Dating Advice: 10 Things You're Over-Analyzing In Your Relationship

By Josh Ringle

There are a lot of good, bad, weird, and typical things going on in your relationship at any given time. There are some components of a relationship that can be analyzed with no harm, and then others that if over-analyzed can have devastating impacts on the relationship, leading to severe problems. Celebrity couples have often times failed because of over-analyzing the wrong things, and we don't want that to happen to you. Follow these pieces of dating advice to stop over-analyzing the things that you shouldn't!

These pieces of dating advice dive into the over-analyzed aspects of your relationship to prevent relationship problems!

1. Social media: Whether it is your partner liking an interesting new photo, getting a new friend/follower, or posting an unusual status, don't let social media create relationship problems for you. Don't sit around worrying about their latest update, even if it isn't positive. It could be about school, work or family life!

2. Opinions: With an election coming up, opinions matter. But if you're a huge Hillary person, don't let your partner's possible opposing views get in the way. You shouldn't over think how they feel because everyone is entitled to an opinion. Let them use their first amendment right, whether it is about politics, celebrity couples, or life choices! Compromising is a great piece of dating advice.

3. Time not together: As a couple, it is obviously okay for you to spend time apart. Instead of assuming the worst, the space between the two of you shouldn't create any problems. If you over-analyze it, then maybe it will. But, by thinking positive, everything will be fine!

4. Who they are texting: It is common to be worried that there could be someone to replace you and take you out of your partner's life. While texting can lead to something more, if your relationship is stable and happy, it means nothing. It may be hard to think the optimistic way, but at the end of the day, if you and your partner are together, you shouldn't be worrying whatsoever!

Minor Things – Like the Dishes!

5. Partner's feelings: If you and your partner are together in a long-term relationship, you probably have had doubts about how they feel about you. If they are with you, they care about you and love you. Don't believe what others say about your partner. Thinking otherwise could just undermine your feelings.

6. Your own doubts: A really good piece of relationship advice is to believe in your feelings and to not doubt yourself. While it is natural to have feelings that things may not last, you shouldn't treat every one of these as a reason to end it with your partner. If you are into your loved one and wants things to work, they will as long as you don't over think it!

7. Fights: If you and your partner fight, that could indicate a major relationship problem, but if it is a rare occurrence, or over very trivial things, you shouldn't get worked up about them. It is true that they aren't good for your relationship and could turn toxic, but if there are few of them, you should not think about them to the point where you get tired of your partner.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 10 Strategies to Make Your Good Relationship GREAT

8. The past: Every relationship has their share of past problems, whether it be in the current one or it's a past bad experience. While it is important to be like Blake Shelton and learn from your mistakes in order to move on, it is also important not to dwell on the subject. Why should your partner date you if all you think about is your previous partner or problems in your relationship from months ago?

9. The present: If things at the moment aren't the best, do not fear. It is completely natural for a relationship to hit high points and low points. If you are in one of those low points at the moment, but still feel the sparks and the connection, don't give up! Things can happen that are out of your control that can paint sadness into your love life, but if you stay determined, there is no reason to call it quits.

10. The future: If you've been dating for three months, and you have your whole life planned together with your significant other, stop now. While it is great to be optimistic, you need to be realistic. Don't over-analyze the future because it could scare your partner away!

Date Ideas: "Fall" in Love

By Shannon Seibert. Updated by Josh Ringle

Before the weather gets too cold, take time out to embrace summer's last bit of warmth. This weekend, take part in some fall date ideas like going for an early fall hike and appreciating the nature changing around you. Or, you can just drive around with the windows down and breathe in that fresh autumn air. Check out this dating advice on how to make the most of your fall weekends!

Enjoy awesome date ideas for the fall!

Hiking is an amazing way for you and your man to connect with the beautiful outdoors and strengthen your relationship. Talk about your favorite events coming up this fall, and make plans for pumpkin carving, football games, and bonfires. The conversation will distract you from the distance, and in no time, you'll cover a decent amount of ground and get a great workout in for your legs. Staying healthy is one of the great dating tips autumn has to offer.

Collect different kinds of leaves as you make your way down the trail, and take cool pictures with the different sites you see. If you find a leaf unique enough, save it! Press it in a book, and when the leaf dries out, you can place it on a matted frame and have it as a keepsake of your trip.

