

Celebrity Couple News: 'Bachelor' Alums Becca Tilley & Robert Graham Are Getting Serious

By Justin Thomas

After endless social media surmising, there's a new celebrity couple trending. In celebrity news, The Bachelor's Becca Tilley has finally set the record straight about her relationship with fellow Bachelor Nation star, Robert Graham. Tilley confessed to UsMagazine.com, saying, "I am dating Robert" at the 2016 iHEARTRADIO Jingle Ball on Friday, December 2. She continued, saying, "It's fun. We've been friends for a long time and it was just a natural progression, and he's just amazing and been patient with me.... I need someone that's patient and willing to deal with me, and he's been that way. So it's been fun, it's been an easy transition." Rumors ignited when affectionate photos of the now couple surfaced on Tilley's Instagram featuring some suggestively cute captions. But things really began to heat up when she posted a shirtless photo of Graham as her "Man Crush Monday." The couple seems to be on the up and up as Tilley went on to mention she's introduced him to her family. She said, "He met all of my family Sunday night, except for my brother. Everyone loved him."

This celebrity couple news was a long time coming. How do you know when you're ready to introduce your partner to your family?

Cupid's Advice:

Timing is everything when it comes to introducing your partner to your family. Cupid has some tips:

1. Make sure you're exclusive: The bottom line is that you want to make sure your relationship is serious before you introduce your family and friends. That means all the "you's" and "me's" have turned to "us" already. Don't put your family through the process meeting, getting know, and potentially liking someone you know almost for certain won't be around for much longer.

2. Don't rock the boat: Meeting someone's family is a substantial jump in a relationship and when appropriate could make your relationship much stronger. But it's not necessarily a right of passage. Evaluate your partner's relationship with their family, and don't pressure them if they don't feel like it's the right time to introduce you. However, don't be naive. Three months is very different than three years when it comes to meeting the family.

3. Be realistic in your expectations: Everyone's family dynamic is unique, so try to think less romantic comedy and more "Hi, nice to meet you." As palm-sweating as it is, first impressions are more important than you might think, but only in the context for setting the tone for family interactions down the line. People often latch on to the first perspective they're offered, so the first impression you make might be the impression you keep.

Celebrity News: Hilary Duff Speaks Out on Divorce, Marriage, Monogamy and More

By Kayla Garritano

This star is coming clean! In celebrity news, Hilary Duff opened up about divorce, marriage, monogamy and more while discussing past relationships and her current love life. According to UsMagazine.com, Duff and her Younger co-star, Nico Tortorella, sat down for a casual interview with the podcast show, The Love Bomb. “All of my relationships have been in the public eye. Whether people care or not, that’s a different story,” Duff brought up to co-star Nico Tortorella. “But enough people seem to have cared that it’s talked about.” Despite her problems, Duff never took love as a joke. Her first serious relationship happened at the age of 16. She then met Mike Comrie in her early 20’s and they were married in 2010, having a child in 2012. Although divorcing, these celebrity exes still remain friends. Now, she is currently dating personal trainer Jason Walsh. Although she doesn’t “feel the need to get married again,” she is open to the idea if it is important to her significant other.

In this celebrity news, Hilary Duff finally opens up about her relationships. What are some ways to keep an open mind in your relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be tricky, but it is good to always have an open mind when you're with someone. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Act, don't react: If your partner is trying to confront you about a problem the two of you are facing, it is best to act upon it instead of getting upset over it. Reacting in a negative way can cause a fight, and you don't want that happening! Maybe there's something you can do to change for the better, as opposed to getting defensive.

2. Be flexible: In a relationship, not everything is going to go as planned. You can walk in with high expectations of how you perceived your partner to look and act, but they may not always be who you planned, and that's okay. When you meet someone new and you feel a connection, don't judge the other person based on a preconceived notion of what you wanted.

3. Ease your temper: Things will happen in a relationship that you will not like, but instead of blowing up on your partner, you have to try and calmly talk it out. Nothing will be solved with a short temper, it may even make matters worse.

