

Celebrity Couple: Rob Pattinson Put Kristen Stewart 'Through the Ringer' Over Affair

By Petra Halbur

Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart may have only recently split up, but their relationship had been on rocky ground for some time prior to the separation. Pattinson, it seems, had a difficult time letting go of Stewart's affair with Snow White and the Huntsman director, Rupert Sanders. "He really put her through the ringer," a source told UsMagazine.com. The source also said that Pattinson held the scandal over Stewart's head and frequently brought it up in arguments. "Ultimately, it was like, 'Either we move past this or we don't. It wasn't good for either of them.'

What are some ways to move on after your partner has an affair?

Cupid's Advice

An affair doesn't have to mark the end of your relationship if you and your partner don't want it to. That said, getting over infidelity is far easier said than done. Cupid is here with some advice to help you move on:

1. Human frailty: Your partner messed up. Big time. If you still want to salvage your relationship, though, realize that everyone makes mistakes.

2. Everything on the table: Withholding your true thoughts and feelings from your partner will not do either of you any good. Playing nice will only mend things on the surface. Absolute honesty is vital to the healing process.

3. Discuss values: Monogamy isn't for everyone. If your partner isn't capable of (or interested in) fidelity, you need to decide if this relationship is really worth saving.

Celebrity News: Kristen Stewart Visits Taylor Swift

Post-Breakup from Robert Pattinson

By April Littleton

A source confirmed to UsMagazine.com, that the Snow White and the Huntsman actress went to seek comfort from Taylor Swift after breaking up with Robert Pattinson for the second time. Ever since K-Stew's affair with director Rupert Sanders, the once-happy couple has been dealing with relationship issues. On Sunday, Pattinson was seen moving out of the house he shared with Stewart. A source close to the couple said, "She tried, they both tried. They're both good people. It was just not the right thing for either of them right now."

What are some ways to cope with the aftermath of a fresh split?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaking up with a partner is never an easy pill to swallow. The pain of breaking up with someone you thought was the love of your life can feel unbearable. If it's a fresh split, you're probably feeling hurt, angry and sad – all of that is OK to feel! Cupid has some advice on how to get over the initial pain of a breakup:

1. Have a girl's night out: It's very important for you to have a support system once you break things off with your boo. You want to surround yourself with people who love you unconditionally and that's where your girlfriends come in. Have a movie night or dance away your sorrows at a club. You'll find it easier to get back to being yourself with your girls around.

2. Give yourself some time: Time is the best healer! Don't rush into a new relationship just to help ease the pain of losing someone you once loved. Be patient with yourself and let the tears fall. It's OK to cry over the lose of a relationship. In the end, you will feel and be better for it.

3. Stay active: Lounging around in bed for weeks may seem like a good idea, but it won't make you feel any better! You need to continue to do things you were doing before the breakup. Take up a new hobby, participate in an art class – do whatever you have to do to regain your focus in life. Once you're finally over your ex, you'll be glad you didn't hide under the covers the whole time.

Celebrity Couple: Keira Knightley and James Righton Return to London Post-Honeymoon in Corsica

By April Littleton

After tying the knot May 4 in Mazan, France, People reports Keira Knightley and her new hubby James Righton, a keyboardist for The Klaxons, returning to London after spending their honeymoon in Corsica. The couple met after being introduced by fashion correspondent Alexa Chung. A year after being spotted together, Knightley and Righton got engaged in May 2012.

How do you decide as a couple where to honeymoon?

Cupid's Advice:

Your honeymoon is one of the most important trips you will go on. After all, it is the first of many trips you and your partner will take together as man and wife. After all of the stress of planning a wedding, the honeymoon is the time to relax and unwind with your beau. Many couples have a hard time deciding on the destination of their honeymoon, but not to worry – Cupid has some tips:

1. Set a budget: The first thing you should do as a couple is work out a budget. Both of you should agree on how much money you're willing to spend on the honeymoon. Can you afford that dream honeymoon in Fiji, or should you be looking at locations closer to home? Whatever the case, don't be discouraged if you can't go all out for the honeymoon. There are dozens of locations within an affordable price range just for newlyweds.