For this weekend date idea, you can even build a pile of fallen leaves and jump in! The more, the better. Think of the scene from A Thanksgiving for Charlie Brown when everyone built gargantuan leaf piles and played in them for hours. You and your man can really dive into the feeling of fall and spend the afternoon making angels in the leaves.

If exercise isn't your thing or you don't have any mountains to scale, then take a long drive with the windows down to soothe the soul. Have your beau turn on some of his favorite tunes and just enjoy each other's company. Some "Old Time Rock N' Roll" or a little bit of Jason Mraz will relax the both of you and ease the stress of the workweek.

If you are fickle about wasting gas, you can just drive to an open field and have a picnic. As a tribute to the end of summer and the beginning of fall, bring all of your favorite foods. Hidden Valley has an amazing recipe for potato salad, which is a great picnic food. It pairs well with turkey sandwiches and fresh fruit.

Lay out with your love and watch the clouds roll by. Bring up your favorite fall memories as a kid or plan a trip together. It could be a weekend getaway to a nearby cabin or a visit to a national park. The Red Woods in Yosemite National Park in California are beautiful this time of year. Ask him about what his ideal vacation would be and bounce ideas off of each other. Maybe even use your favorite celebrity couples as an idea-starter!

When the day is over, snuggle on the couch with a blanket, pop in your favorite rom-com, and think about a fun fall date idea for next weekend.

Dating Advice: 5 Good Reasons to Date Your Best Friend

By Josh Ringer

There is a common thought prevalent in society stating that you should always marry your best friend. Well, the fact of the matter is, you can't marry your best friend until you date them! While celebrity couples have highlighted the best and worst of these best-friends-turned-lovers situations, it is entirely possible that you make the most of your situation if you decide to date your best friend. If you aren't sure if you want to give it a try, check out Cupid's dating advice below!

These pieces of dating advice highlight some reasons dating your best friend might be a great idea!

1. Comfort: A really important part of any relationship is the comfort level that exists between you and your significant other. Comfort levels among best friends are usually really high, which can only help your relationship grow over time. A great piece of love advice is to maintain a clearly defined comfort level so both you and your partner know what the limits are. If those limits are kept in check, there would be no reason for your relationship with your best friend to not be the best!

2. Easy transition: If your friendship with your best friend is already a little flirty, or just very comfortable, the transition to dating could be very easy. New friends that decide to date can have a hard time transitioning to becoming a couple because they don't know a lot about each other, and they may not be too comfortable either. All of that leads to a lot of relationship problems, but being best friends means you have already avoided all of that! Smooth sailing into a great relationship is in your future if you go for it.

Related Link: 8 Celebrity Couples Who Were Friends First

3. The obvious is key: The two of you are already friends, best friends even. That means you and your significant other already know about personal problems, family issues, friend issues, and other important emotional things. The fact that there is an important, caring connection makes falling in love a lot easier, and makes the relationship a lot easier to grow. As best friends, the two of you know the little things in life that may mean more than the big things, and in a relationship, sometimes the small things are just as important!

4. Communication: One of the key parts of a relationship is good communication. Relationship problems can sometimes stem from how the two of you communicate. Best friends are mostly good at communicating with each other, and you may even realize the potential love in your pre-relationship communication. If that is the case, you should definitely consider dating your best friend. A good piece of dating advice is to keep a good line of communication open because the better the communication, the better the relationship!

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Find Real Love

5. It won't ruin your friendship: The biggest reason against dating your best friend is the common misconception that trying to date her/him will ruin your friendship. If there's no cheating or major fights, there is absolutely no reason that an attempted relationship will ruin your friendship. If anything, it will make your friendship a stronger backbone of your new, more intimate relationship. If you are afraid that your friendship could be ruined, talk about it, and you'll find a way to make it all work.

Dating Advice: 7 Reasons to Get in Good with Your Partner's Family

By Josh Ringle

Parents should be important to everyone. Yes, Hollywood may show that celebrity couples have their in-law problems, on-screen and off, but your future in-laws or just your partner's parents are a huge factor in determining the overall success of your relationship. If you think that their opinion doesn't matter, keep reading for dating advice reasons as to why their opinion is beyond critical to your love life's success. Think of all the celebrity exes that became single because of parents' disapproval!

