While People.com reported that neither Sarah nor Bristol officially canceled the celebrity engagement, they did say that both Palin and Meyer families will be gathering in Kentucky to “celebrate life in general” on the date the official ceremony was supposed to take place.

Celebrity wedding no more! What are some reasons to call off your wedding?

Cupid's Advice:

While the celebrity engagement between Bristol Palin and Dakota Meyer didn't work out as planned, it's important to note that this isn't uncommon. Unfortunately, many relationships take a turn for the worst before the big day. Below are some reasons you might want to call off your wedding:

1. Cheating: Unfortunately, this isn't an obvious turnoff to some people. However, this is a huge, red flag, and there are deeper issues at hand. Call it off right away!

2. You're hoping they'll change: If you think that your partner will "settle down" or "become more mature" because they're married, think again. Someone's personality isn't going to change overnight just because they have a ring on their finger. Reevaluate what you expect from your partner.

3. You haven't discussed the details: Sure, no one likes an awkward or heated conversation. But, you have to talk about children, religion, politics, where you're going to live, etc. if you want any chance of sticking together. What if one person wants kids and the other one doesn't? That's obviously an issue!

Sofia Vergara Breaks Silence on Frozen Embryo Saga with Celebrity Ex Nick Loeb

By Maggie Manfredi

Let's hear it, Sofia! According to UsMagazine.com, Sofia Vergara finally came forward about her frozen embryo drama with celebrity ex Nick Loeb. Vergara and Loeb broke off their celebrity engagement a year ago, and with that came a contractual agreement on what to do with the frozen embryos the celebrity exes produced. The founder of Crunchy Condiment Company wrote an Op-Ed in the New York Times about his strong feelings that these embryos should be thawed. The Modern Family star, who is happily engaged to Joe Manganiello, spoke on the matter with Howard Stern on his radio show. Vergara stated, "Joe and I try not to even talk about it," she said. "We have lawyers. We're having so much fun right now. We just moved into a new house. We're planning a wedding. We try not to think about this, we can't do anything. It's signed, it's done, and that's it."

These celebrity exes are still fighting! What are some ways to keep the drama at a minimum post break-up?

Cupid's Advice:

Not all break-ups end amicably. Dealing with the backlash can be a little stressful, but Cupid has some tips on how to keep the drama to a minimum:

1. Avoid commentary: Don't go sharing every thought and feeling about your ex with the world, especially if the wounds are still fresh. Sofia waited it out and commented when it was appropriate, so you can exude patience, too.

2. Don't mix new with old: Have you moved on to a fetching new love (here's hoping you're having as good of luck as Joe and Sofia)? Try to keep the paths from crossing, as the last thing you want is to bring in drama to your new relationship or pile more on to your old one.

Jennie Garth: Can You "Win" the Celebrity Exes Challenge?

By Dr. Jane Greer

It's been less than two years since actors Jennie Garth and Peter Facinelli finalized their celebrity divorce, but already both are engaged to new partners. After Peter announced his celebrity engagement on March 16, Jennie's engagement to her new boyfriend of only a few months was confirmed last week.

The question is: Is this a coincidence, or a “battle of the celebrity exes”?

Sometimes one person will try to “win” their breakup by not being the one left alone while their ex has found new love. Even though you may be relieved that your relationship and love has ended, seeing your ex get into a new relationship or get engaged to someone else can potentially drive you to get involved quickly with someone you might otherwise not be so interested in. Additionally, it can also trigger you to take the next step with your own new partner so you don't feel your ex is getting on with their life and you're the one being left behind.

The Many Facets of Divorce

There are many facets of divorce that people have to go through, and there is no question that one of the most difficult is dealing with your ex when they move on and become involved with someone else. Whether he or she is starting a new relationship or is making the ultimate commitment by getting engaged or married, it can reverberate through you and oftentimes makes you feel like you are experiencing an ending all over again. This can be true whether you are in a new relationship or not. Inevitably you feel a loss knowing someone has taken your place. Regardless of whether the relationship ended at your former partner's hand or your own, it is hard not to look back at what was good when you were together, and feel bad that it didn't work out. That can be the case even if you are in a new, healthy relationship.

How to Stop Looking Backward and Start Looking Forward

First, know that feeling envy, sadness, and regret is natural and understandable. The trick is learning how to deal with it so those feelings don't consume you. The most important thing is to keep in mind that what you shared with your ex was once special and helped form you into the person you are today. You stayed together for as long as you could, while it worked for both of you, but it ended because it was no longer generating the happiness the two of you signed on for. If your ex is now happy and has moved on, that can be a signal for you to be doing the same thing by either looking for the relationship you always wanted but weren't able to have with your ex, or by shaping the new relationship you're in to make sure it is fulfilling and gratifying in a way your old one wasn't. Instead of living in the past, look to the future so you can stop feeling unhappy and empty about what you missed out on, and finally secure what you wanted all along. In other words, stay focused on yourself so you can build your own happily ever after.

