1. You're friends: If the break-up is amicable and you think you can stay civil, call it friendship. Perhaps you were friends first and it's easy to fall back into old patterns. The break-up was a set back, but it didn't ruin everything between you two.

Celebrity News: Kylie Jenner & Kourtney Kardashian Hang with Rob's Ex

By Jessica DeRubbo

This celebrity news comes on the heels of Kylie's Instagram post picturing the three girls, with the caption, "Cause we are sistersss." This celebrity news comes amidst a lot of Rob Kardashian happenings lately. How do you know whether you can be friends with your family member's ex or not?

Cupid's Advice:

It's a dicey situation when it comes to your family and their exes. If you're on the fence about whether it's okay for you to keep a connection with your family member's ex, Cupid has some tips:

1. Time since the split: If it's been a long time since the break-up occurred, your family member has probably had plenty of a chance to cope. The best way to find out if that coping period is over is to simply ask. You probably know your family member well enough to detect if there's any hesitation in his or her answer whatsoever. If they seem okay about it, then go for it.

Related Link: Kendall and Kylie Jenner Make Celebrity Gossip Headlines Cozying Up to Chris Brown and Trey Songz at Party

2. The reason for the break-up: If the reason for the break-up is that the relationship simply ran its course and it was a mutual parting, you're probably more okay keeping contact with your family member's ex than if something horrific happened at the end of the relationship, like a cheating scandal. Definitely consider the facts before making a decision.

3. How “over it” your family member is: It’s not necessarily all about time. Your family member may have good reason to be completely and utterly over the relationship he or she was in. It may have only been a month, but your brother or sister has already moved on to greener pastures. If they’re over it, they shouldn’t have an issue with you continuing to remain friends with their ex.

Cupid's Advice:

Once you have lost trust, forgiveness is hard to give. However, sometimes finding in your heart a way to be compassionate is the right path to take. The inevitable mistakes that humans make should not always be punished with hatred. Cupid has a few reasons why forgiving an ex just might be the right move for you:

1. It allows you to release difficult emotions: Unless you acknowledge your irritable feelings of blame, guilt and anger then you will never be able to feel better. Forgiving does not mean forgetting and it also doesn't mean you have to let their actions slide. Forgiving does allow you to clear your mind and heal.

1. Change: Is it a good idea to get back into the same old relationship? If you both believe you have changed for the better and will work on what didn't work in the past, then give it another try. But if you still see the same person, then it will not work like you want it to.