2. Research: You and your significant other should think about what kind of honeymoon you want. Do you want to spend most of the time relaxing by the pool and drinking cocktails, or do you want to live on the adventurous side? Once you figure out what kind of setting you both will enjoy, then you can narrow down your location search.

3. Get some help: Discuss some of your options with a couple who's been in your situation before, or get in touch with a travel agent. Mention your budget and what you're expecting out of the honeymoon. Not only will you get some valuable feedback, but you might also get information on other possible destinations you and your partner didn't think of!

Celebrity Relationships: Why Celebrities Prolong Their Engagements & Hide Their Wedding Plans

By Lori Zaslow and Jennifer Zucher, founders of Project Soulmate

It's no surprise that famous faces from Hollywood are pressured by their intense jobs and hectic schedules. The spotlight is always on them, but they don't want the same burden in their personal life. So how can they keep their romantic relationships out of the prying public eye?

Life

One way to feel in control is by prolonging their engagement, which ultimately adds time to the courtship phase of a relationship. After all, what's the rush? For example, Miley Cyrus wants to focus on her career instead. She's young, and it's important that she accomplishes her goals first so that she can truly enjoy the engagement phase. Similarly, Kristin Cavallari, who's currently planning a July wedding, has been engaged to Jay Cutler since 2011, but they decided to focus on raising their son Camden before tying the knot.

Your relationship is supposed to be one of the most sacred parts of your life – which is why many celebrities also hide their wedding plans from the press. For instance, Jay-Z and Beyoncé tied the knot in 2008 in a top-secret ceremony that Beyoncé didn't speak about for six months after the fact! Justin Timberlake and Jessica Biel's wedding guests didn't even know the location of the event until right before the big day. Natalie Portman and Benjamin Millepied as well as Anne Hathaway and Adam Shulman are two more examples of celebrity couples who planned secret ceremonies.

Celebrity News: Michael Douglas Welcomes Catherine Zeta-Jones Home from Treatment

By Marisa Spano

Catherine Zeta-Jones just completed her ongoing treatment for Bipolar II disorder, according to People. Jones, 43, entered treatment for the second time in April and has just returned home to her husband, actor Michael Douglas, 68. “She’s doing a really good job of getting balanced. I’m proud of her,” said Douglas.

What are three ways to support your partner through treatment or rehab?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is hard enough as it is, let alone adding in a partner in treatment. Cupid is here to show you the way:

1. Bring in the family: Encourage your loved one to continue with their treatment program, knowing the family cares. Support goes a long way when it comes to recovering from both physical and mental ailments.

2. Take care of you: It may sound weird advice, but you have been giving this person most of your attention and in order to help your significant other you must be the best you that you can be.

3. Ask what they need: This may sound basic, but it can be challenging. Treatment or rehab can be one of the most difficult things your partner has ever been through. You need to know what you can and cannot discuss about the process with your partner. You need to be aware of when they need you close or when they need space.

Celebrity Couples in Interracial Relationships

By Courtney Allen

Rich, famous and in love... the characteristics we assume every celebrity couple embodies through their glamorous photos of romantic Caribbean getaways and riveting red carpet PDA. However, the image of every celebrity couple is different from how it's portrayed in the media.

Through their interracial relationships displayed in the media, celebrity couples show us there's more than meets the eye. Our fixation on Hollywood may be over-the-top, but whoever said we couldn't take away a solid lesson from it? We learn to accept love in all shapes, sizes and colors, especially in the case of these couples:

1. Kim Kardashian and Kanye West: The E! reality star and the outspoken rapper, who were originally old friends, hooked up just months after Kim filed for divorce from Kris Humphries.

Even before their relationship, Kim and Kanye were no strangers to interracial love with a dating list that includes Miles Austin, Reggie Bush and Amber Rose. From the looks of it, the list will end here. Kimye are expecting their first child this year.

2. Khloe Kardashian-Odom and Lamar Odom: The marriage of Khloe and Lamar is one we all can't help but love. The two lovebirds met back in August of 2009 and tied the knot just a few weeks after. Fans of the Keeping up with the Kardashians star and the NBA player had their doubts on whether the duo would make it. Three years later, the couple is still head-over-heels for each other. Now we're all patiently waiting for a Baby Odom.

