

Celebrity Couple Jay-Z & Beyonce Open Grammy's with 'Drunk in Love' Performance

By Louisa Gonzales

The 2014 Grammy's started off with a bang with a duet by Jay-Z and wife Beyonce on Sunday. Although Jay-Z was the one up for multiple awards this year for his Holy Grail album, the lovebirds both shared the glory up on stage. According to UsMagazine.com, the celebrity power couple performed a special track for the first time from Beyonce's late December surprise album, "Drunk in Love".

How can music help keep the spark alive in your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you first get together with your partner it feels new, fresh and exhilarating. However, after a while you can find yourselves falling into a rut in terms of your love life, especially when you have been dating for a long time. A couple needs passion and excitement to keep their love alive. How can one keep their relationship from becoming dull and boring? Cupid has some advice on how music can help keep the spark alive in your relationship:

1. Make each other mix-cd's: Music is inspirational and speaks to many people. A songs lyrics can also reflect on how you view life, yourself or someone else. It could be fun to make each other a mix-cd that reflects on how you feel about one another and about your relationship. You can also pick out songs you would love to introduce to your lover, it can be a fun way to learn more about each other and connect in new ways.

Celebrity Couple Marc Anthony & Chloe Green Get Affectionate at Grammy's

By Louisa Gonzales

Marc Anthony and much younger girlfriend Chole Green were seen cuddled up together at the Grammy's, inside the Staples Center auditorium, Sunday January 26th. Anthony, 45, and Green, 22, aren't shy about showing their affection in public as they generously posed in front of the cameras before the awards show. The beaming couple showed up hand in hand on the red carpet and were spotted wrapped around each other throughout the night. The romantic pair appears to be as strong as ever, and Green has even become a part of Anthony and ex Jennifer Lopez' twins, Max and Emme, 5, lives. According to UsMagazine.com, the lovebirds were spotted last February, riding rides and bonding together at Disneyland in Anaheim, California.

What are some ways to show your affection toward your partner in public?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the greatest things about dating is having someone there for you who you can count on. Being affectionate with your significant other is a way to show that you care. Cupid has some advice on ways to show affection toward your partner:

1. Find ways to touch each other: One of the greatest forms of affection is through physical contact. Skin to skin contact is good for your relationship as it shows you care, are passionate and attracted to your partner. Physical contact has been proven to sometimes help people in pain, with stress as well as increase sexual attraction. Touch you mate and get them to touch you. Start off with simple gestures like taking hold of their hand, embracing, or giving them a quick kiss as it will help them become more comfortable with showing physical signs of affection in public.

2. Do activities together outside your homes: Show your affection by going out on dates together to public places. It's not about showing off your relationship to anyone it's about letting them know you are not afraid to be seen with them. It helps your lover feel more secure and confident about your relationship. Being able to take your lovebird out and about it a great way to show you care and you are fine with showing people you are a couple.

'The Bachelor' Celebrity Wedding: Sean Lowe & Catherine Giudici

By April Littleton

According to People, The Bachelor reality TV stars Sean Lowe and Catherine exchanged celebrity wedding vows on live TV on Sunday. Lowe's father officiated the ceremony. The couple got engaged in Thailand in November of 2012.

‘The Bachelor’ celebrity couple Sean and Catherine Lowe were able to add some personal flare to their celebrity wedding. What are some unique ways to incorporate your personal style into your big day?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your wedding day is fast approaching, but you still haven’t found that special “thing” that will make your wedding a one-of-a-kind experience. Don’t worry, Cupid has your back:

1. The decorations: Don’t pick the same old boring decor every other couple has picked before you. Think outside of the box. Try different color schemes, different flower arrangements. Better yet, create some of your own decorations for the ceremony and reception so that they are truly unique. If you have a creative eye, you can come up with something nobody has ever seen before.

2. Plan it yourself: This option might be a little tough to do. When it comes to your special day, plan the whole event yourself. This will allow you to have more freedom of thought and ideas as you go. It can be extremely stressful so we do not recommend this for just anyone. Obviously, you can ask for help whenever you need it, but for the most part, doing it by yourself can feel like a huge accomplishment.