As far as celebrity exes Peter and Jennie are concerned, at least they have each moved on with their new lives respectively and, in doing so, they appear to be in sync once again.

Celebrity Couple Predictions: Bobby Flay, Robert Pattinson

and Miley Cyrus

By Shoshi

The latest celebrity news has been filled with hot relationship gossip, including a celebrity marriage coming to an end, a famous couple finding true love, and a pop star who won't be settling down any time soon. Check out my predictions for the three celebrity couples below and find out what's next in their relationships and love lives!

Latest Celebrity News About Three Celebrity Couples

Bobby Flay and Stephanie March: It looks like the celebrity marriage of Chef Bobby Flay and actress Stephanie March is going up in flames. On television, Flay seems like a nice guy, especially when he's standing behind the grill wearing an apron. On the flipside of that, I have only heard negative things about him that make him sound like a real douche (for lack of a better word). Therefore, some of the claims about him from March are no surprise. If memory serves me right, she left acting to help him with his restaurants.

A "close source" to him says he's heartbroken about his celebrity divorce. When I look at this relationship and love, it looks like he can't get out of it soon enough. Word on the street is that March is not happy with the prenup. Of course, she isn't! When you're in love, money doesn't matter as much, but when the love is over, you want to take them for all that you can. That doesn't make her a bad person; it makes her human. I see other female energy around Flay. I'm not saying he has a mistress, but maybe he put his utensils in someone else's kitchen, if you know what I mean.

Robert Pattinson and FKA Twigs: Word on the streets is that singer FKA Twigs and actor Robert Pattinson are engaged. One thing's for sure: Pattinson never looked so happy until this whirlwind celebrity romance. If you look back at some of his photos when he was with Kristen Stewart, he looked a bit miserable.

This famous couple is on a roll and won't be slowing down anytime soon. They are both equally invested in their relationship and love, and I see them going to the chapel and getting married soon. Pattinson knew that she was The One immediately. When a man finds what he is looking for, he doesn't waste time. They could tie the knot by the end of this year. There is also a bit of baby energy swirling around these two. Within the first year of their celebrity marriage, a little girl just might show up.

Miley Cyrus Will Not Announce Celebrity Engagement Anytime Soon

Miley Cyrus and Patrick Schwarzenegger: Where do I begin with this celebrity relationship? It seems like Patrick Schwarzenegger has been spending more time with his “friends” than with Miley Cyrus. Does he only know women? I don’t see this relationship ever getting serious. If it does, Cyrus will always be questioning what he is doing with his so-called friends. It’s not that Schwarzenegger should stop having women friends, but does he have to always look so cuddly with all of them?

Schwarzenegger doesn’t seem to want to settle down at all, and Cyrus isn’t ready to be married with kids either. They have a relationship that is kind of like the ones you may have had in high school, where the loves lines are always kind of blurry.

For now, the two of them are getting what they need from each other: some fun and frolic. No need to wait for a celebrity engagement announcement from them. This will fizzle out sooner rather than later. The next guy Cyrus dates will be a long-term relationship. As for Schwarzenegger, until he falls in love, he will go through girlfriend after girlfriend.

American Idol Contestant Talks About What the Reality TV Show Taught Her

Of course, Cook didn't just chat with us about her perfect celebrity engagement story. The eliminated contestant says that American Idol has provided her with so many resources for her future. “They’ve exposed me to millions of people,” she shares. “I’ve never had vocal lessons before, and getting access to all of this information and being able to work with my vocal coach was amazing. I learned more about music in this last few months than I did in my whole life before now!”

The singer says she couldn’t be more grateful for the life-changing experience, which taught her more about herself as well. “I wasn’t confident as a vocalist before, and this show has shown me that, along with playing instruments and writing music, I’m a singer, and that’s what I do,” she explains. “It’s proven to me that I am good enough, and I am capable and deserving.” We couldn’t agree more!

Mark another celebrity engagement down in the books! What are some ways to surprise your partner with a special marriage proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

Dave Abrams and Jennie Garth have been sharing their celebrity engagement with the public and we could not be more thrilled! Here are some ways to surprise your partner with a perfect proposal:

1. Lead them away from the trail: If you've been together for awhile your partner might be expecting a proposal any day now which really throws off any element of surprise. So drop false hints about a big "date" in the future or making the next upcoming holiday "one to remember." This way when you take your partner to a nice dinner or a trip for two they won't suspect a thing.

