

Most Romantic Movies of 2010

By Erika Mionis

2010 has been a big year for movies. Sequels like Iron Man 2 and Toy Story 3 have ruled at the box office, while animated films like Despicable Me and How to Train Your Dragon have made their marks as well. Those aside, the year was also particularly crammed with many a chick flick. From romantic comedies (When in Rome, Knight and Day) to romantic dramas (Dear John, Remember Me), nearly all of the movies have had easily identifiable themes and laughs that we learned from and enjoyed. Out of all the great romantic movies we have seen this year, the following have had lessons that effortlessly apply in the real world:

Easy A: This romantic comedy had us rolling in the aisles. Emma Stone masterfully portrays Olive Penderghast, the teenage protagonist whose sarcasm is as razor-sharp as it is endearing. After pretending to lose her virginity to help out a friend, Olive's reputation begins a downward spiral as nasty rumors circulate around her school. Eventually, her childhood crush helps her regain her reputation and her happiness.

Though based in high school, the film manages to support an overarching theme; the idea that those who really care about you will stick by you, no matter what.

Blue Valentine: This drama will have you on the edge of your seat. While the basic romance in this film is not immediately detectable, this tale of two troubled lovers is one of the most heart-wrenching films we've seen in a while. The film follows the now-broken couple of Dean (Ryan Gosling) and Cindy (Michelle Williams) over different points in their relationship. MTV's NextMovie.com calls the film, "A meditation on the nature of romantic relationships that's undeniably depressing yet incredibly insightful." It's safe to say that the flick is not a cheerful one, but it does present a viable warning. Be cautious when entering a relationship. Don't progress too quickly, and thoroughly examine your values before making a serious commitment.

Eclipse: The third installment in the Twilight Saga was also the most successful, both with critics and at the box office. Bella Swan (Kristen Stewart) is forced to choose between her steadfast vampire boyfriend, Edward Cullen (Robert Pattinson), and her best friend-turned-new flame Jacob Black (Taylor Lautner). The film gave us an important lesson about the dangers of jealousy (especially if you're caught in a tumultuous love triangle between a shirtless werewolf and a sparkling vampire). The movie is undeniably entertaining, and the sheer gorgeousness of the cast left us reeling.

Singer John Mellencamp and Wife Elaine Split

It looks like singer John Mellencamp is starting the new year as a single man. After 18 years of marriage, Mellencamp and his wife Elaine have decided to call it quits. According to People, the pair met in 1991 when supermodel Elaine Irwin was hired to pose on the cover of Mellencamp's 'Whenever We Wanted' album.

No concrete reason has been given for the split, but Mellencamp's spokesperson Bob Merils told The Hollywood Reporter that they "are proud of their 20 years together and are very happy with their accomplishments both as parents and as a family" and that "they will continue to raise their two children in Indiana, but have decided to call it a day as a couple."

What are ways to get out there after a long marriage ends?

Cupid's Advice:

Like many others coming out of a long marriage, John Mellencamp and Elaine Irwin are a little rusty when it comes to the dating game. Cupid thought of some steps to getting yourself out there after a divorce:

1. Focus on numero uno: Before you can find someone new after a divorce, you need to feel good about yourself. Take some time to lift your spirits by doing things that make you smile.

Once you're happy on your own, you're more likely to attract a great guy!

2. Hang with singles: Once you're ready, start going out with friends and meeting new people. This can be anything from going out dancing, attending sports events or traveling.

Mingle with the singles everywhere you go, and you're bound to find yourself a date who shares similar interests.

3. Online dating: When all else fails, try meeting someone online! Find a dating site that feels right for you, set up a profile and let the computer do the work. We're in the generation of technology, and hundreds of people are meeting their spouses online every day. You could be next!

Black Swan Star Mila Kunis and Boyfriend Macaulay Culkin Split After 8 Years

After eight years together, Mila Kunis and Macaulay Culkin have decided to amicably end their relationship. According to UsMagazine.com, the couple went their separate ways months ago, but decided to keep it quiet while Kunis, 27, promoted Black Swan. The actress has never made her fear of settling down a secret.

She even admitted to Blackbook in 2009 that although she doesn't believe in marriage, she does want to have children someday. "I will have children," Kunis said. "I'm too selfish to have them now, but when I do, I don't feel like I need to be married. I need to have a person in my life who will care for me and my children – nothing else."

What are things to consider about your partner before you have kids?

