How do you keep distance from breaking up your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

There's no doubt that being apart for extended lengths of time while you're in a relationship is tough. Here are some ways to make it easier:

1. Use new technology: Now you talk to your significant other face-to-face every day if you wish, whether that means using Skype or Facetime on your iPhone. Make the distance a minor inconvenience instead of a deal breaker.

2. Consistently meet up: You can't be a couple and literally never see each other. Whether you travel to see your partner once a week, once a month, or every few months, it's important to make the effort to spend real time with your partner on a consistent basis.

3. Do things together: Yes, you're clearly not together, but that doesn't mean you can't do things together. Instead of just talking on the phone, watch a TV show or movie simultaneously. Call it a virtual date.

According to UsMagazine.com, the actor was spotted hanging out with a different girl just a few weeks after the split. How do you define yourself independently after a breakup?

Cupid's Advice:

Ending a relationship can leave you lonely and without an identity. Sometimes being in a long term relationship means falling into a routine or doing almost everything with your partner. Being single means being your own person, again:

family and friends.

2. Go out: No need to make bad decisions, but do go out and spend time with someone who loves you and can support you through this tough time.

3. Think about it: Figure out whether you want to stay single for a while or start dating again right away. Whatever it is, take the time to find out what makes you happy.

Best Celebrity-Couple Costumes for Halloween

y Whitney Baker

There are so many fun factors about Halloween. First, there are the pumpkins: pumpkin carving, pumpkin patches, pumpkin pie – and an annual viewing of the TV show, It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown. Next, you can't forget candy, like Brach's candy corn, which are only available seasonally in the autumn, making them a particularly delicious and coveted treat. Then, there's all that scary stuff: haunted houses, witches, goblins and ghouls – boo! And finally, perhaps the best part is the costumes – for one day out of the year, you get to be anyone you want to be, celebrities included.

For anyone looking for a little romance on a holiday that's typically filled with fright, you're in luck! Here's a list of celebrity couples whose looks can be transformed into costumes. One of them may be the perfect fit for you and your partner.

1. Justin Bieber and Selena Gomez: For the teeny-boppers out there – or anyone hoping to feel a bit younger for an evening – the prince and princess of pop make a very suitable duo. For Bieber, any guy with longer locks can sweep his bangs to the side, and any boy with a shorter 'do can simply throw on a sideways Yankees hat. Add a pair of Ray-Ban Wayfarers (dark lenses not necessary), jeans, and a hoodie, and you're set! For Gomez, you can rock a casual but glam look: skinny jeans, a flowing tank top, flats, hoop earrings, and wavy hair. If you really want to channel these two lovebirds, PDA is highly encouraged.

2. Katy Perry and Russell Brand: This eccentric and oh-so-in-love couple is an ideal choice for anyone looking to get a little crazy this Halloween. Perry has donned a number of hair colors and styles over the years, so take your pick:

bubble-gum pink or bright blue, jet black, or her most recent, honey-hued blonde. As for outfits, anything is fair game, even that sassy and sparkly Smurfette dress that's hiding in your closet. For Brand, the look is quite low-key: a pair of skinny jeans and a tight (and low-cut) t-shirt, along with unbrushed and knotted hair, some stubble, and a bit of guyliner. Oh, and don't forget the British accent.

3. Prince William and Princess Catherine: Their wedding may have been months ago, but people are still talking about these newlyweds, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. Princess Catherine has taken the fashion world by storm with her chic and totally relatable style, making her the ultimate princess to emulate on this costume-filled holiday. To truly stand out, opt for their wedding look: your man can wear an outfit that resembles Prince William's Irish Guards' red military uniform, while you can get glamorous in a lacy and flowing white gown, a beautiful sapphire (faux) engagement ring, and a bouquet of flowers. Complete the look with a tiara, of course.

4. Blair Waldorf and Chuck Bass: Okay, okay – so they may not be a real celebrity couple, but they've certainly made their mark as the "it couple" in the Gossip Girl-World of the Upper East Side. To imitate this high-society pair, girls should pull together their most designer-drenched look. Choose from high school Waldorf, who wouldn't have been caught dead without her preppy headband, or the now college-aged fashionista, who has adopted a more grown-up dress code – just be sure to accessorize accordingly. As for Bass, a guy only needs a three-piece suit, bow tie, pocket square, and all the charm that he can muster.