These pieces of dating advice will explain why parental approval is a must in a relationship.

1. Parental pressure: If your partner's parents don't like you, they can begin to plant seeds of doubt into your partner's head. "So, is he really good to you? Are you really actually happy with him?" can be questions you hear constantly and that will create problems quickly.

2. Questioning: Questioning is one of those many problems. If you start to think about your parents' criticisms of your relationship, you can run into trouble. You want your partner to really feel happy about you in all aspects, and parental approval is a must.

3. Adds to your relationship: Over time, your relationship will become layered with inside jokes, memorable places, unforgettable memories, and more. Having their parents like you will only add another positive layer to the relationship and will increase the likelihood of better things to come in the future. A good piece of relationship advice is to keep the relationship fresh and new, and adding new layers is a great way to do that.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 3 Ways to Master the Art of the First Impression

4. Discomfort: Often times, family time is a time that can include significant others. A trip down the shore or to a restaurant can now become a really awkward adventure. Celebrity couples turned celebrity exes became that way because of the discomfort, and you don't want that! An important piece of dating advice is to always make your partner feel comfortable and not out of place.

5. Take time away from the relationship: If discomfort is a common trait when there is family time, you could also lose some time together. If your partner's parents don't like you, you may not be invited places or to dinners, or you might find excuses yourself to not be together because of her/his parents. This will lead to cracks in the foundation of your relationship, and that is never good!

Related Link: Relationship Advice: 10 Strategies to Make Your Good Relationship GREAT

6. Happiness: Happiness is the most important part of any relationship. It's important to always make your partner happy as much as you can, if not always. If your partner loves her parents, their disapproval may be a heartbreaking thing for them. If you're respectful, responsible, and kind, their approval (and your partner's happiness) will follow.

7. Deal-breaker: Do you want to marry into a family that doesn't like you? It is true that it has happened before, but that doesn't mean it is a good idea. Parental disapproval can be the straw that breaks the camel's back and ruins the relationship. Regardless of which of the reasons ends it, the lack of their parent's thumbs up can really be a disappointing sign that things aren't as good as you thought.

Relationship Advice: Reasons Being Nice Doesn't Lead to Love

By Josh Ringle

Being nice is fundamental to a healthy and successful relationship. It may seem obvious, but it's a very important piece of love advice to keep in mind. That being said, it does not always end in love. Countless celebrity couples started as good friends, yet ended up with broken hearts. Some relationship advice tips are below that may give you a reason to believe that being nice doesn't necessarily result in a new perfect pair!

These pieces of relationship advice will show you why it is important to be more than nice if you're looking for love.

1. Nice can be boring: Celebrity couples have their fair share of drama and it rarely ever comes from being nice. While being a good person should be on the forefront of your mind, it may not always add to the relationship and could create boredom. While fighting and disagreements can jeopardize the sanctity of your relationship, being the nicest you can be or just not changing things up will definitely not help either.

2. It is expected: Societal norms state that you are supposed to be nice to everyone, regardless of how you feel about them. If you think that being congenial will instantly make you and your partner one of the next famous couples, take this relationship advice to heart, and make sure to do what is expected of you. Being nice isn't something that you should go out of your way to do; being a good person should come naturally.

3. Being nice isn't enough: At the same time, being nice, kind, or generous just may not be enough to make a relationship work. Making your partner laugh and just being there for them emotionally are two of the many other important relationship advice tips. If you find a way to include other ways of making the relationship work, , you will definitely improve your chances.

4. Welcome to the friend zone: There are two words more fearful to any couples, than almost any other words: friend zone. Being nice can absolutely get you love, but at the same time, it can also lead your prospective partner to believe that you just want to be friends, or are maybe not interested in them “in that way.” If you come across as a pushover, it could be a turn off to the idea of a relationship. It could be even worse by keeping you in the friend zone for good!

Dating Advice: 3 Ways to Master the Art of the First Impression

By Josh Ringle

You know, there is an obvious thing about first impressions: You only have one shot at them. A first impression can create one of the newest celebrity couples, or it can ruin your chance love. Many times, we hear of movie stars falling in love on the set, while we also hear about those who just didn't make the most of their premier opportunity. If you're looking to be the next Picasso of the first impression art collection, follow our pieces of dating advice below. With time and some practice, you can easily master the skills necessary to make a killer first impression!

