- 1. Trust yourself: You love your partner, and you know them inside and out. If you love the ring, they'll love it, too.
- 2. Pay attention: Does your significant other wear a lot of silver? Gold might not be your best choice. Pay attention to their style and make a choice based on that.

Miley Cyrus...Mr. and Mrs.
Hannah Montana?

By Jane Greer,

Ph.D. for GalTime

Celebrity stars shine so bright and we look up to them. Yet often we are puzzled when they fall, so Shrink Wrap is here to shed light on it all. Is there any love so pure and optimistic as the first? Believe it or not, 19-year old Miley Cyrus is engaged to her Australian beau Liam Hemsworth, 22. The couple have been together for three years, making Miley a mere 16 when they met.

Is Miley too young to be planning her wedding?

Media coverage of the pair is dripping with doubts over the everlasting nature of their romance. But Miley is no naïve little girl. She's faced scrutiny before for her brazen and mature moves, moves that pushed the boundaries of 'age appropriate' (or just plain appropriate). Consider her 2008 photo shoot with Annie Leibovitz. The Vanity Fair spread caused weeks of media uproar for printing images of Miley, then 15, gazing subtly over her shoulder draped in nothing but a satin sheet. Just last week, tabloids were gawking over photos of Miley in her notorious short shorts.

But through it all, Miley has maintained the scrubbed up rep, stemming from her Disney days. Though bold and provocative, she's managed to avoid the club scene scandals that plague other tweens-turned-starlets. She's close with her family and boasts 6 million (yes, million) Twitter followers. Miley's been ranked several times among Forbes top Celebrity 100. She must be doing something right.

Even if youthful naïveté and the pressures of public scrutiny were removed from the equation, there is still a lot the couple has to deal with. But at the end of the day, Miley and Liam are two adults managing mega careers as well as an intimate relationship—no small feat. Most importantly, they are happy and ready to tackle whatever it takes to launch their new marriage. So here's to lending them support and congratulating them on their engagement.

Have you had a loved one marry when you thought they were too young? How did you handle it?

Liam Hemsworth's Ex Speaks Out About His Engagement to Miley Cyrus

Liam Hemsworth and

Miley Cyrus may be marrying young, but they have support in the most surprising places. 22-year-old Hemsworth's ex-girlfriend, Laura Griffin, admitted to Celebuzz that she's surprised, but happy for the couple. She said, "If they are in love and are happy why not? I'm very happy for him." Griffin and Hemsworth dated for six years before Hemsworth left her for Cyrus in 2009.

How do you handle an ex you're not over moving on with someone else?

Cupid's Advice:

It's tough to see someone you love being happy with someone else. Here are some tips on how to handle an ex you're not over moving on:

- 1. Find your own happiness: You don't need one person to be happy – and if they've moved on, they clearly don't need you. Find what makes you happy.
- 2. Don't burn bridges: Your relationship worked for a reason. Don't be afraid to make friends with your ex and their new partner. It may even be beneficial for you.
- 3. Take it in stride: It's time for self-improvement! Your ex moving on is a sign that it's time for you to move forward, too. Take steps for bigger, better things and new love.

'Last Song' Producer Recalls Miley Cyrus and Liam Hemsworth's First Kiss

Shankman told People that on the first day of shooting, Cyrus and Hemsworth kissed for the first time, and he and his co-producer Jennifer Gibgot could tell that the two had amazing chemistry. Now the two actors are engaged, meaning that their on-screen chemistry was real. This comes from not only their similar values, but their very different personalities, Shankman claims. "I'll tell you what's so great," he said. "That thing about opposites attract."

What are some things that a kiss can tell you about a potential relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

It's been scientifically proven: kissing is a biological way for people to tell whether or not someone will make a good mate. However, even if you don't use the specifics of science, you can still tell a lot about the state of your relationship based on how you and your partner kiss. Here are some things to look for:

1. Responsibility: When you kiss your partner, it's easy to check for things like bad breath, lip moisture and the presence of food. A person who takes good care of their mouth before kissing is likely to be attentive and accountable in other areas as well, while someone who is sloppy and messy often will be lacking responsibility elsewhere.

