By Kayla Garritano

This celeb is playing the part of dad once more! Nick Cannon confirmed that he is expecting a celebrity baby with ex-girlfriend Brittany Bells. According to UsMagazine.com, Cannon released the celebrity news in an interview with The Breakfast Club on Thursday, November 17, with US Weekly exclusively breaking the news earlier this month. "Who said it wasn't mine?" Cannon said when asked about Bell's baby. "I've got a baby on the way ... absolutely ... God said be fruitful and multiply. I'm doing the Lord's work ... everybody get a baby! I'm passing them out," he jokingly included.

This celebrity baby is coming into an uncertain relationship. What are some ways to prepare for a baby if you are no longer with the other parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes, babies are born from a relationship that didn't work out. It doesn't mean that the gift of a child is any less exciting or less important! Cupid has some relationship advice to make sure you prepare for your baby in the best way possible:

1. Be there for each other: It's hard going through the pregnancy process alone. If you are still in contact or on good terms with your ex, then it's best to keep each other on speed dial, so whenever your ex needs you, you're there. You're going to want to be there during the birth of your child, so it's good to be there in the steps leading to it.

2. Create space in your home: If you aren't together anymore, you're probably not living together, either. Your baby is going to be shared between your house and your partner's, so make sure you get that extra room going for when your baby takes over the house. You want your precious gem to be comfortable and in a happy environment!

3. Keep significant others away: If you're already back in the dating pool, things may get a little complicated if your new partner wants to get involved with your soon-to-be child. What happened with you and your ex should stay between the two of you, and only you both can really solve the situation. It makes for less stress!

This celebrity couple has been through a lot of ups and downs. What are some things to consider before getting back together with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

The decision about whether to get back together with ex can be tough. There are a lot of things to consider. Cupid has some dating advice:

1. Is it worth it?: If you get back together, are you going to be happy? Was it worth the constant fighting and stress? Make sure you are getting into the relationship for the right reasons. If you do have children, it's understandable that you'd want to get back together for them, but make sure it's also what you want.

Celebrity Couple Bella Hadid & The Weekend Call It Quits After Almost Two Years

By Kayla Garritano

Celebrity couple Bella Hadid and The Weekend (ne Abel Tesfaye) have broken up after almost two years of dating, and they have their schedules to blame. “They still have a great deal of love and respect for each other and will remain friends, but it has been too hard to coordinate their schedules with him finishing and promoting his upcoming album,” a source close to The Weekend says. “They really tried to make it work.” According to UsMagazine.com, the now celebrity exes first met when The Weekend asked Hadid to model for his breakthrough album, Beauty Behind the Madness, back in April 2015, and then starred in his music video for “In the Night.” The couple first started dating publicly in May 2015.

It's clear this celebrity couple didn't want their relationship to end. What are some ways to recover after a tough split?

Cupid's Advice:

When a couple breaks up, it may not always be because they want to, but because they have to. Busy schedules, like what happened with Bella Hadid and The Weekend, may affect your relationship. Cupid wants you to be happy, so here are some ways to feel better:

1. It's not goodbye, it's “see you later”: Just because you're broken up now does not mean that you won't get back together. If your schedules end up working out in the future, and you still have those feelings for one another, then you can go forward in your relationship. It doesn't mean you should sit around and wait, but once you're both on with your lives, see if you can rekindle that flame.

2. Grab your girls: Through a tough time, your girls are always there for you. They will take you out on a day full of things you love. Maybe a road trip to the beach, or even just a night-in watching a comedy eating pizza. They will put the pep back in your step!

3. Cry it out: It was a tough break-up! You're not over your partner, and that's understandable. You are allowed to cry at how it didn't work out, because you didn't want it to end. Let the emotions flow, and you'll probably end up feeling a little better. Relieve that pain.

Celebrity News: Hilary Duff Speaks Out on Divorce, Marriage, Monogamy and More

By Kayla Garritano

This star is coming clean! In celebrity news, Hilary Duff opened up about divorce, marriage, monogamy and more while discussing past relationships and her current love life. According to UsMagazine.com, Duff and her Younger co-star, Nico Tortorella, sat down for a casual interview with the podcast show, The Love Bomb. “All of my relationships have been in the public eye. Whether people care or not, that’s a different story,” Duff brought up to co-star Nico Tortorella. “But enough people seem to have cared that it’s talked about.” Despite her problems, Duff never took love as a joke. Her first serious relationship happened at the age of 16. She then met Mike Comrie in her early 20’s and they were married in 2010, having a child in 2012. Although divorcing, these celebrity exes still remain friends. Now, she is currently dating personal trainer Jason Walsh. Although she doesn’t “feel the need to get married again,” she is open to the idea if it is important to her significant other.

In this celebrity news, Hilary Duff finally opens up about her relationships. What are some ways to keep an open mind in your relationships?

Cupid's Advice:

Relationships can be tricky, but it is good to always have an open mind when you're with someone. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Act, don't react: If your partner is trying to confront you about a problem the two of you are facing, it is best to act upon it instead of getting upset over it. Reacting in a negative way can cause a fight, and you don't want that happening! Maybe there's something you can do to change for the better, as opposed to getting defensive.

2. Be flexible: In a relationship, not everything is going to go as planned. You can walk in with high expectations of how you perceived your partner to look and act, but they may not always be who you planned, and that's okay. When you meet someone new and you feel a connection, don't judge the other person based on a preconceived notion of what you wanted.

3. Ease your temper: Things will happen in a relationship that you will not like, but instead of blowing up on your partner, you have to try and calmly talk it out. Nothing will be solved with a short temper, it may even make matters worse.

