How do you keep your relationship away from prying eyes?

Cupid's Advice:

It is not necessary for the rest of the world to be in your business. Cupid has some advice:

1. Communication: When you are in a relationship, you need to talk with your partner of who you want to talk to, what you want to talk about, and the secrecy of your relationship. If you want eyes all over your relationship, talk about your relationship to everyone. If you don't want you or your mate to talk about your business, make sure you talk about it.

2. Discreteness: It is easy to keep your relationship away from others if you keep your partnership on the down low. Like Johnny Depp and all of his relationships, keep your business to yourself only. No one else needs to know about your fights, relationship status, or love. You and your mate are the only ones who need to worry and talk about your relationship.

3. Happiness: If you want to keep people away from your relationship, act happy as anything. Even if you and your beau are not exactly happy, play it off as you are. People are more likely to pry into your relationship if they know that you and your partner are having problems. So put on a smile and it will ward off any unwanted eyes.

What are some ways to include your parents in your nuptials?

Cupid's Advice:

Your parents love you. At times, their love is constraining and stressful and unwanted. However, they put you on this planet and you should attempt to include them as much as possible in your nuptials. Cupid has some advice:

1. Toast: It is easy and simply to include your parents in your nuptials by dedicating a special toast to them. Nothing is more meaningful to your parents than telling them over all your friends and family how much you love them. Your parents will be honored that you took the time out of your special day to write and make a speech for them.

2. Memorable gift: The most memorable gift you can give your parents on your wedding day is a picture frame or a photo book. Either gather pictures of you and your parents and compile them into a book. Or round up pictures of you and your fiance and put them together. Your parents will be able to look back on the day their child got married. And also be able to show your pictures off when visitors come around their home.

3. Family heirloom: Something old, something new, and something blue. It is a common wedding expression and is followed by couples everywhere. With something old: include a piece, jewelry, clothing, anything that has meaning in your family. Your parents will recognize how much you care for them by keeping the tradition in the family. The bride can even copy or replicate your mother's wedding gown.

How do you keep rumors at bay in your relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Rumors can endanger even the strongest relationships. How do you keep your relationship above water in a sea of gossip? Cupid has some suggestions:

- 1. Comment: When a rumor is being spread about your love life, comment on the rumor if someone asks you. Let them know the truth. If you choose not to comment, the lies will spread and no one will know what is real and what isn’t.
- 2. Closeness: You and your sweetie need to have a tight bond and trust each other. This way when rumors are being spread, neither of you will be insecure enough to fall for it.
- 3. Verbalize: Put the rumor out there for people to see. By acknowledging it in public, people will see that it is clearly just a rumor. Talk about the rumor with your partner so they know that the rumor is floating around so they can help publicly debunk it.

Cupid's Advice:

Planning for any anniversary can be pressure-filled situation. Throwing a surprise in there does not make it any easier. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Dinner date: Does your partner love to get dressed up in their favorite Ralph Lauren dress and hit the trendy bar down the street? Or the Swedish night club three blocks down? If they enjoy these things, they will enjoy going out to dinner for your anniversary. Surprise your mate with a romantic dinner on your anniversary and top it off with a trip to their favorite night spot.

2. Bubble bath: Who doesn't enjoy a soothing bubble bath with the love of their life? For your anniversary, plan a romantic champagne filled bubble bath with your partner. Leave a trail of rose petals from the door to the bedroom, to the bath. Have two bottles of champagne by the side of the tub. Add soothing music, or your mate's favorite music as they walk in the door.

3. First date: Recreate your first date with your partner for a surprise anniversary. It will show your mate how much you care and love them. It will show your beau that you fully remember your first date and are willing to recreate it for an anniversary. Do everything you did on the first date and sit back for the results.

How do you support your partner through an unplanned pregnancy?

Cupid's Advice:

Unplanned pregnancies are obviously surprises. They are not expected nor are they always easy to handle, so it's important to have a support system. Cupid has some advice:

1. Family: Your partner is going to need support through their unplanned pregnancy. Family members tend to dish out a lot of stress, as they tend to smother the mom-to-be. They want to know every single detail of the pregnancy and don't expect you to keep secrets. It's important to stand by your partner to block some of this onslaught.

2. Every step: Be by the side of your mate through every step of the pregnancy. Attend doctors appointments, and put pictures up on your fridge. Talk to your family about every aspect of the pregnancy and be the person people go to for help. Be the rock to your partner's pregnancy.