Are Scarlett Johansson and Joseph Gordon-Levitt Dating?

Scarlett Johansson and Joseph Gordon-Levitt may be a new couple, reports UsMagazine.com. The two were seen kissing in New York City last month, and, according to an eyewitness, “were very lovey.” A friend of Johansson says that the relationship is “nothing serious,” and that the two were only hoping to work together. However, another source testified, “[Johansson and Gordon-Levitt] first met about a film they wanted to do together, but it’s gone beyond that now.”

What are some ways to take a new relationship slowly?

Cupid's Advice:

When you're excited about a new relationship, it's easy to get carried away. Here are a few ways to take things slowly:

1. Plan infrequent dates: Even if you aren't busy, you should still avoid planning dates too frequently. Keep your outings few and far between at the beginning of the relationship so that you get to know each other gradually.

2. Limit your affection: Kissing your partner speeds up a relationship. To take things slowly, try waiting until the second or third date to show physical affection.

3. Wait on an introduction: It's okay to tell your friends and family about your new relationship, but don't allow them to meet your new partner until the two of you have dated for a while. Waiting on an introduction will limit your partner's influence in your life.

Demi Moore Hits the Red Carpet Alone, But With Wedding Ring

o far, both Demi Moore and Ashton Kutcher have kept quiet about their supposed marital woes, despite being constantly hounded by the tabloids. Although reports have recently surfaced that Kutcher cheated on Moore on their sixth wedding anniversary, the actress was still spotted on the red carpet with her wedding ring firmly in place. E! Online reports that Moore was not hurting for male companionship though, as she was surrounded by men at the NYC premiere of her latest film, Margin Call. Although men including Simon Baker, Paul Bettany, Penn Badgley and Zachary Quinto shared the red carpet with Moore, the actress did choose to attend the premiere without a very obvious date.

What are some ways to keep your marital woes from prying eyes?

Cupid's Advice:

Every marriage has its issues, but it's how you handle them that counts. Cupid has some ways to keep your problems from curious outsiders:

1. Discuss in private: Although you may have the urge to talk to you partner about an issue you're having immediately, do all that you can to keep it inside until the timing is right to discuss it ... which is when you're not in public.

2. Don't spill to friends: When you're angry with your mate, it can be tempting to run to your friends to complain. This will only serve to make things worse. Make sure to confront your significant other before confiding in your pals.

3. Interact in public minimally: If the problems in your marriage are big, it's probably best to stay out of the public eye together. The temptation to fight despite the fact that you're in front of people can sometimes be too great when your issues are major. Practice some independence from each other during this time.

Kellan Lutz Says Past Girlfriends Have Made the First Moves

Fans of Twilight hunk Kellan Lutz can stop speculating. Like many other male celebrities, Lutz has fallen victim to gay rumors. However, he assures his fans they are not true and that only insecure girls believe such nonsense. “Most of the girlfriends I’ve had have come after me. So it’s really funny when girls get offended because I don’t hit on them. They’ll transform their insecurity into ‘Oh that makes sense because I heard you’re into guys and have a boyfriend’...” The star has a lot of love for the LGBT community, despite the rumors. RadarOnline reports that he even prefers gay men as roommates because they’re typically cleaner. So ladies, if you ever want to approach Kellan Lutz, remember to be bold and secure with your tactics.

As a woman, what are some appropriate ways to make the first move?

Cupid’s Advice:

Making the first move is a bold approach. Remember to look your best and be confident in your choice of words and actions:

1. Buy them a drink: Some guys may try to flip the script and buy you a drink, but stand your ground. This shows you're a person of interest and that you're independent and can hold your own.

2. Compliments: A good way to break the ice is to compliment them. Whether it's their clothes, shoes, or eyes, this helps to get the conversation flowing.

3 Ask them to dance: Although this is a little risky because not everyone likes to dance , it does show that you want to have fun, which is an attractive characteristic. If the guy you choose can't dance, hit them with some old school dances and make everyone laugh.