According to UsMagazine.com, the Grammy winner said, "At the end of the day, you want to always, always have real people around you, period. Whether it's male or female, and everybody that's been around me, they've been around since day one... I always show respect when respect has been given, and people that have been by your side, you're supposed to honor that."

This celebrity engagement was a long time coming. How do you know if your relationship has staying power?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether you have been in a relationship and love with someone for a long time or you just started dating them, you very well may be thinking about the possibility of an engagement down the road. It's important to take a step back and think about what you want for the future in terms of your relationship:

1. Committed: When you and your partner are fully committed to one another then your relationship highly has staying power. If you both are devoted to one another, and more importantly each other's happiness, then it is very likely that it will last!

2. Exclusive: Sometimes people date more than one person at once, because they don't know who they want to be in a relationship with or who they like. Cupid's Advice:

One way to show your partner you care about them is by caring about the things that are important to them. Whether it's their career or just a hobby, taking part and showing support will make your relationship and love even stronger. Consider this love advice:

1. Be there with them: Attend events, both big and small. Even if the moment doesn't seem that significant to you, if your partner asked you to come, then it's probably important to them. Being present for lets your sweetheart show off for you – and show you off too!

3. Be honest: While a big part of encouragement is about being positive, it doesn't have to mean glossing over important issues. He also said that, while eventually he wants a relationship and family, he's not dating right now. When asked if he would consider returning to The Bachelorette to find that special someone, he replied, "It was a great experience, but I did that already, and I'm kind of moving on from that specific part of my life." The winner of The Bachelorette seems happy without his celebrity

ex. What are some ways you can cope with a break-up and move on too?

Cupid's Advice:

Breaks-ups, no matter the circumstances or the length of the relationship, are tough on everyone. Following The Bachelorette winner's lead, Cupid has some dating and relationship advice to help you cope after a split:

1. Everything happens for a reason: Murray is more equipped to move on from his celebrity ex because he understands why their relationship and love didn't last. Knowing the cause behind your break-up will help you deal with it for many reasons. First, once you identify the issues, you can stop wondering what went wrong. And second, it will help you avoid similar situations or mistakes so you'll have more success in the future.

2. Forgive and forget: It'll be hard to move on if you're still harboring negative feelings for your ex. worrying about the mistakes in your past.

Cupid's Advice:

People are going to talk no matter what; that's just life. The best way to handle gossip and rumors in your relationship and love is to always take the high road. Like Bonnie Raitt sings, "Let's give them something to talk about!" Cupid has some tips:

1. Stay strong: No matter what the situation is, always stay strong and take the high road. Remember there is always light at the end of the tunnel, and you and your partner will get through it! Don't worry about what people say; all that matters is what you and your partner think and feel!

Andi Dorfman of 'The Bachelorette' Hands Out Final Rose and Confronts Runner-Up

By Laura Seaman

It's all over, folks! Andi Dorfman of The Bachelorette has made her final decision and is now engaged to... Josh Murray! The famous celebrity couple was cuddling and showing their love for one another on the live post-finale show, according to UsMagazine.com. However, that's only one side of the story. Heartbroken and tossed aside, runner-up Nick Viall had a few things to say on the post-finale sit-down. "If you knew how in love with you I was, why did you make love with me?" he asked Dorfman. This was an awkward and shocking confession, making the rest of the conversation extremely uncomfortable. Luckily things became all love and cuddles once Viall was backstage and Murray took his place with new fiancé Dorfman.

It's not only famous couples who find themselves with one too many dating options. What are some ways to chose between two people you're attracted to?

Cupid's Advice:

Having two people fight for your affections might sound nice at first (it's definitely an ego boost), but be prepared for the extremely stressful task of choosing only one. This means ending any relationship you might have had with one person and committing yourself fully to the other. What makes this a million times harder is when you honestly care for them both! Cupid has some relationship advice to help make the decision easier:

1. Ask yourself which would make the better parent and spouse: If you're looking for a serious commitment, this is a very important question. Maybe the person who's the most fun isn't the one who would make a good spouse. Maybe the one you're most physically attracted to wouldn't make a good parent. These are the things you need to plan for!

2. Think about the kind of feelings you have: Your relationship with one person might be much more mature than the other, and you have to decide whether you want that mature relationship right now. One relationship might be more formal, whereas the other might be more casual and playful. You need to decide what kind of relationship you want and which partner can give that to you.