3. Paula Patton and Robin Thicke: These high school sweethearts have turned into one of the most beautiful and successful couples in Hollywood, but it's been a long time coming. Patton hasn't always been comfortable with her interracial relationship with the singer. In an interview with Essence magazine, the actress admitted, "I didn't want all my high school friends to know that I'd fallen for a white boy." Lucky for Paula, the secret is out now. The couple is living a fairytale with their only child, Julian.

Celebrity Couple: Tori Spelling Gets Spinning Diamond Ring from Dean McDermott for Anniversary

By April Littleton

Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott have been married for 7 years and are still going strong! For their recent anniversary, McDermott wanted to create a special gift for his lovely wife. The result was a dazzling ring set in 18k gold with over 150 small rose cut diamonds and the most unique detail – the ring can spin! Neil Lane, McDermott's jewelry designer who created the ring told People, "Tori loved it! Dean is very romantic and sentimental and he totally adores her. The ring represents the significance of their relationship. She rocks his world!"

What are some ways to make your anniversary special?

Cupid's Advice:

Anniversaries are all about celebrating the commitment you made to your significant other and proving to each other that the love you share together is still as strong as ever. Every couple wants their anniversaries to be one-of-a-kind. Here are some ways to make that one day out of the year one to treasure forever:

1. Write a love letter: In today's world, lives are overrun by the usage of text messages and emails. Do something different by writing your partner a love letter the old-fashioned way. Pour your feelings out on paper and let your significant other know just how lucky you feel to have somebody like them in your life!

2. Plan a getaway: Plan a romantic getaway just for you and your boo. Travel to the Bahamas and have some fun in the sun together, or maybe a quiet weekend in the country side would be more your style. Wherever you decide to go, make sure it's somewhere you and your partner will be able to spend some quality time alone. This is the time to enjoy each other's company without any distractions.

3. Stay in: Decorate your living room with rose petals, pick out a bottle of wine and prepare a home-cooked meal. Pick some of your partner's favorite movies to watch and anticipate a night full of romance, snuggling and whispering sweet nothing's in each other's ears. What could be better than that?

Celebrity News: Holly Madison's Fiancé Is Facing Prison Time for Embezzlement

By Kerri Sheehan

According to UsMagazine.com Pasquale Rotella, fiancé of former Playboy Bunny, Holly Madison, is facing at least 13 years behind bars for counts of bribery, embezzlement, conspiracy, and conflict of interest. The couple has a three-month-old daughter together- Rainbow. So far Madison has not commented on Rotella's potential arrest.

What do you do if your partner is in trouble with the law?

Cupid's Advice:

The law is not something to mess with, so treading lightly when your other half is in trouble is important. Cupid has some advice:

1. Look at the big picture: Your reaction to potential jail time will depend on the severity crime. For charges such as Rotella's it's clear that Madison and her daughter are not in imminent danger as Rotella's crime is not of the violent nature.

2. Support them: Facing jail time is obviously a scary notion. Sometimes just being there for your partner is the best gift you can give them. Let them know that you're in it for the long haul so the state of your relationship doesn't add additional stressors to the mix.

3. Stay quiet: Opening your mouth and saying the wrong thing can dig an even deeper grave for your partner. Don't talk about things that you don't know definite answers to and never speak of the crime in question without a lawyer present.

Celebrity Pregnancy: 'Homeland' Star Morena Baccarin Is Expecting First Child

By Kerri Sheehan

UsMagazine.com confirmed that Homeland actress Morena Baccarin, 33, is with child. This will be her first child with husband and director, Austin Chick. When asked how she makes her marriage work Baccarin told the Daily Mail, "You have to keep checking in, being aware of what is happening in each other's worlds."

How do you prepare your relationship for a child?

Cupid's Advice:

Adding a baby into the mix can sometimes tears couples apart faster than you can say, "Pacifier." That's why it's important to make sure your relationship is as strong as it can be before baby bump turns into bundle of joy:

1. Enjoy now: Once the baby comes there's a very slim chance that you and your spouse will have any alone time. Think of it as 'rollover minutes' and spend as much time together as you can right now to make up for the next few months.

2. Keep up date night: Even though the baby can and should be the main focus of your relationship for the first few months, make sure you and your spouse still find time to connect. Having a strong relationship will create a better environment for the baby to grow up in.