Amy Smart and Carter Oosterhouse's Wedding Was Eco-Friendly

I t stands to reason that Amy Smart and Carter Oosterhouse would have the ultimate green wedding, as the pair initially met on a project they did for the Environmental Media Awards. “We got assigned to adopt a school garden together,” said Smart at the 2011 EMA’s in Burbank, Calif. “We met, and we were both in relationships, so we just remained friends. And then we both got out of relationships around the same time, a year ago this summer. And then a year later we got married.” At their wedding last month, Smart and Oosterhouse saw to it that only one bag of trash was generated for 200 people, according to People. Now, that’s impressive!

Cupid’s Advice:

What are some ways to keep your wedding green?

There’s no doubt that having a lot of people in one place can generate a lot of waste. Weddings are one of those occasions where masses of people get together to celebrate. Here are some ways to keep your wedding eco-friendly:

1. Use recycled and re-purposed decorations: Instead of investing in brand new decorations you'll never use again (and will most likely throw away), either use decorations you've utilized at past occasions or buy decorations made out of recycled materials.

2. Send out electronic invitations: You waste a lot of precious materials by sending out paper invitations, and they're almost always thrown out after the fact. Send out e-mail notifications instead.

3. Cut down on trash: Follow in Amy Smart and Carter Oosterhouse's steps and cut down on waste you produce at your ceremony and reception. Use plates, glasses and silverware that can be washed and used again. Request that your guests don't wrap your gifts. Say "no" to paper or plastic decorations that will simply be tossed after your big day is over.

Lauren Conrad and Derek Hough Are Caught Kissing in Public

Lauren Conrad and Derek Hough are further fueling circulating relationship rumors. The duo was seen kissing in the back room of LA's Trousdale Lounge, reports People. Though Conrad brought pal Lo Bosworth and Hough brought friend Mark Ballas, the two spent most of their time together. "It was obvious there was a lot of chemistry between the two," said an onlooker. "[Conrad] was very smitten. Neither seemed embarrassed about kissing in public."

How do you show your affection in public without being obvious?

Cupid's Advice:

Subtlety is key when it comes to public displays of affection. Here are a few ways to keep your PDAs under the radar:

1. Hold hands: Holding hands is a way to show your affection without drawing attention from others. It's a simple gesture that means little to the people around you, but can mean plenty to you and your partner.

2. Stay close: Standing closer together or sitting near each other at a table is an easy way to show your partner your affection without being obvious.

3. Keep it short: If you do want to kiss or hug your partner in public, keep it short. People passing by will not notice a quick smooch, but they will notice a prolonged kiss.

Eva Longoria and Eduardo Cruz Attend Burlesque Show

va Longoria and Eduardo Cruz were spotted at a Burlesque show at Beacher's Madhouse inside the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel. Although it may be a unique kind of date night, People reports that the couple laughed, cuddled and enjoyed the show. Longoria is far from the jealous type. When drag queen Vicky Vox rubbed Cruz' head in her chest, Longoria just laughed it off. Cheers to that!

What are some unique events you can attend as a couple?

Cupid's Advice:

Date night is a great way to keep your relationship hot and spicy. However, the same old routine can get pretty boring. To keep your date ideas fresh, try new events and locations:

1. Circus: Going to the circus isn't just reserved for kids. When one comes to a town near you, take your partner to see the acrobats and elephants. Pretend you're a child and bond with your sweetie in a new way.

2. Symphony: If you're getting sick of dinner and a movie, taking in some classical music is a great way to relax with your mate. Get all dressed up, drink some wine and indulge in an elegant night out.

3. Comedy show: Let go of the stress of the week by hitting up a comedy club with your significant other. Laugh out all of your worries.

How to Pursue Your Man Like Naomi Watts

Everyone knows the formula: boy meets girl, boy flirts with girl, boy asks girl out and boy and girl become an item. But what happens when girl meets boy and girl pursues said boy?

While it's not unheard of for a woman to have a crush, it's becoming more fashionable for her to be the pursuer, rather than the pursued. Take Naomi Watts and Liev Schreiber, for example. The pair met at the Metropolitan Museum of Art's Costume Ball, and the rest is history, as they say. Or, actually, it's HERstory.

