

Celebrity Parent: Find Out More About Jesse Williams' Fight to Privately Parent

By Rhodesia Williams

In celebrity news, Jesse Williams is still dealing with custody issues after his celebrity break-up. According to EOnline.com, Jesse Williams' celebrity divorce from his ex-wife, Aryan Drake-Lee is costing him way more than a pretty penny. Although the celebrity couple filed for divorce in April 2017, they are still going at it when it comes to custody of their kids. Unfortunately, the celebrity exes are going tit for tat and it doesn't seem like it will end any time soon.

This celebrity parent is battling to parent in private. What are some ways to keep your custody battle out of the limelight?

Cupid's Advice:

When you break up or go through a divorce, fighting can be inevitable. Although fighting is never good, it is much better to argue in private rather than cause a show for people to watch. Cupid has some advice on ways to keep your custody battle out of the limelight:

1. Agree on privacy: If you can't agree on anything else, try to agree on keeping things between the two of you. When going through a sensitive time, keeping things private allow you and your ex to face the issues at hand without interference. Not only that, as heated as arguments get, people won't see how "heated" you can really get. We all do things out of anger so why advertise it just to regret it later.

2. Keep it short and sweet: Think about it. When someone asks about your current situation with your ex and you calmly say you aren't seeing eye to eye, they won't know what to say. Usually people rant and rave and tell people details and sometimes, that's just what people are looking for. While I'm sure you have one or two people you can trust to keep quiet, going into details with other's is an invitation to have your business spread.

3. Keep Calm: Sometimes you just want to break your ex's windows or bleach their clothes. Well, don't. Keeping calm during this time will just let people assume everything is fine, which isn't a bad thing. Reframe from doing anything that will cause attention because it will do just that, not cause any attention. Attention will bring more confusion and during a sensitive time like this, you don't need that. As upset as you are, you don't want people or your children to see it. Children repeat everything and all you need is for them to repeat something.

Valderrama is the first celebrity guest to visit Lovato in the hospital after she was rushed to the hospital by ambulances from her home in Hollywood Hills on July 24 after suffering an apparent overdose. Some of the information being reported is incorrect and they respectfully ask for privacy and not speculation as her health and recovery is the most important thing right

These celebrity exes still clearly hold love for one another. What are some ways to support your ex during a trying time?

Cupid's Advice:

In difficult times, sometimes the right thing to do is to be there for your ex. Cupid has some tips on how to support them:

1. Show up: Just like Valderrama did, sometimes the best thing you can do when your ex is struggling is to show up and be there for them. Just because you are no longer in a relationship doesn't mean you don't have to be supportive of them when they are going through something difficult. Just going to them to offer your support and presence is a huge help.

2. Keep it platonic: One thing to remember when supporting your ex during a trying time is to not let things go too far and end up getting romantic. Your ex is going through a lot and a past relationship is easily something they can turn to for comfort, but you could end up getting hurt in the end if it doesn't work out. Make sure to support your ex only as a friend and make your boundaries clear.

3. Rally their friends: If you actually being around your ex might be too stressful for them, maybe try supporting your ex in a different way. If you still have mutual friends, contact them and let them know they should reach out to them. You can also try to organize a get together where you all can be there for him, without things being as awkward as meeting with just the two of you.

The celebrity exes broke up over the weekend via Instagram for all to see, apparently over the lack of faithfulness in the relationship from both sides. Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes it takes us longer than others to fall out of love with someone. It can depend on who that ex is, how the relationship was, or how it ended. However, cupid has some love advice on how to deal with still loving your ex:

1. Analyze your feelings and the situation: Be sure of what you feel. Sometimes we think we feel one thing when in reality we actually feel another. We are only human, so we do make mistakes. Also, evaluate the situation, think with your mind and not your heart. Only because you love an ex does not mean that you should be with them, or even have them in your life for that matter. Evaluate everything carefully.

2. Keep busy: Be productive. Keep yourself distracted while bettering yourself, that's the best thing you can do after all. 3. Get closure: When the time is right that is! Don't move too quickly. Sometimes what we want is to contact an ex, just for the hell of it. If you need closure, get some. Sometimes instead of closure, things may possibly get fixed, but don't go into it with expectations. After giving yourself the adequate amount of time and you're in a place that's as good as it's going to get for the moment, go for it.