3. The little things: The music. The food. The guest list. Think long and hard about ways you can make the small details creative and fun. Ask your partner to help out. Maybe he/she joked about having chicken nuggets at the reception? You don't have to order fancy filet mignon just because that's considered to be a "normal" entree. Do your own thing. If you want a personal friend to DJ at your wedding, let them. After all, this is YOUR wedding day.

Celebrity Couples Who Keep Their Relationships Out of the Spotlight

By April Littleton

Most of the famous and wealthy individuals we see on our TV screens and in the magazines enjoy having their love life on display for the whole world to see. However, there are a select few who prefer to keep their relationship out of harm's way. Cupid has a list of celebrities who manage to keep their private life – private:

1. Dolly Parton and Carl Thomas Dean: The country singer has been married to Dean since May, 30, 1996. They met at a Wishy-Washy laundromat on her first day in Nashville with his first words to her being, "Y'all gonna get sunburnt out there, little lady." Since marrying, Dean has only seen Parton perform once and he rarely makes any public appearances with his wife. Parton and Dean have no children together, but she commented on his romantic side in an interview stating that Dean does spontaneous things to surprise her and sometimes writes her poems.

2. Beyonce and Jay-Z: This couple kept their relationship under wraps for quite a while. It was rumored that the couple began dating after collaborating together on the hit single "03 Bonnie and Clyde". The lovebirds took it a step further by secretly marrying on April 4, 2008. When it comes to the status of their relationship, the couple have since eased up on their privacy, especially when Beyonce publicly announced her pregnancy during a live performance on the 2011 MTV Video Music Awards.

3. Morris Chestnut and Pam Byse: Who knew that The Best Man Holiday co-star was married? Well he is – and has been for 18 years now. Chestnut and his wife Pam have two children together, Grant and Paige. In an interview with Upscale magazine, the actor explained what makes their marriage successful. "I let my wife be the woman. You know? I let her be the woman.... And she, in turn, when it comes down to it, she lets me be the man," Chestnut said.

Bradley Cooper and Girlfriend Suki Waterhouse Go Public at Sundanace

By April Littleton

According to People, Bradley Cooper and girlfriend Suki Waterhouse have finally gone public with their romance. The lovebirds attended the Sundance Film Festival together in Park City, Utah. They were spotted strolling down the street, while holding hands.

When is it the right time to go public with a new relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Love is in the air. This may be true indeed, but sometimes, you just don't feel like sharing all of your happiness with everyone else. Keeping a new relationship under wraps for awhile is perfectly acceptable, but eventually you'll have to spill the beans to someone. Cupid has some tips:

1. You've dated long enough: If you've dated your partner for longer than five months, then it's definitely time to let the world know about your new romance. Everyone deserves their privacy and you don't have to give away every single detail about your relationship, but wouldn't you like to spill a little gossip to your best friend? Being able to confide in someone about your new honey will eventually be a necessity when you least expect it.

DeAnna Pappas Stagliano Celebrates Her Baby Shower

By Maria Darbenzio

Former star of The Bachelorette's fourth season, DeAnna Pappas Stagliano, joined friends and family to celebrate the soon-to-be mother. A baby shower was held at her mother-in-law's Los Angeles home on January 12th. The get-together was hosted by DeAnna's sister-in-law, best friend, and Good Carma Studio with a theme of Pretty in Pink. You guessed it: Her and husband, Stephen Stagliano, are having a baby girl! Celebrity Baby Scoop had the opportunity to talk with the 32-year-old about her first child.

As Pappas Stagliano showed off her baby bump in a gorgeous royal blue dress from A Pea in the Pod, guests enjoyed an array of organic foods that included fresh juices and yogurt parfaits. The soiree also included a candy table created by Mabel's Labels, including organic sweets of sugar, spice, and everything nice. They were even treated to foot massages, thanks to MANLY HANDZ.

"I've been trying not to stress over the actual birthing process," she shared. "We've decided to just head to the hospital and let the doctors do what they know best. I'll have an epidural and put my trust in the brains that know best."

She's excited to welcome her little bundle of joy, who is expected to arrive in early February around the same time as her husband's birthday. "A healthy, happy baby girl is all we care about," she went on to say.