By Kayla Garritano

No more waiting. After a year of separation, Kate Beckinsale's estranged husband, Len Wiseman, has filed for a celebrity divorce. According to UsMagazine.com, TMZ stated that Wiseman cited irreconcilable differences, and neither of them are asking for spousal support. Us confirmed back in November 2015 that the celebrity couple was separating after 11 years of marriage. This split has turned into a celebrity divorce. What are some reasons to try a separation prior to a divorce?

Cupid's Advice:

When fighting with your spouse, divorce doesn't have to be the answer. Sometimes, it's best to separate for a while until a decision is made. Cupid is here with some relationship advice:

1. Distance makes the heart grow fonder: It may just be that you and your partner need space from each other. Take a break from the constant fighting and split up to see if you end up missing each other more than you thought. If you both do, then you know the situation is worth trying to fix.

Cupid's Advice:

It's your wedding! You want to make it your own and give it a personal touch. You and your partner should be planning a night to remember. Cupid is here to help with ways you can personalize your wedding:

1. Picture perfect: What better way to personalize your wedding than by putting your face everywhere? You and your partner must have plenty of memories leading up to your big day, and there must be pictures to prove it. Lying pictures on tables or around the walls makes the party feel inviting. You're inviting your guests into your personal journey, which is a heart-warming gesture.

According to UsMagazine.com, Watts posted a photo of Scheiber holding their two kids with the caption, “Happy birthday to this one!!” The couple announced they were separating after 11 years together on September 26, and have agreed to try to keep their split friendly.

These celebrity exes are keeping the good vibes. What are some ways to support your ex in a healthy way post-split?

Cupid’s Advice:

It’s rare to be civil with an ex after a break-up. However, sometimes you split with your partner because you both realize you're better off as friends, and that's a great realization! What if you really want to support your ex post-split? Cupid is here with some advice:

1. Don't talk badly about them: When you go through a break-up, it only feels natural to throw some negative comments their way. However, if you want to remain civil and support them, it is better off to keep those comments aside and speak more positively about them.

2. Hang out with your kids: At the end of the day, you realize that you have children together, and you do not want to risk your child's emotions for the sake of your own. Post a picture on Instagram, just like Watts did, and show that your ex is still appreciated for being a parent.

3. Talk about why this is for the best: If you knew your relationship couldn't last any longer, it would be good to talk it out and remember that you're doing this for everyone's best interests. 1. Remember they're an ex: You and your partner are the ones in the relationship. Although Jennifer Aniston never wished harm on Brad Pitt, other exes may wish harm on your partner. Relationship Advice: Why Isn't It Easy to Say Goodbye?

By Dr. Jane Greer

Some say Ben Affleck is waiting to find out if his celebrity ex Jennifer Garner wants to reconcile with him. Despite their celebrity divorce, they have remained close. According to a source, many people feel Jennifer is stringing Ben along and “making him jump through hoops.” They say she’s acting hot and cold, and he has no idea where they stand as a couple or a family. It can be very frustrating to remain in limbo and not know what to expect. Many people find themselves in this situation after a break-p or an attempted break-up.

Sometimes the road to splitting up permanently isn’t clear, and there can be lots of fits and starts before either reaching the final end of a relationship, or deciding to give it another solid try. Why is it so hard for people to let go, sometimes even if they are officially divorced? Check out the following relationship advice:

The most compelling reason people continue to hold on is the fact that they have a shared history. The person who might be an ex-partner has a sense not only of who you are, but who you were with them and during your time together. To then say good-bye to them can also feel like saying goodbye to who you were during your relationship. Another thing that can keep you hopeful, even if you aren’t happy right now, is the possibility that something will change and the good times you once shared and the positive aspects of the relationship will resume.

Related Link: Jennifer Garner Source Says Ben Affleck’s Alleged Celebrity Affair Was the ‘Ultimate Betrayal’

Another thing that can keep the glue between you from completely giving way is if one of you wants to hold on more than the other. When this happens, the one who isn't ready to finally end it might persist with calls, emails, and texts which can increase the doubts the other might feel as well as any guilt feelings he or she might have about ending the relationship in the first place. The partner who wants to continue to be together might also make assertions that they will change whatever behavior may have led to the unhappiness between you. They might even start to do it, which can make the other person stick around with the hope that the negative behaviors will disappear completely. As a result, a couple can often seesaw because even small changes can increase optimism and give someone the stamina they need to be willing to try to give it another shot. In the case of a betrayal, when the initial and intense anger diminishes, there can be a willingness to give the person a chance to rebuild your trust. Also, when there are children involved, as there are with Jennifer and Ben, there is often a desire to keep the family together for their sake. That can be one of the strongest driving forces of all. Whatever the case, certainly if a lot of loving feelings remain it is hard to imagine life without them in it.

Related Link: Lessons From Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck

The question becomes, how do you know if you are wasting your time, holding on with the hope that the happiness will be rekindled or the bad behaviors will change when there is the chance that neither of those things is likely? How can you know how much time to give it before reaching the decision to finally call it quits? Are there any strategies to employ for ending a relationship?

If you are moving forward with the intent to give your relationship a try and see if things can work out, it's good to be clear about what specific changes you are looking for and how long you are willing to wait to see if they actually take place. For example, if you are looking to see if you can trust your partner again, the only real way to do that is to give them enough time to show through their actions that what they say and do is worthy of your trust. But if months go by and you continue to be disappointed because the promised changes aren't happening, or they have happened once but were never followed up on, that can be a good indicator that things aren't really going to be different from what had been upsetting you all along, and if you want to be happier it is time to let go. Ideally, you or your partner can look for counseling, which can help you either get your relationship back on track or help you reach the difficult decision that it really is time to say good-bye to each other.

It appears that Jennifer and Ben continue to share loving feelings, as well as children, and therefore remain open to the possibility of reuniting as a couple. Here's to hoping for the best!