Most break-ups are not easy – they affect us in various ways. Luckily, there are ways to deal with them. Here are a few:

1. Being a break-up was the right choice: Sometimes love can blind us, but it is important to know the reason for our decisions, and that it is in fact the right one. Try your best to skip any denial stage to make it easier for yourself. Assess the situation and be sure. But don't overdo it to the point you're blaming yourself or driving yourself crazy. Just make sure that you stand strong in knowing the break-up was the right thing to do.

2. Take care of yourself emotionally and physically: Start off by making sure to eat well and exercise. Both eating and exercising are essential to your health and make you feel better after. Why Sam 'Sammi Sweetheart' Giancola Avoided 'Jersey Shore: Family Vacation'

By Jessica Gomez

In celebrity news, “Sammi Sweetheart” did not go back to Jersey Shore: Family Vacation because she was afraid that celebrity ex Ronnie Ortiz-Magro would try to get back together with her, according to UsMagazine.com. On Thursday’s episode, Ronnie went off about not caring about Sam not showing up because he has a baby on the way with his girlfriend Jen Harley. Deena Cortese, another Jersey Shore member and Sam’s close friend had something to say in a confessional on the show: “Ron needs to stop talking about Sam and move the f–k on ... Sam told me that he used to call her on blocked numbers, and used to like, be really weird. She was afraid she was gonna get in the house and he would get drunk and spiral and try and get back with her or something.” Arguments about Sam have erupted in the Jersey Shore house regardless of her not being present. The former celebrity couple are a topic of discussion because of their dramatic roller coaster relationship that kept fans watching. Let’s see if Sam decides to make an appearance after all.

In celebrity news, it seems Sam knows what she wants, and she doesn't want to get back with her ex. What are some ways you know you should not get back together with an old flame?

Cupid's Advice:

A lot of the time we think of reasons to get back together with an ex, but neglect to reflect on the reasons we shouldn't. Cupid has some love advice:

1. They're involved with someone else: This is something that may seem obvious. However, there are some people that decide it's time to compete and win their former lover back. This is not the best idea. Once someone is involved with someone else, it will most likely just bring problems into a relationship that you may rekindle. Just remember, if it's meant to happen between you guys, it will.

2. You have not forgiven them: If you have yet to forgive your ex for any wrongdoings, then getting back together won't be the brightest idea. You will just have the same problems all over again, which is something you want to avoid. If you can't forgive, then it's time to move on – avoid yourself all the stress.

3. They're still not trustworthy: If you can't trust them, then why go back to them? You would not want to enter a relationship with distrust, it just won't end well. It would be a different story if you didn't trust them before, but you feel like you can now. Remember, when there is no trust (for a good reason), it's best to keep things pushing.

However, we do not know the reason for their split as of yet. We wish them the best of luck.

In celebrity break-ups, John Cena and Nikki Bella called it quits. What are some reasons to call off your engagement?

Cupid’s Advice:

Calling off an engagement is rough. Nevertheless, it is better to realize now that it's not working out rather than later after you're married. Here are some reasons why you would possibly call off your engagement:

1. You argue all the time and cannot come to an agreement: Relationships have to consist of good communication between partners. If you argue all the time, that is something you can work through. Now, if you argue all the time and just don't resolve anything, then there is a problem. If this is the case, your issues will likely build up and continue to cause havoc in your relationship.

2. There is no trust: There are times in a relationship where there may be a lack of trust, and many times couples work through it. However, when at the point where you're engaged, trust should be something that is prominently there. There is no reason why you should not trust the person you are going to marry.

3. There are things you cannot get past: If you're marriage is going to work, you need to have moved on from past mistakes your partner has made. Sometimes we remain in relationships without forgiving our partner for a past discretion. When engaged, the slate should be wiped clean in a way. You are about to start a new chapter in your lives, and if you still have past demons knocking on your door, you may already be a step toward divorce without even being married yet.

Cupid’s Advice:

Some past flames are not worth a second chance, but some relationships do end on a note where time can do the pair well. If this is the case for you, here are some benefits as to why giving it a second go is a good idea:

1. You already know one another: Although people sometimes change, you already know things about your partner and the relationship you had. This can give you a sense of comfort and trust. You both hopefully learned the same lesson from the first time as well. It will also be nice to get to know any new sides of them that they developed during your time apart.