3. Look back at your history with each of them. Have you spent more time with one than the other? If both people were to ask you out and made plans for the same night, which one would you be more inclined to turn down? Chances are, you have a gut feeling telling you which one to choose, and it might be a good idea to follow it.

Have you ever made the tough decision between two people like Andi did on The Bachelorette? How did it go? Let us know in the comments!

By Sanetra Richards

Baby number two on the way and a wedding is on its way, too for this reality star. Nicole “Snooki” Polizzi is putting her wedding plans into action. According to People.com, the Jersey Shore alum celebrated the upcoming big day with a Great Gatsby themed bridal shower in her native, Poughkeepsie, New York, on Sunday. Amongst the 100 party guests were costars Jenni “JWoww” Farley, Sammi Giancola, and Deena Cortese. Polizzi’s 18 bridesmaids were indeed festive in costumes to represent the roaring ’20s. Set to wed in the fall, Snooki uploaded photos of the event on Instagram, including a picture of her seating card, reading “Bride to Be,” followed by the caption, “That’s me!” Although the room was filled with ladies, one guy made a special appearance: Her little one, Lorenzo. In another photo shared was her and her 22-month-old son: “With my prince,” she captioned. She later Tweeted to fans, “Had such an amazing day with friends and family. Blessed to have genuine & beautiful people in my life.”

What are three unique themes for a bridal shower?

Cupid's Advice:

The big day is approaching and you are celebrating it to the fullest. In the midst of all the planning, you are putting together a bridal shower, but running low on ideas. Should it be themed? Should it be coordinated by a specific color? These may be just a couple of questions you have been asking yourself. Cupid has some suggestions to help:

1. Pretty & Pamper: What better way to treat yourself and the ladies than with a nice pampering session? Manicures, pedicures, facials, massages . . . complete bliss! Throw some food, drinks, and a few wedding games in the mix and stamp it as a bridal shower.

3. Pick a Decade: If there is a period in time that you are nearly obsessed with, try to revolve your shower around it. Example: If you choose the 1960s, go with a 'mod' look. You will be sure to represent the decade well.

Rumor: Are Charlize Theron

and Sean Penn Engaged?

By Sanetra Richards

Is there going to be another celebrity bride sometime soon? From the looks of it, possibly. According to UsMagazine.com, Charlize Theron and Sean Penn may be ready for the Mr. and Mrs. title. The couple hopes to wed this summer in South Africa, Theron's native, as well as adopt a little one. "They want to get married very soon," said an inside source. "[They] always intended to have another child." Sparking rumors even more, the 38-year-old actress was spotted sporting a beautiful new carats on her left hand at the Los Angeles International Airport on July 23rd. Although a source revealed the ring is not symbolizing an engagement, a source from Penn stated "they absolutely want to get married." After 18 years of friendship, the pair made their debut as couple back in May at the Metropolitan Museum of Art's Costume Institute Gala in NYC. "It just kind of naturally happened, and before I knew it, I was in something that was making my life better—the people who really love me can see the effect it has had on me," Theron dished on her relationship to Vogue. She also told Esquire U.K. last month that "it was nice to be single and now it's nice to be not single."

What are some ways to keep your engagement under wraps?

Cupid's Advice:

The proposal took you by surprise and now you are ready to take everyone else by surprise with the announcement. Although you are overwhelmed by excitement and joy, you do not want to broadcast your engagement just yet. With the big secret comes some steps to overcome in order to successfully conceal the news. Check out a few out Cupid's tips:

1. Swear into secrecy: Do not disclose any information. Of course, you will be tempted quite a few times to tell even your closest friends . . . do not give in. It may seem easier said than done, but definitely can be done if you are serious about not spilling the beans.

2. Don't be Captain Obvious: The talks about marriage and whatnot will only continue with your family and friends, yet it is up to you to shy away from exposing your big and special news until you and your partner are ready. Sometimes we feel pressured and want to blabber about every single thing. Do not let this interfere with the plan. If no hints are given, the engagement will come as a surprise.

3. Leave the ring at home:It is beautiful, shiny, and sparkly . . . you want everyone in town to see it. Yes, you will get the urge to flaunt your new accessory, however, keep in mind the master plan. Keep the ring in the jewelry box until the time comes. People are easily captured by an exquisite diamond and will begin to speculate. Instead, you may want to choose something simple that is sentimental and symbolizes your engagement to wear out in public until the news is announced.

What are three factors to consider before getting engaged?