These pieces of dating advice will help you master date nights and make the best first impression possible!

1. Make the situation comfortable: If you want to make a good first impression, you need to first choose the right time and place. If you met the person online and they already know something about you, this could be easy right off the bat. If you suddenly find yourself in conversation at the bar or smooth sailing on a date night, you'll be fine. However, a good piece of dating advice is to keep the conversation comfortable and high level at first. Talking about politics, marriage, or children is probably not the best start right out of the gate. Celebrity couples are great at making their first dates comfortable, even though they have the paparazzi following them around constantly. Take their lead!

2. Use body language: Consider using your body to your advantage. We're not talking about the R rated kind of way, either. Show you're interested in the conversation by keeping eye contact. Simply giving one slight touch may show your prospective partner that you're interested. You want to look like you are open to a conversation, and not too shy or reserved. Be sure to loosen up before the date night, and be prepared to start talking with confidence. Use your body, facial expressions, and emotional instincts to your benefit to start things off right.

3. Be genuine: Don't be afraid to be yourself! That should be the first thing on your mind. If you weren't the starting quarterback, a national champion dancer, or an academic stud, he/she probably won't mind. Try to have a good sense of humor, and make light of the things you may not be comfortable with. The other person will appreciate an honest and open person over someone who lies about who they are. "Honesty is the best policy" is not just a thing parents say to their children; it is an important step to making a great first impression.

year commitment (at least). A dedicated partner will have no problem sacrificing certain parts of their life to help raise kids.

Dating Advice: Gifts For the Heart

By Amy Osmond Cook for Divorce Support Center

Most would agree that Seattle Seahawks Quarterback Russell Wilson is the picture of good health. When paired up with his beautiful fiancée, Ciara, they are the image of a healthy celebrity couple. Finding the perfect gift to celebrate your loved one, however, never gets any easier, even for famous couples. Do you go with chocolates or flowers? How about a fancy dinner? When you do find the perfect token of love, it will most likely cost you a pretty penny to celebrate your beautiful mate. With summer love heating up, my dating advice is to make your heart the focus of your enduring love. Here are five ideas that stem from the heart – for the heart.

Dating Advice: Making Your Heart The Focus of Your Relationship

1. Adopt a heart healthy diet as a couple. By incorporating fresh fruit and vegetables, lean proteins, whole grains, and limiting your fat intake, you are taking healthy steps toward a loving and lasting relationship. According to the Mayo Clinic, “Limiting how much saturated and trans fats you eat is an important step to reduce your blood cholesterol and lower your risk of coronary artery disease.” My dating advice is to put your heart where your mouth is and make healthy food choices that will create long-term benefits for you and your loved one.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Spring Cleaning For The Soul

2. Exercise for Deux. “If you don’t make time for walking together, you’ll never work it into your busy days,” warned relationship expert Sheri Stritof. We all can benefit from daily exercise. A great way to stay motivated to exercise daily is to share your exercise routine with your sweetheart. Creating a daily walking ritual with your loved one is a great exercise for your heart, and the emotional connection that can come from daily conversations is good for the soul.

3. Learn CPR. According to the American Heart Association, sudden cardiac arrest is the leading cause of death in adults. When an individual is able to start CPR, the survival rate increases to over 40 percent. By contrast, each minute that treatment is delayed, the chance of your loved one surviving reduces by 10 percent. For information on CPR training, you can contact your local branch of the American Red Cross, or you can contact city hall for information on community courses. By learning CPR, you just may give the best gift of all to those you love—the gift of life.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Telltale Signs Your Relationship Is One of Convenience

4. Follow up on physical exams. Both males and females are encouraged to undergo physical exams every year. Experts agree a key to overall good health is prevention. One way to prevent disease is to build a comprehensive medical history. Early detection of common diseases is a strong defense should disease occur. According to Health Contributor Treacy Colbert, we should have cholesterol checked every five years, blood pressure checked every two years, and mammograms and cancer screenings every year. While you are focusing on your internal health, don't forget your cover. Colbert reported that the rates of melanoma continued to climb in the United States despite increased awareness of the dangers of skin cancer. "Check your skin every month for moles that have changed or look abnormal," wrote Colbert. "You should also look out for sores that won't heal. Have your doctor check your skin thoroughly as part of your physical— melanoma is highly curable when diagnosed early."