2. Nervousness: Does your partner kiss you with confidence and poise, or are they shaky and uncertain? A nervous kisser may be nervous about other aspects of your relationship.

3. How you feel afterwards: Don't discount your feelings, even if you're unsure of where they come from. If you feel happy and passionate after a kiss, chances are your relationship is going well. However, if you wind up confused or concerned, it's likely that you'll have a lot to consider about where you and your partner stand.

How do you know when you’re ready for marriage?

Cupid's Advice:

Marriage is a wonderful and beautiful thing. But how do you know if you're really ready for a lifetime with your partner?

Here are some things to consider:

1. You've planned for a marriage, not just a wedding day:

Before getting married, you should make sure you're both aware of each other's expectations for the future. Questions like whether you're going to have a family, where you'll live, what to do with your bank account and the like should all be discussed before the big day.

2. You understand that people change:

We're not saying that after the honeymoon your new spouse is going to morph into some type of animal, but people's goals and expectations for their life often do change. They may want to switch occupations or live somewhere else, as may you. You have to be willing to accept them both for who they are and for who they may become, flaws and all.

3. You have complete trust in each other:

With the rapid growth in technology, trusting your partner is even more important today than it was in the past. From Facebook to texting, there's no longer just one face-to-face world. You may not know where your spouse is at all times, but if you communicate with each other and remain honest, you can rest assured that your marriage will stay strong.

- 1. Speak from the heart: Explaining why you want to marry her should come naturally and easily. Avoid memorizing lines, which can cause you to stumble over your words.
- 2. Intimate setting: The location should reflect the mood of your proposal. A romantic and private setting will make her feel like she is the only one in the world that matters.

Many couples celebrate their engagements in the same old way: rent a hall and invite the generic guest list. But why not do something a little more interesting and unique to your relationship? Here are a few ideas to consider:

1. Where You First Met: When selecting a venue for your engagement party, why not take advantage of the place you met your future spouse? From the local pub to a museum, most of these places are viable options to announce your pending nuptials to your loved ones.

2. The Park: Many couples have large extended families. A picturesque picnic in the park is a great way to include everyone. The little ones can play games while the adults indulge in tasty cocktails and classic picnic munchies.

Cupid's Advice:

Finding “the one” is more than just finding a good kisser or someone who's willing to spend a lot of money, but not enough time. Here are some ways you can tell if you have found your best match:

1. You enjoy each other: If you and your partner can lounge in the house all day eating pizza and mint chocolate chip ice cream while catching up on all the episodes of Weeds, you may have found your match. It's not every day that you come across someone who can truly enjoy your company when you're having a relaxed and lazy day.

2. They love him: By "they," we mean family, friends... heck, even your beloved canine. If you love him and the most important people in your life love him, too, it's a win-win situation.

3. You can be yourself: You sometimes can't truly be yourself around everyone you meet, but, when you find the one person that you can wake up next to each day, not put on any make-up and they still think you're the most beautiful person in the world – that's "the one."

What are some over-the-top proposal ideas?

Cupid's Advice:

For some, the idea of 'go big or go home' resonates well with proposals. A proposal should be momentous and representative of the love a couple shares, so here are some ideas to get that message across loud and clear:

1. Adrenaline rush proposal: It is said that the effects of attraction and love are linked to neurochemicals very similar to adrenaline. So, why not proclaim your love during an adrenaline rush? Propose in the air while sky diving, or go race car driving with your partner and scream the question out loud. Just make sure that your blood is pumping and heart is thumping.

2. Flash mob proposal: Go one step further than Justin Timberlake did in his movie Friends with Benefits and actually use the flash mob to propose. Nothing says 'I love you' more than hundreds of people dancing in sync to your favorite song in a public place. It's a story you'll be able to tell over and over.

3. Write it out: It's not as easy as it sounds. Write it in the skyline or take a helicopter ride where the words 'Will you marry me?' can be seen below. It might cost you a pretty penny, but it will be unforgettable.

'The Five-Year Engagement' is the Rom-Com of the Season!

