By Stephanie Sacco

It seems like every day an adorable couple is getting divorced. However, this celebrity divorce is unique because it's the second for Dennis Quaid and his wife Kimberly. In celebrity news, the celebrity couple filed for divorce in 2012, but found their way back to each other. However, on June 28th, 2016, Kimberly filed for divorce yet again. According to UsMagazine.com, the duo spoke with TMZ to break the news. The statement read, "After careful consideration, we have decided to end our 12-year marriage. The decision was made amicably and with mutual respect toward one another." Luckily, this celebrity relationship may still stay strong as a friendship.

Celebrity divorce seems to be a trend with this couple. What are some ways to know you've exhausted all possibilities and are ready to end your marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting divorced is a huge decision, one you might regret. There's no shame in getting back together after a break-up, but sometimes it just isn't working out. Cupid is here to help:

1. You're fighting: When your partner is causing you to throw stuff at him or hit him where it hurts, there's no going back. It's not worth trying to fix it if it's just going to result in another fight. If it's getting loud and out of control, the best thing for both of you is to steer clear.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Sienna Miller Says She Still Cares 'Enormously' for Ex Jude Law

2. You hate each other: The love you share as a couple is so important, but if that flame has died down it's more or less not going to heat up again. When the only heat is coming from your ears after a big fight, don't prolong it. Say hello to goodbye.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Amber Heard Files for Celebrity Divorce from Johnny Depp

3. You can't fix it: If the cut is too deep or it's the last straw, decide together that it's not working out and end the marriage. Sometimes you can find your way back to each other, but even still it's not guaranteed that it'll be a happy ending. Don't risk valuable time on someone that's not 'the one'.

Relationship Advice: What NOT to Do In Your Marriage, Thanks to Celebs

By Malini Bhatia

Don't you wish there was a marriage handbook they gave out at the altar? Things that, if you followed, would guarantee a long and happy marriage? The thing is – each person and each couple is different. So, what may work for one relationship may not work in another.

That said, there are some basic pieces of relationship advice we all should follow—things like be positive, say nice things, do things for the other person, etc. Plus, we can learn from others, especially celebrities, how to avoid mistakes in marriage.

Here are some things NOT to do:

Do NOT Allow Other Things Ahead of the Marriage

We may never know the real reason former celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck split up, but some reports say there wasn't enough togetherness—specifically Ben's busy movie-making schedule. Sometimes, other things get in the way of marriage, especially our work. It's a hard balance for anyone, especially celebrities, who can be gone for months at a time on a movie set. How exactly do you make that work when you are married and have kids?

Hard times and busy schedules are inevitable in marriage. The difference in whether you make a mistake or not is in how you handle it. Both of you must make an effort in making sure the relationship comes first. If being apart has to happen, then think of ways you can still feel like you are together. Visit often, have regular Skype dates, text, send pictures, think of each other at a certain time every day, etc. Be creative!

Do NOT Let the Temptation to Cheat Happen

Amid reports of cheating being the reason Gwen Stefani and Gavin Rossdale went through a celebrity divorce, it's a good reminder to always keep things in check. Both were on the road a lot, and being away from your spouse can definitely increase the chances that you'll be tempted to stray.

So, keep those temptations to a minimum. Take your spouse with you when you can, bunk with a trusted co-worker, or make other arrangements. We are all human, so don't think the temptation could never arise.

Do NOT Take Each Other for Granted

Hugh Jackman and wife Deborra-Lee Furness have been going strong for 20 years, and every time Hugh is asked about her, he raves that things just get better and better. It makes your heart melt, doesn't it? He expresses the fact that they do everything together, and that they have a profound amount of respect for each other.

In essence, they are grateful for each other. That is huge. In marriage, you should see your spouse for who they really are, and vice versa. Don't try to change them. Be thankful every single day for the unique person they are and how they bless your life. If you do that, you can't go wrong.

Whether it's a break up or divorce, things can get pretty messy in the midst of a split. When the end of a relationship is upon you it's easy to dwell on the sad or frustrating aspects of the situation, but it will serve you much better to make an attempt to reminisce on good times:

This celebrity news has us realizing there are some good ex relationships in Hollywood after all. What are three ways to show # appreciation for your child's parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friendly after a divorce is not an easy feat, but if you have children, it's ideal. Co-parenting makes everyone's lives easier, parents' and children' alike. There are many ways to show appreciation for the parent of your child:

1. Hold up your end: Some divorces result in more rules and regulations than others. However it plays out, be sure to fulfill your responsibilities. Contribute the money you're supposed to, and follow the schedule to a tee. Strictly sticking to the conditions of your divorce will show respect to the parent of your child, and prevent additional issues.

2. Do a favor: Parenting is difficult; that is a universal fact. If you see the parent of your child struggling with something and you're in a position where you can help out, do it. Just because you're no longer married doesn't mean it is right to sit back and watch your ex flounder when you can help.

It’s never fun to break up, and it’s even worse when there’s tons of drama associated with it. Cupid has some tips to keep things smooth and cordial:

in French Montana! What are some ways to avoid crushing on the same person as your friend or sibling?

Cupid's Advice:

While it doesn't seem that any woman from the Kardashian/Jenner family is currently dating French Montana, never say never. Falling for the ex-flame or current crush of a friend or sibling tends cause issues, but in some cases can't be helped. Before you go falling for the same person as a friend or sibling, think about it:

1. This relationship will hurt your friend/sibling: Even when a friend or sibling plays it cool about you crushing on the same person they are or have in the past, they're most likely not okay with it. If you're crushing on the same person, chances are your jealous and competitive sides will be on full display. Think about the importance of your relationship with your friend or sibling, and realize that pursuing this romantic relationship will hurt the relationship you already have with your them. Chances are the crush isn't worth it.