Cupid's Advice:

Having children is one of the most important decisions you and your partner will have to make together. Cupid has some things to consider about your partner before you decide to reproduce:

- 1. Happiness: Having a child is a lifelong commitment, and you have to be sure that your partner is content with his life and what he's achieved before you make the decision to alter both of your lives.

2. Career: Not only does having a child require a lot of money, but it also requires a lot of time. Both of these factors heavily depend on your partner's career.

3. Wants in life: Sometimes the pressure of feeling like you're supposed to do something in life can make you forget what you truly want. Make sure that you both want children for the right reasons.

LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian Barred from New Year's Eve A-List Party

What's a celebrity couple to do when they're barred from attending a birthday bash? They just attend a party thrown in their honor to ring in the New Year of course! LeAnn Rimes and Eddie Cibrian found themselves missing from the guest list for a party hosted by the ex-boyfriend of Cibrian's ex, Brandi Glanville. According to E! Online, "They tried to get on the list, but he said no because of his allegiance to Eddie's ex-wife." It's time for Plan B! The newly engaged couple spent the night at Pink Kitty nightclub in Cabo.

What are ways to overcome animosity from ex partners?

Cupid's Advice:

Going separate ways is unfortunately not always a pleasant experience, but don't let the past keep you from moving forward. Cupid has a few tips on overcoming ill will from an ex:

- 1. Take the higher road: In the words of Sandra Bullock, "Whoever established the high road and how high it should be should be fired." Yet Bullock still maintains grace and poise by refusing to allow her ex to bring her down – as should you!
- 2. Let it go: Holding a grudge requires retaining a lot of negativity. Instead, focus not only forgiving your ex partner, but yourself as well. Move on.
- 3. Settle your differences: Forgiveness goes a long way, especially when you can both come forward and apologize for the past. Everyone makes mistakes!

Valerie Bertinelli Marries

Boyfriend of 7 Years, Tom Vitale

Valeri Bertinelli is hitched! The actress married her boyfriend of seven years, Tom Vitale, on New Year's Day at their home in Malibu, People reports. "We're so happy!" said Bertinelli. There were approximately 100 guests at the wedding, including Bertinelli's son Wolfie from her previous marriage to Eddie Van Halen, who also attended.

Should you invite your ex to your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

Now that you've accepted your fiancé's proposal for marriage and are making your wedding guest list, it's time to decide whether to invite your ex to the big day. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. What your fiancé thinks: Will your spouse-to-be feel comfortable with having your ex present at the wedding? If your ex-partner is a stranger to your future spouse or they aren't friends, it's better to leave him off the list.

2. Your friendship: How has your relationship with your ex been since you broke up? If you're on good terms and harbor no lingering feelings, consider inviting him to your wedding, only after consulting with your fiancé.

3. Ulterior motives: If your only reason for inviting your ex is so that he can wish you and your spouse-to-be the very best in life, it's probably not a good enough reason.

A-Rod's Kids Like Kate Hudson Better Than Cameron Diaz

Apparently, Cameron Diaz pales in comparison to Kate Hudson when it comes to boyfriend, Alex Rodriguez's kids. According to UsMagazine.com, a source says that Natasha, 6, and Ella, 2, “liked Kate more than Cameron, since she had Ryder [Hudson’s 6-year-old son]. They really miss him.” Diaz has been doing her best to get on the kids’ good side while vacationing in Cab San Lucas, Mexico over the holidays. Hopefully, all of her efforts don’t go unnoticed!

What do you do if your kids don’t like the person you’re dating?

Cupid’s Advice:

Your kids are some of the most important people in your life, and their opinion of your new partner will definitely have an effect on the relationship. Cupid has some advice on what to do if your kids aren’t thrilled about the person you’re dating:

- 1. Find out why: If your kids have a reason beyond “he’s not my dad” to dislike your new relationship, you need to find out what that reason is and, if possible, find a way to fix it.
 - 2. Put their needs first: As hard as it is to hear, being a parent is your first priority. If your children don’t get along with your new partner, then you may need to rethink the relationship.
 - 3. Give it time: Sometimes it’s just hard for children to adjust to new faces. Although they may not initially be thrilled with your relationship, time may be the answer.

Is Your Dating Profile A Movie Trailer or a Cereal Box?

I've read a metric bazillion dating profiles in my time as an online dating coach and about 90% are yawn-worthy. Do you think you're part of the other 10%? Think again.

