Cupid's Advice:

Moving on after a break up is always hard. Some take it better than others, so it is important to consider your ex partner's feelings. Cupid has some advice on how to handle jealousy from an ex:

1. Stay away: The easiest and safest way to handle a jealous ex is to stay away! While you don't have to hide like you're in the Witness Protection Program, keeping your distance may be best. Everyone is different, so you can't know for sure how your ex feels. Running when you see them is a bit too much but if you deliberately go looking to see your ex, just be prepared for anything that may happen. If you are seeing someone else, please heed this warning. You know what they say... "If you knock on the Devil's door, he will answer." Be smart and be safe.

2. Respect the break up: For whatever reason, your relationship unfortunately ended. For you and your partner, it is important to respect your break up. Showing respect towards your ex could ease the tension and may help your partner to move on. Parading a new flame around too soon may egg your ex on and cause a huge, unnecessary commotion. Keep the peace and have respect.

3. Stay quiet: If your ex is acting out, sometimes the best response is no response. Not every action deserves a reaction. Whether your ex is genuinely upset or purposely trying to hurt you, keep calm and continue on. Eventually, your ex will get tired of not being answered and will hopefully work on healing themselves. Silence is the loudest answer you can give.

Celebrity News: How Brad Pitt Came Out of Split from Angelina Jolie Better Than Ever

By Haley Lerner

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt seems to have come out of his celebrity break up with Angelina Jolie better than ever. After his shocking split with Angelina Jolie, with her filing for divorce and requesting full custody of their six children, Pitt seemed to be in a bad place. Despite cheating allegations and custody fights, Pitt has relied on therapy, solitude and sobriety to “strip down the foundation and break out the mortar,” as the 54-year-old actor said in an interview with GQ Style. Pitt also said, “For me every misstep has been a step toward epiphany, understanding, some kind of joy. Yeah, the avoidance of pain is a real mistake. It’s the real missing out on life. It’s those very things that shape us, those very things that offer growth, that make the world a better place, oddly enough, ironically. That make us better.” According to EOnline.com, an insider said Pitt and Jolie have “had a pretty dramatic year and [Pitt] wants things to remain calm in the future.” One source said the actor has been on a few dates, but hasn’t focused on any serious relationship yet. Another insider said Pitt maintains an active social life and that “Brad spent a lot of time alone and in private looking at himself and reevaluating what was most important and who he wanted to be. Now he's in a place where he's implemented those changes and has a lot more clarity. He's come out of that dark time and is in a much better place."

In celebrity news, Brad Pitt has never been happier. What are some ways to know it's time for a change in your relationship status?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, it's time for a relationship to end. Cupid has some ways to know it's time for a change:

According to UsMagazine.com, although the celebrity couple share three children together, the celebrity break up comes after 13 years of marriage. Based on irreconcilable differences, the pair are calling it quits.

Real Housewives* fans are upset by this split for sure. What are some ways to work on your marriage before calling it quits?

Cupid's Advice:

It takes hard work to get to the point of marriage and even more work to maintain it. Don't be discouraged if you are going through a rough patch. Cupid has some advice on ways to work on your marriage before calling it quits:

1. Communication: One of the easiest ways to fix your marriage is communicating. If communication is part of the problem, it will take both of you to fix it. Expressing yourselves in a calm, respectable manner will not only fix the issue, but strengthen your relationship. Maybe sitting down over dinner or going for walks will help to set the mood and tone of the conversation. Being respectful is very important, and make sure you are both listening. Nobody wants to be seen and not heard, so respect your partner and really pay attention to what is being said.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Don't Let Distance and Lifestyle End Your Relationship

2. Take time apart: While this may sound drastic, space can help your relationship tremendously. That doesn't necessarily mean going out and dating other people, but maybe staying at a family member's house or a close friend's house for a week is a good idea. Time away will make you miss your partner, and sometimes that's what relationships need. The space will also give you time to think and regroup. That being said, don't let too much time pass. When you leave someone for a long period of time, you teach them how to live without you. If you want to work things out, agree on the terms and conditions, and take it from there.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: How to Stay Confident in a Long-Term Relationship