The thing is, unlike other couples, Naomi actually pursued Liev. That's right. The actress made up an excuse, flew to New York and now the couple have two beautiful children. A woman pursuing a man isn't necessarily a new phenomenon in Hollywood, though. In fact, it's starting to feel like the norm.

For example, Rachel Weisz married Daniel Craig after meeting the super-hunk on the set of their new movie. LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian couldn't keep their hands off each other (their very married hands!) when they met. Jessica Alba thought Cash Warren was a stud, and now they've got a beautiful family.

And sometimes life even imitates art...or art imitates life. Even Anna Paquin couldn't keep her eyes off of costar Stephen Moyer. And ironically, Sookie, her character on their show, True Blood, pursued his character, Bill.

So what's a woman to do? Here are some tips:

1. Make the first move: Go talk to him. Compliment his awesome dancing ability. Hey, it worked for Naomi Watts!

2. Set up the next date: Take a lesson from Anna Paquin, and tell him when you want to see him again. Don't wait the obligatory 48 hours to text and/or call.

3. Don't be shy: Even if you tend to be on the quieter sell, go outside of your comfort zone and show your outgoing side. There's no place for hesitation when you're going after a man.

So, next time you're out with your girlfriends and you see a cute guy across the room, channel Naomi, Rachel, Leann and Anna ... and send him a drink.

It transforms you completely, in a second. Nature is very wise and gives you nine months to prepare, but in that moment, when you see that face, you are transformed forever."

How can you involve your child in a romantic date?

Cupid's Advice:

A date with your partner can lose its romance when the kids have to tag along. Find out how to keep the vibe going with subtle actions:

1. Communicate: Even if your child is present, make sure to speak to still incorporate adult conversation as well.

2. Touch: Just taps on the hand or rubs on the back throughout the date can keep things intimate.

3. Share dessert: Share a sweet treat while the kids make their own mess at the other end of the table.

Buddy Valastro and Wife Renew Wedding Vows After 10 Years

Cake Boss star Buddy Valastro decided to take a different approach to the typical wedding renewal ceremony. The Jersey baker and his wife, Lisa Valastro, celebrated their 10 year wedding anniversary aboard a Disney Cruise ship in the tropics. "It was pretty cool," he said. "The kids were on their knees and I was, too. My wife deserves it."

Where are some "out of the box" locations to have a renewal ceremony?

Cupid's Advice:

Cupid's Advice:

If you didn't have an ugly breakup and it just didn't work out, look at this experience as an opportunity to make friends with your ex partner. Here are some signs that you're ready to form a friendship with your ex:

- 1. When you can talk about your dates: Being able to talk about your dates with an ex without feeling jealous or awkward is a huge sign that you're safely in the friend zone.
- 2. When you like them more now: Maybe breaking up was just what you needed to discover that you're better as friends.

everly Hills, 90210 actress Shannen Doherty married photographer Kurt Iswarienko on Saturday, reports People.

Doherty, 40, and Iswarienko, 37, were married on a private hillside estate in Malibu. Doherty has been married twice before, to actor Ashley Hamilton and Paris Hilton sex-tape costar Rick Salomon. How can you increase your chances for a successful marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

The divorce rate has skyrocketed in recent years, and the percentage of marriages that end in divorce is only increasing as time goes on. Here are a few ways to make sure that you and your partner last:

1. Have similiar goals: Before tying the knot, make sure that you and your partner have similar goals. You may be perfect for each other now, but in 10 years you may not be. Make sure that you both wish for similar things in life.

2. Be forgiving: Everybody makes mistakes, and your partner is no different. Every marriage has its ups and downs, and you will have to be forgiving in order to make the marriage last.

3. Think it through: If you love your partner but are unsure about marriage, it's okay to take the relationship slow. Don't feel pressured into a marriage. Take your time, and be completely confident in your decision before tying the knot.