Most people write a dating profile that reads a bit like a cereal box. Have you seen the following claims on a dating profile (maybe yours)?

The Cereal Box Dating Profile

Healthy: "I like to take care of my body and you should, too."

Balanced: "I love to get dressed for a night out or wear PJs for a movie at home."

Wholesome: "Family is really important to me. I don't know what I'd do without the support and love of my parents and siblings."

Mom-approved: "Best of all, your parents will love me."

Sure, these are all things that you might value in a date, but we eat cereal every day. It's not exciting. It's not unique. It's not interesting. It's just... okay. Pair a cereal box profile with photos of a regular Joe (or Jane), and what do you get? Not a whole lot of emails from potential dates, that's what!

Learn A Lesson From The Movies

The film industry knows what they're doing. How many times have you seen a trailer and been totally psyched to see the movie? It has your favorite actor, it's based on your favorite novel or it has lots of explosions. You know in a minute or three whether or not it's a movie you'd be interested in seeing.

Previews work by showing you snippets of the best parts of the movie. You meet the protagonist, and you get a preview of their story. If it's going to be a funny movie, there are some quick quips. If it's going to be a summer blockbuster, there are cars exploding and people leaping away just in the nick of time.

What's Your Trailer?

Your life may not seem as exciting as a summer blockbuster (and I certainly hope there are fewer explosions!), but it's interesting and unique. Think about the little things that make you who you are, and write those into your dating profile.

Even little things give a glimpse of your character. When I was dating, my profile described me riding my shopping cart across the parking lot at Publix supermarket (you're never too old!). Many of the emails I got from men referenced that part of my profile as a reason why they emailed me.

Take your Cereal Box Claims and beef them up with specifics:

Old: “I like to take care of my body and you should, too.”

New: “I’m not sure what I like most about my morning run – the heart-pumping exercise or the heart-stoppingly beautiful sunrises.”

Old: “I love to get dressed for a night out or wear PJs for a movie at home.”

New: “My best friend knows me better than anyone else. For my birthday last month, she got me tickets to the opera and a new pair of fuzzy bunny slippers.”

Old: “Family is really important to me. I don’t know what I’d do without the support and love of my parents and siblings.”

New: “Now that we’re adults, my sister and I are best friends. It might also help that our closets are 300 miles apart – she always stole my favorite clothes!”

A Movie Trailer Profile Always Does Its Job

Not every movie trailer is going to thrill you and make you mark opening day on your calendar. If you re-write your dating profile (or have my staff do it for you), it’s not going to magically attract every single on your dating site.

And it shouldn’t.

If your dating profile is written like a good trailer, it will intrigue the kind of person who will find you interesting, attractive, and worth getting to know better.

Steps for Success

1. Read your current dating profile and mark the boring cereal box phrases. Make notes on how you can beef them up by being more specific.
2. Find little snippets of your life that show off your character. Write about those.
3. Don’t be afraid to show yourself off. Self-confidence is sexy and will draw in exactly the kind of people that are good matches for you.

What do you do if you know your friend is dating a dud?

Cupid's Advice:

Everyone wants the best for their friends, especially when it comes to finding "the one." However, what happens when your friend believes they've found that person, but you couldn't disagree more? Cupid has some tips on how to share your thoughts:

1. Break the news gently: No one wants to be blindsided by their best friend when it comes to serious matters. Avoid bashing and approach your friend tactfully. The last thing you want is for them to feel attacked and immediately disregard your opinion.

2. Voice your concerns: As a best friend, it's your job to support unconditionally, which includes the hard stuff. One way to avoid putting your friend on the defensive is to offer concrete examples.

3. Console and support: Hopefully your friend believes you, in which case a breakup is in sight, and she is going to need a shoulder to lean on. If things don't necessarily go your way, remember that sometimes people need to realize things for themselves; support them in the meantime.

Jason Mraz Discusses Why Fiancee Tristan Prettyman is “The One”

Singer Jason Mraz is sure his fiancée, Tristan Prettyman is “The One.” UsMagazine.com reports that Mraz’s certainty stems from his devotion to the number 23. “[Prettyman and I] hit it off instantly by syncing our interest in this magical prime number,” said Mraz on his blog. “Whenever she or I come upon it, whether being sat at table 23, or assigned seat 23 on a plane, we almost-always and/or involuntarily think about the other.” In fact, Mraz proposed on the magical 23rd of December. “We both see this being a long engagement, but would love to get married within the next 2.3 years,” said Mraz. “She will likely retain her beautiful name, but should she decide to hyphenate, Tristan Ann Prettyman-Mraz makes 23 letters.”