3. Lend your shoulder: Because unplanned pregnancies are unexpected, your partner may be on an emotional rollercoaster each and every day. You may not be able to do anything to change the situation, but you can certainly lend an ear (or a shoulder) and be someone they can confide in.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Halle Berry, Jada Pinkett- Smith and Heidi Klum

y Shoshi

A celebrity's love life tends to be packed with things that create a hot mess. At the end of the day, when it comes to their relationships, they're just like everybody else: simply trying to figure it all out.

For my first expert post, I took a look at the energy (aura) of some hot couples: the sexy Halle Berry and Olivier Martinez, open marriage lovers Jada Pinkett-Smith and Will Smith, and last but not least, Heidi Klum and her bodyguard boyfriend, Martin Kirsten.

Related Link: Spring Cleaning: 5 Signs It's Time to De-Clutter Your Love Life

Halle Berry and Olivier Martinez: I have been keeping a psychic eye on Halle Berry since she announced that she's dating Olivier Martinez. From the very beginning, their energy as a couple looked vibrant and stable. While women envy Berry and assume she can have any man that she wants, her love life tends to be filled with drama and heartache. Berry was always into the "pretty boy" types, not that that's a bad thing. However, Martinez is an upgrade; Berry finally has a grown man by her side.

Recently, Berry revealed that she is pregnant with Martinez's baby. Berry has never looked happier on the outside, but there has been a shift in her energy on the inside too. She is more settled and comfortable in her own skin. While she has made a shift to fully embrace self-love, Martinez has been a big part of healing Berry's energy in her heart. Looking at their relationship as a whole, they have a wonderful connection.

From what I can see, it looks like Berry will have a bouncing baby boy. I also predict that Berry and Martinez will pull a Janet Jackson move by getting married at a secret sexy location in Paris.

Jada Pinkett-Smith and Will Smith: Finally, Jada Pinkett-Smith decided to address the rumors about having an open marriage with Will Smith. Not so fast, though: she actually did not come out and say that they have an open marriage. We did find out that Smith is his own man who can do whatever he wants and that Pinkett-Smith trusts him since they have a grown-up relationship. Some people are confused about what the heck she means since it wasn't a direct statement.

This couple has a very interesting energy that looks strained in certain areas. It look like they were talking about divorce, which was coming more from the side of Pinkett-Smith, but she changed her mind. Smith appears to be exercising their rule of doing whatever he wants more than her. She was feeling a bit neglected, but it made her hubby realize that he has to prioritize what he has at home, or it shall be lost.

Although there is love in their relationship, it looks like the type of love that is friendship-based. There is a lack of passion between them at this point; if that doesn't shift, this marriage will be over for good.

Heidi Klum and Martin Kirsten: When Heidi Klum started dating her bodyguard, Martin Kirsten, it raised a few eyebrows. Hopefully, Kirsten will guard his heart in this relationship since Klum's energy has rebound written all over it. What Klum was missing in her marriage with ex-husband Seal, she is getting from Kirsten; however, she isn't allowing her feelings for him to run deep.

Kirsten is completely smitten with Klum and her kids. In fact, he had feelings for her before they started dating. It's not looking good for him though. Klum isn't t ready to fully open her heart to anyone. One day soon, Kristen is likely to get a kiss goodbye from Klum, and he won't even see it coming.

'The Bachelor celebrity couple Sean Lowe and Catherine Giudici have to fight off dating rumors about their relationship and love life. How do you keep unfounded rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It is essential to keep unfounded rumors out of your relationship. If you allow said rumors to pry themselves into your relationship, it is a possibility of suffering immensely. Although it is possible for rumors to affect your relationship and love, there are numerous ways to keep them out. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Communication: It is necessary to talk to your partner when there are unfounded rumors surfacing around your relationship. You and your mate both are probably not looking to have your relationship affected by some measly rumors. If you talk to your beau about these rumors going around, your relationship will not suffer. As long as you and your mate are on the same terms and aware of everything going on, you're great.

2. Eliminate: Get rid of the rumors. Of course it may be challenging to find the source, cause, and distinguish them. However, it is helpful to have them washed away if you don't want your relationship to be affected. Do not get yourself into heated debates about said rumors. Make sure you and your mate keep calm and collective, with your head high. Do not let others get under your skin because that is exactly what they're trying to do in the first place.