3. Resolve existing problems: With a baby on the way there are bound to be some disagreements arise. Ironing out any problems a couple has pre-baby will ensure a smoother ride post-baby.

Celebrity Couple: Brad Pitt Supports Angelina Jolie During Her Surgery

By Meghan Fitzgerald

People reports that Angelina Jolie has undergone a double mastectomy due to a high risk of breast cancer. Jolie wrote a article titled “My Medical Choice” on NYTimes.com and explained, “My chances of developing breast cancer have dropped from 87 percent to under 5 percent. I can tell my children that they don’t need to fear they will lose me to breast cancer.” Although Jolie was the one who had the surgery, the procedure did have an affect on both partners in this celebrity couple. According to the actress, her celebrity love Brad Pitt was there at every step of the way.

This celebrity couple supports each other no matter what. What are some ways to help your partner through a serious health condition?

Cupid’s Advice:

If your partner is truly sick, it is sometimes hard for them to help themselves. Cupid has some relationship advice on how to follow in celebrity couple Pitt and Jolie's footsteps and create a support system for your partner:

1. Take them to doctor's appointments: If your mate has a serious health condition, it is probable that they will need to attend numerous doctor appointments. Doctors' offices can be scary, especially if you are ill. To make your partner feel comfortable, go with them to their appointments. You will be there every step of the way, and it will show your beau how much you care.

2. Communicate with their family: With a serious health condition, family is usually wondering how the person is doing. Instead of your partner returning phone calls, e-mails, texts, and more, you can take care of it. It takes stress off of your mate when they don't have to reach back to someone every twenty minutes.

3. Make them comfortable: When people are feeling sick, they may want certain things to make them feel better. It can be soup, cheesy 80's movies, a snuggle bug, a chocolate cake, or a back rub. Try to accommodate your partner with what they want. Whether it be a massage or caviar, try to fulfill that wish and attempt to make them the slightest bit happier.

Somerhalder Hints at Reason Behind Breakup with Nina Dobrev

By Andrea Surujnauth

The Vampire Diaries costars Nina Dobrev, 24, and Ian Somerhalder, 34, have broken up after three years of dating. Somerhalder took to Twitter to hint as to what caused the sudden break up. According to YourTango.com, Somerhalder tweeted a quote from deceased playwright Lillian Hellman, reading, "A thought for today: 'People change and forget to tell each other.'"

What do you do if you notice your partner is changing?

Cupid's Advice:

Your partner seems to be acting differently and feel a growing distance between the two of you. What should you do? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. Talk: Talk to your sweetie about how you feel. Tell them that you think they are acting differently and find out the reasons behind it. The reason may not even have anything to do with you.

2. Change: Try to go somewhere new together. A change of scenery may be all you and your partner need to rekindle your love.

3. Space: Your honey may just be in a rut or going through a difficult time in their lives. Do not suffocate them. Let them have their space to figure out what is going on with them. Remember absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Celebrity Couple: Chris Brown and Rihanna Call It Quits...Again!

By April Littleton

According to UsMagazine, Chris Brown and Rihanna have split up once again. Brown confirmed the breakup during an interview with the Australian radio station The Kyle and Jackie Show. He stated, "The love's certainly not gone, but personal and professional commitments make the relationship too difficult right now. I'm always gonna love that person. I can't be focused on wife-ing someone that young. I need to be the best Chris Brown I can be." The couple may have ended things for now, but there still may be hope for the lovebirds in the future. A source close to Rihanna said, "Of course tomorrow they could be all over each other again, but for now she's done and just living her life and touring. It's how it always is."

How do you know when to call it quits in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It can be hard to tell if a couple is just going through a momentary setback in their relationship, or if they're going through the early stages of a breakup. How can you tell if the chemistry between you and your partner has fizzled out for good? Cupid has some tips:

1. Commitment: When one or both persons give up in the relationship, it will be hard to work toward reconciliation. Some people care enough about each other and their commitment to work through trying times, while others give up at the first sign of struggle. If you and/or your partner aren't working hard to hold things together – it's time to call it quits.

2. The bad outweighs the good: If you spend the majority of your time fighting with your beau, avoiding him or thinking about all of the negative traits you don't like about him – it may be time to move on. Your relationship should make you happy. If you feel your time together never ends on a positive note, it's time to end it for good.