3. Quality time: Though it's the opposite of taking time apart, maybe the issue is that you aren't spending enough time together. While there can be various factors playing into why you aren't spending time together, it is important to come together and discuss the issue. You have worked this hard to get to marriage, so don't throw it away over something so silly. Sometimes you have to reignite the spark, so it's time to get the lighter. This is not a one-sided commitment. As a couple, you have to come together and make time for each other. Start simple with a date night or a surprise homemade dinner; you'll be surprised how the little things can make the biggest impact.

tough break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Break ups are one of the hardest things you go through in life. Through the pain, you have to find the light even if it takes some time. Cupid has some advice on how to recover after a tough break up:

1. Cry: Never ever be ashamed to cry! Man or woman, everybody has a heart and can have it broken. The best self therapy is to just let it all out. Whether it happens when you are in front of people or when you are alone, you will feel so much better. Holding back the tears won't help you because you aren't expressing how you feel. Building up emotions isn't healthy and can cause issues later.

2. Talk: Talking is another therapeutic way to help recover from a tough break up. Speak about what happened. It will only help ease the pain away. Say you accidentally spilled your coffee. Initially, in anger you say, "Darn! I spilled my coffee." As the day goes on, you soon lose the anger and when you explain what happened, the anger is no longer there. Speaking on what happened and repeating things somehow helps put your mind and in this case, your heart at ease.

3. Go out: While we're not saying head out to the clubs or immediately sign up for speed dating, taking baby steps and enjoying yourself will help with recovery. Start small, like a movie date with friends or even by yourself. Surrounding yourself with loved ones always helps, but sometimes you just need to be alone. Dating yourself for a while is a great way to heal your broken heart. Sometimes simply taking yourself for ice cream can help.

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes you don't want to start over, but in most cases you have no choice. Cupid has advice on ways to know when you're ready to date after a split:

1. You need time: Nine times out of 10 if you think you are ready to date after breaking up with someone a day earlier, you aren't ready. Once you've taken a good amount of time for yourself, then you will be ready. There is no specific amount of time, but when you are ready, you will feel it mentally and emotionally. Don't be afraid to take time for yourself; date yourself. It sounds cheesy, but this will help you in the long run because we all know you will kiss a few frogs before you meet your prince.

2. Listen to your feelings: Are you waking up every day with a smile or a frown? When you finally start waking up with a smile and are able to go about your day, you are just about ready. On the contrary, if you are still hurt and cry a lot, you may not be ready. Some say the best way to get over someone is to jump back on the horse, but sometimes we are just not emotionally ready. Be mindful and careful because just like you don't want to get hurt, you don't want to hurt someone else either.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How Long Should You Date Around, After You Meet a Man You Like?

3. Check your vibes: Putting time and feelings together pretty much makes up your vibes. What kind of vibe will you be giving off? When you project positive vibes, you usually get them back. Will you be able to go out on a date without mentioning your ex? Will you be able to mention the break up without getting upset? Your vibes have to be just right because people will pick up on them. Nobody wants to go on a date with the person that constantly brings up their ex or, once they mention the break up, the mood of the date changes. The best practice is with friends and family.

It is a struggle to completely cut ties with the person you were just so close to, but sometimes, it is necessary. Prolonging a break-up can serve unfair to both of you. Here are some great things about having the strength to completely cut ties after a split:

1. No wasted time: No time is wasted if it was spent doing what you wanted at the time. But, when you keep in contact with an ex and it is unhealthy for both of you, it can halt the opportunity for you to let go, move on, and find someone new. Be excited for what is to come!