1. Try and try again: If you both know that you've tried over and over to fix issues in your relationship, anything ranging from money to friends to communication, and nothing is getting better it may be time to consider a split. If a true effort was made and no positive changes came out of it, that is just foreshadowing for how the rest of the marriage will go.

Cupid’s Advice:

Domestic violence is extremely serious. Hollywood couples are not isolated from the reality of abuse, and neither are normal couples. Domestic violence is to be treated seriously and stopped as soon as possible in any situation:

1. Tell someone you know: A good place to start when seeking help in a violent relationship is to tell someone close to you, that you trust, what is happening. Talking about the violence that you have been dealing with alone can help you come to terms with the situation, and allow the person you tell to support you.

The following pieces of dating advice will help you turn over a new leaf and become like a new and seemingly perfect celebrity couples. But, don't worry, there won't be a celebrity divorce, or any breakup for that matter, if you follow these tips to smooth it all out!

These pieces of dating advice will keep the fighting over minor things to a minimum. Use this love advice to keep your relationship strong!

1. Ignore it: At first, simply trying to let the little things go may be one of your best options. In the media, we all see the little problems that happen in celebrity relationships, but those are usually sorted out quickly! A great piece of dating advice is to just keep things the way they are and see if they go away before taking drastic actions.

Related Link: Dating Advice: What To Do When Your Relationship Gets Real

2. Find peace, and then talk: Usually, talking about something in the heat of the moment is not a good idea. Remember, a great piece of love advice is to know how and when to communicate the most effectively. Celebrity breakups happen all the time, because little problems, like whose turn it is to do the dishes, escalate and turn into a major problem for no reason. Finding peace and letting the situation calm down before a discussion is crucial. Reflect on the issue, and if it really is minor, address it as such. Don't escalate it into a bigger problem than it really is.

3. Don't fight: This is obviously easier said than done, but if the problem is actually minor, you shouldn't be fighting about it. While minor issues can be problematic in the short-term, it is important to remember that your relationship should be more valuable to you than who does the laundry, for example.

4. Make a schedule: If small daily tasks are of the source of your relationship problems, then the best thing to do may be to make a schedule of tasks. For example, if your partner cooks one day, you clean, or vice versa. The dishes can be alternated every other day, and the same goes for making the bed. A really important piece of dating advice is to help each other out, instead of tearing each other down.

5. Compromise: Another idea to consider is compromising and determining what to do collectively as a team. Those awesome celebrity relationships have their fair share of compromising, so why can't you jump on board, too? If you like to make the bed more than cleaning dishes, then maybe the two of you can trade that off for a day, or even a week. If the two of you are truly in love, compromising is a great piece of dating advice that will keep the relationship stable and the two of you happy for years to come!

Relationship Advice: 4 Ways to Break Up with Your Partner In the Nicest Way Possible

By: Josh Ringler

Breaking up is not the easiest thing to do. It may hurt your heart to do it, and it will most likely break the heart of your soon-to-be-ex as well. While calling off your relationship and ending your current love life isn't the easiest, it is important to do it in a nice way if at all possible. Almost everyone knows of those celebrity relationships that ended in tears and celebrity divorce, or those celebrity couples who have remained friendly after all their heartache and drama subsides. The same is true for us "normal" people. Use the following relationship advice pointers to make a difficult decision a little easier for both you and your partner.

These pieces of relationship advice will help you to make ending it a little less heartbreaking. If you are considering breaking up with your partner, take a look at how to do it nicely below.

1. Do it in person: A great piece of relationship advice is to do anything that is of importance in person. Whether it is initially getting the relationship going, or ending it, doing so face-to-face will only make the situation better. Look at some former celebrity couples like Jennifer Aniston and John Mayer, or Taylor Swift and Joe Jonas. Those celebrity break-ups were initiated by a text message or a phone call. They did not end well, and if you want yours to end well, do it while you can see them, be there to comfort them and talk through any heartache they may be experiencing.

Related Link: Celebrity News: Yolanda Foster Says Ex David Foster 'Probably Saved My Life'

2. The date and place matters: There are definitely some key dates and places where breakups should never occur. Anniversaries, birthdays, holidays, and times of death in one's family are not times to call things off. If you want to stay friends, or if you just want to be as nice as possible, save it for some other time. If they are on a vacation or doing something important like starting a new job, you should consider waiting if it is possible. Some places should be off the table, too. You shouldn't break their heart in public, if possible, and you should try to do it in a place where the memory won't "haunt" them. Their bedroom, for example, is probably not the best option.

3. Ease into the conversation: Reality TV stars make break-ups look overly dramatic and super painful. Heartbreaking moments are typically over-dramatized, but they don't have to be that way at all. Instead, ease into the conversation about the future of your relationship. Conversations like this will never be easy, but easing into the conversation will make it more bearable. A good piece of relationship advice is to keep the communication open, and that should continue even if things are about to end.

Related Link: Relationship Advice Video: Dating After a Divorce or Break-Up

4. Be honest: While this piece of relationship advice goes along with open communication, it truly is important to remain honest and open when deciding to call it quits on a relationship. If you want to break up, but remain friendly and on good terms after, follow this piece of relationship advice and remain honest. That being said, it's important to not take that to an extreme and be brutally honest. Say what you need to, but no need to get into the gory details. While breaking up is difficult to do, the conversation and how it goes is essential to determining the future of your friendship.

Breaking up is never easy, but doing it nicely works best! Did these work for you? Let us know in the comments below!