What are signs that your partner is “The One”?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it's hard to tell if your partner has the potential to be "The One." Here are a few signs:

1. He supports you: A supportive partner will most likely be amenable to any changes your career throws at you, like sudden moves or a change in salary. Support is necessary if you and your partner are going to provide for each other both emotionally and financially.

2. You have the same goals: You and your significant other need to be confident in your future together. If you both wish for kids or want a small house by the beach, then you'll find that making decisions in the future will be relatively painless.

3. Your instinct: You can do all of the analyzing you want, but eventually what it comes down to is how you feel about your partner. You may not see fireworks or flashes of light across the sky, but at the very least, a small part of you will "just know."

Christie Brinkley Says Finding Love Isn't a Priority

Even though

Christie Brinkley has been divorced for two years, she's in no hurry to find love again, according to People. Why?

According to the model, she's not as likely to meet people when she has her kids with her, which is a lot of the time.

Also, she says, "you never really know if someone is talking to you because you're a celebrity. It's not my number one priority." Brinkley currently has three children, and says that being a mother "takes a lot of work. My works makes me a better mom. It gives me a little door to step out of my parenting and bring the excitement from that day back home."

Her advice to bounce back from a painful divorce? "You've got to find a way to keep laughing, even if it's black humor, and my friends are very good at that," she says. "Some people think of happiness as a luxury, but it's a necessity, and you need to make space for it in your life."

How do you know if someone likes you for the right reasons?

Cupid's Advice:

Celebrities can never tell if people are into them because they're famous or because they actually like them. Even for those of us who aren't famous, it can be tough to tell if someone's interested for the right reasons. Here are some hints:

1. Eye contact: It may seem simple, but if someone is actually interested in what you're saying, he will make eye contact with you during a conversation. If it seems like he's constantly glancing around to see who's watching, he might be a fake.

2. He's attentive: He sends you cute texts in between dates, he remembers things you said the last time you saw him and follows up on them, and he goes out of his way for you on a regular basis. These are all signs that he likes you for you.

3. He sings your praises: Instead of simply telling his friends he's dating you and leaving it at that, he gushes to them about all of your finer qualities – the ones that matter. This proves he's actually getting to know you and likes what he sees so far.

Nicki Minaj is Single and Seeking a Calm and Strong Man

Nicki Minaj is single and ready to date, according to The Hollywood Gossip. Minaj is on the cover of the latest issue of King Magazine and opens up about what she's looking for in a partner. "Someone who is calm, who is strong enough to not have to win every argument, who allows a woman to be her crazy self and someone with a conscience not to feel less of a man." We suppose a calm man would be a good balance to the rapper's wild style.

What are characteristics of a good argument style in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

A good argument is not who has the best come-back, but more of an action plan. You can have a shouting match with your siblings, but talk it out with your partner:

- 1. Listen: How do you expect your partner to listen to your side if you won't listen to his? If you're too heated to sit down and be rational, take some time apart and get back together in an hour or so, after you've both cooled off.
- 2. Acknowledge his side: When your boyfriend is making a point and says something you disagree with, let him know that you understand where he's coming from, but that you don't feel the same way. "I understand you want to do this, but I feel it would be better if.." is a good way to start.

3. Sleep on it: Sometimes it's better to go to bed and start the day fresh than to talk in circles with no solution in sight. If you're not getting anywhere, sleep on it and return to the subject at hand in the morning.

Reese Witherspoon and Jim Toth Are Engaged

Reese Witherspoon will soon be walking down the aisle once again, this time with Hollywood agent Jim Toth. The actress, 34, and Toth, 40, began dating in January 2010. This will be Witherspoon's second time down the aisle; her first marriage to actor Ryan Phillippe ended in 2008. Witherspoon and Phillippe have two children together, Ava, 11, and Deacon, 7. An insider revealed that Witherspoon's children have bonded with Toth and "...are happy with [Toth]." The source assured UsMagazine.com,

“[Reese] is definitely happy, in love and definitely wants to settle down.”