Keeping a relationship with an ex civil isn't always an option, but it many times can be! Cupid has some tips on how to go about it:

1. Be respectful toward each other: Don't curse, don't be sarcastic – just don't say things that can be taken the wrong way. Between exes there can be lots of tension, so it is easy for one person to feel like the other is overstepping. Stay in your lane and give the respect you expect.

Now, a source close to the former couple tells People.com that there is a chance they could become exclusive again. For now, though, the source says Valderrama and Lovato are “extremely close friends” though “there’s always potential they could give a romantic relationship another try.” Guess it is possible to be friends with an ex, after all!

These celebrity exes are on good terms, and may end up back together. What are some reasons getting back together may actually work out?

Cupid's Advice:

Regardless what others may say, getting back with an ex is not always a bad idea. Sometimes time apart is what's needed to grow stronger. Cupid weighs in:

1. It's all on the table: If you're thinking about getting back together with an ex, the most important thing you must do is talk with each other. If there is any unfinished business or unresolved resentment, you must lay it all on the line. Once all the feelings are accounted for, be sure to set clear guidelines before jumping back in.

2. You've forgiven: Forgiveness isn't easy, but it is possible! Contrary to popular belief, forgiveness does not weaken your character: it shows you have the strength to accept the past, look beyond the mistakes, and move on. If you have come to terms with an ex who may have hurt you, but genuinely want to give them another chance, that shows a maturity toward both parties involved.

3. You're both in better headspaces: Break-ups usually happen because two people are unable to be on the same page. The time spent as a single person is pivotal in personal development. If you and your ex have given each other enough time and space apart, allowing each other to grow, then getting back together might be worth a shot. Though you already know each other, and the relationship is by no means "new," it is exciting to begin a new chapter and get to know each other's newfound headspaces.

We'll have to be on the look out!

These celebrity exes are either on good terms as friends or may be giving their relationship another try. What are some benefits to remaining friends with your ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes break-ups don't end badly, and in those times you may want to stay friends with your ex. Cupid has some advice on the benefits to staying friends with an ex:

1. They know you: If you guys end on a good note and stay cool with one another, then they can give you advice. The people we date get to know us in ways others don't. This comes in handy when it comes to your new relationship, because your ex can give you advice based on your past experiences and the fact that he indeed knows you in that way. Just make sure you are not dealing with a bitter or spiteful ex – you would not want to take the wrong advice.

2. You've got history: It's a shame to let all that history go to waste if you are both decent people that get along well after the break-up. Just because your romantic relationship didn't work out doesn't necessarily mean that a friendship won't work. You never know – maybe you were not compatible as lovers, but you make great friends, and the history can make the friendly bond stronger.

3. You get closure: Becoming friends with an ex can be a path into getting over them, but only as long as you're both ready and willing to actually be friends. If you're friends, then you obviously should have let go of any resentment between the both of you. The past is in the past, and now you've got a friendship. You didn't have to lose a good person just because it didn't work out.

Celebrity News: Would Jennifer Aniston Get Back Together With Brad Pitt?

By Jessica Gomez

Former celebrity couple Jennifer Aniston and Justin Theroux's split is raising a certain question: will celebrity exes Aniston and Brad Pitt be getting back together now that they're both single? According to UsMagazine.com, Aniston and Pitt will not be rekindling their celebrity relationship after all. "Jen wouldn't consider being with Brad in a romantic way," a friend of Aniston's said. "But there is always a spot in her heart for him." As for Pitt, a source said, "Brad is sad to hear about Jen's divorce. He only wishes the best for her. However, Brad hasn't reached out to Jen, and has no plans to do so at this point."

In this celebrity news, fans are speculating about Jennifer Aniston and Brad Pitt now that both have gone through splits. What are some things to consider before getting back together with an ex?

Cupid's Advice:

Whether or not to get back with an ex is an important decision. It isn't always an easy one either. Cupid has some things to consider before making the choice:

1. Have you both moved on from the reason you both broke up?:

Think about the reason why you both broke up in the first place. Was it for a good reason or was it circumstantial? Then, also think about whether you both have forgiven each other completely for past mistakes. If you have, then that can be a good sign – if not, then not so much. If you feel like you haven't forgiven your ex for something, then that problem will probably constantly arise during your reconciled relationship.