New Celebrity Couple Joe Jonas & Sophie Turner Cozy Up for PDA Packed Date

By Kayla Garritano

New celebrity couple Joe Jonas and Sophie Turner cozied up for a date at the Kings of Leon concert in Rotterdam, Amsterdam, on Saturday, November 5. This latest celebrity news comes from UsMagazine.com, where fellow concertgoer Millie Janssen spilled the details of Jonas and Turner kissing and cuddling throughout the pre-MTV European Music Awards show at the Oude Luxor Theater. "Joe and Sophie arrived together before the show started," she said. "He had his arm around her as they walked in, and then he was holding her before the show. Joe and Sophie kissed a few times and were talking and drinking soda." And although the rest of DNCE and a couple body guards were there, they didn't turn down the PDA.

This new celebrity couple isn't hiding their relationship. What are some ways to show you're proud of your new partner and the relationship overall?

Cupid's Advice:

It's exciting to go public with a new relationship! You get to show off your happiness to everyone and show how proud of each other you are. Cupid is here with some dating advice to tell you how to show off your relationship:

1. PDA: A little public display of affection here and there is healthy in a relationship. Hold your partner's hand or sneak a kiss on the cheek while listening to an amazing concert. Little actions to show your partner that you like their company will make them feel great when they're with you. Just make sure you don't overdo it, as you don't want to make anyone uncomfortable!

2. Attend their events: Does your partner have an office party they want to take you to? Is your partner going to a family event? One important part of the relationship is going to events with your partner, regardless of if you want to or not. You are supporting your significant other in what they do. Plus, they want to show you off to everyone. That just means they're happy about where you two stand.

Celebrity News: Calvin Harris Hangs with Tinashe After Split from Taylor Swift

By Nicole Caico

The drama between Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift has only just begun winding down, and already there are celebrity dating rumors circulating about Harris and Tinashe. According to EOnline.com, a source said, “They have always kept in touch, but recently more since his breakup with Taylor. Work and feeling healthy is number one for him now. He wants the storm to pass with Taylor before he can even think of dating another woman seriously.” It seems Harris and Tinashe aren’t exactly in a celebrity relationship yet, but Swift is definitely out of the picture.

In celebrity news, it may be time for Calvin to move on from Taylor! How do you know when you’re ready to move on from a past relationship?

Cupid’s Advice:

Moving on from a relationship can be difficult, especially if you’re like Calvin Harris and Taylor Swift and have a lot of lingering drama. But, change can be a good thing. Cupid has some tips:

1. Looking back: If you can reflect on your past relationship without breaking down, you’re ready to move on. Being able to appreciate the good parts of a past relationship, and being able to acknowledge what you’ve learned from the bad parts means that you have enough emotional distance from the relationship to move on.

Relationship Advice: 5 Benefits To Being Single On Valentine's Day

By Katie Gray

Valentine's Day is a celebration of love, but that doesn't mean you have to be in an intimate relationship to embrace and celebrate. Relationships and love are great, but don't be upset if you haven't found the love of your life yet and find yourself single on this V-Day. Look forward to the fact that this means that your Prince Charming is on the way, and think about the future romantic relationship you will have. Many celebrity couples and celebrities who are dating around (nothing serious) are celebrating in a variety of ways, so look to them for dating advice on your situation. Being single isn't a bad thing! In reality, Valentine's Day is just like any other time of the year, so you shouldn't be feeling down. Instead, channel your energy into giving love and light to the people in your life who you truly care about. All of your family and friends in your life are your true Valentines!

Relationship Advice: Cupid has the 5 benefits to being single on Valentine's Day:

1. No pressure: If you don't have the hassle of making reservations, you can do whatever your heart desires, and you don't have to buy anyone gifts if you don't want too. Simply put, you don't have to stress or deal with anything; it's all on your own terms.

3. Personal reflection: While there is no pressure or stress when you're single on Valentine's Day, you also have the added bonus of being able to reflect and evaluate your life. Figure out what your goals and passions are and come up with a map on how to achieve them. Determine what type of relationship you would like in the future and what qualities and traits you are seeking. Most of all, just focus on your own personal reflection in terms of love, career and life.

4. More chances to find your true soul mate: Anything can happen anywhere at any time. Valentine's Day and the future is just another chance for you to find your real soul mate. Don't feel pessimistic on Valentine's Day, feel optimistic that you have something to look forward too!

5. It's all about YOU: Being single on Valentine's Day comes with the perk of making it all about you! Buy yourself something nice, and eat whatever you want. Do whatever activity makes you happy and surround yourself with all of the things and people you love. This could be taking a bubble bath, eating chocolate, reading a book or enjoying your favorite meal.