What are things to consider about a second marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

When your first marriage doesn't work out, it's understandable to want to give married life another shot. Here are a few things to consider about a second marriage:

1. Children: If you have any children from your first marriage, make sure they are fond of your new partner. Your children need to have a say in deciding who their next family member will be.

2. Child/Spousal support: Before walking down the aisle, make sure you have taken care of all of the monetary concerns. Review the child or spousal support you are receiving from (or giving to) your ex-husband, and be aware of any changes that will occur.

3. First marriage's failure: Take some time to reflect on your first marriage, and figure out why it failed. By analyzing your mistakes, you can go into your second marriage with a stronger understanding of what it takes to make a marriage work.

Tasha Smith Gets Married at Home

Every little girl has dreams of a big fancy wedding when she grows up, right? Not necessarily! For Tasha Smith and Keith Douglas, exchanging vows in the living room of their Los Angeles home was a dream come true. “We decided to hold a very simple, intimate ceremony with just us and our pastor,” the 39-year-old actress tells Essence. According to People, the newlyweds announced their engagement six months ago. Now back from her Las Vegas honeymoon, Smith says, “It was a beautiful, blessed moment that we will remember forever.”

How do you make a wedding at home romantic?

Cupid's Advice:

Many couples would love a wedding like Tasha Smith and Keith Douglas, but they aren't sure how to make it special. Cupid has a few ways to make a wedding at home special:

1. Live music: Since you're saving so much money on a venue, why not spend some of it on a band? There's nothing more romantic than walking down the staircase to the sound of soothing instruments in the other room. Then after the ceremony, have them play your favorite requests while you dance the night away with your new spouse.

2. Decorate: Decorations can turn any ordinary room into a fancy hall. A few fancy chairs, tables with center pieces and some pretty flowers can help aid with the transformation.

3. Try outside: Having a wedding at home doesn't actually limit you to the inside of your house. If it's nice day, why not say "I do" in the beautiful summer breeze or over your newly green lawn covered in spring flowers? Don't forget, your backyard is part of your home, too.

90210 Star Shenae Grimes Denies Dating John Mayer

According to UsMagazine.com, Star recently connected Shenae Grimes of 90210 to singer, John Mayer. However, both parties deny this claim. While a rep for John Mayer simply stated that Star isn't a credible source, Shenae Grimes took to Twitter to set the record straight by tweeting, "According to Star magazine John Mayer and I are in secret sexy cahoots. How wonderful for me...if wonderful meant embarrassing." How do you tell if he's a bad boy?

Cupid's Advice:

John Mayer has established his reputation as a bad boy in Hollywood. The thing is, they don't always come in leather jackets. Here are some tell-tale signs:

1. Your parents don't like him: Sometimes mother really does know best. Your parents will always want the best for you and can almost always sense when the guy doesn't have your best interests at heart.

2. He's unpredictable: If you can't count on him to keep his word or show up to dates on time (or at all), he's probably bad news.

3. He won't fully commit: If he tends to always keep his distance, you probably aren't the only woman in his life.

Kelly Osbourne Trashes Ex-Boyfriend Luke Worrall

Christmas wasn't so merry for Kelly Osbourne, thanks to ex-fiance Luke Worrall. According to Us Weekly, the 26-year old let her ex have it late Monday night via Twitter. At first, Osbourne kept it cryptic, tweeting: "Just found something out that has hurt my feelings so bad ☹ and christmas was going so well." Later on, she made it clear that since they parted in July, "he has been trying to get back with me, I only came home for Xmas to see him. Meanwhile, he has been fing hundreds of girls...behind my back." The E! Fashion Police critic is back in London with her family for the holidays and plans to go "off Twitter for a while." Osbourne noted, "Never felt heartbroken like this in my life."

What things should you keep to yourself in a relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Kelly Osbourne was so blinded by anger that she got the whole media world involved with her relationship. However, there are many things in a relationship that should just stay between you and your special someone. Cupid has some examples:

1. Fights: Getting people involved in arguments between you and your partner could be fatal to your relationship. Whether it's your friends ganging up on him or his family judging you, tension is bound to build.

2. Love life: Whether your love life is amazing or on the rocks, it's your love life. Even if you're okay with others knowing intimate details, he may not be. Respect your relationship with your partner by keeping certain details to yourself.

3. Money: If you and your partner are married or living together, money becomes a shared entity. Many people are sensitive about the amount of money they make, whether they admit it or not. Keep monetary details on the down-low.