2. Do you see a future with your ex?: Why go back to an ex if you don't think it's going to be serious and no good future ahead? Think about this thoroughly – sometimes we see a future with someone, but that future comes with unnecessary obstacles and negativity. If this is the case, then it may be a sign that your ex is meant to stay an ex. Think about this while spending some time apart – it's something big to ponder.

3. What are reasons to get back together and not get back together?: Pro and con lists are good ones to make. Be fair and think about why you should get back together with your ex and why you shouldn't. Then, weigh it all. Certain things weigh more than others, so be honest and just with yourself when considering all the information. Making a list with a friend can help, as long as that friend isn't necessarily biased.

shoot down untrue rumors about your relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Sometimes rumors go around, and it can really suck. People handle untrue rumors differently, and it depends on the situation and the type of people involved. Cupid has some ideas on how to approach false rumors:

1. Be straightforward: Don't go around the bush. If you want to shoot down a rumor, being straight up is one of the best ways to go. Don't stay quiet and act like things are just fine. Just like Olivia Munn did publicly, face it head on and express yourself – shoot it down! Whether you're being upfront in person or otherwise, laying things down on the table is the simplest way to do it sometimes.

2. Don't show frustration: Do not allow others to see how much the rumors are affecting you because it can lead to the rumors escalating. Many times people make up rumors out of jealousy, boredom, attention, revenge, etc. Therefore, it's not a good idea to show that they're actually getting to you. Try to stay as calm as possible and handle the situation with grace.

3. Don't fight fire with fire: Handle things correctly. Don't let your emotions get the best of you because you need to think clearly. Think about what gives this rumor credibility, and tackle it from there. Find out where the rumor started and confront the source. Doing these things with a clear mentality is important because the situation can easily get out of hand when neither party is thinking straight.

1. Delete, delete, delete: In this digital age, we are connected to everyone digitally. Do yourself a favor and unfollow, delete, and/or even block your ex on all social media platforms. When you're trying to get over them, seeing their face plastered everywhere you turn. It really will help the healing process!

Celebrity News: Taylor Swift's Ex Turned Her Into 'Quasimodo,' According to BFF Todrick Hall

By Karley Kemble

Taylor Swift is infamous for being dramatic about her exes. If 2017 has shown us anything, it's that Swift is tired of being defined by the media. From winning a defining court case as a victim of sexual assault, to releasing her sixth album, Swift's past reputation is slowly, but surely being forgotten. In the latest celebrity news, one of Swift's closest friend Todrick Hall has revealed some vulnerable details about her most recent celebrity ex, reports EOnline.com. According to Hall, Swift would "hunch over" at the mere mention of her ex's name – so he edited a photo of her to look like Quasimodo and told her, "You cannot turn into Quasimodo for this guy. Every time you say his name, you hunch over." Though her most recent relationship ended with a break-up, Hall said that his bestie is happier than ever with her current beau, Joe Alwyn.

In celebrity news, even Taylor Swift fell victim to an unhealthy relationship. What are some ways to know you're in an unhealthy relationship?

Cupid's Advice:

Unhealthy relationships are emotionally draining, and it's best to end them before things worsen. If you think you might be in an unhealthy relationship, read these tips from Cupid:

1. They're too attached: Sure, it's normal to be a little clingy to your partner, but there is a line that must be drawn. Make sure you are aware of the differences between healthy attachment and emotional manipulation. Phrases like "I'll die if you ever break up with me" should never be taken lightly. Emotional manipulation is never, ever okay.

2. They constantly blame you: If your partner finds a way to spin every argument or disagreement you have and makes you feel like the bad guy, that is a telling sign of an unhealthy relationship. You are entitled to your feelings and opinions, and your partner should never invalidate you for being too sensitive or for overreacting. Beware of this if it arises.

3. You're changing for the wrong reasons: You and your partner should bring out the best in each other. Any changes you make in your life should always be because you want to – not because you think it's what your partner would want for you. It's cliché, but staying true to your core values is important, and you should never lose sight of that!