Nikki Reed and Paul McDonald Tie the Knot

Nikki Reed and Paul McDonald tied the knot at a private ranch in Malibu, Calif. on Sunday. The Twilight star and former American Idol season 10 contestant told UsMagazine.com, "We couldn't be happier! [We were] surrounded by our family and friends. We're so glad this day has come!" Reed and McDonald first met at the premiere of Little Red Riding Hood and after two months of dating, they were engaged in June. McDonald admitted to MTV News that Reed is the perfect girl for him. "She's amazing. She's the perfect girl. We fit each other; when you know, you know, and she's the one."

What are the advantages of a short engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

Some women plan for their wedding from the time they're children to the time they're ready to get married. When the time comes, they typically indulge in at least another year to plan. Here are three reasons why to cut the planning process short:

- 1. Less stressful: Having less time to focus on minor details, such as favors, the planning process won't be too hectic.

2. Less procrastinating: The more time you have, the more you'll procrastinate. Less time means you'll work harder and faster on making your big day magical.

3. Smaller weddings: Weddings are often small with only close friends and family when you rush to pull your wedding day together, which creates a more intimate affair.

Demi Moore Proves There's Hope After Divorce

y Amy Osmond Cook, Ph.D.

It's unclear as to whether Demi Moore is going to file for divorce from Ashton Kutcher after he allegedly cheated on their sixth wedding anniversary. At least, that's what the Vancouver Sun and other media outlets are reporting. Though both parties have declined to confirm the split, it's certainly apparent that this is a difficult time for both of them.

It's no surprise that many marriages crumble when there is a serious betrayal. For most Americans, marriage remains the highest expression of commitment that they can imagine. Most also believe it's unacceptable to cheat, lie, or keep secrets in a marriage—and that number has continued to fall over the past 40 years, according to Stephanie Coontz, the author of the article The Origins of Modern Divorce.

While the difficulty of this situation cannot be overstated, Demi has navigated this terrain before with grace and poise.

If she handles a divorce from Ashton like she did her divorce from Bruce Willis, we can expect the couple to stay friends and find happiness amidst the devastation. So, what can we learn from this actress?

1. Keep it classy. Demi has yet to talk about her situation with Ashton in a public way. Until a final decision is made, she's probably going to keep quiet about it. She and Bruce were models of restraint during their divorce and continued to build each other up even as they separated.

2. Remember that love conquers all. Somehow, Demi and Bruce continued to love each other while no longer remaining "in love" with each other. Bruce told Vanity Fair Magazine in 2007: "It's hard to understand, but we go on holidays together. We still raise our kids together—we still have that bond. . . . I love Demi, and I know she loves me." We can expect Demi to go through a grieving process, but then come out on top—choosing love and forgiveness over bitterness and acrimony.

3. Put the kids first. In 2007, Demi stated: "I'm the product of divorced parents, and my brother and I were the pawns in my parents' game. I never wanted that for my kids." She explained, saying: "You know, I didn't get married and have children so I could get a divorce, get remarried, and get along with my ex-husband. But since that is what happened, I am grateful it turned out this way." Ashton has been a father figure to Demi's children for years, so Demi will most likely continue to support that relationship.

Divorce is certainly difficult. Many of us know that from personal experience. But if anyone can handle a public divorce in a classy way and continue to find the good in her relationships, it's Demi Moore.

How do you decide if adoption is right for you and your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Adoption is something that should be deeply discussed. It can be a long and stressful process for which some couples are not ready. Make sure you and your partner have considered it from all angles:

- 1. Consider the pros and cons: Making a list of positives and negatives with your partner can help to solidify that adoption is right for you as a couple.
- 2. Others who have adopted: It may be a huge help to get advice from someone you know who has actually been through the adoption process and have them tell you their story.
- 3. Discuss with family: Family knows you best and can give good advice. It's probably best to discuss with only those to whom you're closest.

How do you keep a new relationship under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

When a relationship is very new, it's too early to know if it will last or not. Here are some ways to keep it under wraps until you're sure something is beginning:

1. Think twice about social media: Doing something as harmless as writing "Hi Honey" to your potential partner on Facebook or Twitter is enough to give you away.

2. Don't get physical in public: It's a small world. Therefore, you will probably bump into someone you know while holding hands in public.

3. Don't blurt it out: The biggest giveaway could be your excitement about a potential new relationship. Although you no doubt have butterflies right now, keep them quiet while around your family and friends.