Clearly this situation at hand is very sticky. No one would want to be involved in something like that. Here are some tips on how to make sure your break-up isn't as crazy as this:

1. Be open and honest: If you are having feelings of doubt, tell your partner before it gets to a bad point. Hopefully your partner will understand and you two will be able to work from there. Celebrity Break-Up: Anna Faris Learns Important Lesson From Divorcing Chris Pratt

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, Chris Pratt finally broke the silence in regards to his celebrity divorce from Anna Faris. Pratt and Faris announced that they were “legally separating” in August 2017 after eight years of marriage, and they filed for divorce by the end of that year. “Divorce sucks,” Pratt ultimately revealed in an Entertainment Weekly interview this week. He continues to explain that him and Faris are still friends and are kind to one another for the sake of their five-year-old son, Jack. From Faris’ view, she said, “We have a great friendship, we really do and we always have. And it's always tough to envision your future as one thing, but I think there is a lot of love," on a SiriusXM's Hits 1 in Hollywood interview. According to EOnline.com, Faris added, "I think it's a lesson learned a little bit in terms of keeping relationships a little more private, potentially, even though I pride myself on being a pretty open person. But, I don't know, it's tough when you're under the scrutiny." In other news, Faris is currently dating Michael Barrett, while Pratt is allegedly still single.

This is the first we are hearing about the opinions of Chris Pratt and Anna Faris since their celebrity break-up. What are some benefits to keeping your post-relationship details on the down-low?

Cupid's Advice:

It can truly be a tough time in your life after you split from a partner you were together with for so long. You don't need to expose all of the details to every single one of your friends and family if you do not wish to. If you keep to yourself and a few close friends, here is what can happen:

1. You will be able to explore your true self: Without the input from others, you will have the opportunity to really understand what you are feeling. Sometimes, it isn't bad to have input from the ones you trust most, but this can occasionally lead to you thinking that you are feeling one way when you are really not. It is most beneficial to get to know yourself alone during this time.

2. You won't receive as much judgement: This is hard for you as it is, you don't need further scrutiny to just make this situation even worse. When people go through break-ups, it is really difficult for outsiders to truly understand the emotions and feelings that you go through. Therefore, they may judge. You can minimize that by conducting your life in a more private manner.

3. You won't be bombarded: The more details you put out there, the more people will crowd you with questions. "Why did you break-up?" "Was there cheating involved?" "Are you guys still talking at all?" It can become overwhelming. It is okay to just stick to talking to one specific person that you trust most to help get you through this time and then let the magical self-growth occur.

He likes to be quiet and reserved, which humbles me." Snooki adds that she loves her husband to death and he's her best friend; he is just a little shy.

There's no truth to these celebrity divorce rumors! What are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it is beyond our control when negative rumors start to arise in regards to your own relationship. The most important thing to do is stay calm and laugh at the silliness of these rumors. Although, it is important to make sure that this gossip doesn't get into you and your partners heads. Here are some ways to keep negative rumors from affecting your relationship:

1. Show affection: Make sure your partner knows that there is no truth to these rumors. If there is a rumor going around that you and your partner are going to split, your partner may think that you might have told people that you want to break-up and that is why these rumors are going around. Although, that is probably not the case. Ensure that your partner feels secure despite these unsatisfactory lies that are stirring. Show them that you love them so much and all that matters is that you two know the truth.

2. Be open and honest: As we know, communication is key. Respond quickly. Before the rumors get to a very negative point, communicate the truth to the people you associate with. If you are open and honest in the first place, hopefully rumors won't even begin to occur. Sometimes though, people just honestly enjoy making up stuff. You can only do so much to prevent them.

3. Take the higher moral ground: Even though you and your partner may be upset about these rumors being spread, don't stoop to their level. It may be tempting to begin spreading other rumors because you feel upset that there are rumors being spread about you. This will just create more chaos and strain on your relationship and life in general. We cannot control what others do, but we can control our reactions. Be positive and remember that everything is going to be okay. As long as you and your partner love and support each other, these rumors should not be detrimental to your relationship.

Celebrity Divorce: Matt Lauer Moves Out of Family Home Amid Divorce

By Rachel Sparks

Former Today anchor Matt Lauer was forced out of his family home in the Hamptons by current wife Annette Roque amid their ongoing divorce. An insider told UsMagazine.com that Roque threatened legal action due to Lauer's hesitation, stating that Lauer was more concerned with how the press would view his new living arrangements after being fired for sexual harassment. Roque and insider said Lauer should care more for what is best for his family. This celebrity divorce, a result of the #MeToo movement, is worrisome for the affect it has on their three children.

Amid this celebrity divorce, Matt Lauer finally moved out of the family home after initially refusing. What are some ways to make your divorce more amicable?