Celebrity News : A-Rod's

Intelligence is Questioned by Ex-Girlfriend Anne Wojcicki's Mom

By Rachel Sparks

The latest celebrity news is full of low insults and, interestingly, a sincere compliment. Alex Rodriguez has been under fire by celebrity ex Anne Wojcicki's mom who, in short, called him the dullest lightbulb in the box. According to UsMagazine.com, Wojcicki's mom stated that the only thing A-Rod knew how to talk about was baseball. That's not the impression you want to leave with your future in-laws. Wojcicki's mom did say that it was clearly evident A-Rod loved her daughter. Jennifer Lopez, now part of one of the hottest celebrity couples with A-Rod, complimented her beau by saying he can conquer anything. So, while you may not watch Big Bang Theory and debate particle theories, at the core, A-Rod is a great guy.

This celebrity news seems a little shallow to us. What are some ways to make a good impression on your partner's parents?

Cupid's Advice:

If you're trying to build a lasting relationship with your partner, impressing their family will need to be a priority eventually. It's intimidating. You're trying to tell the people who love your significant other more than anyone else that you're deserving. If your partner has close relationship to their parents, impressing them, or lack thereof, could be detrimental to future movement of your relationship. Read Cupid's relationship advice to help you put your best face on for that monumental meeting:

1. Act like it's an interview: because it is. Dress to impress, as they say. Turn off your cell phone, shake hands, stand with confidence and power, and follow common protocols for respect. Be on your best behavior and act like you're getting a job, because you are. Your partner's parents expect you to take care of their baby (no matter how old they are) so you're interviewing for the role of supportive partner.

2. Southern respect: "Sir" and "Ma'am" go a long way. Sure, major cities like New York and Seattle think these terms are out-dated, but they ultimately stand as a sign of respect.

Even though we're all adults, showing respect through the language you use sets the tone for how you're likely to treat their kid. Plus, you're impressing your S.O. when you treat their family with respect. Don't worry, you'll get rewarded afterwards.

Jennifer Garner Says She Is 'Not Interested in Dating'
After Split From Ben Affleck

By Rachel Sparks

Former celebrity couple Jennifer Garner and Ben Affleck have been apart for nearly two years, but these celebrity exes are setting a new standard for co-parenting and remaining amicable exes. Garner told UsMagazine.com that she and Affleck do have plans for a family Thanksgiving together. An insider told the magazine that Garner even helped Affleck get into a rehab center as his alcoholism took a spiral downward. The latest celebrity news is that despite, or maybe because of, the sincerity of their friendship, Garner has been on one date in the past two years since her celebrity divorce, but she's still not ready to start dating again.

In this celebrity news, it looks like Jennifer Garner's break-up from Ben Affleck is affecting her long-term. What are some ways to cope with a break-up so you can move on?

Cupid's Advice:

Accepting the loss of someone meaningful in your life is painful at best and near-impossible at worse. When you've been with someone for as long as Garner and Affleck were together, what does life look like without that person? Moving on is hard, but at some point you want to accept the change so that your life can move forward. Here's Cupid's relationship advice to get you through a break-up:

1. Burn, bury, block: Sounds harsh? Unless you and your ex have kids together, moving on means letting go. Do whatever it takes for you to cut those ties with your ex. Burn the love letters, bury the stuffed zebra your ex won at the carnival, and block any way that they can get in contact with you. Doing so doesn't mean you never loved them, it just means you love yourself enough to know you deserve happiness. Being stuck with the pain of a relationship at its end is not happiness.

Related Link: Dating Advice for Dealing with the break-Up Blues

2. Give happiness, get happiness: Have you ever been in a Starbucks line and been at the receiving end of pay it forward? Yeah, it's pretty great. It also feels good to know you've made someone's day better. We know it's hard when you're feeling down to even consider bringing joy to other people, but the proof in the facts is this: helping others creates fulfillment and happiness. If you don't feel like dealing with people, find a way to volunteer behind the scenes; you'll still reap the emotional rewards.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: Moving On After a Divorce

3. Focus on you: In a relationship, we often think about what the other person wants. Ever been asked where you wanted to eat and said, "What do you feel like?" Couples form a group identity, so being on your own is terrifying, but it can be exciting. Try something new, start a diet, exercise, start a new hobby, go to a concert of a band your ex hated...the list of things you can do alone is literally endless. Rock out the single status. Learning to enjoy time alone is attractive, but it also makes any future relationships that much more meaningful.