3. Keep busy: Keep yourself busy when rumors are around your relationship and love. Make sure people know that the rumors going around are not affecting your life. People will realize how strong you and your partner are for not allowing the rumors to hurt your relationship. Silly gossip can't get in the way of the love you and your mate have. Now go keep busy.

Celebrity News: Earth Day In Hollywood How Celebrity Families Go Green

y Jenny Schafer for Celebrity Baby Scoop

Hollywood is going green!

On April 22, more than one billion people around the globe will participate in Earth Day. In celebration, let's take a look at eco-friendly celebrities like Jessica Alba and Tori Spelling who inspire others to protect Mother Nature.

Look through our list of high-profile families who minimize their carbon footprint.

Tori Spelling:

Tori Spelling and Dean McDermott are proud parents of four kids: sons Liam, 6, and Finn, 6 months, and daughters Stella, 4, and Hattie, 1.

The reality TV mama recently opened up to Celebrity Baby Scoop about going green "everyday," not just one day out of the year.

"Everyday is Earth Day in our house," Spelling said. "We definitely try to teach our kids to take care of the earth. Just the other day, actually, in fact it was in the playroom, Liam came up and said I turned off the lights in the playroom because I don't want the earth to get sick. It was really cute."

She added: "We teach all about recycling, we compost. We try our best to teach them how to take care of the earth."

Jessica Alba:

From her chic sense of style, to her hands-on playdates at the park, to her eco-friendly business, we can't get enough of Jessica Alba. After creating The Honest Company last year, the mom-of-two is now promoting her debut book, The Honest Life.

“It’s a colorful how-to guidebook for people who want to make a healthy and non-toxic home without giving up the fun fashionable things,” Jessica recently opened up to Celebrity Baby Scoop. “I hope people will be inspired to make the ideas their own and find what works for them.”

She went on to talk about modeling an eco-friendly lifestyle with husband Cash Warren and their two daughter Honor, 4, and Haven, 1.

“First and foremost, we try to model and practice eco-friendly habits for the girls,” Alba said. “Otherwise, we talk to them about being mindful and explain that things can be turned into something else one day. This can be as simple as teaching them about recyclables and showing how to sort bottles and cans from trash.”

She added: “We also do a lot of DIY crafts like using cardboard boxes to make airplanes and dollhouses—our creative playtime together similarly shows the girls about repurposing old items.”

The Sin City star says involving kids in the process is not only fun, but educational.

“Involving children in gardening and cooking is another great way to inspire eco-friendly living,” Alba shared. “Caring for the plants in our herb wall garden helps Honor understand the steps to growing food (including patience!), how it ultimately lands on her plate, and about being a good steward of the planet.”

The proud mom added: “Honor is also a great sous chef when we’re in the kitchen, so being a part of the dinner process encourages her to eat the foods she grows and develops her taste for fresh ingredients. Hopefully, this lays the foundation for children to prioritize their health and that of the planet.”

Tiffani Thiessen:

Audiences first fell in love with Tiffani Thiessen as Kelly Kapowski in Saved by the Bell and later Valerie Malone in Beverly Hills, 90210. Now we love her as event planner Elizabeth Burke in White Collar, and doting mom to 2-year-old daughter Harper.

The actress recently opened up to Celebrity Baby Scoop about the importance of leading an eco-friendly life.

“Earth Day is very important to us,” Thiessen said. “I’ve always been a believer in being green. We as a family recycle. We grow our own veggies and we have water tanks that store rain water and we then use to water our yard.”

How do you help your partner through breaking an addiction?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s never easy when your partner is battling an addiction, let alone trying to break their bad habit. It’s essential for you to be in their lives as much as possible and guide them on their way to sobriety. There are numerous ways to help your significant other in this fight. Below, Cupid offers three ways that you can be a positive influence:

1. Support Them: It is necessary to provide your mate with as much support as physically possible. You’re one of the few people who know your partner best. This being said, you know how their mind works and what they need to hear in order to keep themselves in check. To help them, be by their side through every meeting, appointment and session. It will not only help their recovery stay on track; it will also show them just how much you care.