Cupid's Advice:

A celebrity divorce is just as volatile as what we deal with when we endure divorces ourselves. There will always be collateral damage; children will have emotional backlashes, sometimes after everything has calmed down. Living situations change, oftentimes with financial hardship amongst the legalities of the split. While your divorce may not be the latest celebrity news, Cupid's relationship advice will help you navigate those choppy divorce waters in order for a more amicable split:

1. Evaluate your goals: Within any action, there is a primary end result that we would like to see. In a divorce, it may be that you want to keep the house or the kids, that you want shared custody or holiday visitation rights. Recognizing what it is that you want most out of a divorce will help alleviate the minute details. There will be enough stress already, so choose what's worth fighting for.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Harvey Weinstein Lied About Having Intimate Relations with Gwyneth Paltrow

2. Evaluate your priorities: Similar to knowing what you want, you need to evaluate what really matters. Like Matt Lauer, is public appeal worth costing your family more stress? In emotionally-intense situations, it's easy to lose sight of your priorities. Remind yourself what matters, and fight for whatever that may be.

3. Respect your family: Lauer and Roque were married for 19 years, and now their familiar family structure is crumbling. No matter the length of time you and your spouse spent together, at some point, it was built on mutual love and respect. It's much harder to see this amidst a divorce, but realizing that you once loved your ex and still love the children you raised together means that you should be willing to make sacrifices for the greater good of everyone involved.

divorce process?

Cupid's Advice:

We know that divorce is not easy. And unfortunately, for some of us, it's a time where we undergo a deep sadness. Cupid has some tips on getting through a hard divorce, and most of it is mental:

1. Know that you are sure about the divorce: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for the divorce and that it is in fact the right decision. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Think things through, analyze and examine your situation. But don't overdo it to the point you're blaming yourself or driving yourself crazy.

2. Think of the positive outcome: It is hard to see the light during a time as dark as going through a divorce – but it is essential that you do find it. Things can look hopeless and that can drag you into a downward spiral. It is important to find the good in all the bad situations we're in, no matter how small it may be. Just know that you are going through a hard time right now that will make you stronger, and the future holds something much better. Positive thinking goes a long way.

Celebrity Break-Up: Donald Trump Jr. Had an Affair with Aubrey O'Day During Marriage

By Carly Horowitz

In latest celebrity news, it turns out that Donald Trump Jr.

had an affair with Celebrity Apprentice contestant Aubrey O'Day while he was still married to his wife, Vanessa Trump. A source told UsMagazine.com that "Things started up with Aubrey and Don Jr. toward the end of the taping." This time spanned from the end of 2011 into March 2012. The affair ended at that time because Trump Jr.'s wife Vanessa allegedly found emails between the two. Vanessa and Trump Jr. had made up, but now, Vanessa has filed for a celebrity divorce on March 15.

Donald Trump Jr.'s celebrity break-up may have something to do with his infidelity. What are some signs that your partner is being unfaithful?

Cupid's Advice:

If things have just not been the same lately between you and your partner, there may be something sneaky occurring. Don't jump to conclusions, as we all have a tendency to do. But, if you notice any of these signs, sit down with your partner and have a mature conversation about the thoughts you are having. Here are some signs that indicate that your partner may be cheating:

1. Intimacy has halted: It is normal during long-time relationships that the intimacy between you two may slow down at points. If it has completely stopped and when you try to get close to your partner they back away constantly, then that is a red flag.

2. Constant private phone usage: If out of the blue your partner starts to use their phone a lot more often in a very private manner, then that is a little fishy. If your partner has always been a big phone user, then maybe it is normal. Ask them if they have something going on at work or another occurrence that may be causing them to use their phone instead of spending time with you.

Celebrity Divorce: Vanessa Trump Files for Divorce from Donald Trump Jr.

By Jessica DeRubbo

It looks like Vanessa and Donald Trump Jr. are calling it quits on their marriage. According to EOnline.com, Vanessa filed for a celebrity divorce on Thursday in Manhattan Supreme Court. The celebrity couple have been married for 12 years and share five children. Since she filed for an uncontested proceeding, it looks like there more than likely won't be a custody battle. Donald Trump Jr. married Vanessa in 2005 at President Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate in Palm Beach, FL. The President reportedly played matchmaker for the duo, as he introduced his eldest son to the model at a fashion show in 2003.