Because the couple shared the baby's gender, they've decided to keep their name decision a secret until she arrives. Their daughter will be welcomed with a beautiful nursery designed by Carousel Designs. Although they don't have an overall theme for the nursery, the couple decided on a color scheme and the perfect bedding to go along with it.

As the baby shower came to an end and guest began to leave, they were handed goodie bags that included a variety of awesome party favors. It sounds like the pregnant star had a blast!

The LOWEdown on 'The Bachelor' Celebrity Wedding of Sean Lowe & Catherine Giudici

By Louisa Gonzales

We're invited to view arguably one of the biggest celebrity weddings of the year between reality TV stars Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici, who we all watched fall in love on the ABC reality television series, The Bachelor. Come join us as we tune in to see the lovebirds say their wedding vows and tie the knot. Didn't you get the invite? Even though the two are celebrating their commitment in a live, televised wedding ceremony on Sunday, January 26th, they still sent out invites like any other couple.

'The Bachelor' celebrity couple Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici are tying the knot! Were you invited to their celebrity wedding?

The wedding invitation is a reflection of the beaming celebrity couple's personality, and when reading it, you really get a sense of the type of wedding you're about to witness. The invitation has a goofy description of how they'll be spending the evening: "The LOWEdown: marrying, eating, boogie-ing."

The RSVP card is also quite witty. For those attending, it says "can't wait," but for those with regrets, the box to check is "something more important to attend than celebrating the union of Sean & Catherine."

The former Bachelor stars, who reside in Texas and plan to move in together after they're wed, first announced the date of their big day on Good Morning America in October. The wedding ceremony will be held in Santa Barbara, California. It's no surprise that friends, family, and fellow Bachelor and Bachelorette reality TV contestants all seem happy for the pair's pending wedding nuptials. They've certainly captured our hearts too!

Leading up to their wedding vows, the TV sweethearts have had a blast attending wedding-related events, such as their celebrity engagement party, bachelor and bachelorette parties, and two wedding showers. The latest shower was held at the Lowe house on Saturday, January 4th – three weeks before their big “I do's.” Lowe posted a picture of him and Giudici on Instagram (above) looking partied out and in bliss after a long day of celebration. They received gifts from their registries at Crate & Barrel and Macy's. Guests can also make donations to the organization Micheala's Army, which helps children with pediatric cancer. Isn't it nice to see a celebrity couple use their special day to support a good cause?

The happy celebrity couple want to make sure that their wedding is unforgettable. They seem to be on the right path, having hired celebrity wedding planner Mindy Weiss to give them a “grown-up sexy” day. The duo have been posting tweets and pictures to share how pleased they are with the progress Weiss has made on their wedding plans.

In preparation for their church wedding, Giudici was recently baptized by Lowe's father Jay at Plymouth Park Baptist Church. Her fiancé is a born-again Christian and has never been shy about expressing his beliefs, but the bride-to-be's decision to be baptized as Christian was reportedly her own. Jay will also be marrying the future spouses.

Be sure to watch The Bachelor wedding special on Sunday, January 26th at 8 p.m. ET. Stay tuned for more exciting details about their big day!

Kaley Cuoco's 'Big Bang' Co-Stars Says Ryan Sweeting Will 'Take Great Care' of Her

By Louisa Gonzales

Kaley Cuoco's relationship with Ryan Sweeting's bloomed fast and has received skepticism from some, but not from her Big Bang

Theory co-star. Co-star Kunal Nayyar, 32, only has positive things to say about their relationship. Nayyar tells People at the 2014 Golden Globes that he thinks they're great for each other and expresses only his full support. He went on to explain how they are 'family'. The newly wed couple married on New Year's Eve.

What do you do if your friends are not supportive of your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

When you are at a good place in your relationship with your partner and think you may have found 'the one' it is a major buzz kill when your friends don't think so and tell you things such as 'you can do better' and 'they're not right for you'. Support from your friends is something you need and want. Cupid has some advice on how to handle friends disapproving of your relationship:

1. Try to change their minds: Try to get your friends to see the positive sides of your relationship and see your 'love' the way you do. Explain to them how and why your honey makes you happy. Maybe arrange a time for you, your lovebird, and friends to get together and hangout to get to know each other better. Ask them to give your lover a chance to win their approval.