5. Share expressions of gratitude. For the United Health Group, good health is more than just measuring pressures or pounds: "It means taking an integrated approach to well-being that includes not only our physical health but our emotional health, our sense of purpose, our connections to our community and our overall quality of life." Experts say when you vocalize positive phrases and express appreciation to your loved one, it has a positive impact on your health as well as the mental well-being of your loved one. You will always avoid a few relationship problems. So share your feelings about your sweetheart. Tell him how much he means to you.

When you find someone you want to spend the rest of your life with, why not share gifts that are meant to last as long as your love for that person endures? With gifts such as a better diet, exercise, learning CPR, physical exams and phrases of gratitude, your gifts from the heart can be good for your heart. I “heart” that idea.

Dating Advice: 5 Ways to Stop Fighting Over Minor Things – Like the Dishes!

By Josh Ringle

When you're involved in a long-term relationship, you may realize that the relationship has problems which stem from minor things. The small things, like the dishes, cooking, and other household chores, , may turn into big problems that can jeopardize the happiness of your love life overall. The following pieces of dating advice will help you turn over a new leaf and become like a new and seemingly perfect celebrity couples. But, don't worry, there won't be a celebrity divorce, or any breakup for that matter, if you follow these tips to smooth it all out!

These pieces of dating advice will keep the fighting over minor things to a minimum. Use this love advice to keep your relationship strong!

1. Ignore it: At first, simply trying to let the little things go may be one of your best options. In the media, we all see the little problems that happen in celebrity relationships, but those are usually sorted out quickly! A great piece of dating advice is to just keep things the way they are and see if they go away before taking drastic actions.

Related Link: Dating Advice: What To Do When Your Relationship Gets Real

2. Find peace, and then talk: Usually, talking about something in the heat of the moment is not a good idea. Remember, a great piece of love advice is to know how and when to communicate the most effectively. Celebrity breakups happen all the time, because little problems, like whose turn it is to do the dishes, escalate and turn into a major problem for no reason. Finding peace and letting the situation calm down before a discussion is crucial. Reflect on the issue, and if it really is minor, address it as such. Don't escalate it into a bigger problem than it really is.

3. Don't fight: This is obviously easier said than done, but if the problem is actually minor, you shouldn't be fighting about it. While minor issues can be problematic in the short-term, it is important to remember that your relationship should be more valuable to you than who does the laundry, for example.

4. Make a schedule: If small daily tasks are of the source of your relationship problems, then the best thing to do may be to make a schedule of tasks. For example, if your partner cooks one day, you clean, or vice versa. The dishes can be alternated every other day, and the same goes for making the bed. A really important piece of dating advice is to help each other out, instead of tearing each other down.

5. Compromise: Another idea to consider is compromising and determining what to do collectively as a team. Those awesome celebrity relationships have their fair share of compromising, so why can't you jump on board, too? If you like to make the bed more than cleaning dishes, then maybe the two of you can trade that off for a day, or even a week. If the two of you are truly in love, compromising is a great piece of dating advice that will keep the relationship stable and the two of you happy for years to come!

These pieces of dating advice will help you keep the minor things from affecting the health of your relationship. What are some of your experiences? Comment below.

5 Celebrity Couples Who Live Modestly

By Katie Gray

When celebrity couples are humble and genuine, we feel more connected to them and admire them even more. Whether they have simple lifestyles outside of work, stay low key by avoiding the public eye, or live in an average sized home, we love celebrity couples who live modestly. Our favorite stars in celebrity relationships are more down to earth and endearing when they're living modestly, although they have so much success. We can all take relationship advice from these celebs!

Cupid has compiled a list of five celebrity couples who live modestly:

1. Sarah Jessica Parker & Matthew Broderick: One of the cutest celebrity couples in Hollywood, for years, has been Sarah Jessica Parker and Matthew Broderick. The actors married in 1997 in a celebrity wedding and have three celebrity babies together. Although Parker's character, Carrie Bradshaw, on Sex and the City was super into spending money on designer clothing, Parker opts for dressing her kids in Gap clothes and hand-me-downs. Although she has a net worth of almost $100 million, this celebrity relationship is genuine, which is likely why their marriage works so well!

