesting: this was not Reynolds' first secret wedding. He and Scarlet Johansson got married in secret at a Canadian resort in 2008.

5. Alison Brie and Dave Franco: The 21 Jump Street star and Mad Men actress also apparently like to keep their love from any celebrity gossip mills. Everyone was shocked to find out last spring that the two had been dating for two years. While Neighbors fans all over the world received this news with heartbreaking despair, others were surprised they had kept their relationship under wraps for so long.

Divorce Attorney Jacqueline Newman Offers Relationship Advice: “You Want to Be Divorcing a Happier Spouse”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Emma L. Wells.

Jacqueline Newman has an impressive career as a family law attorney in New York City, so it's no surprise that she knows a thing or two about how to best handle a divorce. For starters, she encourages couples to stay away from social media. Saying negative things about your ex could affect more than just your relationship; it may also impact their career, as future employers may Google them and not realize that it was a former spouse who called them a cheat or a liar.

Jacqueline Newman Shares Relationship Advice for Couples During Divorce

It's also important to remember that your words will be around long after your divorce proceedings end. "Nowadays, children learn to tweet before they learn to walk,” the divorce attorney explains when sharing some relationship advice. “You’re making a footprint that’s going to be there forever. You’re saying bad things about your spouse because you’re caught in the moment, but your kids may see this one day.”

Related Link: Making Special Occasions Comfortable for Children After Divorce

If you’re thinking of splitting from your husband, there are several steps you should take. “One of the first things I ask my clients when they sit down in my office is, ‘Are you sure you want to get divorced?’” Newman shares. She points out that this process is far from fun and shouldn’t be undertaken unless you’re 100 percent sure you want out of your marriage.

If your answer is yes, now, you have to decide how you want to get divorced. There are three basic options: litigation, collaborative law, or mediation. You need to figure out what process is best for you and what kind of divorce attorney you want to hire. “You want to be with an attorney who you feel you can say anything to. If you’re not comfortable talking to them, then you’re not giving them the tools and position to really protect you,” she reveals.

While a good personality fit is the number one quality to look for in an attorney, the second thing you need is a person who can think strategically. “You need someone who’s going to look at the big picture and figure out the best way to get you to your goals,” she adds.

Related Link: Facing a Divorce? Don’t Take the Adversarial Approach

Newman also encourages her female clients to become familiar with their spending habits. “Women are not always aware of their finances before getting divorced,” she explains. “Pay attention to your lifestyle.” It will empower you to know what's going on and help you control the outcome of your divorce.

Her best relationship advice for those going through a divorce is simple: "You want to be divorcing a happier spouse." She says it's important to maintain a civil attitude – especially if children are involved – and make sure everyone has what they want in the end. If you want to look at celebrity divorces for inspiration, it may be tough. "If they're really smooth and amicable, you never hear about them," she divulges. "The best divorces are the ones you find out about after the fact."

Prenuptial Agreements Aren't Only for Celebrity Couples

Believe it or not, you don't have to be a celebrity couple or have a lot of money to have a prenuptial agreement. Prenups are the biggest part of Newman's practice, and there are many situations that require one. For instance, if it's your second marriage and you have children from your first marriage or if you own your own business, then a prenup is necessary. As the divorce attorney explains, you should get a prenup "if you have assets that you want to be very clear are going to stay yours after a divorce." She adds that laws are constantly changing and that it's good to guarantee what's going to happen in the event of divorce.

Related Link: Divorce Expert Advice: Kindness No Matter What

Apart from providing security, prenups can be good for your relationship and love. "Not only do they help assure the wealthier spouse that they aren't being taken advantage of, but they teach couples to have difficult conversations about money," she shares. "You shouldn't look at prenups as asking for a divorce."

As far as her own ten-year marriage goes, Newman believes that her job actually helps her relationship and love. "I think, on some level, it strengthens my marriage because seeing people at their worst, seeing what they will do, gives me perspective on how little it matters if he doesn't unload the dishwasher," she says. "I fight all day long at work, so I really don't fight that much at home. I get it out of my system. You can't have a lot of drama in both parts of your life!"