2. Take their thoughts into consideration: It is always best to listen to what your friends have to say. Tell your friends you will think about what they have told you. Who knows maybe they have valid points that you just didn't want to see. However, ultimately let them know the decision to remain a couple or not are entirely your choice as it is your life.

3. Agree to disagree or find new supportive friends: If in the end you can't change their opinions than either ignore them or find new friends to surround yourself with. Maybe they are not the right friends for you and you need to find pals who do respect your choices in partners. Your friends might have biased opinions. Don't let it affect your relationship as only you can decide what is right for you.

How do you introduce your child to a new partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

Finding romance with someone new is fun and exciting, especially after your previous one didn’t work out like you had hoped. When you are happy in a new relationship you want to tell everybody and shout it from the roof tops, but how do you tell your child about your new beau? Cupid has some Advice on how to introduce you new partner to your child:

1. This is the next step in your relationship: First make sure your relationship is serious and solid enough with a potential long-lasting future. Children can become attached easily and if you break up your partner or they leave you, the child will suffer the loss as well. Introduce them to your new 'love' when your relationship is stable and in a good place.

Related: Exes Ashlee Simpson and Pete Wentz Reunite for Son Bronx's Birthday

2. Ease your child into your new relationship: Don't just drop this new relationship development in you life on them without giving your children the proper warning. Warm them up to the idea, by casually starting to name-drop this new romantic interest in your life and bring them up during your daily conversations. Mention how you have spent more time with a new friend, someone you would like them to meet very soon.

3. Choose the proper place for them to meet: The introduction between your new lovebird and child should take place where the child feels safe, happy and secure. If you introduce them during a time or place they feel distressed or frightened they will associate this new person in their life with that. If it is in a fun social environment, a place where they associate as the norm to meet new people, say the park, the child will feel more at ease and open to the idea of you and your new partner.

What are some ways to keep your relationship romantic post-baby?

Cupid’s Advice:

When a baby is added to the picture, spending quality time with your significant other can be tough to do. Yes, the well-being of your newborn should be the most important thing to you, but you also want to make sure your honey knows the love is still there. Cupid has some tips:

1. Spend time together: For the first few weeks of your newborn's birth, spending some alone time with your partner might be a little impossible to do. When things start to calm down and you feel more comfortable in your new routine, try to spend at least five minutes with your honey. Give him/her a hug, or just chat for a little bit. Any time you share with your significant other from here on out is precious and shouldn't be taken for granted.

How do you support your partner's career aspirations?

Cupid's Advice:

Being supportive of your significant other's aspirations and goals is important if you want to have a successful relationship. Regardless of how hard it will be at times to understand your partner's motivation, it's your job to show them you're there for them through it all. Cupid has some tips:

1. Act interested: When your partner wants to discuss his/her career goals, listen to them with an eager ear. Be encouraging and add some useful advice when it's necessary. Your significant other doesn't want to hear negativity coming from the person they love. Suggest new ideas, but never appear as if you don't believe in their dreams.

By April Littleton

According to People, American Horror Story costars Emma Roberts and Evan Peters are engaged. Peters proposed to Roberts in NYC over the holidays with a pink gold and diamond ring. The lovebirds have been dating since 2012.

What are some ways to keep your engagement under wraps at first?

Cupid's Advice:

You're newly engaged, but you're not entirely sure if you're ready to tell all of your loved ones yet. Sometimes, couples just want to enjoy the moment by themselves for a little while and that's perfectly OK. Cupid has some tips:

1. Keep it a secret: Hiding such exciting news from your friends and family can be easier said than done, but it's also the simplest way to keep your engagement just between you and your partner. Until you're ready to tell your loved ones what's going on in your relationship, keep this bit of information to yourself.

Cupid's Advice:

Couples break up and get back together all the time. There are many causes for breakups. For example, maybe the relationship wasn't healthy or maybe you just weren't ready for one. Sometimes partners break up because they drift apart, but what happens when you find yourselves drifting closer together once again? Cupid has some advice on the subject:

1. Have you talked and resolved all the issues behind your break up? Any conflicts or issues you may have had should be worked out. As partners you need to be on the same page and know the direction of where you want your relationship to go.