2. Get Help: Even though you may think you’re capable of breaking your beau’s addiction on your own, you’re not. Your partner needs professional help. Make sure you can afford it; make sure that it’s nearby; and make sure it’s with someone you can trust. Most of all, make sure that your partner is willing to go. It's essential for your mate to be open-minded and willing to truly try.

3. Show Love: Your partner is going through one of the hardest times in their life. Every chance you get, remind them how much you love them. Buy them small gifts and do special things to brighten their day. Love will make the process easier for them. Remember that love makes the world go around and start spreading it!

What are some ways to utilize the support your partner provides?

Cupid's Advice:

If your partner is supplying you with support, you should utilize it. Not that your mate won't always provide you with support. However, if it is available, you should make use out of it. Depending on your relationship, the support you are given is varied. But there are always ways to utilize them in your relationship. Cupid has some more advice:

1. Further understand: Using the support your partner provides you with allows you to further understand your mate. It gives you insight on themselves and the way they feel about you. Your partner wouldn't provide you with help if they didn't truly mean it. Take in this embrace and contemplate how your partner ticks. And how you can further your relationship.

2. Get closer: Realizing that your mate provides you with such support is an opportunity for you two to grow closer. You know they care about you deeply if they are supporting your life and everything you do with it. This allows you to learn more about your partner. How they function, how they treat you, what they're like in times of crisis. You and your partner will get closer if you utilize the support your partner provides.

3. Lean on it: We all need help once in a while, and if you're in in trouble, the important thing is to take that help where it's given. Your partner is no doubt there for you because he or she cares, so don't hesitate to lean on that support when necessary.

"My wife and I are more than happy to give them our baby and say, 'Here, watch her while we take a nap!'" Colin Hanks says.

How do you prepare for your second child differently than your first?

Cupid's Advice:

Having your first child is always full of surprises. When you have your second, you think you know what to expect since you been through it already. Think again! You are in for just as many surprises. Here are a few pointers:

1. Go through old stuff: Go through your first child's old stuff and figure out what can be re-used and what new things you need to get. Remember, just because your second child is a different sex than your first, doesn't mean that clothes can not be re-used. Colors like white, green, and yellow can be used for both baby boys and baby girls.

2. Budget: Make changes in your budgeting to be sure you will be able to afford all the necessary items for your second child as well as your first. Do not forget that your first child is also still a priority and will also need new clothes as they grow too.

3. Prepare your first: Here is one thing you never had to do in the past, prepare your first child for the arrival of your second child. Do not make your first child feel left out or less special otherwise they will grow to resent their sibling. Make your first child feel excited about the new baby by having them join in with the preparations and decisions. You can even give them a special project like helping you decorate the nursery.

Celebrity News: Jamie-Lynn Sigler Opens Up About Surprise Pregnancy

y Andrea Surujnauth

Cutter Dykstra and Jamie-Lynn Sigler were thrown when they discovered that they were expecting a baby, reported People. The couple was in the midst of taking the relationship slow and just beginning to think of getting engaged when they found out that they had a bundle of joy on the way. “We definitely thought it was going to be a slow relationship process and possibly an engagement – I felt like it was coming – so the baby definitely threw us for a loop,” Sigler told SheKnows. Dykstra proposed to Sigler soon after they discovered the news. Sigler has opted to not follow up with pregnancy books, but to instead let nature take its course. “It’s a bizarre thing, but also a beautiful thing. It’s the most natural thing your body can do,” she said. “My body knows what it’s doing. I’m just a vessel, I’m just the ship that’s carrying this baby until it’s ready.” The couple also discovered that they will be expecting a boy. What will they choose to name their son? “We have our list of names that we’re playing around with, but it’s a lot of pressure!” Sigler says. The lovebirds want to find a strong name for their baby boy. “It’s not going to be a name that you can call anything that you can eat,” she says. “It’s not going to be spaghetti.”

How do you announce your pregnancy if it’s an unexpected surprise?

Cupid’s Advice:

Having unplanned pregnancy can be a shock but a wonderful blessing. The best part? Spreading the news to all your friends and family. Cupid has some tips:

1. Intimate conversation: One way to let everyone know about your pregnancy is to just sit down in an intimate atmosphere and tell them that you are expecting. This will be a great way to tell everyone if you know there will be a lot of joyous tears.

2. Funny surprises: If you want to shock your family and friends, a great way to tell them is to give them a humorous surprise when your telling them the news. Try writing “I’m pregnant” on a cake or wrap a picture frame with the sonogram in it and present it to your family as a gift. This is a guaranteed shocker!