This celebrity divorce is very unfortunate for the pair's five children. What are some important factors to consider regarding your children during a split or divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

Divorces and/or splits are never fun for anyone involved, but sometimes it has the most lasting effects on kids. Cupid has some things to consider:

1. Always be open and honest with your kids: There's nothing worse than lying to your children, even if they're little white lies, because eventually the truth will come out. Sure, you don't necessarily want to air your dirty laundry about issues you have with your significant other with your kids, but try to be as straightforward as possible when letting them know about your split and the ramifications of it. They'll appreciate it in the end.

3. Listen to what your children are saying: Make sure to keep open lines of communication with your kids during this trying time. It's important that they feel they can talk to both you and your significant other and can ask any questions on their minds.

Relationship Advice: Don't Let Distance & Lifestyle End Your Relationship

By Dr. Jane Greer

People in distance relationships, whether by choice or necessity, are able to have success with a great deal of effort and flexibility. In order to make the relationship work, there must be a strong desire to be together, and a willingness between both partners to make room for each other's respective needs. However, love does not conquer all, regardless if you are a celebrity or not.

Is it possible to find a resolution? Read on for more relationship advice:

Recently, celebrity couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux announced their celebrity divorce after two years of marriage, stating it was a mutual decision to part ways. While Aniston and Theroux love and respect each other, they said they simply couldn't agree on a lifestyle that worked for each other. This is a common issue couples may face: you can love someone, and still desire to live differently than them, or even desire to live in an entirely different place than them.

Splits like the one between Aniston and Theroux are often caused by the inability to find the middle ground when trying to successfully make a home in the same place. Compromise is hard enough for two people who live under the same roof, but when partners are separated by differing work schedules or physical office placement, compromise can be extremely challenging. The key to keeping the peace is to commit to a place together, making sure that both partners are happy and do not feel as though they have sacrificed their happiness and well-being.

Related Link: Relationship Advice: What If Your Family Doesn't Approve Of Your Partner?

So, if you're in a long distance relationship right now, what should you consider before packing up your life and moving to a new place with your significant other, to best guarantee a successful outcome? How can you be sure you or your partner are sacrificing enough, without negatively impacting your relationship?

Above all, you and your partner must be in love. This is the most important box to check, as it gives each of you the ability to be open to change because you'll be with your loved one. While this is a starting point, it might not be enough, as we saw with Jennifer and Justin. When deciding to take the plunge, be sure to ask yourself: do you actually like the place you're moving to? Will it take away your happiness?

Related Link: Relationship Advice: Is a Bad Boy Good for You?

Here's some food for thought. If one of you lives in a sunny place, but the other one simply hates the sun, or if one of you lives in a rural community and the other thrives on city life, where to move might not be an easy choice to make. If all your friends live in your current town, would you resent moving away from them to be with your love? Think about how all of this might affect your day-to-day life, mood, and eventually, your relationship. If, on the other hand, your partner lives in New York City, a place you've always wanted live, great! Leaving your loved ones behind won't matter as much. Talk to your partner and hash out the details. A temporary move might not be a deal breaker. A permanent one may be, though.

It is most important to think about your relationship, what it means to you, and where you can find happiness and friends in your new home. Is this decision mutual? Do each of you want it as much as the other? Does moving mean you're ready to take the next step towards engagement?

Related Link: Relationship Advice: When Is the Old New Again?

It is also important to consider the strength of your connection, especially during the triumphs and tribulations. Up until now, most of the time you've spent together was special and seemingly perfect. (It's called the honeymoon phase for a reason!) You have probably tried to be on your best behavior at all times to maintain the picturesque image. Once you move, it will be more difficult to keep up the guise.

Ultimately, if you are moving for the right reasons; for love and for openness to adventure, it is less likely that you will feel as though you have lost yourself. What really helps is when you are connected with a partner who has similar aspirations, wants, likes, and needs. In the end it, it should not feel like either of you are sacrificing your “me” to be a “we.” This wasn’t possible for Jennifer and Justin, but hopefully they can both move forward and find happiness apart.