2. Princess Kate & Prince William: We all love the royals! Prince William and Princess Kate are living a fairytale, however; they opt to live modestly, too. The proud parents of two even opt to do their own grocery shopping! Also, Kate Middleton doesn't have a set fashion stylist, instead choosing her own outfits and choosing to re-wear an outfit from time to time. Even when you're royalty, you can enjoy the simple things in life!

3. Kristen Bell & Dax Shepard: Kristen Bell is famous for playing Veronica Mars and being the voice of Gossip Girl. She is also known for loving coupons and the sales at Bed, Bath & Beyond. That's right; she and actor husband Dax Shepard, enjoy buying things on sale just like the rest of us! Their celebrity wedding was at the courthouse and only cost them $142 dollars. It's the little things in life that mean the most!

4. Mariska Hargitay & Peter Hermann: The Law & Order SVU actress, Mariska Hargitay, has garnered the reputation of being humble and down to earth. She and her actor husband, Peter Hermann, are also modest when it comes to finances. They put most of their income in savings for the future and have said they want to be good role models for their children, so they live as if they don't have a lot of money. Although they earn a swell living in the entertainment industry, they enjoy living low key and showing their children how the working class does it. Props to them!

5. Jay Leno & Mavis Leno: Jay Leno, the former star of The Tonight Show With Jay Leno, and his wife Mavis Leno have been married for years and choose to live quite modestly. Although he made millions on his late night talk show, they don't spend much of his earnings from that. A big portion of the income that finances their lifestyle actually comes from his stand-up comedy paychecks. A big round of applause to the Leno family for keeping it successful and simple!

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Megan Fox, Trai Byers and Selena Gomez

By Shoshi

In the latest celebrity news, these famous couples have made headlines, whether it be Megan Fox's rumored divorce, the Empire stars secret wedding, and Selena Gomez's not-so budding relationship. Whose stepping out in Hollywood this time around hand in hand? Check out my predictions for these three celebrity couples and find out what's next in their love lives.

Celebrity Couples Predictions: Celebrity Relationships That May or May Not Last

Megan Fox and Brian Austin Green: When Megan Fox started showing a baby bump, the press went crazy speculating over who the “baby daddy” could be. Since Fox filed for divorce from Brian Austin Green last August, technically, the baby could be anybody’s. But I never doubted that the baby was Green’s. This famous couple has been on a roller coaster ride since they got together. Fox and Green used to break up and get back together all the time before they got married. The new addition to their family was not planned, but they say all is good, they’re happy now and plan to see where it all goes. Neither one of them were dating anyone else and they still lived in the same house. My prediction is that Fox and Green will not file for celebrity divorce. It may be bumpy between them every now and then, but their spiritual connection remains. My relationship advice to Fox is take a month or two vacation from Green every so often. That seems to do the trick when it comes to rekindling their love.

Related Link: Celebrity Baby News: Megan Fox Reveals Third Pregnancy

Trai Byers and Grace Gealey: Two stars from Empire, Trai Byers and Grace Gealey, got married in a quiet ceremony in the Cayman Islands. You could say that it was a whirlwind romance since they had a short and quick courtship. Will they last? Right now it looks good. The Hollywood couple have the same ideals when it comes to marriage and family. Around their fifth year of marriage will be a time of make it or break it. Oddly, none of their co-stars from Empire were invited to the celebrity wedding, because they wanted to keep the wedding small. That lets me know that the rumors are true. Byers is not happy to be on the show and there have been rumors circulating that he wants to quit. By the end of the year, let's say around November, there will be celebrity news that the pair is expecting their first child. They will have two kids together, a boy and a girl. After Empire, Gealey will focus on being mother and wife while Byers brings home the bacon.

Related Link: Celebrity Divorce: Terrence Howard Splits from Wife No. 3

Selena Gomez and Charlie Puth: Anytime Selena Gomez talks to anyone of the opposite sex, it causes a stir. This time around she is being paired with Charlie Puth. Puth does not have nearly enough swagger for Gomez. She likes bad boys and men with an edge. Puth is as wonder bread as they get. He's talented but a bore. Gomez needs a guy that matches her fire and passion. If anything is going on with Puth, it's simply a friends with benefits situation. This rumored relationship has no steam. I actually see Gomez involved with an actor a little bit older. This new celebrity couple should blossom during the summer. Puth will keep having make out sessions with starlets.