Jacqueline Newman joined Berkman Bottger Newman & Rodd, LLP in 1998 and is now the managing partner of the firm. Ms. Newman's practice consists of litigation, collaborative law and mediation. She specializes in complex high net worth matrimonial cases and negotiating prenuptial agreements. Newman has appeared as a commentator on various television shows and has been quoted as an expert in numerous publications, including Glamour Magazine, Crain's New York Business, U.S. News and World Report, Woman's Day and The Huffington Post. 5 Celebrity Couples Who Celebrate Valentine's Day in Style

By Brittany Stubbs and Molly Jacob

While flowers and chocolates are nice, in Hollywood, Valentine's Day is usually done a little different. Although there are many ways to show your love, check out how some of our favorite celebrity couples are doing it! Celebrity love is definitely in the air this season, and there's no better way to show it than with extravagant gestures. If you need some romance inspiration, check out the five famous couples below:

Celebrity Couples Who Celebrate the Day of Love in Style

1. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: Kimye has gone overboard with V-Day celebrations in the past few years. Last Valentine's Day, Kim received 1,000 roses from Kanye, which she showed off on her Instagram account. West also has shown his love to Kardashian with some serious bling. In 2013, the rapper gave his sweetheart a $73,000 bracelet from Cartier's Panthere Collection. The stunning bracelet featured a diamond-encrusted panther motif with emerald eyes and an onyx nose, completed with a black cuff and a white-gold trim.

Although Kardashian loves her bling, she admits that Valentine's Day presents don't have to include a huge price tag to be special. In a interview with Gotham, Kardashian said, "Valentine's Day is all about showing the people around you how much you love them, so the gifts that come from the heart are always the most special. One year, Mason [Kourtney Kardashian's son] gave me the most adorable Valentine's Day card that he made himself, and it is still one of the best gifts I've ever received."

2. Lauren Conrad and William Tell: Conrad and Tell, one of our favorite celebrity love stories, will be celebrating their third anniversary this Valentine's Day. The celebrity couple were introduced to each other by mutual friends on the day of love in 2012 and have been lovey-dovey ever since. Last year, Conrad showed her love to her then-fiancé on Instagram by posting an adorable engagement photo with the caption, "Happy Anniversary to my favorite Valentine. I love you dearly xo." This is their first Valentine's Day as a married couple, so we're excited to see what this day of love and joy brings them!

3. Kate Middleton and Prince William: Valentine's Day isn't always about spending the time with your lover. In 2013, Kate Middleton and Prince William celebrated the day of love in style by doing something they love: helping others! The Duchess Of Cambridge visited Northolt High School, a London high school, and officially opened the school's ICAP Art Room after receiving a lovely floral arrangement. Middleton has been a patron of the art room since 2012. William spent Valentine's Day morning in Datchet, Berkshire with Prince Harry, delivering sandbags to communities affected by flooding

This wasn't the first Valentine's Day the royal couple has spent apart! In 2012, William was on a tour of duty in the Falklands during the 14th of February, but he still managed to send her a card and flowers despite his being 7,000 miles away.

4. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie: This power couple has shown their celebrity love on Valentine's Day by celebrating with some laughter. In 2013, Pitt gave his lover vegan, gluten-free, sugar-free mints for Valentine's Day, a loving joke since he's always teasing Jolie that she has bad breath. Although he could easily buy her something fancy (which we assume he did along with the gag gift), this gift shows the couple's unique, playful side, which is always in style!

The couple doesn't always make a joke about the holiday, though! In 2010, Jolie gifted Pitt with a 200-year-old olive tree worth $30,000. The tree was planted at their French home, the Chateau Miraval, where it joined an olive grove, vineyard, and more.

5. Jay-Z and Beyonce: Is anyone surprised that this "Drunk in Love" couple would celebrate the Day of Love in anything less than amazing style? Last Valentine's Day, Jay-Z bought his wife a $2,300 Tacori bracelet. The bracelet's intertwined gold and silver design is said to represent their union, and it can only be unlocked by a private key. Jay-Z reportedly gave Bey her gift a few days earlier than the 14th because she was so eager to receive it.