3. Throw hints: Play games with your family by throwing hints that you are pregnant. Try making dinner for them with baby carrots, baby back ribs, and baby corn. Then ask them what they think the theme of the dinner is.

Celebrity Couple: Can Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart’s Love Survive Scandal?

y Jared Sais

Robert Pattison and Kristen Stewart constantly leave people guessing. After news broke that Kristen cheated with her Snow White and the Huntsman director Rupert Sanders, Rob immediately moved out of the home they shared, causing many people to believe that the duo was calling it quits. However, in the months since then, they've been seen together quite frequently, even doing press together for the final installment of the Twilight series. Most recently, the couple resurfaced in Los Angeles after Rob spent two months in Australia to film The Rover. So has our favorite vampire really forgiven his leading lady for breaking his heart? Our celebrity detective is here to analyze their body language and tell you what he thinks.

One of the first things I noticed in this photo was that Rob was hiding his hands behind his back, which is a way of trying to be open and not seemed closed off. My guess, though, is that he's using self-touching gestures to relax or make himself feel more comfortable with the given situation. Usually, a self-touch is as simple as rubbing your hand with your thumb.

Rob also has facial expression of contempt rather than happiness, as only one side of his face is showing any real movement (the main criteria for the expression of contempt). You may notice that he is barely leaning towards the fan or into the picture, meaning he doesn't really want to be there and would rather get back to his night. Given his past with Kristen, Rob may want to get away from her as well.

Now, let's look at Kirsten. It's clear that she's excited to take this photo, which is ironic because she's not known to be enthusiastic with paparazzi or fans. If you look at other examples of Kristen with her fans, she's always showing a more serious look, but this time, it's the exact opposite. So what does that mean? Easy: Kristen's in panic mode and keeps thinking (hoping) that everything's okay with her relationship. This response typically happens when someone cheats. She wants to reassure both Rob and herself that things are fine and back to normal. She's even acting like things are better than before.

One more thing: As the trio pose for the picture, you can see the fan and Kristen lean towards each other, while Rob is almost pushed to the side. Once again, we see that he didn't want to be in the picture or do the "celebrity" thing. He just looks awkward.

Although Rob is smiling, it's less than Kristen's smile, meaning that someone else in the car is giving him a hard time or that he hasn't yet let go of the fact that she was unfaithful, preventing him from fully enjoying his evening out.

You see that Rob's hand is holding up his head. He may just be tired from his trip home, but generally, tilting the head down means shy or vulnerable because it's the body's way of covering the throat. Boxers and professional fighters will do this move to protect themselves from getting hit in those sensitive areas.

Kristen is leaning towards Rob just slightly, with her hand (not her body) reaching for her man's affection. You can see, though, that she's acting a bit more comfortable in this situation. Her leg is up, showing that she's relaxed. Plus, she's smiling in a genuine way.

As a side note, it might just be a late night for both of them, but I have a hunch, mainly by observing both their eyes and non-verbal cues, that they might be under the influence of alcohol. That would explain quite a lot.

Picture #3

I love this picture mainly for Rob's facial expressions. Sure, we can't see his eyes behind his sunglasses, but I can still tell he's not happy. He can't help but feel hurt. You can also see that his lips are a bit pinched, meaning he's angry.

Kristen isn't really showing much emotion. It looks like she's processing information and/or focusing on something.

I know the tabloids are stating that these two lovebirds are better than ever, but I don't believe the hype. Rob is still very hurt, and Kristen is trying to make everything better. Only time will heal this couple, but if that doesn't work, Rob will eventually end things for good. Sadly, as of now, it seems like Rob still isn't sure of his relationship; he's stuck in his head rather than enjoying his time with Kristen.

How do you know when to make your relationship public?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships are extremely delicate and need to be handled with care. Tossing it into a situation before it is ready can have some seriously negative repercussions. Being public with a relationship is a huge step and definitely needs to be thought about. Here are some ways to know when the time is right to make your new found love public:

1. Stability: Make sure your relationship and your feelings towards one another will be able to withstand the judgemental eyes of the public. Be prepared for the added pressure and make sure both of you are prepared for everyone tossing their unwanted opinions your way.