3. Someone else has your attention (or his): There's no point in prolonging the inevitable if either you or your significant other has found someone new. If you find yourself wondering about a new guy or notice your man spending time with another woman, then it's time to let each other off the hook.

Celebrity Baby: 'Real
Housewives of Atlanta' Star

Phaedra Parks Welcomes Second Child

By April Littleton

Real Housewives of Atlanta star Phaedra Parks and her husband Apollo Nida welcomed their second child – a son on Wednesday May 8, according to People. A rep for Parks said, “Mother and baby are happy and healthy.” The couple has been married since 2009. The two are parents to a soon-to-be 3-year-old named Ayden.

How do you prepare for a second child versus your first?

Cupid's Advice:

You know you should be preparing for your second baby's arrival, but how? You've already been through this once before! You pretty much have everything taken care of...so you think! Despite the fact that you're already a parent, pregnancy the second time around does have its differences. Cupid has some advice:

1. Plan to adjust: Don't forget to talk to the big brother or sister about what's to come. Be positive when you're discussing the new baby and help the first child adjust to the idea of having a sibling. If he or she isn't entirely thrilled with the prospect of gaining a new family member, or they're just simply too young to understand, help them feel included by letting them pick out toys or other special items for the new baby.

2. Organize: Day-to-day errands you were able to do with ease with one child will be a little bit more difficult to manage with two. Schedule some fun family events and kids' activities. Make sure you have a good way to keep track of things because you're bound to forget something along the way.

3. Relax: Get as much rest in as you can. You won't have to worry about too much sibling rivalry until the newborn becomes mobile. With a new baby on the way, the little family moments you'll experience will count even more the second time around!

Celebrity couple Peyton Wright and Chris Lambton are both alumni of the popular reality TV show The Bachelor and its female counterpart The Bachelorette. Neither one found a lasting relationship and love with the final rose, but they later met through mutual Bachelor friends in 2010. Lambton told People.com, "Every day I thank my lucky stars I was on that show because I met the woman of my dreams, my wife." The celebrity couple celebrated their one-year wedding anniversary this month.

Celebrity couple Peyton Wright and Chris Lambton are together thanks to some friends from The Bachelor. What are some ways to meet a partner through your pals?

Cupid's Advice:

Meeting the person who is right for you is easier said than done. Cupid has some dating advice for finding someone special through friends:

1. Be honest: Let your friends know that you're looking to add members of the opposite sex to your friendship circle. You never know who you're going to meet, and chances are, you'll find some awesome new pals in the process. A relationship and love may not come right away, but expanding your horizon never hurts.

Celebrity News: Surfer Bethany Hamilton Announces

Her Engagement

By Kerri Sheehan

Professional surfer and shark attack survivor Bethany Hamilton recently announced that she is set to walk down the aisle with fiancée, Adam Dirks, reports People. The pair's first "date" involved them jumping off a 40 foot cliff into the ocean, something that both of them cite as a reason they fell for each other. On her blog, Hamilton announced the engagement and said, "I know Adam and I are right for each other. Neither of us is perfect, but in my eyes Adam is just right and I'm thankful to have someone so perfectly perfect to share life with as one."

How do you know when you've found "the one"?

Cupid's Advice:

With so many guys on the prowl, it's hard to tell if you've really found the right one or just another flop. Cupid has some advice:

1. They love you for you: Your significant other's job is not to tell you your faults. Their admiration for you should be high enough that even on the worst of days they appreciate you for who you are, rather than what they want you to be. "The One" should take great pride in who you are and the choices that you make and never try to change you to suit their preferences. Their preference should be you anyway!

2. You have similar goals: We've all been in that relationship where you feel like you're perfect for one another until talk of the future gets brought up. Maybe they see themselves living in the country while you're a city slicker or perhaps children are in the cards for them whereas you prefer to be kid-free. Compatibility is the key to making a long-term relationship happy and fulfilled.

3. Even the mundane seems exciting: When you've truly found "The One" suddenly the minutest activities are fun. Being with them is never boring as just their presence is enough to spice up your day. Marriages are meant to last a long time so if you're bored after just a year or two it is unlikely that the relationship will last the test of time.