Last year wasn't the only year the rapper surprised his wife with an extravagant gift. In 2009, Jay-Z bought Beyoncé a platinum cell phone worth $24,000 for Valentine's Day. We can't wait to see how this superstar celebrity couple celebrates V-Day this year.

5 Valentine's Day Celebrity Engagements

By Maria Darbenzio and Molly Jacob

Valentine's Day is the holiday of relationships and love, so what better way to celebrate than getting down on one knee, popping open the ring box, and asking your partner to spend a lifetime with you? While some may find proposing on VDay to be cheesy, these celebrity couples do not agree.

Check out these five Valentine's Day celebrity engagements:

1. Christina Aguilera and Matthew Rutler: On Valentine's Day last year, the singer revealed her celebrity engagement to her film producer boyfriend by tweeting a photo of a massive diamond on her left hand. This celebrity couple met on the set of Burlesque in 2010, as she was going through a divorce from Jordan Bratman (a divorce that, ironically enough, was finalized on Valentine's Day in 2011). Looks like Rutler "Ain't No Other Man" in Aguilera's eyes!

2. Dave Annable and Odette Yustman: In 2010, Annable, most known for his role on Brothers and Sisters, proposed to his co-star girlfriend of two years. He proposed at the place they first fell in love and had their parents waiting for them at the hotel restaurant. The actress was surprised by the proposal and excited that she got to share it immediately with her parents and future in-laws. This celebrity engagement did not last long – the twosome got married eight months later!

3. Vince Vaughn and Kyla Weber: For this couple, the engagement had been discussed months before it actually happened. Little did Weber know, her comedian boyfriend did not want to pass up the opportunity of proposing on Valentine's Day. Not only was it a romantic holiday, but it was also a date that he said he would always remember. In 2009, Vaughn got down on one knee and proposed to the Canadian real estate agent. She said yes, and this celebrity couple is now married with two children.

The beginning of a new relationship and love should be filled with joy and bliss. However, when your pals are unsupportive of your new partner, it can put a damper on your happiness. If you’re facing criticism like this celebrity couple, Cupid has some tips:

1. Introduce them: If your buddies haven’t met your significant other yet, ask them to be open-minded until they get to know each other. Encourage them to set judgments aside until they spend some quality time together.

It’ll help you understand where they’re coming from, and it’ll allow your pals to feel like they’re being heard. Getting everything out in the open will help you all move forward in a graceful way.

If they truly love you (and they should!), seeing you so happy should be enough for them.

The actress, who currently has a recurring role on Tim Allen's show Last Man Standing, describes her initial encounter with IFAW as "love at first lecture. I fell in love with these people and their commitment." One of the primary goals of the organization, which was founded in 1969, is to inform the world about the realities of endangered exotic species. "A lot of people don't realize that piano keys, chess pieces, and billiard balls are historically ivory," she explains in our exclusive celebrity interview. "And they're not aware that you can't have ivory unless an elephant is dead."

The video footage in her PROTECT PSA campaign shows the relationship that animals like elephants have with each other, allowing viewers to see them as living, breathing creatures. "It's so important that people know that they have feelings and emotions and reverence for their ancestors like humans do," she passionately shares. "Our campaign sheds light on the struggles of these animals without being graphic. It's in a positive way."

She adds, "We're not asking anybody to give any money; we're not asking for a donation. We're asking people to protect these animals and to have them in their consciousness. I feel like everyone is loving it."

With this thought in mind, the star believes that it's important to show her kids what it means to be a working mother. "They get to see me love my career and also have enough time for them," Fisher shares. "They will be better humans for that!"

In order to find that balance between your professional and personal life, you have to surround yourself with people who appreciate all of your hard work and enjoy every moment. She adds with a laugh, “More than, you know, romance in the bedroom – but you do have to fit that in too!”

For date night, the famous couple enjoys going to sushi bars and eating good food. Recently, they went and saw Brad Garrett, Fisher’s costar in ‘Til Death, in a comedy show.