Celebrity Divorce: ‘Modern Family’ Star Julie Bowen Files for Divorce from Husband Scott Phillips

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, Julie Bowen filed for divorce from husband Scott Phillips on Tuesday, according to EOnline.com. It was revealed less than a week ago that the former celebrity couple, who was married for 13 years, separated. However, Bowen listed their separation date as December 17. She marked irreconcilable differences as the reason for their parting and is asking for joint legal and physical custody of their three children, according to the documents that E! News obtained.

This celebrity divorce after 13 years of marriage is very unfortunate. What are some ways to know it's time to move on from a marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Some of us may try to fight off a divorce for as long as possible... but honestly, that's just a waste of time. Cupid has some suggestions on signs that can mean it's time to move on:

1. You're worried about what your kids, friends, or family will think: Staying together for your children isn't a good idea. And staying together for the sake of dodging judgment from family and friends is even less of a good idea. Those you love don't usually want you to be unhappy, and neither do your children. Kids want parents who are happy and love them. You can go your separate ways, but still be a family. Build a friendship when possible, don't continue building an unhappy marriage. Your friends and family will just need to accept it. You are the one living with this decision, not them.

Related Link: How to Navigate a Separation

2. You've tried counseling and gave it all you've got, but it's still not working: If you gave it your biggest shot, but you guys are still not coming together the way you should, then it may be a sign that it's time to go. Staying in an unhappy marriage is unhealthy for you. As long as you can look back and say "I gave it my all," there's no shame in knowing it's time for a divorce. Time to take action. All you can do at the end is try, if that doesn't work then there's nothing to do but what's in your best interest.

Related Link: Why Celebrity Exes Kourtney Kardashian & Scott Disick Are Happier Than Ever

3. You no longer respect nor trust your spouse: Trust and respect are both key things to have in a marriage. Sometimes we can gain that sense of trust and respect back, but sometimes we can't. If you don't see yourself ever trusting or respecting your spouse again, then it's safe to say that your marriage has hit its end point. Being married to someone that is not the same person you married happens sometimes, and it sucks. It really does, but instead of dwelling on it, start making moves.

Celebrity Divorce: Jenni 'JWoww' Farley Talks Snooki & Jionni Divorce Rumors

By Karley Kemble

Though rumors have been flying that Nicole “Snooki” Polizzi and her husband Jionni LaValle are facing relationship problems, it looks like there is nothing to worry about. LaValle addressed the rumors head-on last week on his Instagram, denying all allegations of a celebrity divorce, and also shared he will not be part of the “Jersey Shore” reboot. Now, it looks like Polizzi’s bestie is speaking out! According to UsMagazine.com, Jenni “JWoww” Farley said that it was “really heartbreaking” that LaValle had to combat the nasty rumors, but she supports the celebrity couple and loves “everything about them and what they have going on.” What a great friend!

These celebrity divorce rumors are very unfortunate. What are some ways to keep rumors from affecting your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Uh oh, is your relationship the current talk of the rumor mill? Don't worry, love. This too shall pass. If rumors are bringing you down, Cupid has how to fight through these challenging times:

1. Stay busy: This is an important factor because it tests and shows your true inner strength. When you are actively excelling at work, at school, or at home, it shows you cannot be kicked down by petty rumors. In time, the rumors should pass because people will realize you're way too strong to be affected by their nonsense.

2. Give the benefit of the doubt: When you hear something unnerving or seemingly unlikely about your partner, it's important to take a step back and not jump to conclusions. Your emotions will be running high, and you're definitely entitled to your feelings. Just think: are you going to jeopardize an entire relationship over the possibility of a rumor being true? Before you do something you might regret, consider waiting and acting when you have the facts.

3. Talk to your partner: At the end of the day, what's most important is you and your partner's take on things. If the rumors are affecting your relationship, you two must talk about it. If you don't, then your relationship will have a very challenging chance at survival. Communicating will help fill in the blanks and clear the doubts you could be having.