What are some ways to support your partner's take on fashion?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a strong possibility that your partner could have a different fashion sense than you do. Being in a relationship means you need to be supportive. This being said, there are numerous ways to support your partner when it comes to their take on fashion. Check it out:

1. Embrace: With any hobby, trait or characteristic your mate may have, it is essential that you embrace it no matter what. If your partner loves wearing sweatpants and converse, embrace that. Tell them how much you love their take on fashion. Express your feelings by complimenting them on their day to day outfits.

2. Gifts: It is easy to support your partner's take on fashion – buy them the clothes and accessories they enjoy. The new Michael Kors taupe bag that just came out, go out and buy it for them. If they like wearing $400 shoes, splurge and buy a pair for your mate. It will not only show them how much you care about them. However, they will realize that you support them in their fashion sense.

3. Participate: Supporting your partner's fashion sense is easy if you dress the way they do. It may not be anything you would ever wear. However, if you do dress up like your mate, they will see how much you care. So pick a random day, or a weekend at home, a grocery store trip – and dress exactly like your partner.

How do you know when it's time to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Knowing when to move on from a past relationship is a complicated and confusing process to work through. You may still have feelings for your ex, you may be lonely, or you may want them back. Whatever the circumstance, there comes a time when you need to move on with your life. Here are some tips:

1. New relationship: It is essential to move on from a past relationship if you are currently in a new relationship. Thinking, or obsessing over your ex, and ex-relationship is not in any sense healthy. Nor will it positively affect the relationship you're currently in. Drop your ex if you now have a different significant other by your side.

2. Health: If your health has declined because of your past relationship, it is necessary to move on. It is not beneficial to stick around with your past relationship if you are physically and emotionally suffering from it. So pick your self up, and move on. Throw away their belongings, get rid of the haunting thoughts lingering in your mind, and create a better healthier life for yourself.

3. Happiness: Are you completely dissatisfied with your life because of your ex and your past relationship? Are you miserable inside? Do you constantly watch Netflix and have at least three gallons of ice cream in your freezer? You are unhappy. Move on from your relationship and focus on yourself. Get your life together, gather your thoughts, and focus on finding happiness.

What are reasons to take your love public?

Cupid's Advice:

Taking your love public can be challenging in certain situations. You may be involved with your best friend's ex, your family may not approve, or you have an unprofessional work relationship. Cupid has some advice:

1. Time: It could be possible that time is the reason for your loving going public. Sometimes, there is a cap amount of time where your love should be kept between you and your partner. If you have been in a relationship for three years without any of your closest friends and family knowing – it may be time to go public. The amount of time varies from couple to couple.

2. Comfortable: Are you complete and utterly comfortable with your partner? If you have no doubt in your mind that your mate is the one, you are able to take your love public. In certain cases, some may not want to take their love public because of their partners. They may believe that they won't stick around, or they're not the one. If you know that this one won't last, don't take it public.

3. Marriage: Are you planning on getting married and your family and friends don't have a clue about your relationship? Take your love public. It is necessary to tell everyone about your relationship if you're planning on going the next step in life. Marriage needs to be told to your closest friends and family.

Celebrity News: Nick Lacey Says 'Camden Is The Happiest Baby On Earth'

By Francoise Shirley for Celebrity Baby Scoop

New dad Nick Lacey is loving every minute with his 7-month-old son Camden who has “just started crawling.” The crooner, 39, is debuting his new lullaby album, A Father's Lullaby, as well as his latest CD with 98 Degrees, titled 2.0.

Nick opens up to Celebrity Baby Scoop about the joys of fatherhood, touring this summer with wife Vanessa Lacey and their sweet son, his hopes for another son and a daughter, and his plans to keep “evolving” in the music industry.

CBS: Tell us all about new lullaby album, A Father's Lullaby. Tell us about the songs and what inspired you to do the album.

NL: "Well, I was definitely inspired to do the album because of the impending birth of my son, Camden. All the emotions you feel in anticipation of this experience is perfect for writing music. I chose songs that were favorites of mine and then also wrote 6 originals for the record. The originals are so meaningful to me, truly inspired by my little man."

CBS: Do you notice that Camden responds to your singing voice? Do you feel it's a special way to bond with your baby, whether you have a beautiful voice like yours or not?