Jason Segel and

Emily Blunt star in this romantic comedy about a couple who keep having to put off their engagement for reason after reason. Coming from the director of Forgetting Sarah Marshall, one of the funniest movies of the last decade, this movie seems to have a lot of laughs just in the trailer. Much of the film's appeal comes from the two leads, who both have great chemistry no matter who they are playing off of. The two of them together can only mean good things.

Should You See It? Yes, this is a comedy not to be missed just before the big summer blockbuster season.

Who To Take: Anyone really. Guys will like the comedy. Girls will like the romance. This is a great date film on all accounts but also one that you could take a group of friends to. It should be noted, however, that the film has an R rating, so you may want to steer clear from taking your mother in case there are raunchy scenes that might be awkward.

Are you in a relationship with someone who just won't commit? Here are some tips on easing them into territory they might not be so comfortable with.

In The Five-Year Engagement, Jason Segel and Emily Blunt keep finding reasons to put off their wedding date. But eventually one decides that enough is enough and that after five years now is the time. This of course leads to some conflict. Check out our tips on how to prevent these problems.

1. Make your intentions clear. Perhaps they don't want to scare you away by saying exactly what their intentions are for the future. So make sure that they know exactly where you want this to go so that there can be no confusion when the time for commitment comes.

2. Don't guilt them into anything. If you are ready and they are not don't push them. You will make them feel trapped and that could very easily cause the relationship to end.

3. Be patient. Good things come in time. Of course there is a point where two people just do not work together, but if you truly believe in the relationship, be patient and full commitment will come in time.

What are some unique ways to celebrate your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

Getting engaged is one of the most exciting moments of your life, and this is when you and your fiancé begin a new chapter in your life. Cupid has some tips to make it special:

- 1. Getaway: You and your new fiancé should take a weekend vacation together where you can celebrate your new status together and flaunt your hubby or wifey-to-be on your arm. This way you can have a little fun along with rest and relaxation before the stressful planning begins.
- 2. Surprise announcement: You’ll hardly be able to hold the news inside, but if you can stand it for a couple of days, surprising your parents and closest friends at a dinner or party would be a great way for everyone to get really excited and celebrate together. A more unique approach might be putting a video together on YouTube and breaking the news on the web.

3. Make memoirs: Don't wait to get your engagement pictures because you'll be glowing with excitement and you want to be able to capture that. It's also a good (and maybe cheesy) idea to write love letters to each other including details of the proposal. Keeping a journal of your life together will be something you'll appreciate having later when you can look back and reminisce about your journey.

If this was Ward's attempt at a publicity stunt, it's worked, but she seems to be carrying on with the story. Ward tweeted a photo of her engagement ring, which her rep claimed was a family heirloom that holds special meaning for both parties. She even continued to tweet about her excitement after Manson denied knowing her at all.

What are some warning signs that you should not marry your partner?

Cupid's Advice:

Of course you shouldn't marry someone if you don't know them or they're apparently insane! Even though Manson's case is extremely unlikely, Cupid has some real signs that you and your partner aren't ready to walk down the aisle:

1. Time: This can go both ways. If you've only been together a short amount of time, make sure you're not jumping into anything you're not ready for, because there's a lot to learn about someone you're going to spend the rest of your life with. If you've been dating or engaged to someone for too long, there might be a reason you haven't taken that step forward or you're avoiding the commitment.

2. Gut feeling: When you know, you know. If you have a feeling that something's not right or you feel hesitant in any way, it's important that you trust your instincts.

3. Peer pressure: Sometimes the people around you feel like they know what's best for you, and although that may be true some of the time, it's not true all of the time. There's a lot that goes on in a relationship behind closed doors, so there's an aspect that outsiders rarely see. Don't let people push you into a marriage you don't want.

What are some unique ways to propose?

Cupid's Advice:

Proposals can be so cliché. It's important that you make your engagement personal. Here are some unique ways to pop the big question:

1. Think small: Sometimes the simplest proposal can be the most romantic. Proposing during dinner at home can be the perfect start to a long and happy life together.