3. Are your intentions good? If you just want to get back together with your ex lover because you can't stand the sight of seeing them with someone else it probably isn't a good idea to reconcile. Make sure you are getting back together for the right reasons. Remember trust your gut, be honest with yourself and follow your heart.

'General Hospital' Star Teresa Castillo Is Expecting a Baby Girl

By April Littleton

General Hospital star Teresa Castillo and husband Shane Aaron are expecting their first child together. "It feels wonderful. This is the most joyous time of my life," the mom-to-be told People. "It feels great to finally be able to share it with the world." The couple have been married since 2008.

What are some ways you can prepare your relationship for your first child?

Cupid's Advice:

You're expecting your first child with your significant other and now you're unsure about what to do next. Keep calm. Now is the time for you and your honey to enjoy this wonderful journey you're about to embark on. Cupid has some tips:

1. Take classes: Attend classes with your partner that will help you get ready for your new baby. Some of the classes you take will teach you more about breastfeeding, proper care for your newborn and proper breathing techniques when you go into labor.

Celebrity Couples: What True

Love Looks Like

By Jared Sais

The start of a new year gives everyone a renewed sense of hope, and with this thought in mind, I decided to consider three celebrity couples who are happy in love.

Amanda Seyfried and Justin Long: These lovebirds have become a paparazzi favorite lately. In many photos, the couple appears surprised at their picture being taken. You'll see their eyebrows and eyes raised and their mouths just a bit open. Note that surprise is one of the seven micro-expressions that people make to indicate an emotion.

In another recent photo, we see the actress leaning towards her man, either for a kiss or to whisper something to him. This behavior shows how comfortable they are with each other.

When people feel comfortable, they tend to get even closer into your “personal space bubble.” It’s an easy way to identify if two people are dating or just really close friends.

Related Link: Amanda Seyfried and Justin Long Bond Over Her Dog

As a side note, when flirting, if you’re talking to someone you’re interested in, whisper something every once in a while so the person has to lean in to hear you. It’s a great trick for getting closer and making a move.

Notice Seyfried’s eyes in many photos of the couple. They’re often locked on Justin’s lips; this is what desire looks like. As she gives a slight grin and looks at her man’s wanderlust smile, there is nothing but attraction and lustfully gazing eyes. Likewise, the actor has a very loving smile with deep eye contact, which tells me he is very romantically invested in the blonde beauty.

You can also see the lack of space between them in the photo above and other photos, which indicates a romantic relationship or at least a very close trusting relationship.

Drew Barrymore and Will Kopelman: We have something special here: best friends and lovers. They have a dynamic that many couples strive for. You can tell they are truly happy in many of their photos; the facial expression of smiling is categorized as high cheeks, crows feet in the corners of the eyes, and raised outer corners of the lips. Sometimes, this body language is easier to see in photos than in live action. But knowing the difference between a true smile and a fake smile can make the difference between catching someone in a lie or knowing if your partner is truly interested in you.

When people are comfortable with someone, they usually talk with the cup in their hands; put the cup down and continue to use their hands in a conversation; or put the cup to the side of their body. In a picture of Barrymore and Kopelman at a sporting event, we see the actress talking with her cup in her hands, showing us that she's very comfortable in her husband's presence. She also leans in towards him, putting her weight on him – another sign of trust and love.

Heidi Klum and Martin Kirsten: You'll often see this pair walking at the same pace with locked hands or their arms around each other. This body language is considered mirroring each other, and all signs tell you that their relationship is going strong. They are a very real couple; they run together and share that interest. There's nothing better than an early run and coffee in the morning with your loved one.

Listen up, guys: Real men wear pink or hold their woman's purse. Yes, Kirsten often holds his girlfriend's purse, showing us what a gentleman he is. He is confident with himself and their relationship. Plus, it reveals just how close they are as a couple.

Rumor Alert: Are Miley Cyrus & Kellan Lutz An Item?

By Kerri Sheehan

Rumored fling Miley Cyrus and Kellan Lutz were spotted together on Friday night at the grand opening of Beacher's Madhouse in Las Vegas. Although they arrived to the event separately, they were seen partying together later on in the night. Is it possible that the two are secretly an item? Could be. According to one onlooker who reported to People, "They talked a very close range for a long time while Cyrus was laughing and rubbing his back. At one point she kissed Lutz's ear."