NL: "Camden definitely recognizes my voice when he hears it. I think it's an incredible way to bond with your little one, whether you have a good singing voice or not!"

CBS: How is Camden doing?

NL: "Camden is great, he really is the happiest baby on Earth. He's just started crawling, which is a lot of fun."

CBS: You recently said you're moving home to Ohio in a few years. Do you plan to retire once you move home?

NL: "I'm way too young to retire! I do plan on spending as much time with my kids as possible though, so if that means trying to lighten the workload a little bit, then so be it. My family is definitely the priority at this point in my life."

CBS: How has fatherhood changed you? Please share some of the greatest joys of fatherhood. Biggest challenges?

NL: "It has changed me for sure. It literally affects everything you do, every decision you make. Your priorities completely shift and your kids instantly become the most important thing in the world. I think it's made me a more patient person as well.

My greatest joy is waking him up every day. Seeing that little boy look up and smile at me every morning is the perfect way to start my day. The biggest challenge is having enough time in the day to do everything I need to do."

CBS: It seems like you're thrilled to have a son. Are you also hoping to have a daughter one day? How many kids would you like?

NL: "I think it would be a lot of fun to have a daughter one day, but either way, fatherhood is great, regardless of the gender. In a perfect world, we'd have one more boy, then a girl."

'The Bachelor' Sean Lowe Buys Louis Vuitton Bag for Catherine Giudici's Birthday

By Kerri Sheehan

Reality television stud, and The Bachelor Sean Lowe treated celebrity love Catherine Giudici to a Louis Vuitton purse and a nice dinner for her 27th birthday. “We had a big party with family and friends last night and then tonight we’re just going to go out to a nice dinner and just celebrate a little bit more,” Lowe told UsMagazine. Lowe realized how much Giudici has sacrificed to move out to Los Angeles during his Dancing With the Stars stint and wanted to spoil her a little on her special day.

‘The Bachelor’ Sean Lowe went all out for celebrity love Catherine Giudici’s birthday. How do you make your partner’s birthday special?

Cupid’s Advice:

A significant other’s birthday is always a prime time to show them that you care. How do you show your partner how much they mean to you? Cupid has some suggestions:

1. Keep it specific: Does your other half have a certain band they love? Is there a restaurant that tickles their fancy? Maybe a favorite author is doing a book signing nearby? You can never go wrong with a heartfelt gift that shows you're listening to their likes.

2. Spoil them: A birthday is the one-day of the year that should be all about your partner. Pull out all of the stops and make that day one they are sure to remember! Relationships and love is all about being there for the other person and showing them how much you care. Their birthday is the perfect opportunity to showcase that.

3. Do something out of the ordinary: This tip is especially helpful to those who are in a long-term relationship. Keep the excitement alive by doing something totally crazy that your partner wouldn't expect. Skydiving, parasailing, or even throwing a surprise party are all in the realm of possibility.

UsMagazine reports that along their afternoon stroll, Magic Mike actor Tatum helped his wife over a fallen branch. The 32 year old Witches of West End actress looked comfortable in pregnant chic clothing.

What are some little ways to show your partner you care?

Cupid's Advice:

One of the essentials to being in a relationship is to show your partner how much you care about them. There are numerous little ways you can do this with. Bringing home their favorite Thai food for dinner, doing the laundry, taking out the garbage, surprise them with flowers. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Mixed CD: Making a mix CD for your significant other is one of the best ways to show your partner you care. Include "your" song, their favorite songs, songs that have meaning between the two of you, or songs that remind you of your mate. Put the mixed CD in a handcrafted case, and express how much you love them through the descriptions and title.

2. Cook dinner: An easy way to show your partner how much you care for them is to make them a home cooked dinner. Surprise them with a romantic dinner of their favorites. Include a fine wine, appetizers, a full meal, and a dessert. Play the mixed CD you made for them and enjoy a low key dinner for two. Put in that extra effort to create a meal for your mate.

3. Cute texts: Surprise your partner with cute texts throughout the day. Text them in the morning wishing them a great day. Text them goodnight love. Send over a quick text of how much you love and care for them. Text them how you feel about them, and express your emotions through text messages. Your partner will realize how much you care for them by the texts they send over.

How are little ways you've shown your partner you care? Explain below.