What are reasons to involve your family in your engagement?

Cupid's Advice:

An engagement is one of the happiest moments of your life, and who better to share it with than the people who have seen you through it all? Cupid has some reasons to involve your family in your engagement plans:

- 1. Approval: Even though they have probably met your partner before, introducing someone as your fiance is totally different. Make sure the people who know you best approve of this decision.
- 2. Respect: Your parents and family are the ones that have raised you and been with you through it all. Include them in the engagement proceedings out of respect.
- 3. To share your happiness: Because your engagement is one of the happiest times in your life, sharing that joy with your family makes it even happier.

Jessica Simpson Calls Eric

Johnson 'Perfect Addition to Our Family'

Jessica Simpson was very active on her Twitter account this past week, wishing all of her followers a very merry Christmas, reports RadarOnline. Simpson revealed that her entire family gathered at her parents' home in Encino, California for a Christmas celebration. Simpson's fiancé, football player Eric Johnson, was also there for the celebration. "Eric is the perfect addition to our family," tweeted Simpson. "I'm so grateful this holiday season!!! I hope everyone had a magical Christmas! Love you X."

Is it important that your partner fit in with your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Having your family accept your partner is only half the battle. The other half is getting your family to actually like him. While some deem this effort unnecessary, having a significant other who fits in with your family makes life much easier. Here are some benefits:

1. Peace of mind: When families get together, especially during the holiday season, it's nice to know that there aren't any snide or frustrated conversations occurring behind your partner's back.

2. Willing favors: While your family would never turn their back on you and your partner when the two of you are in need, they will be more likely to grant a favor with a smile on their face if they genuinely approve of your relationship.

3. Frequent visits: When your partner feels comfortable visiting your family with you, you're able to spend more time with all of the people you love.

Why I'm Rooting For Jennifer Aniston in 2011

By The Single

Filez

2010 is drawing to a close, and the new year will soon be upon us. While this is usually exciting for me, I must admit that I'm not looking forward to watching the clock strike midnight this year. Let me explain. I turn 35 next year. If I'm being honest, I'm scared shitless. Luckily, I still feel and (thanks to great genes), look 25. But no matter how young I look, the fact remains the same: next year I will be 35 and still single. I'll be single with not even a whiff of any potentials and without ever having experienced a long term relationship. The older I get, the more worried I feel about my singledom.

Just like Jennifer Aniston (and many other single women out there), I'm notoriously unlucky in love. Although Jen has the distinct advantage of having been married to Brad Pitt, whereas I have the advantage of still being in my mid-30's (Aniston is in her 40's). Either way, I'm rooting for Jen because I'm sick and tired of the reaction in the media to her lack-of-a-man situation. Everything they say about Aniston are the same things my friends, family and co-workers say about me: "but, she's gorgeous," "but she's successful" and "why on earth can't she keep a man?." It's frustrating, it's tiring and it's just not fair.

At first, I was going to write about why Jennifer Aniston and Halle Berry (another successful hottie who seems to be a serial douche bag dater) scare the hell out of me. I was going to say how nervous I am about still being single when I'm 40, but then I thought, "NO." Actually, what I want to do is root for Jennifer Aniston in 2011. I want to do for her what I want my folks to do for me. Despite my bad luck with men, I feel confident that I will find the right man eventually. So, HAPPY NEW YEAR Jen! I hope you find a good love in 2011. Enough of the 'Mr Right Nows,' like John Mayer, Bradley Cooper, Vince Vaughn and Gerard Butler. Give us singletons the opportunity to look at you and say, "Hey, there's hope after all. It is possible to find true love after a long bout of bad luck." But most importantly, do it for yourself. Wouldn't it be nice to stick your middle finger up and prove to the world that you're gorgeous, successful and can keep a man?

Go Jen!

Is it OK to date your coworkers?

Cupid's Advice:

While there are some people who won't mix business with pleasure, others don't see a problem with it. Before making a decision, Cupid has some things to consider:

- 1. Expressing feelings: Don't jump into things too quickly. Make sure that your attraction is mutual so that you don't end up making things awkward in the workplace.
- 2. Don't violate company policy: Some companies discourage relationships among employees while others are more tolerant of it. Find out what the dating policy in your company is beginning a relationship with your coworker.
- 3. Be serious: Make sure you are both serious about being in a relationship. If you know that it's just going to be a short-term fling, it might be awkward for both of you to work together afterward.
