What Can We Learn From Celebrity Divorces?

By Project Soulmate's Business Director Samantha Cohen. Contributors: Project Soulmate Matchmakers and BRAVO TV's Love Brokers Lori Zaslow and Jennifer Zucher

From Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt to Jennifer Garner and Ben

Affleck, we have seen many of our favorite Hollywood couples unexpectedly split. The reason for their celebrity divorces may vary, but many of the underlying issues are the same. While celebrities may seem to have a perfect relationship and love to an outsider, they all deal with real-life marital issues and temptations like everyone else. The main difference is that they're constantly being dissected by the media and have pressure to maintain a certain image. Keep reading for our relationship advice on what these celebrity divorces can teach you.

Relationship Advice: What Celebrity Divorces Can Teach You

It's no secret that marriage is work. As we go through life's obstacles our relationships often turn into an emotional roller coaster, full of highs and lows. As a result, we like to turn to celebrity couples to give us hope for a perfect, flawless relationship. But the truth of the matter is that we're being deceived by the media portraying a perfect couple and celebrities are really just like us. Over the years, we have seen our favorite Hollywood couples crumble as they're forced to deal with real life marital issues such as infidelity, deceit, neglect and hardships. The main difference between celebrities and the average person is that they're forced to deal with their divorces in a very public manner where all of the details of their divorce become public knowledge. This can be detrimental for their kids, family, friends and of course, their image.

Related Link: Dating Advice: First Date Fashion Do's And Don'ts

So the question remains: What can we learn from celebrity divorces? The answer is simple. We can learn that celebrities are just like us and that there's no such thing as a perfect marriage. Instead of looking at celebrity couples as a goal for your marriage, you should focus on improving the issues in your own love life. Because the truth is that there's no perfect relationship and every partnership has its own unique struggles. While you may admire or even envy your favorite celebrity couple like Kim and Kanye, you need to realize that a relationship isn't always as perfect as it may seem from the outside. You don't want to set unrealistic expectations of a perfect marriage based on a façade.

Just like your favorite celebrities are altered to look skinny and flawless, their lives and relationships are often attuned in the public eye to look perfect. But the truth is there's no such thing as perfection, and every person and relationship has its flaws. And while life's bumpy ride may bring couples closer together, sometimes there's no other route but divorce and moving on. It can be hard to watch your favorite Hollywood couples fall apart, but one of the benefits of celebrity divorce is that the stigma that was once attached to ending your marriage has nearly disappeared. And celebrity couples that have made the move to publicly get divorced could be the influencing factor that gives someone the strength to move on from their unhealthy marriage and get a divorce.

Celebrities, just like you and me, aren't exempt from the struggles in life and maintaining relationships. And when they're able to move on from marital issues, despite the fact that they might be judged or criticized by the media, they become good role models. Maybe then we'll be able to find the strength to do what will make us happiest in the long run.

Celebrity divorce or not, a marriage dissolving is painful business. What are some ways to cope with heartbreak in the wake of a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

When marriage ends, there's no getting around the pain. That being said, there are certainly different ways to cope with it. Cupid has some relationship advice:

1. Know you're not alone: The worst thing you can do is hole up at home with a tub of ice cream with no one you love around you. Okay, maybe it's okay for the first day or two, but then consider inviting some friends or family over to hang out! They know you well, and just their presence will remind you there are other people out there who care. Plus, you're not the only one who has gone through a divorce. If they can get through it, so can you.

It's important to always take the high road in life and to remember to stay positive. After you have split from your partner via separation or divorce, it can be very hard for you to be around your ex. It's crucial that you remain civil if there are children involved. Cupid has some tips:

1. Talk it out: Even though you are no longer together, you are still connected to each other because of your children for life, so you must get it together. It's good to talk to your ex about every aspect concerning the children's lives to make sure you are on the same page and know what's going on!

If the children see tension, then it will make them feel like they did something wrong, and they shouldn't be in a position where they feel pressured to pick sides.