2. Agreement: Be sure that you and your beau have both agreed to taking the relationship public. Make sure you both agree on the status of the relationship and the plans for the future before spreading the word.

3. Gut-feeling: Listen to what your heart is telling you. If you are not ready to go public or if you are unsure whether or not your relationship will last, do not go public. You need to make sure that you are happy with the decision.

Celebrity Couples Who Are Unlucky in Love

y Andrea Surujnauth

Celebrities' love lives are made public for the whole world to see and to judge. But even though some celebrities are all over the place with their love interests, that doesn't mean that there is no hope for them. A big celebrity that we all had our doubts about was Jennifer Aniston. From a broken engagement with Tate Donovan to a relationship with Paul Rudd to a failed marriage with Brad Pitt to a brief fling with Paul Sculfor to short relationships with both Vince Vaughn and John Mayer, Aniston has a long list of past unions that simply didn't work out. Now Aniston has finally found her leading man, Justin Theroux. The two started dating in 2011 and got engaged a year later. So although we thought Jennifer Aniston couldn't find love, after all these years she has finally found "the one."

The question is, are celebrities really that much different than us? Or do their love lives just look dysfunctional because they are always in the public eye? Let's take a look at a few more celebrities who have had trouble finding love and you can decide for yourselves:

Britney Spears:

Britney Spears became a pop idol sensation during the early 1990's. She began a relationship with Reg Jones from 1995 but ended it in 1997. She had a brief fling with Jason Geddart in 1997. By 1998 Spears moved on to begin her infamous relationship with Justin Timberlake. Their relationship lasted four years, and then Spears then moved on to her producer and dance choreographer, Wade Robson. They were together from 2001-2002. By 2003, Spears was rumored to be dating Tom Brady, Fred Durst, Nick Carter, Jared Leto, and Columbus Short. 2004 was Spears' wildest year yet. She got married...twice! First up at the alter was Jason Alexander, who was Spears' childhood friend. They were hitched during a drunken night in Vegas and annulled the marriage a few days later. Husband number two was Kevin Federline, one of Spears' background dancers. The two were together for three years and had two kids together. Spears then dated J.R Rotem, Issac Cohen, Howie Day, Criss Angel, and Adnan Ghalib. Spears then found love with Jason Trawik. The two were engaged for three years, but decided to call the wedding off. Lately, Spears has been seen with a new boyfriend named David Lucado, an employee at a law firm.

Taylor Swift:

Taylor Swift may be young, but she already has quite a reputation with the fellas. Swift first began a romantic relationship with Joe Jonas of the Jonas Brothers in 2008. This relationship didn't last very long because Swift moved onto her "You Belong With Me" co-star, Lucas Till. By the summer of 2009, Swift switched over to new boy toy, Taylor Lautner. The relationship was over by December of 2009. In 2010, Swift fired up a relationship with John Mayer, which only lasted a few months. Jake Gyllenhaal was Swift's next victim. They broke up in 2011. Conor Kennedy was the next heartthrob to date Swift. This relationship lasted a few months as well. She went on to One Direction's Harry Styles and the two broke up after a while.

John Mayer:

John Mayer has quite a long list of love interests. Here is only a handful of the women on Mayer's list...just to name a few. In 2002 John Mayer was reportedly dating actress Jennifer Love Hewitt. The relationship was short-lived. He then moved on to dating Jessica Simpson in 2006. However, by the next year, Mayer began dating Minka Kelly. That only lasted a few months as well because by the year after that, 2008, Mayer began an on-again off-again relationship with Jennifer Aniston. He was apparently serious about her since he reportedly told Rolling Stones that the breakup “was one of the worst times of my life.” He bounced back pretty quickly since by a little while after the breakup, he began dating Taylor Swift which lasted from 2009-2010. He then moved on to Katy Perry. The two seem to have an on-again off-again relationship going on. Lets see how long this one lasts!

Demi Moore:

In 1980, Moore was married to Freddy Moore. Their marriage lasted 5 years. In 1985, she became engaged to Emilio Estevez. The two had plans to wed in 1986 but called it off. By 1987, Moore was married to husband number two, Bruce Willis. The two were married for 13 years and had 3 daughters together. They were divorced in 2000. She then began a relationship with Asthon Kutcher who is 16 years younger than her. After dating for two years, Kutcher and Moore were married in September 2005. The marriage lasted a while but the two announced their divorce in 2011. Infidelity was rumored to be the cause of the divorce.