Cupid’s Advice:

“Here comes the bride...” Not yet! You have wedding bells on your mind, but are not quite sure if it is the right time. After all, timing is truly everything. You and your partner have discussed taking the relationship further. Unfortunately, hesitation gets the best of both of you for various reasons. Cupid has some things to think about before agreeing to become one:

1. Compatibility: Can you see yourself with this person until the end of time? The attraction should be apparent and undeniable. After all, if you do indeed say “yes” or your partner does, you are planning to spend every day with them through the good and the bad. If you cannot envision yourself with anyone else, and they are your soul mate . . . it may be time for that life changing step.

2. Finances (of course): Not to say it all revolves around money, but it is a key factor to consider before making marriage plans. The two of you should keep in mind your financial stability. Avoid depending on each other for that security. Marriage comes with expenses.

3: Family: Be sure to talk with your significant other about building a family and the connection each of you have with each others' families. Do you want kids? If so, what size family do you see yourself having? Are you in good with the future in-laws and other relatives? These are just a few points to hit while having this conversation.

By Sanetra Richards

We hear wedding bells! According to UsMagazine.com, David Arquette is soon-to-be a married man. The 42-year-old actor proposed to his girlfriend, Christina McLarty, while in Malibu on Wednesday, July 2nd. Just shy of a week ago, news broke that Arquette's ex-wife, Courteney Cox, announced her engagement to Snow Patrol's Johnny McDaid. A source reports the Scream star asked for the entertainment reporter's hand during a family dinner at the restaurant Mastro's Steakhouse with their 2-month old son, Charlie West, and Arquette and Cox's 10-year-old daughter, Coco. The insider also revealed Arquette had the proposal "planned it for a while" and has "known he wanted to marry Christina for a long time." Coincidental or not, the engagements between the former married couple are days apart. "David was just waiting for the right time," says another source, "He and Courteney both talked about taking the next step in their relationships ... They both want what's best for each other."

What are some ways to surprise your partner with a proposal?

Cupid's Advice:

Lately you have been thinking about getting on one knee and asking your love for their hand in marriage. Many ideas have crossed your mind, but you are unsure of how to keep it all a secret. Cupid has a few tips that will help:

1. Keep them out of the loop completely: The first thing to do is to keep your lips sealed. Do not disclose any information or clues that will leave your partner curious. Once they begin to think you are about to pop the question, the "surprise" is ruined. This also applies to anyone else who may be in on the game plan. Remember, secret is the keyword!

2. Act normal: Try not to be unusual – be yourself. If your soul mate starts to suspect you are up to something, they will begin to snoop until they find out what is going on.

Christina Milian: Bye Bye to Jas Prince

By Sanetra Richards

Goodbye, fiancé ! Hello, single lady! According to UsMagazine.com, a rep for Christina Milian's family has announced the 32-year-old singer/actress and fiancé Jas Prince have ended their engagement. The star and her music executive boyfriend of nearly four years called off the engagement at the beginning of this month. Milian removed her belongings from their L.A. house on Thursday, June 19th. The pair allegedly began dating in 2010, following a few months after her divorce from singer/songwriter The Dream. She was spotted sporting a nice sized diamond ring in April 2013, but kept it under wraps, even when asked about it in interviews.

While not saying too much, Milian shared a quote on Instagram on June 12th about new beginnings and achieving the life you desire: "There comes a time in life, when you walk away from all the drama and people who create it. Surround yourself with people who make you laugh, forget the bad, and focus on the good. Love the people who treat you right. Pray for the ones who don't. Life is too short to be anything but happy. Falling down is part of life, getting back up is living." Following the message, the caption stated, “Morning inspiration. Turn your life around and do all the things that make you happy. It’s your life to live.”

How do you know when to call off your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

You dated, fell in love, and then came the big question. Of course, you said yes . . . but found yourself rethinking the entire ordeal once things took a turn for the worse. Unfortunately, you are not quite sure how to tell your partner you do not want to go forward or if being single is what you truly want to do. Cupid has some advice to help you:

1. No longer getting along: The arguments have started and the looks of disgust are definitely not going away anytime soon – it is probably best to say goodbye to your engagement. The worst thing you could possibly do is get married knowing you are unhappy and will be that way for some time to come. Do not be ashamed to tell your family and friends you are calling it quits. Chances are, they will be happier to know you are not going into a marriage with ill feelings.

2. Cheating: Yes, the big C. If this is already happening in your relationship, your marriage will not stand a chance.

Related: Christina Milian Doesn’t Deny or Confirm Engagement to Jas Prince

3. Future is not the same: Your talks about what your future entails have changed and you are no longer on the same page . . . let it go. Your idea of a happy life is not matching your partner’s, and there is no convincing him/her of having the same. If you want to succeed successfully throughout your marriage, conversations revolving around your life as a married couple are key (and should probably be similar).