How do you keep your new relationship on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

Navigating a new romance can be tough. Let Cupid help you out:

1. Don't go wild: A new fling may not turn out to be your next boyfriend, so don't be too over the top in the beginning. Take things slow and feel out if he's really the right guy for you.

Vanessa Carlton is hitched! The “A Thousand Miles” singer wed singer John McCauley is past Friday. Carlton wore a fitted, long-sleeved white wedding gown, with a purple headpiece and flowers. According to UsMagazine.com, the 33-year-old tweeted, “Married this gentleman two hours ago xo.”

What are some ways to keep your wedding low-key?

Cupid’s Advice:

Cupid has some advice for how to keep your wedding low-key:

1. Invites: Keeping the invite list small will ensure that your wedding doesn’t get too over the top. Invite only immediate family and close friends for a more personal affair.

Dwyane Wade Admits to Fathering a Child While On Break from Gabrielle Union

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine.com, Dwyane Wade confirmed to fathering a child while on a break from fiancée Gabrielle Union. “I had a time, a part in our break, in our pain and our hurt, a blessing came out of it in my life, having a son that was born healthy,” Wade said in a press conference Monday evening. The basketball player and actress have been dating since 2009 and took a brief hiatus to focus on their careers. The couple announced their engagement Dec. 20.

What are three steps you should take after being betrayed by your partner?

Cupid’s Advice:

You just found out that your partner hasn’t been honest with you about a certain situation. Now, it’s up to you make the decision to either try to mend your relationship, or call it quits. Cupid is here to help:

1. Counseling: If you want to work out your relationship, see a professional counselor with your significant other. You might also want to think about seeing your own therapist before you make any steps toward reconciliation. You'll need to figure out your feelings and if taking your partner back is really the best thing for you to do.

3. Break it off: Letting your partner go and moving on with your life might be the best decision you can make. If you don't feel like you're in a relationship worth saving, call it quits before you begin to doubt yourself. If you can't see yourself trusting your significant other again and you know forgiveness is out of the question, there's no point in you staying with them any longer.

How do you support your partner through a serious illness?

Cupid’s Advice:

A partner’s illness can put a strain on the relationship, especially if you’ve never had to go through something like this before. But there are plenty of ways to help your love through a rough moment in their live without losing them romantically in the process. Cupid has some tips:

1. Communicate: When it comes to a serious illness, both of you need to help each other come to terms with what’s going on. Your partner will have good days and some bad ones as well. All you really need to do is just be there for them – through it all. Maintain an open line of communication. When you're feeling down, let your significant other know and vice versa. You'll only have each other during this difficult time and the illness will surely test the strength of your relationship.

2. Space: Sometimes, you and your honey will want some time alone and that's OK. Plan one day out of the week where you and your partner (as long as they're feeling up to it) can go out and do things on your own. Even if it's just a short visit to the nail salon or to see a matinee movie, the space will do you both some good.

3. Distractions: Don't avoid the illness altogether, but it is a good idea to work on some other activities that kind of distract from the bad situation. Spend some time with mutual friends or maybe go for a few walks every once in a while. Whatever makes your partner happy will also make them feel better physically.

'Excited for This Year to Be Over' Post-Divorce Filing

By April Littleton

According to People, Khloe Kardashian is ready to start fresh in 2014. "I'm excited for this year to be over with," she told U.K.'s Cosmopolitan. The Keeping up with the Kardashians star filed for divorce from Lamar Odom earlier this month, but she's determined to look on the bright side of things. "I don't regret anything about my life. My life has made me who I am at this moment, and I'm very happy with who I am," Kardashian said. "No matter if it's great, disgusting, beautiful or ugly, it happens and it makes you you. Life is about how you process things."

What are some ways to cope with a recent breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up with someone you care about will unleash a swirl of emotions you didn't know you could ever feel all at once. Some people know how to deal with these feelings in the right way, while other may need a little guidance to help them get through it. Cupid is here to help:

1. Get in shape: There's no better way to get over a breakup than by getting yourself back in the best shape possible. By going to the gym, you'll be letting out some of your frustrations in a positive way. By the time you're officially over your ex, you'll be looking better than ever.
