Kate Hudson and Danny Fujikawa getting serious! According to EOnline.com, the celebrity couple are at the point of their relationship where getting engaged is a possibility. Hudson's celebrity dating history might suggest that she enjoys being with musicians like Fujikawa, due to being married to Black Crowe's Chris Robinson and engaged to Muse's Matt Bellamy. The actor may be hesitant to get married after past experiences, but she does enjoy being in committed relationships. Mother Goldie Hudson already approves of Fujikawa and has called him a wonderful person. Maybe wedding bells are in the future for this pair!

There may be a celebrity wedding coming down the pipeline! What are some ways to know you're ready to marry your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Serious relationships can lead you to wondering if marriage is the next step. Here are some signs you know you're ready to marry your partner:

1. Time doesn't matter: Many people consider pacing themselves before jumping into the next step in their relationship. If you and your partner find yourselves enjoying each moment without worrying if you're going too fast, then you may be ready to consider marriage.

KStew has recently shared the details on her love life by using a grilled cheese metaphor. Yes, it's true! According to Harpersbazaar.co.uk, the actor shared that she's open to dating men again in a recent interview with the magazine. She explains how some people like sticking to grilled cheese for the rest of their lives, but she likes trying something new. The Cafe Society star also shared that she's been deeply in love with each of her former partners. Stewart's dating history includes many celebrity exes such as Robert Pattinson, St. Vincent, Michael Angarano, and a few more famous faces. She is currently dating supermodel Stella Maxwell and seems to be very happy!

In recent celebrity news, Kristen Stewart talks about her love life and shares that she enjoys dating new people. What are some benefits of not having a type while dating?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always nice to branch out from your ideal type of partner. You may be hesitant at first, but there are many perks that come from dating outside of your type! Here are a few benefits of not having a type while dating:

1. You can rediscover what you want: Like Kristen Stewart's metaphor, you can try something new in your life when it comes to love. You can try dating someone of the same or opposite gender, or just date someone with a different personality. Giving yourself a new perspective while finding love may allow you to rediscover a part of yourself that you didn't see before!

Celebrity News: Sophie Turner Says Dating Joe Jonas Is 'Like Living in a Fishbowl'

By Ma

rissa Donovan

Sophie Turner is absolutely sick of having her relationship under a microscope! According to Marieclaire.co.uk, The Game of Thrones star shared that she's very happy with her relationship with Joe Jonas, but hates how the mundane moments of their relationship are being photographed. Jonas, who has a dating history of past celebrity relationships, seems to be used to the public attention from fans and paparazzi. Hopefully the couple can work past this issue that comes with being a celebrity couple!

This celebrity news has us realizing the unique challenges celebrities face in relationships. What are the most common place challenges “normal” couples face, and what should you do about them?

Cupid's Advice:

Your relationship can come with problems no matter how long you and your partner have been together. Here are some common problems couples run into while being together and how to fix them:

1. Communicating: One of the easiest relationship problems to solve is also the one that's the hardest to follow through with. Communicating feeling and problems in your relationship is very important and has to be done if you both want to stay together. If you struggle with sharing your concerns while being together, see a couples therapist to help translate emotions that you and your partner are experiencing!

2. Respecting Boundaries: Like Sophie Turner, boundaries might be your biggest issue with your relationship! Whether it's family members or your partner, sometimes they can cross the line on discussing uncomfortable issues or invade your personal belongings. Although it may feel awkward at first, confront them by addressing how you feel about their behavior and ask them to please stop. If they do not stop the unwanted action, then seek advice from a couple therapist who can personally help you tackle the issue.

3. Jealousy: This problem is annoying and can sometimes make a person feel ashamed during their relationship. The person who is feeling jealous needs to admit the emotion and discuss their feelings. The other partner can accept and reassure their relationship is fine, or find a minor way to fix the jealousy problem. For example, if a partner is jealous of a co-worker, explain that it's just a business relationship and avoid an outside relationship with the co-worker. Jealousy comes in many forms, but it can be resolved through communication!