What are some ways to keep the romance alive when you have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Kids are messy, chaotic, all-in-all, a ton of work. They consume the majority of you and your partner's time out of the day. Most people say new couples with children will experience sexual disconnect, this is true. It also continues on in the relationship if you don't do something about it. Cupid has some advice to keep a spark in your relationship when you have kids:

1. Sex: Being intimate with your partner will sure as anything keep your romance alive. The only problem here, is you have kids. Kids who probably spend nights in your bed. Kids who are constantly around, and wanting to be around. To keep the romance alive through intimacy, it would be useful if you planned weekends, or nights to get away. Whether you send your kids to your parents, or book a hotel for a night, it is possible to do!

2. Date nights: Do you remember the days when you and your partner went on constant dates? Even if it wasn't constant, the romance was present when you and your mate spent nights together. Plan a date night every other weekend, or every two weeks if every other isn't possible. Go out to your favorite restaurant, or a local bar. Having date nights will make you two realize how much you love each other and it will definitely keep the romance alive.

3. Attentive: Be attentive to your partner, and hope that your mate is attentive to you and your needs also. Being attentive shows your partner how much you care about them and your relationship. It also shows that you love them because you are willing to take time away from your kids and spend it on them. Ask them how their day was, what they're thinking about, if they need help with anything.

Celebrity Couples: More Like Us Than We Want To Admit?

y Marcus Osborne for Galtime.com

Celebrity couples have been the target of admonition and admiration for years. The Jekyll and Hyde reaction to whatever the latest or hottest pop culture pairing happens to be is as over the top as ever. I've always theorized that these couples' break-up rates aren't as dramatically different from the general population.

Why Do We Love Celebrity Break-ups?

Most of these famous relationships end. But most relationships generally come to an end at some point, don't they? We pay so much attention to couples that split that we pay no attention to the ones that stick it out. And there seems to be a certain glee, an almost joyous countdown to celebrity break-ups. And each and every statement and action made by our Hollywood couples is parsed...just looking for a crack in the armor.

Related Link: The Simplest Tip to Save Your Relationship

The recent "controversy" is over actor/director Ben Affleck's comments about his marriage to celebrity love Jennifer Garner upon accepting this year's Academy Award for Best Picture. His quote: "I want to thank you for working on our marriage for 10 Christmases. It's good; it is work, but it's the best kind of work, and there's no one I'd rather work with."

In the minds of merry cynics and professional antagonists around the nation, this one statement was read as a subliminal confession of matrimonial strife. And that reaction is just silly.

What Affleck said was about as honest and realistic a statement as you'll ever hear any celebrity offer on a public stage. Marriage is work. Relationships and love in general are work. Once we get past the honeymoon stage in any coupling, we start the work. The hard work. So what message can we really take from Affleck's statements? I see the glass as half full. You've got a husband and wife who acknowledge that sustaining a long-term relationship requires dedication and diligence. It's not a fairy tale. There's a clear-eyed, beer-goggle free vision of relationships by this pair, which in all likelihood, has been the reason they've managed to stay together for ten years and two kids.

What Celebrity Couples Can Teach Us

So can we learn anything from celebrity couples? From my perspective, there's no more to be learned from them than from any other couple. The spotlight shines on their mistakes and break-ups so much brighter than on their successes that it would be easy to conclude that there's not a positive example among the bunch. Even in the face of overwhelming evidence, couples that have shown strength and staying power, we cast a jaundiced eye at them because they don't fit our established narrative; celebrity marriages don't last.

But in truth, if we're objective, we can use married celebrity couples' successes and failures as reminders and templates of what good relationship choices and a grounded perspective about what it takes to create a sustainable partnership can offer us. In other words, if you're basing your lifestyle on Taylor Swift and her boyfriend-of-the-week-club instead of Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner's brick-by-brick, love-is-work edict, you're pretty likely to be unfulfilled if your goal is something lasting and meaningful.

There are many, many examples of Hollywood couples that continue to roll on: Tom Hanks and Rita Wilson, Ted Danson and Mary Steenburgen, and Will Smith and Jada Pinkett Smith; even Danny Devito and Rhea Pearlman in spite of their rocky times, have managed to hang on. Because they realize that Affleck was right: It's work..but it's the best kind of work.
